In this case the order of dismissal of Shri S. K. Chatterjee employed as the Head Factory Assistant is based on the charge-sheet, dated 5th January 1957 (Ext. 1), on a charge of disobedience of a lawful and reasonable order of the Garden Manager to supervise the garden work. The gist of the charge is that Shri Chatterjee did not carry out the orders of the Manager to that effect, but he flatly refused to do so and further he disobeyed the orders of the Directors Shri Nirmal Kumar Mukherjee and Shri Sudhir Kumar Biswas to do the garden works as ordered by them and by the Manager and he was called upon to submit his explanation within 7 days. This charge (Ext. 1) was followed by his reply (Ext. 2), dated 18th January 1957. His reply is that he did supervision work in the garden in the absence of the Head Garden Assistant on leave from 9th December 1956 to 14th December 1956, and on 15th December 1956 on return to duty of the Head Garden Assistant he asked for a written order as he, being in charge of the factory and solely responsible as he was for the stock of tea the stock-taking having not been then finished, dared not leave the factory without written order, and he denied having refused to carry out the order of the Directors or of the Manager, and thus according to him he was not guilty of any insubordination and disobedience. Admittedly, no enquiry followed. The Company justifies the order of dismissal on the strength of two other misconducts on the part of this workman as revealed in Ext. 1-A, dated 21st October 1955, regarding his refusal to take over the key of the factory and for having insulted the Manager on previous occasions as testified to by Ext. 6, dated 11th November 1955, for which he was warned, and for that he tendered apology as per Ext. 8. Ext. 1-A, dated 21st October 19[illegible], relates to the charge of the workman's refusing to carry out the order of the Manager when he was asked on 20th July 1955 to keep the keys of the factory in his custody. This charge-sheet (Ext. 1A) was followed by his explanation (Ext. 2A), dated 21st October 1951, wherein he denied the charge of insubordination, and had further stated that he had no objection to keeping the key with him provided the authority made an "on the spot" enquiry ensuring sufficient protection to him. Thus the instant charge-sheet (Ext. 1) having been preceded by two other instances of his refusal to take over the charge of the key of the factory and of having offered an insult to the Manager which was followed by an expression of apology, the Company seeks to justify the instant order of dismissal.

As against this, the case of the Union is that there was nothing wrong in the workman's insisting on a written order from the Manager asking him to supervise the works in the garden which do not come within his normal duties as Head Factory Babu. This contention is sought to be further supported by the argument that the factory was in a very insecure condition, and that there were previous cases of thefts resulting in imposition of fine on the garden by the Central Government, which in fact was the dread of the workman actuating him to ask for a written order. Otherwise, he had no reasonable complaint or the least hesitation to carry out the supervision work in the garden which took him away from his duty post in the factory. Having regard to the evidence on record—both oral and documentary—I am unable to uphold the plea of the Union that the real pinch in the order lay in the insecure condition of the factory and his being withdrawn from his duty post. But it has been rightly contended on behalf of the Company that the real defect rather lay in the temper of the workman concerned as revealed in the present instance. If the real reason for his refusal to carry out the order lay in the absence of a written order, he might have refused to carry it out on 9th December 1956 when he was first asked to do the work of supervision in the garden in the absence of the Head Garden Babu. After having carried out this order for a good number of days it is rationally inexplicable as to how it suddenly struck him to demand a written order on 15th December 1956 immediately on return of the Head Garden Babu to duty. The explanation as offered on behalf of the Union is that there was no ground or reason for continuing supervising the garden work as soon as the Head Garden Babu returned to duty, because it is absurd that this workman, as the Head Factory Babu as he was, would continue to carry on the work of supervision in the garden notwithstanding the presence of the Head Garden Babu, whose primary duty it is to supervise the works of the garden. In reply, it is stated on behalf of the Company that there was the Second Factory Babu who in that season, when there was practically not much work to do in the factory, might easily cope with the little work in the factory, and this workman was rightly entrusted with the supervision over works of 500 coolies who were then idle without any work, as the plucking was completed by November 1955, admittedly by a special order of Government. It is common ground that plucking ordinarily goes over to the month of December every year, but 1955 was a special year in which the management had no alternative but to depute the instant workman to do some works of supervision in the garden in the special circumstances of that year. Distribution of duties to its staff is the management function, pure and simple. If in the particular exigency of circumstances of that year the management thought it fit to depute temporarily this workman to do some works of supervision in the garden, not strictly coming within the course of his duties, I think, the Court will not be justified in stigmatising the order of the Management as unauthorised and unjustified. As a rule, a workman must first obey the order even though in his opinion it is prima facie technically illegal or unreasonable and then protest about its illegality in a separate proceeding. On the contrary, if a workman is made the judge to decide legality or illegality, reasonableness or otherwise of every order and to disobey an order if he thinks it is not legal or reasonable, it would be simply impossible for the management to control the workmen and to maintain order and discipline in the management. I think, I shall not be justified in upholding disobedience of an order merely because the order is technically not supportable. Furthermore, it may be pointed out that the real grievance of the workman did not lie in the absence of a written order as would be apparent from the evidence of the Director Shri Nirmal Kumar Mukherjee who has deposed that on 15th December 1956 this workman bluntly refused to carry out the order of the management and challenged it to do whatever it could, and he did not insist on a written order. If the absence of a written order were the real reason, he might have made an application stating that as his real reason for his inability to carry out the orders, but this he did not do. The only reasonable course for this workman was to carry out this order, as he did for a number of days from 9th December 1956 to 14th December 1956 and to continue doing it, and then to submit an application asking for a written order, If he had done so, the Company would have been under an obligation to pass a written order on his application, and if in spite of that the Company refused to pass a written order then, of course, blame would have attached to the Company, and the sinister motive, if any, on the part of the Company would have come to light. The one other matter that seems to be pertinent in this connection is that if the condition of the factory was really insecure, it was up to the workman to submit a report to the management requesting it to take further precautions for keeping adequate guard over the factory to prevent further cases of theft in future. It is in the evidence of the Secretary to the Duars Union Tea Co. (C.W. 2) that there was Night Chowkidar in the garden, and so the workman had no justification for entertaining fear on that score. It is laid down at page 39 in Gayler's Industrial Law (published by the English University Press) as follows:—

"An employee must obey all lawful orders given him by his employer. Whether an order is lawful or not depends upon whether the terms of the contract enable the employer to give such an order, and secondly in the absence of any express provision upon the character of the employment..... In some cases it may be a very difficult question to decide whether an employer may properly call upon a worker to carry out a particular task. In some industries, trade unions are able effectively to demarcate jobs, and the problem may therefore not arise."

But in the instant case, the duties of the workman are not clearly demarcated so as to enable the Court to say that the order given is illegal or unreasonable. It may be stated in this connection that the union raised no plea about the custody of the key to the factory, though much was sought to be made out of it during argument. The learned Advocate on behalf of the Union has challenged the order of dismissal as mala fide and as an instance of unfair labour practice, but having regard to the evidence on record which enables the Court to hold an independent enquiry in this case, I am unable to see eye to eye with him. This Court is not sitting as a Court of appeal, and does not think it fit to disturb the orders of the management as the same are not vitiated by mala fides nor prompted by unfair labour practice, etc. In this connection, the latest case law on the subject in the case of G. C. McKenzie & Co., and its workmen reported in 1959 L.L.J. Vol. 1, page 285, may be usefully quoted thus:—

"The principles which govern the power of an Industrial Tribunal to interfere with the decision of the employer following an enquiry made by him have been laid down by the Supreme Court in 1958 1 L.L.J. 260 in the following words:—

'Undoubtedly, the management of a concern has power to direct its own internal administration and discipline; but the power is not unlimited and when a dispute arises, industrial tribunals have been given the power to see whether the termination of service of a workman is justified and to give appropriate relief. In cases of dismissal on misconduct, the Tribunal does not however, act as a Court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the management. It will interfere—

(i) when there is want of good faith,

(ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,

(iii) when the management has been guilty of a basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice, and

(iv) when on the materials the finding is completely baseless or perverse.'

It is for the management to determine what constitutes major misconduct within its standing orders sufficient to merit dismissal of a workman, but in determining such misconduct it must have facts upon which to base its conclusions and it must act in good faith without caprice or discrimination and without motives of vindictiveness, intimidation or resorting to unfair labour practice and there must be no infraction of the accepted rules of natural justice. When the management does have facts from which it can conclude misconduct, its judgment cannot be questioned provided the abovementioned principles are not violated. But in the absence of these facts or in case of violation of the principles set out above, its position is untenable.

In the absence of any of the vitiating circumstances mentioned above, it would not be open to the Industrial Tribunal (in the instant case by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in appeal) to disbelieve the evidence of a witness examined at the domestic enquiry and come to a different conclusion on merits."

In the instant case, I find none of the 4 vitiating elements present to vitiate the orders of dismissal. In this case, it has been very emphatically argued by the learned Advocate for the Union that no enquiry was held and so principles of natural justice were violated. The workman was charge-sheeted and he submitted his explanation and as he in the face of the Directors at their meeting on 15th December 1956 refused to carry out the orders, I think, no further useful purpose would have been served by holding an enquiry. The evidence of Shri Bhadra (C.W. 2), the Secretary to Duars Union Tea Co. Ltd., is that the duties of the Garden Supervisor and Factory Babu are interchangeable as the Manager thinks fit and he passes verbal orders in that respect, and I have no reason to disbelieve him. This order he bluntly refused to carry out, and that being so, there remained nothing else to enquiry into, but nonetheless the Court is entitled to hold an enquiry which has been done in this case, and I have no reason for not accepting the finding of "guilty", but having regard to the workman's more than 7 years' service in this Company, I consider it fit to convert the order of dismissal into one of discharge and grant him compensation for loss of his service. The learned Advocate on behalf of the Company has also conceded that he has got no objection to the order of dismissal being converted into an order of discharge. In view of the previous misconducts and apology offered by the workman, the termination of the employment of the workman cannot be interefered with. I think, this workman may be granted his 7 months' wages as adequate compensation for his loss of service. It is, therefore, found that the Company was justified in terminating the service of this workman, but the Court converts the order of dismissal into one of discharge and also awards him his full 7 months' wages. The Company is directed to pay the workman his 7 months' wages as compensation within a month of the publication of this award

This is my award.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 443-I.R./IR/9L-4/58, dated 6th February 1958, and subsequent corrigendum No. 4115-I.R./IR/9L-4/58, dated 29th September 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Deomoni Kristopur Tea Estate, P.O. Matigara, Darjeeling (Proprietor—Messrs. New Darjeeling Union Tea Company Ltd., P.O. Siliguri, Darjeeling), and one of their workmen Shri Durgadas Biswas, represented by the Terai Cha-Bagan Karmi Sangha, P.O. Bagdogra, Darjeeling, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Whether the order of transfer of Shri Durgadas Biswas from the Deomoni Kristopur Tea Estate to the head office of the New Darjeeling Union Tea Co. Ltd., and subsequent refusal of permission to him to join the head office are justified? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD

This is a dispute arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified transfer of Shri Durgadas Biswas from the Deomoni Kristopur Tea Estate to the head office of the New Darjeeling Union Tea Company Ltd., and subsequent refusal of permission to him to join the head office. Deomoni Kristopur Tea Estate is hereinafter described as the Tea Estate for the sake of brevity.

The Union's case in brief is that the Tea Estate treated this workman very unfairly, and degraded him unjustifiably from the post of first clerk which is similar to that of a Head Clerk in any other garden by transferring him as a head office employee in the New Darjeeling Union Tea Company Ltd., resulting in reduction of his salary and subsequently refusing him to join the head office, and in so doing the Tea Estate was actuated by mala fide motives and unfair labour practice. The Union, therefore, seeks to set aside the order of transfer with other consequential reliefs.

The Tea Estate, on the other hand, denies the material allegations in the written statement of the Union, and contends that the Tea Estate was fully justified in transferring him to the head office of New Darjeeling Union Tea Company Ltd and allowing him to draw such remuneration and emoluments as were available to him having regard to his knowledge and efficiency. The Tea Estate further contends that this is purely a management function and the Court cannot interfere. The Tea Estate, therefore, resists the prayer of the Union.

Decision

This case went on in its usual course and 25th September 1959 was fixed as the date of hearing. On 21st September 1959 both parties put in a joint petition of compromise settling the dispute amicably amongst themselves. The terms of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable and lawful, and may be given effect to. It appears that the workman was paid Rs. 850 in full settlement of all his claims against the Tea Estate and accordingly he would not press the dispute. The dispute may, therefore, be treated as settled in terms of the petition of compromise which do form a part of the award.

This is my award.

AWARD

Decision

At the outset, it is to be observed that the Union has stated in its petition, dated 28th September 1959, that it will not press issue No. 2; so the facts relating to this particular issue as stated in the written statement of the parties need not be recounted and it is to be decided in favour of the Company.

Issue No. 1: Regarding this issue, the relevant facts which are disputed by neither party are: This issue involves 210 of the monthly paid staff of the Company covered by different graded system of pay. This system was introduced by an office order of the Company, being order No. 70, dated 29th January 1946. By this order, the clerical staff of the Company were divided into seven classes, namely A to G; the supervisory staff and draftsmen were divided into eight classes being Nos. 1 to 8. Different grades of pay were fixed for these different classes of staff which were mentioned in an annexure to the said order No. 70, the body of which comprised 13 clauses whereby the rules and conditions as to how and when increment was to be granted or when promotions were to be made were laid down. This annexure underwent modifications from time to time and it was modified last on 14th January 1952, though the rules in the body of the said order No. 70 remained unaltered. It is common ground that the present dispute regarding increment for the year 1958 is to be determined in the light of the said order No. 70 read with the annexure as amended on 14th January 1952, though the said office order with the annexure remained suspended for a period of one year from 1st of April 1948 due to the operation of an award passed by a Major Engineering Tribunal.

It appears from the abstract of increment granted in 1958 (Ext. G) filed by the Company and approved by the Union that the total number of staff covered by the graded system of pay is 210; but out of them only 147 have been granted increment in the year 1958. For the sake of convenience the relevant portion of Ext. G is quoted below in extenso:—

Total number of staff covered by graded system of pay—210".

This state of things has given rise to the dispute as summarised in the aforesaid issue No. 1. The Union's case regarding this issue is that annual increment flows automatically from the said office order No. 70 and increment must be given to all the workmen covered thereby with effect from 1st January 1958 according to the scale laid down in the annexure to the said order as revised in 1952; the Company acted illegally and arbitrarily in refusing increment altogether to a large number of workmen, and also in granting increment to the rest at different times of the year with effect from different dates, and in some cases, at rates lesser than what they are entitled to according to this scale. The Union's demand is that all the workmen should be given increment for the year 1958 with effect from the 1st day of the year according to the stage in the said scales.

In support of this contention the Union asserts that up to the year 1957 the Company had granted annual increment to the monthly paid staff (though some members of the staff were not granted any increment in some years); that every year the increment was given effect to from the 1st day of the year; that whenever increment was granted the amount of increment was in no case less than the amount which the workman was to get according to the stage of the scale in which he was included and that to some workers increments were allowed in excess of the amount of increment they were to get according to the scale and such excess was always a multiple of the amount of annual increment. These facts are admitted on behalf of the Company (vide order No. 13, dated 28th September 1959).

It is contended on behalf of the Company that the granting of increment cannot be claimed by the Union automatically as a matter of right, in view of the conditions imposed by the aforesaid office order No. 70 and that the granting of increment annually and that too from the 1st day of each year is not a condition of service of the workmen.

The question whether the annual increment is to be automatically granted by the Company or whether it is a condition of service of the workmen does not arise for decision in view of the issue No. 1 as framed and of the facts relating thereto. Also it has been decided by a Labour Appellate Tribunal in a previous dispute between the present parties [vide Staff Association of Britannia Engineering Co. Ltd. versus Britannia Engineering Co. Ltd., reported in 1954 L.A.C. (1), page 218] that in accordance with the said office order No. 70 which still governs the rules of service, the workmen can neither claim automatic increment within the grades, nor claim the right of promotion from one grade to the higher, and after the maximum of former grade had been reached. The question of automatic promotion from one grade to the higher is not at all involved in the present dispute; but in view of the aforesaid decision of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal, it is to be held that the workmen cannot claim automatic increment within the grades. This previous decision as well as the facts of the instant case stated above lifts the question of the workmen's right to automatic annual increment as a condition of service, out of the scope of the present adjudication.

However, the question, whether the terms and conditions of the aforesaid office order No. 70 entitled the Company to refuse increment to some workmen and to grant increment to the rest in different instalments and with effect from different dates in a particular year, is not taken out of the scope of the present adjudication in view of the issue No. 1 aforesaid as framed by Government. The aforesaid decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal is relied on by the learned representative of the Company and he argues that this question also cannot be agitated now by the Union and decided by this Tribunal. In order to come to a correct finding on this point the relevant clauses of the said office order No. 70 as well as the facts of the previous dispute decided by the said Labour Appellate Tribunal are to be recounted.

The relevant provisions of the order No. 70 are:—

* * * * *

"3. It is to be clearly understood that there is no precedent for assuming that increments in salary will be granted each year. Increments cannot be granted except with the sanction of the Directors. The Directors hope that it may be possible for them to continue the sanction of annual increments, but can only do so should business and other circumstances permit.

4. Each grade will carry a minimum (starting salary) and a maximum salary for the post, with a fixed yearly increment when sanctioned by the Directors, which will be given only on the recommendation of the Works Manager in the case of Works Staff and Draughtsmen; and the Secretary to the Works in the case of General Office Staff."

This rule indicates (1) that increments are to be granted with the sanction of the Directors who expect to continue the sanction of annual increment provided the business and other circumstances permit; (2) that increment will be given only on the recommendations of the Works Manager in the case of Works Staff and Draughtsmen, and, of the Secretary of the Works in the case of general office staff.

That the Directors were satisfied in view of the business and other circumstances that increment could be granted to the staff for the year 1958 is undoubtedly obvious from the fact that they granted increment to 147 workers (out of 210) for the said year. It is not the Company's case that the business and other circumstances of the Company permitted increment only to 147 persons and that too from different dates between 15th January 1958 and 1st November 1958. In the absence of any evidence to the contrary on the side of the Company it must be held that the business and other circumstances permitted granting of annual increment to all the workmen and that too with effect from 1st January 1958; and in view of this finding of fact, the question arises whether the Directors of the Company was justified (a) in allowing increments to 147 persons with effect from different dates as aforesaid and (b) in refusing increment to the rest.

So far as the point (a) is concerned, there is nothing in the aforequoted clauses 3 and 4 of order No. 17 authorising the Directors to grant increment to the staff by instalments with effect from different dates. On the contrary, these clauses show that if the Directors once sanction increment, that must be "annual" increment. In the past such annual increment had all along been given effect to from 1st day of the year and there is no reason why such increment whenever sanctioned shall not be given effect from the 1st day of the particular year. So it is decided that the 147 workmen to whom the Directors have granted increments should get their increment for the particular year, i.e., 1958, with effect from 1st January 1958, and such increment should be the amount of yearly increment as laid down in the revised annexure of 1952 to the said order No. 70, or a multiplle thereof in case of such workers (if any) as has been considered by the Directors to get an amount of increment in excess of the prescribed amount of annual increment. The Company is to pay to these workmen their arrears of wages on account of the increment as decided above.

Point (b): On a perusal of clauses 3 and 4 of order No. 70 as quoted above, it will appear that the Directors are not authorised to make any discrimination between workers and workers when they are to take a decision whether increment is to be granted for a particular year or not. So far as the year in question, i.e., 1958, is concerned, it is to be presumed that the Directors made up their mind to sanction increment in view of the business and other circumstances of the Company. They must have found that the business and other circumstances permitted the granting of increment to the entire body of the workers and that too for the whole year. Necessarily all the workmen were to be granted increment without discrimination save and except those who were not recommended by the Works Manager or by the Secretary to the Works as laid down in clause 4 of order No. 70. It is not possible for a particular workman to know or to prove what recommendation his boss, namely the Works Manager or the Secretary to the Works, whoever he may be, has made regarding his increment; so when a workman or a number of workmen challenges or challenge the propriety of the Directors' refusal to grant increment to him or them, the Company is to prove that he or they was or were not recommended by one or other of the said bosses for increment; for, the said reports of the aforesaid bosses must be presumed to have been made confidentially to the Management, and whether these were favourable or adverse to the workers, is within their special knowledge. As the Company has not proved the same, the conclusion must be that these are not adverse to the workmen concerned. So, it is to be held that these 63 workmen who have not been granted increment are also entitled to get the same for the year 1958 similarly as the other 147 workmen with effect from 1st January 1958, and the Company is to pay them the arrears on account of such increment.

It may be observed here that the relevant provisions of the said order No. 70 does not vest, as contended on behalf of the Company, almost a totalitarian authority in the Directors to grant or to refuse increment to the staff or to fix arbitrarily the date of commencement of increment when granted. Even if the action of the Directors, which is in dispute now, could be justified on the basis of the provisions of the said order No. 70, it would be liable to be interfered with by this or any other Tribunal, as it would have offended against the principles of justice, equity and good conscience. The Industrial Disputes Act is not exhaustive in respect of the matters it purports to deal with. So, the Courts or Tribunals constituted under the Act, which have an inherent right to apply the principles of justice, equity and good conscience whenever any occasion arises, are to be the more wary against the violation of the same. So, the action of the Directors as has been evidenced in the instant case regarding the matter of increment for the year 1958 cannot be supported as it palpably offends against the said principles, and, as it is most likely to give them a free hand in adopting unfair labour practice and taking recourse to victimisation or favouritism.

One would not be wrong if one is inclined to hold that some such thing may have motivated the Directors to act as they have done in the instant case. For, when one attempts to analyse their action one is faced with these problems. At what point of time did the Directors exercise the option given to them by the said office order No. 70 to grant increment to the staff? Did they make the decision by instalment on different dates and come to the conclusion that the circumstances of the Company admitted of granting increments to different number of workers from different dates? Or, did they decide once and for all that increment could be granted to all the staff from a particular date? Did they thereafter pick and choose as to which of the workmen was to be granted increment and from which date? All these questions are baffling and one may hazard the suggestion that even the Directors themselves would not be able to answer the same. Evidently, they have not been authorised by the said order No. 70 to act as they have done. They have acted against the express provisions as well as the spirit of the same. So, this Tribunal has ample jurisdiction to set the matter right. One is inclined to think that, in granting the increment to the 147 workmen as evidenced by Ext. G, with effect from different dates and in refusing increment to 63 men, the Directors appear to have acted somewhat like mad, and it is regrettable to observe that, though in madness generally some method can be detected, in the instant case, the madness exhibited is altogether unmethodical.

Now, it is to be seen whether the action of the Directors which is not warranted by any of the relevant provisions of order No. 70 can be supported in view of the aforesaid decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal. In that decision, only 46 workmen were involved out of whom 11 workmen were refused increment in the year 1952 and the promotions of the remaining 35 to the next higher grades were stopped. A perusal of the judgment shows that the 11 workmen to whom increment was refused had not been recommended by their bosses for the purpose of increment and so it was held by the said Labour Appellate Tribunal that in view of the relevant provisions of order No. 70 the workmen could neither claim automatic increment nor claim a right of promotion from one grade to the higher. In the instant case the question of promotion is not involved but so far as the refusal of increment to 63 workmen is concerned the Directors were not justified in refusing increment to them as there is no evidence that their bosses had not recommended them for increment and hence the said decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal is of no avail to the Company.

As a result, it is awarded that all the 210 workmen will get increment for the year 1958 with effect from 1st January 1958 within the grades and such increment should be the amount of yearly increment as laid down in the latest revised annexure to order No. 70 or a multiple thereof, provided that a workman who has reached the maximum of his grade before 1st January 1958 will not get any increment whatsoever. The Company will have to pay the arrears of increment to such of the workmen as will be entitled to it by virtue of this award.

Issue No. 3: The relevant facts regarding this issue are: Shri Purna Chandra Dey, a draftsman of the Compapny, was deputed to North Bengal for survey work in some Tea Gardens there along with another workman. Shri Dey had stayed in North Bengal for about three months, sometime in May, June and July 1956. It is contended on his behalf that he is entitled to get 6 months' wages as bonus for his stay in North Bengal as he was deputed there on special duty while his normal place of work is at Calcutta.

The Company's case regarding this issue is that Shri Dey is not entitled to the bonus claimed because there was no such condition when he was deputed to North Bengal. The Company paid his travelling charges as well as for his food and boarding and all incidental expenses; further the Company paid him Rs. 100 for purchase of dress. He was also paid overtime wages. Further the survey work was not done properly by him; so, the question of payment of any bonus to him does not arise. Yet the Company as a gesture of goodwill made an ex-gratia payment of Rs. 25 to him. As such, his claim for bonus is altogether untenable

There is no evidence on the side of the Union to show that the Company agreed to pay Shri Dey the amount of bonus as claimed by him for his deputation to North Bengal. The only relevant evidence on this point is an office note of the Company (Ext. C) whereby it was proposed that Shri Dey and the other workman who accompanied him would be given a "special bonus" on completion of their work. It is to be observed that the amount of the rate of the special bonus intended to be paid was not specified in the said note (Ext. C). In a letter (Ext. C4), dated 31st March 1958, written by the Commercial Manager of the Company to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, West Bengal, it was alleged that the work done by Shri Dey in North Bengal was of no avail and it had not been properly done by him. It is to be observed that this letter was written and the said allegation was made long after Shri Dey had returned from North Bengal; in the meantime, the question of payment of compensatory allowance to Shri Dey for his stay in North Bengal was discussed in the meeting of the Works Committee held on 25th October 1957. Shri P. K. Misra, the Commercial Manager of the Company, who was the Chairman of the meeting, assured that the matter would be considered. It is apparent that the matter was not considered properly by the Company; if that had been done, and if the management had found the work of Shri Dey in North Bengal unsatisfactory as alleged in the letter (Ext. C4), that would have been timely intimated to Shri Dey himself. It is to be noted that in a letter (Ext. C5), dated 29th April 1958, which the Secretary of the Union wrote to the Assistant Labour Commissioner in answer to Company's letter (Ext. C4), such a plea was actually taken and the Company's allegations regarding the alleged unsatisfactory nature of Shri Dey's work was denied. So it is to be held that the allegation of the Company regarding Shri Dey's work is not well founded and is a too belated after-thought and the bonus promised as evidenced by the office note (Ext. C) could not be denied on the strength of the said allegation. The management of the Company also seemed to have not been very sure of the stand taken by them, and so they paid Rs. 25 to Shri Dey on account of the special bonus promised in Ext. C.

Now, the whole thing boils down to this: The Company agreed to pay special bonus to Shri Dey for his deputation to North Bengal; Shri Dey worked there for three months; the allegation of the Company that the work was not satisfactory is belated and not well founded; so Shri Dey is entitled to the promised special bonus. Then the question arises whether the amount of Rs. 25 paid by the Company is adequate. The question is to be answered in the negative in view of the fact that Shri Dey worked in North Bengal for three months; his base wage at that time seems to have been Rs. 156 per month in view of paragraph 19(a) of the written statement filed by the Union and from Annexure D to order No. 70 (vide Ext. B) So the sum of Rs. 25 granted to him as special bonus by the Company seems to be ludicrously small and to have been paid to him as a matter of alms-giving which, in fact, it is not; because in view of Ext. C Shri Dey is entitled to get a special bonus. Apparently, the special bonus was promised in view of the fact that Shri Dey was deputed to North Bengal which was not his ordinary place of work and it goes without saying that when a man is sent on official duty to some other place away from his home and normal place of work he had to experience some difficulties and discomforts and this was the reason perhaps why the Company agreed to pay special bonus. In view of all the facts and circumstances and also in view of the fact that the Company had paid all the incidental charges for food and boarding while he was there, it is held that a sum of Rs. 150 will be adequate compensation for the entire period of Shri Dey's deputation to and stay in North Bengal The Company has paid him Rs. 25. It is to pay him the remainder of Rs. 125.

Summary

Issue No. 1: All the monthly paid workmen of the Company are to be given increment for 1958 according to their respective scales; such increment for the year 1958 will be with effect from 1st January 1958; but, the workmen who have reached the maximum of their scales in 1957 will not be entitled to any increment for 1958. The amount of increment shall be the amount of annual increment as prescribed in annexure D, dated the 11th January 1952 to Company's office order No. 70 of 1946 or a multiple thereof. The arrears on account of the aforesaid increment are to be paid to the workmen entitled thereto by virtue of this award within thirty days of the date of the publication of this award.

Issue No. 2: The Company was justified in demoting Shri Sarat Kumar Neogy as an hourly rated worker and he is not entitled to any redress.

Issue No. 3: Shri Dey is entitled to Rs. 150 (Rupees one hundred and fifty only) as special bonus in consideration of his work in North Bengal Tea Garden. The Company has already paid him Rs. 25, the balance of Rs. 125 to be paid within thirty days of the publication of this award.

This is the award of the Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the epartment of Labour, by order No. 2736-I.R./ R/9L-26/57, dated 3rd July 1958, referred nder sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes ct, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute etween Messrs. Matidhar Tea Estate, P.O. amalabagan, Darjeeling and one of their workmen Shri Narendra Nath Das represented by the Hindusthan Tea Workers' Union, Matidhar Tea Estate, P.O. Kamalabagan, Darjeeling, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the ct, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Whether Shri Narendra Nath Das should be permanently absorbed in the factory of the Matidrar Tea Estate? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified non-absorption of Shri Narendra Nath as in the permanent cadre by Messrs. Matidhar Tea Estate, P.O. Kamalabagan, Darjeeling, hereinafter referred to as the Tea Estate for the sake of brevity.

The Union's statement in brief is as follows:—

Shri Narendra Nath Das, the workman concerned in this case has been employed in this Tea Estate since 5th May 1954 when he was recruited as an apprentice on an allowance of Rs. 50 per month. In March 1955 he was promoted to the rank of Probationer on a pay of Rs. 85 per month, and from March 1955 onwards he was working as Third Factory Assistant and Second Factory Assistant and has independently taken charge of a shift. Since March 1955 the workman was pressing for confirmation, but his cries went unheard. The garden should have at least 4 Factory Assistants, but in fact there were 3. The First Factory Assistant—Shri M. N. Roy—was raised to the post of Assistant Manager in 1957, and the Second Factory Assistant—Shri P. K. Biswas—to the post of First Factory Assistant, and the posts of Second and Third Factory Assistants consequently are vacant. The Tea Estate refused to confirm Shri Naren Das because of his active trade unionism, though he has worked all along satisfactorily and his record of service is absolutely spotless. The Union, therefore, seeks absorption of the workman Shri Narendra Nath Das as a confirmed employee, i.e., as a Factory Assistant with all benefits and amenities admissible to him with effect from May or August 1955.

The Tea Estate, on the other hand, denies the material allegations in the written statement of the Union and contends that Shri Narendra Nath Das who read up to Class IX of a High English School was taken in merely as an apprentice on 5th May 1954 by the then Manager Shri P. K. Das, who was his brother-in-law with the clear understanding that he would have to seek employment elsewhere on completion of his training. No letter of appointment was issued to the workman. His wages were raised to Rs. 85 per month according to the recommendations of the Advisory Board appointed under section 7 of the Minimum Wages Act, and not in appreciation of his good work as alleged by him. The Tea Estate was not at all satisfied with the quality of his work and his conduct with the labour force. The Management attached him to the factory where also he proved a failure. The Management thereupon called for confidential reports about his efficiency, merit and ability to deal with the labour force early in November 1957, but as the reports were adverse he could not be absorbed. Furthermore, this workman instigated about 400 labourers armed with deadly weapons in front of the office on 29th November 1957 at about 10-30 a.m. which ultimately led to a criminal case ending in his conviction under sections 148 and 448 of the I.P.C., and he was fined Rs. 150 and was also required to execute a bond to be of good behaviour for a year. The Management, therefore, cumulatively contends that his overall work, efficiency and conduct do not entitle him to permanent absorption in the garden, and the Management was perfectly justified in not absorbing him permanently.

Decision

The only point referred to in this case is whether Shri Narendra Nath Das should be permanently absorbed in the factory of the Tea Estate and to what relief he is entitled? There is no dispute in this case that this workman was initially employed as an apprentice on a pay of Rs. 50 per month on 5th May 1954, and that at about the same time another person Shri Malay Sarkar was also taken in the office on a pay of Rs. 50 per month. It is also undisputed that this Malay Sarkar has since been confirmed in 1957. There is also no dispute that originally no letter of appointment was given to either of these two newly employed workmen. It may also be stated at this stage that during the commencement of his service, his own sister's husband Shri P. K. Das who was then the Manager has since left the garden in April 1956. During the tenure of office of Shri P. K. Das, the then Manager, there was no whisper about his bad work, efficiency, lack of merit or inability to deal with the labour force, nor was he confirmed though he worked for about two years during his Managership. Seeing that Malay Sarkar was confirmed whereas he was not, he started making representation (Ext. 1, dated 19th April 1957), for his confirmation, but that being not to any effect he issued a reminder (Ext. 1A), dated 18th June 1957. Then he obtained a reply from the Management (Ext. 3), dated 14th May 1957, advising him to work hard in order to prove efficient. Then the workman addressed another letter, dated 10th May 1957 (Ext. 2), which evoked no reply. Then the workman represented the matter to the Management through the Hindusthan Tea Workers' Union which has espoused his cause in this case, but that also proved unavailing. The contention of the workman is that he was victimised for his active trade unionism as he was Assistant Secretary to the Union. Next, the evidence is that the workman was described as a probationer in the Attendance Register, and the Manager Shri Nirapada Chowdhury (C.W. 1) wrote two letters, dated 5th November 1957 (Ext. B and B-1) to Shri P. K. Biswas and Shri M. N. Roy asking for confidential reports about Naren Das's efficiency, merit and ability, and in reply it was communicated to the Management by Shri P. K. Biswas in substance that his work was not satisfactory. But one of them Shri M. N. Roy stated in his confidential report that Shri Das's dealing with the labour is not on the whole bad, but the report of Shri P. K. Biswas was wholly adverse to him in all respects. The Tea Estate relies on these two adverse reports coupled with the alleged criminal offence in November 1957 committed by him in leading a disorderly riotous mob into the office and creating disturbance, and contends that it is justified in not confirming him.

With the background as stated above, the point boils down to this that since the commencement of his service early in May 1954 till the end of October 1957, there was no adverse report against him, nor was there any charge for omission and commission or misconduct levelled against him, nor was there any enquiry held. Neither he was ever warned nor reprimanded. It is in evidence that this workman was working normally. May not be his work of a superior type, but there is nothing before the Court to indicate that his wor was below the normal standard or his conduct wa unsatisfactory. The wind obviously blew th other way about as soon as his brother-in-la Shri P. K. Das left the garden and the Tea Estat took it into its head to get rid of this workma who was a brother-in-law of Shri P. K. Das wh had already left the garden, and there was criminal case against him along with others fo defalcation of money. It is also in evidence (vid Ext. 4) that the workman Shri Naren Das wa placed in charge of a shift, and he was als maintaining Registers, e.g., R.G. 1, E.B. 1\ Drier Record, Weighment Register, etc., and h also attended to the Sub-Inspector of Centra Excise and Land Customs, Shri Sashi Sekha Pramanik (C.W. 1), who deposed in this case On behalf of the Tea Estate, certain clerica mistakes of Shri Das have been pointed out i R.G. 1, but the Union similarly pointed out a fe mistakes that were committed as well by Shr P. K. Biswas, Factory Assistant. To tel honestly, such mistakes in figures are of a mino nature, and may possibly be committed by an one—either a learner, apprentice, probationer o a permanent worker. These nominal mistakes i figures cannot be urged as sufficient grounds fo denying the workman absorption in the permanen cadre. During his examination in Court, th workman has given ample proof that he ha acquired a sufficient amount of knowledge an experience which may ordinarily be expected o a probationer who has put in about 2 to 3 years service in the garden. The Assistant Manage Shri Parimal Chowdhury (C.W. 4) has tried t convince the Court that the knowledge an experience acquired by Naren Das during hi tenure of office cannot be deemed as sufficient fo the purpose of his confirmation, but his evidenc (Parimal Chowdhury C.W. 4) is not convincin enough.

Now I take up the status of this workman wit reference to the Standing Orders. It is undis puted that at the time of his commencement o service in the Tea Estate, this garden was witha the territorial jurisdiction of Bihar, and subse quently by Transfer of Territories Act, th territory occupied by this garden has been trans ferred to the State of West Bengal about the on of November 1956. Thus the fact remains tha while this workman was taken in, he was taken in as a learner under the Standing Orders (Ext A) then in force in Behar. From this standing orders (Ext. A) it appears that this workma was classed under section 2(d) of the said stand ing orders, i.e., as learner and its definition i that a learner is a worker who is employed o probation by the Manager and who may be paid nominal wage during the period of his training He may be either a permanent or an outside worker. As already stated, he was being paid Rs. 50 per mensem since his initial employment till March 1955 when his wages were raised to Rs. 85 per month, and in the meantime he had been made a probationer. The Tea Estate als produced a "Bihar Extraordinary Gazette", date August 30, 1952 wherein the pay of a clerk shown as Rs. 85 per month including cost of livin allowance. Then with the transfer of the territor to West Bengal in 1956, the tea garden came t be governed by the Standing Orders (Ext. A-1) certified by the Government of West Bengal on the 21st day of April 1956. According to this standing order, the workman comes under section 2(b)(v), i.e., apprentice. There is no dispute and it is also corroborated by the Attendance Register and also admitted by the Manager Shri Nirapada Chowdhury (C.W. 1) that this workman Shri Naren Das was made a probationer with effect from March 1955. It appears from section 2(d) of this standing order that a probationer is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed six months' service therein. When undisputedly this workman was made a probationer since March 1955, he is entitled, of course, if there be nothing to disentitle him from that, to be made permanent on completion of six months' service which takes him to early part in October 1955 for confirmation. So, early in October 1955 he was entitled in normal course of things to be permanently absorbed, of course, if there were no unsatisfactory reports about his work, ability, merit, etc. Up to October 1955, there was no adverse report against his work, quality, merit or ability to deal with the labour force. Record of his work was at least clean up to October 1955. So, I find no justification for the Management in not permanently absorbing him in October 1955. Obviously, the reason for his non-absorption lay elsewhere, and I am constrained to believe that that reason was the active trade unionism on the part of this workman. There is no dispute that he was Assistant Secretary to the Union and he deposed against the Company in another dispute in April 1958, and the Tea Estate was presumably eager to get rid of him for all these reasons, and that was deemed to be easy as his brother-in-law had already left the garden. I would, therefore, find that this workman was entitled to be absorbed early in October 1955. A reference may be made to the ruling reported in 1957(i) L.L.J. page 412 (Gajamudi Estate and Arumainayagam) which lays down, inter alia, that an employer cannot be permitted to keep the probationer for a protracted period in a state of uncertainty as to his position, and after the expiry of a considerable period the Court may properly consider whether having regard to all the facts the inference should be drawn that the probationer has been confirmed. In this case, I am convinced having regard to the evidence on record and circumstances of the case that the Tea Estate was not justified in keeping him in long suspense as to his condition of service and in not confirming him.

Next, I take up the criminal case. It is common ground that this workman was convicted in the criminal case (vide Ext. D) and sentenced as already said above along with some others and that there is an appeal pending (vide Ext. 7). It is contended on behalf of the Union that he should be presumed to be innocent till the appeal is finally disposed of, and it is stated that 25th November 1959 is fixed for hearing of this appeal. I have already found that this workman was entitled to be absorbed early in October 1955 or even six months thereafter, i.e., in April 1956, and even assuming that his conviction and sentence stand in the Appellate Court, this conviction cannot retrospectively render invalid his earlier absorption in due course to which he is found entitled. If the Management finds that the conviction and sentence stand, it will be up to the Management to departmentally proceed against this workman in accordance with the standing order (Ext. A-1). The Court will not be justified in taking into consideration his conviction at this stage which is still subject to an appeal and come to the conclusion that he was not entiled to be confirmed in April 1956 when there was no adverse report against him or criminal case nothing of the kind. Really speaking, the adverse reports (Exts. C and C-1) cannot be accepted as they seem to be motivated having regard to the active trade unionism on the part of this workman.

On a very careful consideration of the circumstances of this case and due regard having had to the evidence—both oral and documentary—I find that the Management was not justified in not absorbing him in due course, and that he is entitled to be absorbed in the permanent rank as a Factory Assistant with effect from April 1956. That being so, the Management is directed to absorb him permanently with effect from April 1956 either as a Factory Assistant or Clerk and give him all benefits admissible to him as such under the rules in force. It is, however, left to the Tea Estate to departmentally proceed or not, against this workman having regard to the orders that may be passed by the Appellate Court in the criminal case.

This is my award.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:
Shri G. KUMAR, District Judge.

AWARD

By Government order No. 3780-I.R./IR/11L-202/59, dated the 5th August 1959, an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shekhar & Co. (P) Ltd., 5/1 Nirode Behari Mullick Road, Calcutta-6

(hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Shekhar & Co. Mazdoor Union, 1 Gouribari Lane, Calcutta-4 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

The only issue was regarding bonus payable in 1958.

Notices were issued on 17th August 1959 on the Company as well as the Union for appearances and for filing written statement of claims, if any. The notices were issued per registered post with acknowledgment due and were duly served. The notice upon the Union was addressed to its Secretary and received by him on 21st August 1959.

On the date fixed for appearance, i.e., on 5th September 1959, none appeared on behalf of the Union, while Shri K. K. Moitra, Labour Adviser of the Company, entered appearance on its behalf. The case was adjourned to 26th September 1959 for filing written statement by the Union which took no steps on that date also; so the case was again adjourned to this date, i.e., 20th October 1959 for disposal, if the Union did not file any written statement in the meantime. The Union was informed of this order by a letter sent by registered post with acknowledgment due which appears to have been received by its Secretary on 8th October 1959. Today also no step is taken by the Union, none appears on its behalf, no written statement has been filed as yet. So, in view of the facts and circumstances, it is to be held that the Union has no case to press before this Tribunal regarding bonus payable in 1958. Also the learned representative of the Company states that the Union's claim for bonus for 1958 is altogether baseless. There seems to be no reason why this contention on behalf of the Company should not be accepted.

As a result, it is awarded that no bonus is payable to the workmen by the Company in 1958.

This is the award of the Tribunal.

(2) Is the retrenchment of the following workmen justified? What relief by way of reinstatement and/or compensation are they entitled to?

3. 22nd October 1959 was fixed for the hearing of this case, on which date, both the parties instead of proceeding with the case, settled their differences, and filed a joint petition of compromise, stating that the Union does not press Issue No. 2, relating to the retrenchment of 13 workmen and the said claim under Issue No. 2 is withdrawn, that the Union agrees that the claim of Shri M. K. Menon to be a workman under section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act is withdrawn and Shri Menon agrees to the same. It is further stated that the Company agrees to pay in court to Shri M. K. Menon by 4th November 1959 at the latest the sum of Rs. 1,100.00 nP. (Rupees eleven hundred only) in full and final settlement of all his claims as under the reference and that Shri Menon also agrees to accept the same and withdraw and treat as a nullity his claim for Rs. 14,843.75 nP. against the Company as made in the written statement filed by the Union on his behalf. The joint petition of compromise appears as Appendix A to this award. I have perused the petition in Appendix A. The terms mentioned therein appear to me to be quite fair and equitable. In the circumstances, there is no reason why the terms should not be accepted. Accordingly, the terms in Appendix A are given effect to, and an award is made on the basis of the compromise petition, which will form a part of the award as in Appendix A.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Baranagore Jute Factory Co., Ltd., Baranagore, Calcutta-30, and their workmen represented by Baranagore Jute Mills Employees' Union, 202 Victoria Road (North), Calcutta-30. (Case No. VIII-C-141 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

Acting under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by their order No. 2494-I.R./IR/7L-42/57, dated Calcutta, the 16th June 1958, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Baranagore Jute Factory Co., Ltd., and their workmen represented by Baranagore Jute Mills Employees' Union, for adjudication.

Issue formulated in the order of reference is as follows.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of the following workman is justified. What relief is he entitled to?

Ram Naresh (Weaving Sardar).

The facts of the dispute are as follows:

Shri Ram Naresh, the workman in question, was serving in the Mills of Baranagore Jute Factory as a weaving sardar. It was part of his duty to receive pickers from the stores of the factory for use when required. He used to keep them in an almirah under lock and keep the key with him. He received 22 pickers from 9th August 1956 to 16th August 1956. On 2nd October 1956, at about 4-30 a.m. two workmen of the factory, viz., Shri Sheopoojan and Shri Muneswar Shaw were found in possession of 22 pickers, by some members of Baranagore Resistence Party outside the factory premises. They were apprehended by those members of the Resistence Party and were handed over to Baranagore police-station. Eventually they were convicted under section 411, I.P.C. On 21st June 1957 the management of the factory issued a charge-sheet upon Shri Ram Naresh on the allegation that the 22 pickers found in possession of Sarbasree Sheopoojan Ram and Muneshwar Shaw were the identical pickers which were in the custody of Shri Ram Naresh and that as such he was suspected to be involved in the theft of those 22 pickers. Shri Ram Naresh submitted his explanation to the charge-sheet on 22nd June 1957. Thereafter on 1st October 1957 the management dismissed Shri Ram Naresh on the above charge.

The contention of the Union is as follows:

The twenty-two pickers found in possession of Sarbasree Sheopoojan Ram and Muneshwar Shaw were not the 22 pickers which were in the custody of Shri Ram Naresh. The enquiry which was held by the Company after submission of explanation by Shri Ram Naresh was only a show. The finding that Shri Ram Naresh was guilty of the charge arrived at by the Enquiring Officer was unjustified. The union asserts that Shri Ram Naresh was Assistant Secretary of the Union and used to take active interest in the matter of redress of grievances of workmen of the mills. For such activity he incurred the displeasure of the Security Officer of the mills and at the instance of the latter he has been victimised.

The case of the Company, on the other hand, is that a proper enquiry into the charge-sheet against Shri Ram Naresh was held and the Enquiring Officer was convinced of his guilt. The Company denies the allegation of victimisation.

Appearances of the parties are as follows:

For the Company: Shri S. R. Zacharia, Chief Personnel Officer with Shri B. P. Srivastava, Personnel Officer of Messrs. Jardine Henderson, Ltd.

For the Union: Shri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate with Shri N. K. Roy, Advocate.

FINDINGS

The Union has failed to prove that Shri Ram Naresh incurred the displeasure of the Security Officer or that he was victimised on that ground. So the point for determination is whether there was a proper enquiry and whether the finding of the Enquiring Officer is maintainable. The questions before the Enquiring Officer were (1) whether the 22 pickers found in possession of Shri Sheopoojan and Shri Muneswar Shaw were the identical pickers which had been in the custody of Shri Ram Naresh, (2) whether Shri Ram Naresh was involved in the matter. It has been held by the court which tried Sarbasree Sheopoojan and Muneswar that the pickers found in their possession were the property of Baranagore Jute Factory. His decision has been upheld on appeal up to the highest court. In view of the above finding and in consideration of the evidence adduced before the Enquiring Officer, he could reasonably come to conclusion that those pickers were the identical pickers which had been in the custody of Shri Ram Naresh. On 21st November 1956, Shri Ram Naresh produced 22 pickers and said that these were the pickers which had been in his custody, but the evidence adduced at the enquiry shows that this statement of Shri Ram Naresh was false. So the only reasonable conclusion is that the pickers in the custody of Shri Ram Naresh was stolen. The next question was whether Shri Ram Naresh had any knowledge of or connived at such theft. It is true that no direct evidence on this point was adduced at the enquiry, but any reasonable man could, in the circumstances, come to conclusion that such a theft could not take place without the assistance or connivance of Shri Ram Naresh. It has been argued on behalf of the Union that charge-sheet was issued against Shri Ram Naresh more than 8 months after the theft of the pickers. As against this argument, it is to be noted that a criminal case was started about the theft and in the mean time Shri Ram Naresh produced 22 pickers, the implication being that the pickers in his custody had not been stolen. So the Company acted properly in awaiting the result of the criminal case. The Company issued the charge-sheet as soon as the criminal case was disposed of. So this delay in issuing the charge-sheet is only natural and the union cannot make any grievance on that score.

In consideration of above facts and arguments, I come to the finding that the dismissal of Shri Ram Naresh was justified. As such he is entitled to no relief.

Coonwer Silk Mill, 69 Prince Bakhtiar Shah Road, Calcutta-33, and (ii) National Silk Mill, 32 Cross Street, Calcutta-7, on the one hand and their workmen represented by the Coonwer Silk Mills Workers' Union, 90/2 Russa Road, South (3rd Lane), Calcutta, on the other, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issues

(1) Whether the closure of the mill by Messrs. National Silk Mill from 5th November 1958 is justified? To what relief are the workmen entitled?

(2) Are the workmen entitled to employment by Messrs. Coonwer Silk Mill from 6th November 1958? If not to what relief are they entitled?

The reference was received by this Tribunal on 2nd January 1959. Usual notices were served upon the parties. The union, namely, Coonwer Silk Mills Workers' Union filed its written statement on 16th February 1959. The Coonwer Silk Mill filed its written statement on 20th March 1959 and the National Silk Mill filed written statement on 7th April 1959. On 22nd May 1959 the Coonwer Silk Mill filed an additional written statement. The hearing was fixed on 13th August 1959. On that date the case was opened but the parties stated before the tribunal that the matter would be amicably settled. A joint petition for same was filed on that date. The Coonwer Silk Mill took up the responsibility of payment of compensation to the workers up to 20th July 1958 as agreed amongst the parties and as such National Silk Mill did not contest the claim of the workers. After a few adjournments Messrs. Coonwer Silk Mill and the union have jointly filed a petition of compromise on 23rd October 1959 with annexure stating that the matter in dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and that the award be passed in terms of the same.

AWARD

I have carefully gone through the joint petition of compromise and the annexure thereto. The terms of the compromise appear to be fair and reasonable. I, therefore, give effect to the terms of compromise and pass award accordingly in terms of the joint petition of compromise and the annexure thereto both of which shall form part of the award.

AWARD

Decisions

(1) Pan American World Airways Inc.

6. On 9th June 1959, being the date of hearing of this case, the Company and the Union filed a compromise petition and prayed that permission should be granted to the parties to withdraw the case of Pan American World Airways Inc. from this proceeding and pass a "no dispute" award on the terms of the petition filed by the parties. This petition appears as Appendix A to this award. On a perusal of the terms of the petition, I do not find any ground not to accept it. I, therefore, accept the joint petition in Appendix A and award that there is no outstanding dispute between the parties in respect of the issues mentioned in the order of reference, in view of the terms of the compromise petition. The compromise petition in Appendix A shall form a part of this award, and it is awarded accordingly.

(2) K. L. M. Dutch Air Lines

7. Issue No. (i)—Employment regulation or service rules: The Union proposed some employment regulations or service rules in Annexure B to its written statement. Many of the rules proposed are of a controversial nature and include a number of economic demands, which were not incorporated in the issues to the order of reference. The replies of the Company to these employment regulations appear in an Annexure to its written statement. The evidence of Shri V. R. Khosla, the Secretary of the Union, shows that Annexure B to the Union's written statement, which is named as the proposed employment regulations or service rules, was submitted as a charter of demands of this Company and also the other Companies who are parties to this reference. Ext. 1 is the charter of demands, dated 25th September 1956, which was sent to the Labour Commissioner. Ext. 1(a) is also a charter of demands, dated 21st September 1956. Exts. 1 and 1(a) cover all the demands mentioned in Annexure B. It appears that besides employment regulations or service rules, only 3 other issues, being duty hours and overtime, bonus and pay scale and dearness allowance were referred for adjudication out of the demands incorporated in the charter, Exts. 1 and 1(a) and Annexure B. The economic demands should not, therefore, be adjudicated on by way of employment regulations or service rules. I considered the proposed rules in Annexure B to the Union's written statement, as well as the Company's comments regarding these rules. On a consideration of these matters, some rules are framed by me and they appear as Appendix B to this award. I have ommitted some of the subjects which are of a controversial nature and which should not come in the general Standing Orders. This issue is accordingly answered.

8. Issue No. (ii)—Duty hours and overtime, if due with arrears: The Union states that there is no proper duty hours and day off and provision for enjoyment of public holidays in this Company. The workmen are made to work unduly long hours on many occasions and on holidays without any overtime payments and the records of the Company for the last five years as to duty hours, flights, major repairs and overtime payments to the workmen will show how the Company have behaved with their workmen. The Union claims the duty hours as provided in item No. 31 of Annexure B and overtime rate as shown in item No. 12 of the said annexure and further claims that the arrear wages of last five years on the aforesaid basis for the overtime work done should be properly assessed by a reference to the relevant records of the Company and the same should be paid to the workmen as due arrear overtime wages.

9. The Company states that the Air Port business of K. L. M. consists of handling only a small number of four regular flights per week, stopping at Calcutta Air Port only for 45 to 60 minutes at a time. It will be correct to say that for the staff concerned, the handling of each flight, including pre-flight and post-flight work involves about four hours' work, making a total of 16 hours per week, plus an extra four hours for any extra flight that may occur, making no more than 20 hours per week. In the circumstances, the K. L. M. Head Office have not authorised payment of overtime for work done on public holidays, because the concerned employees are enjoying enough time off during the rest of the week throughout the year. Employees who work a full 48-hour a week are duly compensated for work on public holidays. These arrangement are laid down in the following rules:—

In the case of employees who are required to work on public holidays, the number of hours so worked by them in the particular week is to be counted double. Overtime is payable in respect of any number of hours calculated in this manner as having been worked in excess of the usual 48 hours per week. This will apply to the public holidays, as published by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, except the two bank holidays. Overtime is paid for any number of hours worked in excess of 12 hours at a stretch, a stretch of 12 hours being generally accepted duration of shift day duty at Dum Dum Air Port. At least one day off per week is always given, failing which overtime is paid. The off day may fall on any day in the week, usually not on Sunday, because on that day the K.L.M. has always a flight. There cannot be any demand for payment of any overtime wages with retrospective effect.

10. Evidence was adduced on both sides. P.W. 1 Shri V. R. Khosla, General Secretary of the Union, P.W. 2 Sayed Gulab, a Driver, P.W. 3 Shri Chittaranjan Dey, a mechanic, P.W. 4 Shri Rambhikhari were examined for the Union. O.P.W. 1 Shri S. B. Chakrabarty, Chief Accountant of K. L. M. and O.P.W. 3 Mr. H. Voogt, the Acting General Manager of K. L. M. Company, were examined for the Company.

11. P.W. 1 states that a circular was issued in February 1957 by K. L. M. Company stating the service conditions of its staff in regard to working hours. A copy of this document appears as Ext. 5. Ext. 5 is dated 28th February 1957. Ext. 6 is a circular, dated 27th July 1957, signed by the Manager of the Company, showing directions for payment of overtime wages in case of the C staff of the Company working on public holidays. The C staff also includes drivers. The evidence of O.P.W. 3 Mr. Voogt shows that A staff is the Dutch personnel, B staff are the mechanics and C staff are the manual staff and they are the aircraft cleaners. The evidence of O.P.W. 3 shows that overtime is paid to the B group for hours over 208 per month. Overtime is paid to C group for work in excess of 48 hours a week and 12 hours a day at double the rate and the service regulations of the Company in regard to overtime wages and duty hours are as mentioned in the written statement. Ext. 5 shows the working hours are based on the maximum of 48 hours a week. The Company makes it 45 hours including the lunch breaks of half an hour on 6 days. Authorised overtime is paid only to those who are required to work in excess of 45 hours in any week at a rate per hour calculated on the basis of average basic pay of the employees salary grade plus 50 per cent. For this calculation, the working week is taken at 48 hours. It appears that overtime wages are also paid for periods in excess of 12 hours at a stretch. Ext. 6 shows that for employees who are required to work on public holidays, the number of hours so worked by them in the particular week is counted double and overtime is payable in respect of any number of hours calculated in this manner as having been worked in excess of the usual 48 hours per week. This applies to all public holidays as published by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce except the two bank holidays. P.W. 2 Syed Gulab, driver, states that he is to put in 12 hours duty per day and 55 hours duty per week. Since 1957, he has been receiving overtime wages at the rate of Re. 1 per hour and also an extra allowance of Rs. 30 per month. The witness's basic pay is Rs. 130 and dearness allowance is Rs. 60 per month. It appears that the witness gets a total wage of Rs. 218 per month. P.W. 3 Shri Chittaranjan Dey was a mechanic in the Company and he left the Company's service in April last. He says that since July 1957, he used to get overtime wages for work beyond 208 hours in a month. P.W. 4 Rambhikhari states that he gets Re. 1 per day for overtime work and his total emolument comes to Rs. 143 per month. Considering that he is a loader, his wage at Rs. 143 per month appears to be quite reasonable. O.P.W. 1 Shri Chakrabarty states that for certain persons who do factory work, the Company pay overtime at double the rate. For others, they pay 1½ rate and nobody gets less than 1½ rate.

12. On a consideration of the matter, it is awarded that the workers who are governed by the Factories Act should get overtime wages according to the provisions of that Act, as contained in Chapter VI and extra wages for overtime should be paid to this category of workmen under section 59 of the Factories Act.

13. For the rest of the staff excluding drivers overtime is payable for the periods worked in excess of 48 hours per week, and any number of hours worked in excess of 12 hours at a stretch. The number of hours worked on a public holiday, as published by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, except the two bank holidays are counted double. Overtime is payable in respect of any number of hours calculated in this manner as having been worked in excess of 48 hours in the week. At least one day off per week is given, failing which overtime is paid for work on that day. These rules for payments of overtime wages for work by the non-factory workers excluding Drivers are confirmed.

14. The drivers' period of work is 55 hours in the week, for which they are paid Rs. 30 per month extra and they are also paid Re. 1 extra for each hour over 55 hours. I consider the hours of work and the rules for payment of overtime wages for the Drivers as followed by the Company to be reasonable and confirm them.

14A. The Union also claimed arrears of overtime wages during the last 5 years on the basis of its claim as to overtime rates. The parties, at my suggestion, came to an amicable settlement on this part of the issue and the Company agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 10,000 only in full satisfaction of all claims for overtime wages up to the date on which this award will become operative. I consider this agreement to be lawful and reasonable and I, therefore, award in accordance with the terms of this compromise petition, which appears as Appendix C to this award. Appendix C shall form a part of this award. This issue is accordingly answered.

15. Issue No. (iii) - Bonus for 1955-56, 1956-57: The Union states in its written statement that the Profit and Loss Account of the Company will show enough available surplus profit in both 1955-56 and 1956-57 to qualify the workmen to three months' basic pay as bonus for each of the aforesaid years. The Union, therefore, claims bonus for the two years abovementioned at the rate of three months' basic wage. The Company states in its written statement that the profitability of the Aviation Industry does not allow for the establishment of any scientific basis for the payment of bonus to the staff. In global companies like the present Company, it is not possible to have a Profit and Loss Account of a particular station in the long chain of routes and available surplus according to the Full Bench formula cannot be calculated. The Company of its own accord makes an annual ex-gratia payment to all the employees which amounts to 3 per cent. of the annual salary, in spite of the fact that the wages paid by this Company represent a fair living wage for the concerned staff and a deficiency to be filled does not exist. The bonus paid by the Company, as mentioned above, has been raised from 1 per cent. to 3 per cent. in 1957 as a gesture of goodwill. The Company submits that there is no scope for any demand of bonus as claimed, for which there is not sufficient surplus.

16. The K. L. M. Royal Dutch Air Lines is a Company that carries on a global business in that it operates aeroplane flights over 123 centres in all countries with Calcutta as a link in this long chain. It has been decided that in the case of such a Company, the claim of the workmen employed by the Company at a particular place for bonus must be calculated on taking the trading result of that region, although it would be permissible in the context to take a larger area like India for the finding of available surplus (vide case of British Insulated Cables, reported in 1952 L.A.C., 87 and case of B.I.S.N. Co., reported in 1956 (II) L.L.J., 174). This question was also considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Lipton Ltd., reported in 1959 (I) L.L.J., 431. In this tea-making Company, it was decided that the global profits would not be the basis for awarding bonus to the Indian workmen. The matter is more complicated in the case of global aviation companies like the present one. The Company submitted the Income-tax Return. Exts. A, A(1) and A(2), showing the profits for the purpose of Income-tax assessment for the years 1955, 1956 and 1957 respectively. We are concerned in this issue with the bonus for the trading years 1955 and 1956. The Company also shows the Income-tax Statement for the year 1954 in Ext. A(4). With the profits as shown in Exts. A and A(1) for the years 1955 and 1956, the Company made a calculation for the available surplus in these two years in Ext. D. The capital for the purpose of calculating return therefor is found out by calculating the proportionate amount according to the profit in India, as shown in Exts. A and A(1). In other words, the capital taken for calculation bears the same proportion to the total capital as the Indian profit bears to the global profit in that year. On accounting for the tax at 56.25 per cent. in 1955 and 1956 and the return at 6 per cent. on the proportionate capital as deduced above, it is shown that the balance comes up to Rs. 11,682 for 1955 and Rs. 21,229 for 1956. No depreciation or reserve for rehabilitation has been charged. It has been stated by O.P.W. 1 Shri S. P. Chakrabarty, the Chief Accountant of the Company, that the monthly wages bill of all the employees, including dearness allowance, amounts to Rs. 60,000. The learned Advocate for the Union stated that the income-tax should be calculated at 51.2 per cent. and the return should be calculated at 4 per cent. and on such calculations being made, the total surplus would amount to Rs. 55,000 in place of Rs. 11,000 in 1955 and Rs. 50,000 in place of Rs. 21,000 in 1956. That being so, the Company would be able to pay bonus and the Tribunal may award a suitable amount as it considers proper. There is no doubt that this Company, being a foreign Company, had to pay an income-tax of 56.25 per cent. in 1955. Although the same amount of tax was deducted in 1956, as a matter of fact, the tax payable by the Company in 1956 was much higher and was near about 60 per cent. of the profits. I do not find any ground for calculating the return at 4 per cent. instead of 6 per cent. It will also have to be remembered that in accordance with the dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tata Oil Mill Co., reported in 1959 (II) L.L.J., 250, there are three sharers in the available surplus, viz., the shareholders, the industry and labour. Considering all circumstances and the fact that no reserve for rehabilitation or depreciation has been charged, as there is difficulty in computing these charges in the case of a global aviation company, I do not find that the evidence on record justifies the grant of any bonus to the workmen for trading in the years 1955 or 1956. That being so, the claim of bonus made for the years 1955 and 1956, is rejected. This issue is accordingly answered.

17. Issue No. (iv) – Pay-scale and dearness allowance: The Union, in its written statement, claims pay-scales and dearness allowance as mentioned in paragraph 18(iii)(iii) concerning the Thai Airways Ltd. This claim is that the scale of pay for the loaders, sweepers, peons and guards should be at Rs. 50—4—90—5—120. The dearness allowance should be given to all workmen according to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce based on middleclass cost of living index, subject to a minimum of Rs. 60 as prevalent in B.O.A.C. The benefit of both pay and dearness allowance should be given retrospective effect from September 1956 when the first written demand was placed. The Company states that the scales of basic pay and various allowances of all the menial workmen in K. L. M. at air port and at the town office are reasonable and well able to stand comparison with those of other aviation companies at Dum Dum. The Union has claimed Rs. 50 as the minimum starting pay for loaders and aircraft cleaners when the existing minimum pay of these workmen is Rs. 60 per month. Dearness allowance has been paid to all categories of workmen all along. Since 1st January 1955, the dearness allowance has been automatically linked up by a sliding scale with the fluctuating cost of living index of the weekly magazine "Capital", which is the same basis as used by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce in their dearness allowance recommendations. These recommendations relate only to staff employed in the commercial establishments in the city of Calcutta and they have no bearing on the cost of living in the muffassil areas such as Dum Dum Air Port. Moreover, all workmen cannot claim dearness allowance based on the middleclass cost of living; there are separate dearness allowance scales for clerks/assistants and for menial workers which facts are well-known to all concerned. Annexure A to the Company's written statement shows a comparative statement of monthly salaries and allowances paid by different Airlines at Dum Dum Airport to loaders and porters in 1958. This annexure shows that the total wage per month paid by the K. L. M. is Rs. 125—Rs. 127; whereas the total wage paid by the other companies is much less. In the case of 4 companies, it is Rs. 75 to Rs. 95 and in the case of 2 others, it is Rs. 104 and Rs. 110 respectively. Evidence of P.W. 1 Shri V. R. Khosla, the Secretary of the Union, shows that in this adjudication he claims for revision of wage scales of the menials only and by menials he means the sweepers, peons, loaders, durwans and drivers. He admits in his statement that a loader in this Company is paid a basic salary of Rs. 60, a dearness allowance of Rs. 34 to Rs. 37, and a flat allowance of Rs. 30, and that, at the moment this is the best pay obtained by a loader the Airlines Companies. Their scale is from . 60 to Rs. 84 as basic pay and this is also his im. His objection is only about the dearness)wance. In his statement, he also states that only claim is that the minimum basic pay)uld be brought to Rs. 60. Annexure C to the ion's additional written statement shows pay les of the workers. It appears that the epers, and refreshment bearers get the scale of . 40—2—60. The outdoor peon, office cleaner l office loader and gate-keeper get the scale of . 50—2—74 and the office peons get Rs. 50—3— Drivers' pay-scale is Rs. 80—5—130 and the ver/machanic gets the scale of Rs. 125—5—165. the time of the argument, the learned Advocate the Union only pressed the claim for an increase the wages to Rs. 50 in the case of those workers ose starting pay is below that sum. It is clear ugh from the evidence of P.W. 1 that the pays eived by the employees of this Company are the t. In the circumstances of the case, I only rease the starting salaries of the sweepers and refreshment bearers by two increments and rease the maximum also by two increments. eir scale shall, therefore, stand as Rs. 44—2—64. e employees of these categories shall be given special increment, in view of the revision, for se whose basic pay at the present moment is re than Rs. 44. I do not consider that any dification in the other wage scales, as mentioned Annexure C, is called for in the circumstances.

18. The claim for the dearness allowance as de by the Union is that dearness allowance ould be given to all employees according to the ngal Chamber of Commerce scale based on ddleclass cost of living index, subject to a nimum of Rs. 60 per month. There is no stification for basing the cost of living index of middleclass for assessment of the dearness owance of the manual workers. This claim is worthy of acceptance. The dearness allowance id by the Company for the subordinate staff is sed on the working class cost of living index and paid in the town office to peons and drivers cording to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce ale. For the town office sweepers and durwans, d all menials at the airport, a lower scale of arness allowance is paid. This will appear from xts. C(1) and C(2). It appears that all these arness allowances are linked with the cost of ing index. The airport menials get a monthly tra of Rs. 30 as food allowance, and the drivers d mechanic get Rs. 30 as allowance for late hours. will appear from Ext. 5 filed by the Union. he dearness allowance is paid according to the ngal Chamber of Commerce scale based on the orking class cost of living index to the town fice peons and drivers and a smaller dearness owance is paid to the sweepers and durwans of e town office and the airport menials as shown Ext. C(2). The airport menials get a food llowance of Rs. 30 per month, which is in the ature of an additional dearness allowance. The arned Advocate for the Union claimed that the earness allowance of this category of employees hould be increased to the Bengal Chamber of ommerce scale, as is paid to the employees in he town office. Considering all circumstances and he scale of wages paid to the subordinate staff of his Company, I award that the airport menials who get a smaller rate of dearness allowance, shall be paid an additional allowance of Rs. 5 per month by way of an additional amenity. This additional allowance shall also be paid to the sweepers and durwans in the town office, or any other category of employers who get the smaller rate of dearness allowance as shown in Ext. C(2). The dearness allowance of the other employees as paid by the Company is confirmed by this award. The claim as to dearness allowance preferred by the Union is answered accordingly.

(3) Thai Airways Co., Ltd.

19. Issue No. (i)—Employment regulation or service rules: The employment regulations and service rules as framed by K. L. M. Co. appears in Appendix B. This shall also govern the case of Thai Airways Co., Ltd. and shall be binding upon this Company and its employees.

20. Issue No. (ii)—Duty hours and overtime if due with arrears: It is stated by the learned Advocate for the Company that the duty hours are 40 hours per week in the office and 42 hours for other employees. I consider that these are working hours which call for no reduction. These working hours, as they are obtaining at present for the office employees and others, shall continue. The Company has no factory and none of its employees are factory workers. The Company is prepared to pay overtime wages at one and a half times the ordinary wage for work beyond specified hours. This arrangement appears to be reasonable and is confirmed. It is awarded that the Company shall pay overtime wages at one and a half times the ordinary rate for work beyond the specified hours.

21. It appears that there are at the moment four workers in the employment of the Company, being a peon, a watchman, a loader and a sweeper. It does not appear if there were other workers who have been since retrenched. The Union claims arrears of overtime wages. This claim was, however, compromised in the open court, although no compromise petition was filed by the parties. It was agreed by the parties that the Company would pay Rs. 650 to the workmen in satisfaction of all their arrears overtime wages. This claim is accordingly answered.

22. Issue No. (iii)—Pay-scale and dearness allowance: At the moment, the Company has in its employment only four workmen, being a peon and a watchman at a consolidated salary of Rs. 65 per month, for each a loader at a consolidated salary of Rs. 65 per month and Re. 1 on service days, which are 4 in the week, and a sweeper at a consolidated salary of Rs. 50 per month. No separate dearness allowance is paid to any of the workers. It appears to me that the wages paid to the workers should be revised. The financial position of the Company is not sound and it appears from the balance-sheet, Ext. 1 series from 1953 to 1956 that the Company has been suffering operating losses every year. Considering the financial position of the Company, it is awarded that all the four workmen as mentioned above shall have their wages increased by Rs. 10 per month and not more. This increase shall be effective from the date of the commencement of the operation of this award. This issue is accordingly answered.

23. Issue No. (iv)—Bonus for 1955-56, 1956-57: The balance-sheets and the working accounts of the Company from the years 1953 to 1956, as shown in Ext. I to I(7) shows operating loss every year. No bonus is, therefore, payable for the years 1955 and 1956, as claimed by the Union. At the time of his address, the learned Advocate for the Union did not press the claim of bonus against this Company. It is, therefore, awarded that no bonus should be paid by this Company for the years in question. This issue is accordingly answered.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 3988-I.R./IR/11L-167/58, dated 19th September 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Regent Cinema, 2C Krishnalall Das Road, Calcutta-2, and their workmen represented by Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union, 126A Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta-13, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of the following workmen is justified? To what relief are they entitled?

(1) Shri Sudhir Chandra, (2) Shri Quaium Khan, (3) Shri Amir Hussain.

AWARD

This is a reference arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of 3 workmen, viz., (1) Shri Sudhir Chandra, (2) Shri Quaium Khan and (3) Shri Amir Hussain of Messrs. Regent Cinema, 2C Krishnalall Das Road, Calcutta-2, hereinafter referred to as the Cinema Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union's case regarding the 3 workmen is in the same vein. It is alleged that the Cinema Company violated principles of natural justice and arbitrarily sacked the 3 workmen concerned without any notice, reason, enquiry whatsoever. The Union also levelled the charge of victimisation against the Company. The Union, therefore, seeks their reinstatement with back wages.

The Cinema Company, on the other hand, denies the allegations in the written statement of the Union. The Cinema Company's substantive case is that Shri Sudhir Chandra was guilty of serious charge of insubordination, and a charge-sheet was drawn up against him, but he did not offer any explanation to the same, nor did he turn up later on, and so his employment was terminated.

Regarding Quaium Khan, the Cinema Company's case is that he was employed as a Fireman, and that he was found negligent in the discharge of his duties, and so he was dismissed by the Calcutta Corporation which was the appointing authority in his case.

Regarding Amir Hussain, the Cinema Company's case is similar, i.e., he was also found negligent in the discharge of his duties, and so his services were terminated, and that he was employed on daily wages.

The Cinema Company, however, has in all the 3 cases denied the charge of victimisation levelled against it by the Union.

Decision

Now I take up the cases of these 3 workmen one by one. Having regard to the evidence adduced in this case—both oral and documentary—it is undisputed that there was no charge-sheet against both Amir Hussain and Quaium Khan, nor was there any enquiry, but nevertheless their services were terminated by the Company. First I take up the case of Amir Hussain who was employed as a Board-Man. Amir Hussain has deposed that his monthly wages were Rs. 25 and has denied the allegation of the Company that he was employed on daily wages. Kadir Hussein, Manager of the Cinema Company (C.W. 1), has deposed that Amir Hussain was found negligent in the discharge of his duties. Even assuming that to be true, the Company should have given him a charge-sheet allowing him reasonable opportunities to offer his explanation, and then after enquiry proper steps should have been taken. But in this case, no charge-sheet was issued, nor was any opportunity given to the workmen, but he was arbitrarily dismissed. The order of dismissal in this case cannot obviously stand, as there was violation of the principles of natural justice. The Company's case is that he was employed only for 3/4 months, whereas his own evidence is that he was employed for 1½ years. In the circumstances, I would accept this statement of the workman himself, and find that he was in employment for more than a year, but less than 1½ years. In the circumstances, Amir Hussain is entitled to be reinstated. As regards compensation, I find that he may justly be given his three months' wages.

Next, I take up the case of Quaium Khan. His own evidence is that he was employed as a Fireman from 1st August 1955 to 1st August 1957. The Company alleges that the Calcutta Corporation is the appointing authority so far as the Firemen in the Cinema Houses are concerned, and as such the Calcutta Corporation has the only authority to dismiss, discharge or take any other disciplinary proceedings against such Firemen. But beyond this verbal testimony of the Manager of the Cinema Company (C.W. 1), there is nothing else to establish that the authority lies with the Corporation to appoint, discharge or dismiss such Firemen from the Cinema Companies. The Cinema Company has, however, produced during trial a letter, dated 28th July 1955 (Ext. A) to show that the Theatre Inspector of the Corporation of Calcutta discharged Quaium Khan with effect from 1st August 1955. But the Union has taken serious objection to the admission of this letter at a late stage, which the Cinema Company could not meet. Be that as it may, there is recital in this letter to show that the Cinema Company made a request to the Corporation to change this Fireman, but there is nothing to indicate why such a recommendation for changing this Fireman emanated or should emanate from the Cinema Company. If he were guilty of any negligence or inefficiency, there should be specific charge to that effect. But in the absence of such specific charge, this discharge by the Calcutta Corporation even cannot be upheld. The well-established principle of law is that no one should be condemned unheard, but here is an instance wherein this man was not given any charge-sheet, nor was he heard in defence, nor was there any enquiry held. In the circumstances, it is difficult for the Court to uphold this discharge. It is in evidence that this Fireman has since been replaced by one Shafique, and I do not consider it just and expedient in the interests of industrial peace and harmony to pass orders reinstating him. But in all fairness, he is entitled to compensation for loss of service which is assessed at his 3 months' wages. The Company is, therefore, directed to pay him his three months' wages within a month of the publication of the award.

Next, I take up the case of Sudhir Chandra. He was employed as a Postman. The Cinema Company's case is that he was charge-sheeted as per Ext. 3, dated 6th January 1958, but he did not offer any explanation as directed therein, nor did he re-appear in the Cinema Company, and so he was dismissed from service as per Ext. 3 wherein there was clear recital that in the event of his failure to give any satisfactory explanation to the charge he would be dismissed from service without any further notice. In this respect, the workman's case is that he submitted a reply which, he says, was sent through Post, and Ext. 4 is the certificate of posting. Curiously enough, the workman could not furnish even a copy of the explanation which he offered. The Company, on the other hand, says that the workman did not offer any explanation. That being so, there is nothing to show what his reply was. The workman's case is that on 3rd January 1958 he had a fall from the 12th step of the ladder, and thereby he sustained a serious injury for which he was admitted in the Belgachia Medical College as per Ticket marked Ext. 2. The Cinema Company, however, totally denies it. I have reasons to disbelieve the story of the fall as urged by the workman, and the reason for disbelieving the story is that he gave no information to the Union about his fall. Rather, on 6th January 1958 this workman reported himself to the Cinema Company for taking wages, and he himself admitted that after 6th January 1958 he did not report himself to the Company any more. This workman in order to bolster up his false case, took a certificate, dated 9th January 1958, from a medical practitioner to prove his alleged fall, but I am doubtful about its genuineness in the circumstances of this case, and having due regard to the evidence on record. I may further point put that the workman could not say who gave the explanation to the charge-sheet. I, therefore, reject his story of the fall from the ladder as advanced in his behalf. Rather, it is not unlikely that he might have some other ailment for which he reported himself to the Medical College, but not for the fall, The evidence on the side of the Cinema Company which is rather more plausible is, that on 3rd January 1958 this workman was told to attend to his duties, which were got done by another man named Shafique who was an extra hand, as 3rd January 1958 was the releasing date of an important picture. In the circumstances, I find that this workman left his job of his own accord, and now he was taken recourse to the Union just to see if he can recover any amount from the Company. I cannot find any fault with the Company as the workman himself is responsible for the termination of his job and he is entitled to no relief.

To sum up, I find that the termination of service of Sudhir Chandra is justified, and he is entitled to no relief. As regards Amir Hussain, the Company would reinstate him and give him his 3 months' wages within a month of the publication of the award. In the case of Quaium Khan, the Company is found to be unjustified in dismissing him, but as another man has already been appointed in his place, he is denied reinstatement in the interests of industrial peace and harmony, but he is awarded compensation equivalent to him three months' wages in all as stated above which is directed to be paid to him by the Company within a month of the publication of this award.

This is my award.

AWARD

By Government order No. 1471-I.R./IR/11L-388/58, dated 16th April 1959, a dispute between Messrs. British Paints (India), Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen of the Head Office represented by British Paints (India), Ltd. Employees' Association (hereinafter referred to as the Union), was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

The issues were—

(1) Whether the action of the Company in not giving twenty-eight days' privilege leave to the clerks who have put in more than ten years' service is justified. To what relief, if any, are the clerks entitled?

(2) Whether the action of the Company in reducing the annual leave of the subordinate staff from 30 days to 27 days is justified. To what relief, if any, are the workmen entitled?

These issues relate to an award made by this Tribunal on 21st May 1956 in respect of an industrial dispute between the above parties wherein the following were the issues—

(1) Working hours,

(2) Privilege leave for clerical staff and casual leave for subordinate staff, and

(3) Retiral benefits, provident fund and gratuity.

There was an appeal and counter-appeal against the award which were decided by the then Labour Appellate Tribunal on 11th September 1956.

It is contended on behalf of the Company that this reference which has been made under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, is invalid and incompetent inasmuch as the issues under the present reference would arise, if at all (by way of), either the interpretation of the previous awards or of the implementation or non-implementation of the same. This contention is accepted by the learned representative of the Union.

As a result it is held that this reference is invalid and not maintainable and hence it is rejected.

The Union will be at liberty to take proper and legal action regarding their alleged grievances. This is the award of the Tribunal.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee, 17B Ram Ratan Bose Lane, Calcutta-4, and their workmen represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-C-308-58.)

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge, First Labour Court.

Appearances:

For the Union: Shri Parimal Das Gupta.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bhattacharjee and Miss Aparna Bhattacharjee, officials of the Association of Manufacturers, Commercial and Traders, West Bengal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 5086-I.R./IR/4L-52/58, dated 2nd December 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee, 17B Ram Ratan Bose Lane, Calcutta-4, and their workmen represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Pinu Ram is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a dispute arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Pinu Ram previously employed as a driver under Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee of 17B Ram Ratan Bose Lane, Calcutta-4, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union's case in its written statement in short is that the driver Shri Pinu Ram was permanently employed in W.B.S. 26, Route No. 12C, for about 25 years, and the Company abruptly dismissed him with effect from 6th June 1958 without any notice, reason, enquiry whatsoever for his active trade unionism. The Company also violated the principles of "last come, first go." In the circumstances, the Union seeks relief on his behalf.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the material allegations in the written statement of the Union and contends, inter alia, that there is no Company in the name of Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee, but W.B.S. 26 is exclusively owned by Shri S. K. Chatterjee, the full name being Sarat Kumar Chatterjee. The Company further contends that Pinu Ram worked as a driver from 1949 with occasional breaks and left his job in July 1954 without giving any information. Thereafter he reappeared after a lapse of 13 months and appealed to Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee to save him from starvation by giving him a job. So, Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee gave him fresh appointment with effect from 19th September 1955 and thereafter he voluntarily gave up his job with effect from 6th June 1958. The Company's further contention is that this is an individual dispute, as none of the workmen employed under Shri Chatterjee espoused his cause, and furthermore he was not a "workman" at all as he was paid on commission basis.

Decision

In this case, the driver Shri Pinu Ram gave his deposition for the Union, and on the side of the Company the proprietor of the bus Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee (C.W. 1) and one bus conductor Shri Ram Singh Barman (C.W. 2) gave their depositions. The common ground in this case is that this driver is no longer in the service of Shri S. K. Chatterjee since 6th June 1958. Prior to that, the Union's case is that he was in service under Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee & Co., since 1935. The commencement of his service since 1935 is seriously disputed. Rather, the evidence is that there was another Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee & Co., with which the instant proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee has got no connection under which Pinu Ram was employed for a number of years, and the partnership of that Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee & Co., was subsequently dissolved. So, Pinu Ram's employment under Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee and Co. cannot be the same as under the sole proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee. According to the admission of Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee (C.W. 1), Pinu Ram was in his employment since December 1948 or January 1949. In this connection, it should be stated that much was sought to be made out of the certificate (Ext. 1) admittedly granted to Pinu by Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee and this certificate is dated 10th April 1953 wherein there is a recital that Pinu Ram was working under him as a driver for about the last 20 years. Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee has given his explanation for it in that this certificate was granted to enable Pinu Ram to secure a permit for a taxi. I have no reason to disbelieve the evidence of Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee that this certificate was given by him for an ulterior purpose least knowing that this might be used against him in future as a weapon by this driver In the circumstances, this certificate (Ext. 1) cannot be expected as describing the correct length of tenure of employment of Pinu Ram under Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee. I believe that Pinu Ram came to work under Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee as deposed to by the proprietor himself.

At this stage, I would advert to the contention raised on behalf of the alleged Company Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee that this driver, employed as he was on commission basis, and as the proprietor had no control over his time, is not a "workman" within the meaning of section 2(s) of the Act. It is common ground that this driver was paid on commission basis. There are authorities to show that the drivers paid on commission basis are also "workmen" within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act as the employer had control over drivers' time, granted him leave and was also competent to take disciplinary proceedings against him.

As regards the Company's contention that it had no control over the time of the driver, I am not inclined to believe it, because the bus WBS 26 used to ply in Route No. 12C, and it is presumed that buses run according to certain timings which the drivers and conductors are bound to observe, and so there is no truth or reason in the Company's contention that it had no control over the time of the driver. I would, therefore, hold that this driver was a "workman" employed under the proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee.

Now, I would take up another point. The Company contends that the driver gave up his job voluntarily on 6th June 1958 without its permission, and the Union's allegation is that he was dismissed and it is to be decided whose version is correct. If he were dismissed as alleged by the Union, this dismissal as it was made without any charge-sheet cannot be upheld as the principles of natural justice were violated, but if the driver voluntarily gave up his job, the Company cannot be blamed. The Company has shown by producing Garage Register that this driver Pinu Ram was occasionally absent from his work and that for a good number of days. The driver's own admission is that he was at home from 1954 to 1955. He has also admitted that he went home in 1935 and stayed there for 5/6 months and then again in 1939 he was granted leave for a year But his absence during the year from 1935 to 1939 does not count much in this case, because then he was not in employment of this proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee, but he was in the employment of Messrs. S. K. Chatterjee. The cumulative effect of the evidence in this case is that this driver was not a regular worker, and he used to go home whenever he liked and there was substitute to work in his place, and it is not unlikely that he gave up his job here voluntarily in quest of a better job elsewhere as he gave out that his wages under this proprietor were not adequate for his purpose. Besides, I have very minutely marked that he is much above 49 which the driver gave out as his age in Court, and I have no reason to disbelieve that he was responsible for some accidents due to his defective eye-sight. In the circumstances, I would rather believe that the driver gave up his job voluntarily, and that he was not dismissed because it is apparent that this proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee had a soft corner for him who rather tried to secure a taxi permit for him previously. It is also admitted by the driver that his own brother Shri Iswar Das is still working under the proprietor Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee. If this workman were really dismissed, the Court would at least expect that his own brother Shri Iswar Das would depose in Court on his behalf. Thus I find that this is not a case of dismissal, but a case of voluntary termination of his service by the workman himself. That being so, no question of relief arises.

Next, I would take up the contention on behalf of the Company that this is not an industrial spute as none of the workmen in the employ-ent of Shri Sarat Kumar Chatterjee espoused s cause. On the side of the Company the idence is that there are 2 drivers and 4 nductors, and the workman has admitted that ne of these drivers and conductors took up his s , nor did they represent it to the Union. us it is clear that it is an individual dispute, d that being so the reference is incompetent and e Court cannot proceed to adjudicate on it.

To sum up, the workman is entitled to no lief. The reference is also incompetent as the spute is an individual one.

This is my award.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour by order No. 1666-I.R./IR/101-52/59, dated 24th April 1959, referred, under sections 7A and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Electric Lamp Works Limited, 86-1 Suren Sircar Road (Bahir Sura Road), Calcutta-10, and their workmen represented by Calcutta Electric Lamp Workers' Union, 27/1 Beliaghata Main Road, Calcutta, relating to the undermentioned issue to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issues

(1) Ad hoc increment.

(2) Permanency.

(2) Notices were issued on both the parties, who filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

(3) On 30th October 1959 both the parties appeared and filed a joint petition of compromise, stating that the Company will give a flat increment of Rs. 2.00 nP. per head in the monthly wages and salaries of all workmen with effect from 1st November 1959, that the Company will give every year a Puja Bonus to each permanent workman equivalent to his basic wages for one month, that the workmen themselves and the Union on behalf of the workmen undertake that henceforth the production per day will be stepped up and the minimum production per day on the present strength of 35 for 8 hours will be 45 trays or $45 \times 36 = 1,620$ finished bulbs, that the Company agrees to pay an Incentive Bonus to the workers, eligibility being on the basis as in clause (ii) of the joint petition and that no Incentive Bonus will be demanded by the workmen if the average minimum production as agreed is not maintained continuously for the whole of the particular year for the fault of the workmen. The joint petition of compromise further states that considering that the workers have incurred certain expenditure in connection with the present dispute, the Company as a gesture of goodwill, but without creating any precedent, agrees to pay a sum of Rs. 100.00 nP.

to compensate the workmen. It is prayed that an award incorporating the Settlement as mentioned in the joint petition may be made. The joint petition of compromise appears as Appendix A to this award. I have perused the petition in Appendix A. The terms mentioned therein appear to me to be quite fair and equitable, and is likely to foster industrial peace. In the circumstances, there is no reason why the terms should not be accepted. In the result, the terms in Appendix A are given effect to and an award is made on the basis of the compromise petition, which will from a part of the award.

The Calcutta Electric Lamp Works Limited, 86-1 Suren Sircar Road (Bahir Sura Road), Calcutta-10 (hereinafter referred to as "the Company")

And

Their workmen, represented by Calcutta Electric Lamp Workers' Union, 27/1 Beliaghata Main Road, Calcutta (hereinafter referred to as "the Union").

The joint petition of the parties hereto.

Most respectfully sheweth:

1. That the abovenamed parties have arrived at an amicable settlement on the following terms, namely,—

(i) That the Company will give a flat increment of Rs. 2.00 nP. per head in the monthly wages and salaries of all workmen, with effect from the 1st November 1959.

(ii) That the Company will give every year a Puja Bonus to each permanent workman equivalent to his basic wages for one month. Temporary workers, who have put in less than six months' continuous service in the Company on the date of payment of the Puja Bonus, and casual workers will not be entitled to receive any Puja Bonus. Puja Bonus will be paid seven days before the "Saptami."

(iii) That the workmen themselves and the Union on their behalf also agree that the present rate of production, namely, 40 trays=40×36 =1,440 finished bulbs per day of 8 hours for the present strength of 35 is low and uneconomical, and they now undertake that henceforth, the production per day will be stepped up and the minimum production per day on the present strength of 35 for 8 hours will be 45 trays or 45×36=1,620 finished bulbs

(iv) That the Company agrees to pay an Incentive Bonus to the workers, eligibility being on the basis as in clause (ii) above, at the rate of one month's basic wages, provided the agreed minimum production is maintained. This Incentive Bonus will be paid every year, depending on the minimum production as above, on the expiry of months from the date of the payment of Puja Bonus in that particular year (Bengali sal).

(v) That no Incentive Bonus will be demanded by the workmen or be payable by the Company if the average minimum production as agreed herein is not maintained continuously for the whole of the particular year for the fault of the workmen

(vi) That the workmen and the Union agree that the above terms settle all disputes in the above reference, and that they will not raise any dispute whatsoever within two years of the signing of this settlement.

(vii) That the parties also agree that after the expiry of the aforesaid period of two years, should there be any dispute between the Company and the workmen, the same will be sought to be settled by direct approach, and by mutual discussion, as far as practicable, and only constitutional means will be adopted in settling disputes.

(viii) That considering that the workers have incurred certain expenditure in connexion with the present dispute before this learned Tribunal the Company, as a gesture of goodwill, but without creating any precedent, agrees to and will pay a sum of Rs. 100.00 nP. to compensate them. This amount will be paid by the Company to the executive of the Union specifically authorised in this behalf.

2. That the parties humbly pray that your honour would be pleased to make an award incorporating the above settlement and on the basis thereof.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 845-I.R./IR/11L-102/58, dated 8th March 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Shri Mahindra Singh, c/o. Shri Jagir Singh, Sevoke Road, Siliguri, and his workman Shri Birbahadur Gurung, represented by the Darjeeling-Himalayan Motor Drivers' Union, P. O. Kurseong, district Darjeeling, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Is Shri Birbahadur Gurung entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified discharge of Shri Birbahadur Gurung previously employed as a driver under Shri Mahindra Singh, Seoke Road, Siliguri, hereinafter described as the employer for the sake of brevity.

The Union's allegation in brief is as follows: Shri Birbahadur Gurung—the workman concerned was appointed permanently in 1953 as a driver in respect of his employer's vehicle No. WGY 717. The workman was, in fact, driver-cum-mechanic, and so he effected necessary repairs to the vehicle from time to time. Just as the business started flourishing, all on a sudden the employer discharged him on 12th August 1957 on the pretext that the season was slack and that therefore he intended to stop the running of the vehicle for a few days from 13th August 1957, and that the driver workman would be informed as and when his services were again required. The workman is a member of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Motor Drivers' Union, which espoused his cause, and conciliation proceedings were held, but not to any successful issue, and hence the dispute. The Union, therefore, seeks his reinstatement with other ancillary reliefs.

The employer's case in brief is that this is an individual dispute since none of the 8/9 colleagues of this workman made any grievance or common cause with him, nor is the workman a member of the Siliguri Drivers' Association of which his colleagues in the same establishment of the employer are members, nor did that Union take up his cause.

On merits, the case of the employer is that he had not dismissed the workman, but that the workman voluntarily gave up his job, saying that he would no longer serve under the employer and would go to Tinsukia to purchase a car for running a business on his own account. The employer denies all other allegations made in the written statement of the Union.

Decision

The only point for determination in this case is whether the workman Shri Birbahadur Gurung is entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation. In this case, the workman examined himself alone in this Court. His uncorroborated testimony is that the employer discharged him abruptly on the plea that Rotation System was introduced in the district, and as a result thereof the bus could not be plied between Siliguri and Darjeeling more than once during a day resulting in loss, and as such the employer discharged him. As against this, the employer Shri Mahindra Singh gave his deposition in Court which establishes that it is a case of voluntary termination of service by the workman himself, and gives a lie to the allegation of dismissal or discharge of the workman by the employer as alleged by him. The material document in this case is Ext. A which is admitted to have been signed by the workman himself on 13th August 1957. This receipt reads as follows:—

"I, Shri Birbahadur Gurung, received with thanks from S. Jagir Singh the sum of Rs. 110-15 only in cash against working in Bus No. WGY 717 from 1st July 1957 to 12th August 1957 at Rs. 80 per month except extra Rs. 4 per trip fooding and hence I have no claim on owner for any kind of my dues".

It is necessary in this connection to refer to the concluding sentence of this receipt (Ext. A) wherein the workman has stated that he has no claim on owner for any kind of his dues. The evidence is that the workman is now employed under one Jharu Mukherjee on a contract basis. The employer has examined another person Shri Debabrata Sanyal (C. W. 2) who was present at the time when this receipt was executed and the money was paid. Of course, this witness has made a mistake so far as the date is concerned. Since the receipt of the money is admitted by the workman himself, this discrepancy as to the date is immaterial. I have closely marked the demeanour of this witness Shri Sanyal, and I have no hesitation in accepting his testimony. His evidence corroborates that of the employer, which coupled with the receipt (Ext. A) leads one to the irresistible conclusion that this is a case of voluntary termination of service, and not of dismissal as alleged by the workman. If this workman would not have intended washing his hands clean of the service, he would not have agreed to write in this receipt that he has no claim of any kind on this employer. I, therefore, hold that this is a case of voluntary termination of service.

It may be incidentally observed that the talk of settlement failed as the workman asked for wages for the period of forced idleness to which the employer did not agree, but he agreed to re-employ him as a driver of a truck, so the allegation of dismissal is not obviously credible, nor consistent with the workman's story of dismisal and taking up employment elsewhere. The employer owns 3 buses and 5 trucks and the Bus No. WGY 717 is agreed to be sold to another, but no sale deed is yet executed. As the employer agrees to re-employ the workman, the allegation that he wants to dispose it of with a view to defeat the workman's claim to reinstatement is not credible.

The next contention of the employer is that it is an individual dispute. I think, there is considerable force in this contention. All the 8/9 colleagues of the workman are members of a different Union, viz., Siliguri Drivers' Association and have not made a common cause with him over his alleged discharge. Thus the colleagues of the workman in the same establishment did not raise any dispute over the alleged discharge or dismissal of the workman. This workman says that he is a member of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Motor Drivers' Union, but he could not even prove his membership. Even assuming that the workman is a member of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Motor Drivers' Union, this Union did not represent the matter to the employer, nor is it competent to raise any dispute over a matter concerning a member of a different Union with which it has no connection. The case of Express Newspapers Ltd. reported in 1959 L. L. J., Vol. I, page 600, lays down as follows:—

"The Industrial Disputes Act is a legislation intended to ensure industrial harmony when an individual case is taken up by a class of workmen, then it becomes an industrial struggle and loses its limited scope. But I find no justification in holding that a workman's cause can be taken up by an union unconnected with the employer or the industry concerned, and still pass the test whereby an individual dispute can be transformed into an industrial dispute. The employer is not concerned with the workmen who are not in his employ. He cannot possibly have an industrial dispute or any dispute with persons who are not in his employ. The real test appears to me to to be as to whether the majority, or a large portion of the workmen employed in the particular industry, are concerned in the dispute or not. Where the Union is of the workmen employed in that particular industry, it may be presumed that when the Union takes up the cause of an individual workman, it signifies a concerted action on the part of the workmen who are members of that Union."

Bearing this principle in mind, I am of opinion that the instant dispute is an individual dispute, and the reference is incompetent, and the Court cannot adjudicate upon it.

To sum up, in view of my above findings, the dispute is an individual one and the reference is incompetent, and the workman is found entitled to no relief in the circumstances.

This is my award.

Chengmari Tea Estate, P.O. Daiching, Jalpaiguri (Managing Agents—Messrs. Octavius Steel & Co. Ltd., Calcutta) and their workmen represented by the Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union, P.O. Mal, Jalpaiguri, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:

Schedule

1. Whether the dismissal of the 16 workmen named in the list attached to the order of reference and the termination of service of Sm. Dilmaya (wife of Jetha Basnet) and Sm. Sukro (wife of Behari Uraon) are justified?
2. What relief by way of reinstatement and/or compensation are they entitled to?

AWARD

This is a dispute arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of 16 workmen as per list attached to the order of reference and also out of dscharge of 2 other workmen viz., Sm. Dilmaya (wife of Jetha Basnet) and Sm. Sukro (wife of Behari Uraon), by Messrs. Chengmari Tea Estate, P.O. Daiching, Jalpaiguri (Managing Agents—Messrs. Octavius Steel & Co. Ltd., Calcutta), hereinafter referred to as the Tea Estate for the sake of brevity.

The Union's case is briefly stated as follows: The Zilla Cha Bagan Workers' Union was formed sometime in the year 1954 and the Management did not take its formation in good graces. The Management, therefore, started throwing workmen in the garden out of employment. The first victim was one Sorari, a Union Official, and another worker both of whom were dismissed without any formal charge-sheets, but as the Union took up their cause they were reinstated. The workmen thereafter started agitating demands for housing, supply of sufficient drinking water, re-determination of thicka task and other labour welfare measures. The Manager Mr. Wilson in order to forestall the aforesaid activities of the Union lodged a false complaint against (1) Dalbahadur, (2) Behari, (3) Budhram, (4) Abhirman, (5) Gande, (6) Kancha Kame, (7) Manmaya, (8) Cheasey and (9) Bishu Maya. After investigation, the Police arrested (1) Behari, (2) Kamal Singh, (3) Budhram, (4) Gande, (5) Dasarath, (6) Dalbahadur, (7) Sm. Fisty, (8) Sm. Manmaya, and (9) Sm. Bisnumaya, but they were let off on bail by the Police on the same date (4th March 1955). Of the arrested persons, Behari, Budhram, Dalbahadur and Manmaya were convicted under section 147 and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 50 each, and others were acquitted. The Management, however, did not rest content with the result of the criminal case, and issued charge-sheets on the same allegations against Narbahadur Chaprashi, Jetha Basnet, Guey, Jalsa, Budhua, Cheasey, Purkey, Anantalal, Sorari, Abhirman, Kancha Kame and others. These charge-sheeted workmen denied allegations, but the Management victimised them arbitrarily without holding any enquiry. Then again, the Management fabricated the false story of alleged disturbance on 9th December 1955, and on 14th December 1955 charge-sheeted Kancha Kame, Abhirman, Sorari, Anantalal and Guey. The workers denied the allegations as false, but the Management victimised them on the basis of the alleged false incident on 9th December 1955. The Assistant Manager Mr. J. B. Tebbutt lodged a complaint over this incident of 9th December 1955 and the Police submitted a final report. The Management thereupon organised a Resistance Party with their hench-men and started intimidating the workers who were associated with any kind of trade union movement. The Management thereafter maliciously accused Jalsa, Bandhana, Budhua, Somra of Birsha (1), Paie and Somra of Tejbir Sirdar of having assaulted one Etwa who is said to be the leader of the Resistance Party and 4 others. The Management charge-sheeted them on 17th July 1956, and though these charge-sheeted workmen denied the charge, the Management dismissed them on 23rd July 1956 illegally and arbitrarily without holding any enquiry. Thereupon the Management framed several false and unfounded charges between 6th July 1956 and 23rd July 1956 against Sukra Paniwalla and he was dismissed on 24th July 1956. Last of all, the two females as aforesaid, viz., Sm. Dilmaya and Sm. Sukro, were illegally and arbitrarily discharged on grounds of dismissal of their respective husbands. The Union, therefore, stigmatises the alleged dismissals as being opposed to the principles of natural justice and as victimisation, and presses for reinstatement and reasonable compensation on behalf of these workmen.

The Tea Estate, on the other hand, in its written statement denies the allegations of victimisation and avers that the incidents forming the basis of charge-sheet against the charge-sheeted workmen are true, and justified their dismissals on proper enquiries which were held with due notice to all these workmen. The Tea Estate in its written statement classed the concerned workmen in 3 principal groups, viz., Group A, Group B and Group C. Under Group A, come Narbahadur, Jetha Basnet, Cheasey and Purkey who were charge-sheeted for their being engaged in rioting on 4th March 1955 in which the Garden Manager was seriously injured and two Assistant Managers were assaulted, and for inciting others to disturbance or violence and they were dismissed after proper enquiries with effect from 18th April 1956.

Under Group B fall Kancha Kame, Abhirman, Sorari, Guey and Anantalal who were charge-sheeted under sections 9(a)(i), 9(a) and 8 of the then existing standing orders for their insolent manner and disobedience on 14th December 1955 to carry out the Assistant Manager's orders, and they were dismissed on 17th December 1955 after holding proper enquiry with due notice to them.

Next comes Group C whereunder fall Jalsa, Budhua, Bandhan, Paie, Somra of Tejbir Sirder and Somra of Birsha (1) Sirder for their assault on Etwa Baider on 15th July 1956 and also 4 other labourers, viz., Mangra II of Mangra Sirder, Behari of Etwa Sirder, Bolo of Kinoo Sirder and Uraon of Ram Prosad (1) Sirder who came to rescue Etwa Baider. These 6 persons were charge-sheeted under section 13(C)(viii) of the standing order of the garden, and dismissed on 23rd July 1956 as a result of due enquiries held with proper notice to them.

Next comes Group D for Sukra Paniwalla who was charge-sheeted on 16th July 1956 and dismissed under section 13(C)(viii) of the standing orders for his disorderly conduct in that he frightened a girl and caused her to be locked in his house all night with another man against her will. There was another charge against him under section 13(C)(viii) of the standing orders for assaulting Kul Bahadur Dafadar with a dagger and also for assaulting and causing grievous bodily harm to one Gandra. An enquiry was duly held and he was dismissed on 24th July 1956.

Lastly, as regards the two female workmen, namely, Sm. Dilmaya and Sm. Sukro, the case of the Tea Estate is that they were dismissed on 18th July 1956, i.e., more than six months after their husbands were discharged. The Management has got reasons to believe that their presence in the garden would lead to further disturbance, and for this reason these two female workers were discharged with full compensation.

Decision

First I take up the workmen of Group A in the Tea Estate's written statement, and under this group fall, as already stated, Narbahadur Chaprashi, Jetha Basnet, Purkey and Cheasey (Serial Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 respectively in the list of names attached to the order of reference). The charges against these four persons are of the same nature and their explanations are of the same type, and the evidence recorded at the domestic enquiry proceedings is also the same, and the orders of dismissals are based on the same evidence. Charges are marked Exts. B, A, C and D respectively, and their explanations are marked Exts B-1, A-1, C-1 and D-1, and the proceedings o enquiry are marked Exts. B-2, A-2, C-2 and D-2 The charge is couched in the same term, namely that they are guilty of gross misconduct on 4th March 1955 when they incited others to disturbance or violence and committed offence under section 9A(viii) of the standing orders, and as such they are liable to dismissal. Each of these 4 workmen denied the charge saying that he did not incite others to disturbance or violence on 4th March 1955, and they all prayed for withdrawa of the suspension order, as the matter was sub judice in a Criminal Court. It appears from the enquiry proceedings that in the case of Jetha Basnet Mr. W. Murray and Mr. J. H. Melling were examined, and in the case of Narbahadur Mr. Murray, Mr. Melling, Shri R. C. Biswas and Barka Chowkidar, Jetha Office Chowkidar, Sukdeo Postman, Debesh Mandal Carpenter and Kancha Chetri were examined, and in the case of Purkey and Cheasey Mr. Murray and Mr. Melling were examined. I have gone through the enquiry proceedings in all these cases, and find that the workmen were given reasonable opportunities to defend themselves at every stage and they were asked if they had anything to say in regard to the evidence of the witnesses recorded at the enquiry and if they had any witness to be examined on their behalf, but they did not deliberately participate in the enquiry. The evidence prima facie establishes the charge formulated against these workmen. There being no proof of the vitiating elements, namely, mala fides, policy of victimisation, unfair labour practice, basic error of facts or perverse finding, I think, I shall not be justified in interfering with the orders passed at the domestic enquiry by the Management. The Management during trial in this Court, examined its Manager Mr. Curnow whose evidence was recorded de bene esse at a prior stage as he left for U.K. and subsequently examined C.W. 2—Mr. Tebbutt, C.W. 3—Mr. Murray and C.W. 4—Mr. Robinson. Their evidence before this Court is generally in conformity with the evidence recorded at the domestic enquiry, and I find no reasons for disbelieving their testimony. In the circumstances, I find the orders of dismissal justified on the evidence on record in the cases of the 4 workmen of Group A.

Next, I take up the cases of workmen under Group B. Under Group B fall 5 workmen, viz., Kancha Kame, Abhirman, Sorari, Guey and Anantalal (Sl. Nos. 5, 6 7, 9 and 8 in the list of names attached to the order of reference). Against these 5 workmen, there appear to be 2 sets of charges, namely, Exts. O and O-2, P and P-2, Q and Q-2, R and R-2 and S and S-2 and they were suspended—vide Exts. O-1, P-1, Q-1, R-1 and S-1. The main charge against them is relating to the incident on 4th March 1955, and the charge is that they incited other workmen to disturbance or violence on 4th March 1955, and thus committed an offence under section 9A(viii) of the standing orders. In the charge-sheets (Exts. O, P, Q, R and S), they were given 3 days' time to offer their explanations. But the workmen denied the charge relating to the incident on 9th December 1955, and stated that they had no cause to attend at the Office—vide Exts. T-4, T-3, T-2, T-1 and T. Thereafter no enquiry appears to have been held and all at once dismissal orders were passed. Their dismissal orders are Exts. U(4), U(3), U(2), U(1) and U respectively. I am afraid, the dismissal orders passed by the Management in the case of workmen under Group B cannot be upheld. They were dismissed on charges relating to the incident of 9th December 1955 but no enquiry was held. Thus the principles of natural justice were violated in their case, and the workmen cannot be condemned unheard. There were no enquiries concerning the charge relating to the incident of 4th March 1955. But there was a criminal case over this ending in conviction of some workmen. The dismissal orders are couched in the terms as under:—

"You are hereby informed that as your explanation to the charges set out in the warning order sent to you on 14th December 1955 are not satisfactory and are not accepted, you are dismissed from the service of the Nedeem Tea Co., Ltd. with effect from 16th December 1955. The reason for your dismissal is that you have been found guilty of gross misconduct in that you caused a disturbance by shouting and using abusive language against Mr. J. B. Tebbutt, the Assistant Manager, Upper Division, Chengmari Tea Estate, on 9th December 1955.

You have been warned previously regarding misconduct.

You are hereby given notice, that is 28 days from this date, you must vacate the quarter you occupy. In default, I shall take action to have you evicted.

You will cease to draw ration from the date of the expiry of the notice, i.e., 12th January 1956."

I must therefore, observe that so far as the workmen of Group B are concerned, the principles of natural justice were obviously violated. If an enquiry were held with due notice to the workmen, the latter could have adduced evidence to established their innocence, but this opportunity was denied to them. Thus their dismissal orders, passed as they are ex parte resulting in miscarriage of justice, cannot stand. I, therefore, set aside orders of dismissals in respect of the workmen under Group B, and direct the Tea Estate to reinstate them, and for the period of their forced idleness they should each be given only their 3 months' wages treating their continuity of service as unbroken.

Next, I take up the cases of the workmen in Group C. Under group C fall Jalsa, Budhua, Bandhan, Paie, Somra of Tejbir Sirder and Somra of Birsha Sirder (1) (Sl. Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 respectively of the list of names attached to the order of reference). The charge-sheets are Exts. E and E-4 in respect of Jalsa, Exts. F and F-4 in respect of Budhua, Ext. G in respect of Bandhan (alias Budhiman Sirder), Ext. H in regard to Paie, Ext. I in respect of Somra of of Tejbir Sirder and Ext. J in respect of Somra of Birsha Sirder. In all these cases, the workmen concerned applied for 7 days' time to reply to the charges as per Exts. E-2, F-1, G-2, H-1, I-1 and J-1, dated 17th July 1956, but the Management did not grant their prayer and in their absence held enquiries—enquiry proceedings being marked Exts. E-1, F-2, G-1, H-2, I-2 and J-2. The charges in all these cases were for assaulting Etwa and four garden labourers on 15th July 1956, and they were held guilty under section 13(C)(viii) of the standing orders. These enquiries were not attended by any of these workmen, but were held ex parte. The Tea Estate was unjustified in rejecting workmen's applications for 7 days' time and holding enquiries in their absence. It must, therefore, be said that the principles of natural justice were violated in their cases, and the enquiry proceedings cannot, therefore, stand. I am therefore, unable to accept the enquiry proceedings, and I proceed on the evidence recorded during trial, and I find guilty Budhua, the principal offender who struck Etwa on the head with a lathi, as a result of which Etwa became unconscious, and Mangra II of Mangra Sirder, Behari, Bolo and Ledoa came to his rescue and also sustained injuries. There are medical certificates (Exts. X to X-4) to show the injuries found on Etwa, Behari, Bolo, Mangra II and Ledoa. Obviously, Etwa was assaulted as he was a member of the Resistance Party as there was a fracas. It is indeed difficult to decide after a lapse of 3/4 years as to which part was taken by whom in the actual assault on these workmen whose injuries are testified to by certificates granted by the Medical Officer. Having regard to the evidence recorded during trial, I find Budhua guilty as the principal offender in this case and uphold the order of dismissal of the Management so far as he is concerned, and as regards the other workmen of this Group who were also dismissed by the Management, they are directed to be re-employed, but I deny them wages for the period of their forced idleness, because they are suspected to have taken some part in the assault on Etwa and others, but for lack of evidence at this distant time, their complicity in the act of assault cannot be definitely ascertained. I think, I shall not be justified in finding them guilty on mere suspicion and thus dismissing them. For their suspected complicity in the assault, I think, denial of wages for this long period will be their adequate punishment.

Next, comes Group D in which falls Sukra Paniwalla alone. The charge against him (Ext. K) is that he took one Penia Uraoni, wife of Etwa Uraon and confined her in his house with two other persons on the night of 28th May 1956, and caused her to drink haria, and so he was charged under section 13(C)(viii) of the standing orders. There is a further charge (Ext. K-4) against Sukra Paniwalla for having assaulted one Gandra on 6th July 1956, and the charge was under the same section of the standing orders. Sukra did not offer any explanation, but prayed for 7 days' time as per application Ext. K-1 which was refused. The enquiry was then held in the absence of Sukra, and Sukra Paniwalla was found guilty and he was dismissed. I have gone through the evidence of Penia Uraoni recorded in this case which substantially corroborates the evidence recorded during the domestic enquiry, though there is discrepancy as regards the period of her detention in the house of Sukra Paniwalla. The Management, it appears, took a lenient view of the offence of the confinement of Penia Uraoni so far as Sukra was concerned, and gave him a warning as per Ext. K-3, but the Management dismissed him for his having assaulted Gandra, and I have no reason to differ from the finding reached at the domestic enquiry, which therefore stands. The offence against Penia is proved, and that alone justifies the order of dismissal passed on Sukra, let alone the other charge relating to the assault on Gandra which is also proved—vide Ext. K-5, and I am unable to interfere with the findings reached by the Management at the domestic enquiry as there are no elements to vitiate the domestic enquiry.

Next, I take up the case of Sm. Dilmaya and Sm. Sukro, wives of Jetha Basnet and Behari respectively. The dismissal of Jetha Basnet of Group A is upheld as already stated above and the dismissal of Behari is undisputed. In the fitness of things, the aforesaid two women being wives of 2 dismissed workmen cannot naturally and conveniently live separately from their respective husbands which will result in the rupture of their conjugal life, and so they should be discharged so that they may follow their husbands outside the garden. The discharge in the case of these two women is, therefore, upheld. Be it expressed that Sm. Dilmaya was paid up her dues of Rs. 322-6-6 pies in full as per receipt dated 18th June 1956, and that Sm. Sukro was likewise paid up Rs. 443-5-6 pies on 18th July 1956. These payments are undisputed.

To sum up, the dismissal of the workmen in Group A is upheld. The dismissal of Budhua alone in Group C is upheld, and the other workmen of that group are directed to be reinstated. The dismissal of the workmen in Group B is held to be unjustified, and they are directed to be reinstated with 3 months' wages being paid to each of them. All the workmen whose dismissals have been found to be unjustified, should be reinstated within a month of the publication of the award, and payments as directed should be made to them during the same period treating their continuity of service unbroken. The dismissal of Sukra Paniwalla is upheld and so also the discharge of the two female folk viz., Sm. Dilmaya and Sm. Sukro. More specifically, the findings are as follows:—

Group A—(1) Nar Bahadur, (2) Jetha Basnet, (3) Purkey, (4) Cheasey.—Their dismissals are upheld and they are found entitled to no relief.

Group B—(5) Kancha Kame, (6) Abhirman (7) Sorari, (8) Anantalal, (9) Guey.—Their dismissals are found unjustified and set aside. They are directed to be reinstated and each of them should be paid his 3 months' wages for the period of forced unemployment and their period of unemployment be treated as unbroken. The Company do give them the aforesaid within a month of the publication of the award.

Group C—The dismissal of Budhua (11) alone is upheld and he is entitled to no relief. The dismissal of the remaining workmen of this Group viz. Jalsa (10), Bandhu (12) Paie (13), Somra of Tajbir Sirdar (14), and Somra of Birsha I (15) is found unjustified and they are directed to be reinstated without any compensation as already found, within a month of the publication of this award, but their continuity of service be treated as unbroken.

Group D—Sukra Paniwalla (16) is found to have been justly dismissed, and he is entitled to no relief.

The discharge of Sm. Dilmaya and Sm. Sukro (with their dues fully paid) whose respective husbands have already been dismissed for their misconduct, is found justified for reasons of industrial peace and subsistence of their conjugal life.

This is my award.

DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

NOTIFICATION

No. 13.—12th August 1959.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (XIV of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following amendment to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, namely:—

In the said Regulations, for Regulation 25, the following Regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

"25. (1) The initial pay of an employee other than those mentioned in clause (2) will ordinarily be fixed at the minimum of the time scale of the post in which he is employed. The fixation of pay in excess of the minimum of the time scale and the grant of premature increments will require the sanction of the Corporation.

(2) The pay of pensioners including those pensioned off or retired on Contributory Provident Fund from service of the Central Government, State Governments, Local Bodies, Port Trusts, etc., administered by Government, Railways, Defence estimates, etc., re-employed in the Corporation shall be regulated in the following manner:—

(a) The initial pay, on re-employment, will be fixed at the minimum stage of the scale of pay prescribed for the post in which an individual is re-employed. In cases where the Corporation feels that the fixation of initial pay at the minimum of the prescribed pay scale is likely to cause undue hardship, the Corporation may fix the pay at a higher scale by allowing one increment for each year of service which the individual has rendered before retirement in a post not lower than that in which he is re-employed.

(b) In addition to the pay fixed under (a) above, the pensioner may be permitted to draw separately any pension sanctioned to him and to retain any other form of retirement benefit for which he is eligible, e.g., Government's contribution to Provident Fund, gratuity, commuted value of pension, etc., provided that the total amount of initial pay plus the gross amount of pension and/or pensionary equivalent of other forms of retirement benefits, does not exceed the pay drawn before retirement (pre-retirement pay) or Rs. 3,000, whichever is less.

Note 1: In all cases where either of this limit is exceeded, the pension and other retirement benefits may be drawn by the employee in full but necessary adjustments will be made in the pay so as to ensure that the total of pay and pensionary benefits does not exceed the prescribed limits.

Where, after the initial pay has been fixed at the minimum or at any higher stage under (a) above, it is reduced below the minimum as a result of the said adjustments, increase in pay may be allowed after each year of service at the rates of increments admissible as if the pay had been fixed at the minimum or the higher stage, as the case may be.

Note 2: The pay last drawn before retirement will be taken to be substantive pay plus special pay, if any; pay drawn in officiating appointment may be taken into account if the individual had at least officiated in that appointment for one year before retirement.

(c) In the case of posts for which the Corporation is satisfied that personnel with the requisite qualifications and experience are not available and it is found necessary to recruit an officer for service at a place situated at a considerable distance from his home town, the restriction that initial pay on re-employment plus pension shall not exceed the last pay drawn, may be relaxed by the Corporation to the extent indicated below:

(i) Initial pay on re-employment plus gross pension/pension equivalent of other retirement benefits shall not exceed the pay last drawn before retirement by more than Rs. 250;

(ii) The total of initial pay on re-employment as fixed under paragraph (b) above plus gross pension/pension equivalent of other retirement benefits shall not exceed Rs. 1,000;

(iii) The above concession shall be admissible only where the employee has retired on a superannuation pension.

(d) In a case where the minimum pay of a post in which an employee is re-employed is more than the last pay drawn, the employee may be allowed the minimum of the prescribed scale of the post less pension and pensionary equivalent of other retirement benefits.

(e) Once the initial pay of a re-employed pensioner has been fixed in the manner indicated above, he will be allowed to draw normal increments in the time-scale of the post to which he is appointed, provided that the pay and gross pension/pension equivalent of other retirement benefits taken together do not at any time exceed Rs. 3,000 per month.

Note 3: This amendment shall come into force with effect from the 12th August 1959. All past cases which have been decided otherwise than in accordance with the revised Regulation will not be reopened. In respect of employees already re-employed, this Regulation will apply from the date of commencement of the further period of re-employment if the existing period of re-employment is extended."

General Manager and Secretary.

Subject: Advance of pay to State Government servants during the Durga Pujas—Recovery of.

No. TM/741.—24th November 1959.—In continuation of this office notification No. TM/735, dated 11th September 1959, on the above subject published on pages 3428-3430 of Part I of the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 17th September 1959, it is stated that as the Government of West Bengal in their Finance Department memorandum No. 3963-F/F/1A-6/59, dated 18th November 1959 (copy enclosed) have decided that the first instalment of the advance will be recovered from the salary of the Government servants concerned for the month of December 1959 payable during the month of January 1960 instead of from the salary for the month of November 1959 payable in December 1959 as previously intimated, the first instalment of the advance taken by the Government servants during the last Durga Pujas may be recovered from their salary for the month of December 1959 payable during the month of January 1960 and the remaining five instalments from their salary during the following five months. Statements and other information required to be furnished to this office in terms of the notification, dated 11th September 1959, and this office circular No. BSI/FA/770, dated 27th September 1959, will have to be sent accordingly.

A. N. BISWAS,
Dy. Accountant-General (Admn.).

(Copy of the memorandum No. 3963-F/F/1A-6/59, dated the 18th November 1959, from the Government of West Bengal, Finance Department, Audit Branch).

It has come to the notice of Government that many Government servants who took interest-free advances on the eve of the Durga Pujas have been affected by the recent floods in West Bengal and that it will cause hardship to them if the first instalment of the advance is recovered from their salary payable on the 1st December 1959. Government are accordingly pleased to direct in partial modification of Government order No. 3189-F/F/1A/6/59, dated the 2nd September 1959, that the first instalment of the advance will be recovered from the salary of the Government servants concerned for the month of December 1959 payable during the month of January 1960 instead of from the salary for the month of November 1959 payable in December 1959 and that the remaining five instalments will be recovered from their salary during the following five months.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE WEST BENGAL FINANCIAL CORPORATION.

ACCOUNTS

The Board of Directors present herewith the accounts for the year ended the 31st March, 1959, together with their report on the working of the Corporation during the year. After payment of expenses of administration and other charges (including depreciation and interest on Bonds issued) the net profit for the year amounts to Rs. 4,76,253·07 nP. to which Rs. 1,764·60 nP., being the unspent balance of "Brokerage" on issue of Bonds and Rs. 13·01 nP., being refund of excess interest on Bonds, have been added, making the balance of the Profit and Loss Account .. .. Rs. 4,78,030·68 nP.

Out of this amount, the following appropriations have been made :—

(a) Provision for income tax (including additional tax aggregating Rs. 46,228·37 nP. assessed for the years 1956-57 and 1957-58, for which an appeal has been preferred to the higher Income Tax authorities)	Rs.	2,87,000
(b) Transfer to Reserve Fund established in terms of sub-section (1) of Section 35 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951 ..	Rs.	23,500
(c) Amount transferred to write off the outstandings in "Discount on the issue of Bonds A/c" ..	Rs.	6,250	Rs. 3,16,750·00 nP.
leaving available for distribution ..		..	Rs. 1,61,280·68 nP.

The amount available for distribution, expressed as a percentage of the paid-up capital, works out at 1·61% compared with 1·85% in 1957-58. This small decline in the percentage, despite higher net profits, is due to the fact that a much higher provision had to be made for income tax this year to cover additional taxations for the previous years.

2. The State Government, in pursuance of Section 6 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951 have guaranteed a minimum dividend at 3½% per annum on the paid-up share capital of the Corporation. It is proposed to utilise the above amount of Rs. 1,61,280·68 nP. towards payment of dividend at the rate of 3½% per annum, free of income tax, and request the Government of West Bengal to give sub-vention for the balance of Rs. 1,88,719·32 nP. to make up the deficit.

3. The net profits earned by the Corporation during the last five years, starting from its establishment in March, 1954, are given below :—

		Rs.
1954-55	.. .. ..	1,23,757	Profits.
1955-56	.. .. ..	2,45,451	"
1956-57	.. .. ..	2,93,900
1957-58	.. .. ..	3,92,234
1958-59	.. .. ..	4,76,266	"

These figures show that the Corporation is making a steady progress since its inception, and its profit each year is substantially better than that in the previous year. The improvement in the working results of the Corporation is attributable to its progressively larger investment in loans, which, as on the 31st March, 1959 stood at Rs. 1,12,37,422. The average loan outstandings during 1958-59 were Rs. 92,64,697 against Rs. 55,34,272 in 1957-58 i.e. the outstandings rose by Rs. 37,30,425 during the year under review. The interest earned on loans correspondingly increased from Rs. 3,34,984 in 1957-58 to Rs. 5,80,536 in 1958-59 i.e. by Rs. 2,45,552. The directors consider that the progress made is satisfactory.

4. It is unfortunate, however, that the present taxation and the obligation placed on the Corporation to pay a minimum guranteed dividend right from its inception, give it little scope to build up an adequate reserve, which is vital for an institution of this kind. On the other hand, the contingent liability of the Corporation in respect of sub-ventions received from the State Government towards payment of the guaranteed dividend, including the sub-vention required this year, will aggregate to Rs. 10,39,140.82 nP.

5. A statement of loan applications received and dealt with by the Corporation during the year under review is given in Appendix "A" and a statement of loans outstanding as at the 31st March, 1959, analysed industrywise is given in Appendix "B". It will be observed from the particulars given in Appendix "B" that 27 industrial units, engaged in 16 differentl ines of manufacture, have secured loans from the Corporation. The largest single group of industries, which have taken financial assistance from the Corporation, are engineering concerns. A study of the working of the industrial concerns financed by the Corporation reveals that, generally speaking, these concerns have substantially improved their posotion with the loans taken from this Corporation. Their output, sales and profits, in a majority of cases record an appreciable increase. It may also be mentioned here that nine new industrial undertakings have been set up with the financal assistance received from the Corporation and most of them have already well established themselves.

6 By the end of March, 1959, the Corporation had sanctioned advances aggregation Rs. 2,09,72,500. Out of this amount, loans disbursed amounted to Rs. 1,26,80,000 and loans declined by the borrowers were Rs. 51,12,500, leaving a balance of Rs. 31,80,000 to be disbursed. Repayments made during the year were according to schdule and amounted to Rs. 3,91,000. There has been no default in payment of interest or instalments in repayment of loans, except in one case referred to in the last report.

7. The Corporation's working funds now comprise of its paid-up capital of Rs. 1 crore plus the money raised by issue of 4¾ per cent Ten-Year Bonds, 1968 of the face value of Rs. 50 lacs, making a total of about Rs. 1½ crores. Loans disbursed already exceed its paid-up capital, while loans sanctioned, less declined, have now almost come up to its total resources. The question of raising a further loan for augmenting the Corporation's resources may have to be considered before long.

8. The demand for the type of credit facilities given by the Corporation depends largely on the tempo of industrial expansion, the main part played by the Corporation being to provide finance for acquisition of block assets for expansion or modernisation. We had occasion to mention in our last report that the investment climate during the period covered by that report was not very favourable owing largely to the restrictions on imports and a slowing down of activity in the industrial sector. More or less the same conditions prevailed during the greater part of the period under review and it is not surprising that the number of acceptable applications for loans received during the period was not as large as might have been desired. Nevertheless the total amount of loans sanctioned during the year was Rs. 36,30,000. It is to be hoped that applications for loans for financing sound proposals will be coming in more copiously than before.

9. On Shri C. D. Khanna's transfer from Calcutta, the Industrial Finance Corporation of India nominated Shri S. Venkataraman as a director in his place. The Board desire to place on record their appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Sri C. D. Khanna during his term of office as a director of the Corporation.

10. Shri D. N. Bhattacharjee, who was elected as a director to represent insurance companies, investment trusts and other financial institutions and Shri K. K. Roy, who was elected to represent parties referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (3) of Section 4 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951, are due to retire this year. They are eligible for re-election. These vacancies will be filled by election by the shareholders concerned at the forthcoming annual general meeting.

11. Shri B. M. Birla continued to be the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the period of appointment of Shri H. P. Banerjee as the first Managing Director of the Corporation was extended by the State Government by further two years i.e. up to the 28th February, 1961.

12. The composition of the Executive Committee remained unchanged with the following members :—

(b) Sir D. N. Mitra, C.B.E.,

(d) Shri N. N. Majumdar.

13. As required under sub-section (1) of Section 37 of the Act, the accounts of the Corporation for the year under review have been audited by two auditors one appointed by the State Government, namely, Messrs. S. N. Banerjea & Co. and the other, namely, Messrs. S. K. Bhattachariya & Co., elected by shareholders other than the State Government and the Reserve Bank of India. The two auditors for the year 1959-60 will be similarly appointed or elected, as the case may be in the course of the current year.

14. The audit required to be conducted by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India under sub-section (6) of Section 37 of the Act has been completed for the year 1957-58 and that for the year under review will be taken up in due course.

15. The Board have pleasure in placing on record their appreciation of the work done by the Officers and staff of the Corporation during the period under review.

By Order of the Board,
H. P. BANERJEE,
Managing Director.

Hukumchand ute Mills Ltd., who are involved in this roceedings, were represented by two Unions, viz., Burrabazar Jamadar Sangh of 90 Lower Chitpur Road, Calcutta-7 and Ramdutt Ramkissendass oncerns Employees' Union of 64 Chittaranjan venue, Calcutta-12. Both these Unions filed ritten statements for the employees. At the date f the hearing on 15th September 1959, Burraazar Jamadar Sangh of 90 Lower Chitpur Road, alcutta-7, did not appear to conduct the case on ehalf of the workmen and only Ramdutt Ramissendass Concerns Employees' Union of 64 hittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-12, appeared and ook part in the proceedings and represented the workmen. In this award, I shall, therefore, consider principally the claims put forward by Ramdutt Ramkissendass Concerns Employees' Union for adjudication of the dispute. I shall now take up issues here below:—

Issue No. 1: Wages—Scale of pay and Issue No. 2: Dearness Allowance.

7. The categories of employees, who are involved in this proceeding, are the subordinate staff of the Head Office. They are:

1 Jamadar,
1 Assistant Jamadar,
17 Durwans,
1 Duftri,
1 Assistant Duftri,
6 Bearers "A",
11 Bearers "B",
2 Sweepers,
1 Dhobi.

The total number of employees is 41.

The Union claims the following scales of pay for the above categories of employees:—

Jamadar: Rs. 100—5—200.
Bearers: Rs. 60—4—140.
Durwans: Rs. 70—4—150.
Dhobi: Rs. 44—4—124.
Sweepers: Rs. 40—4—100.

The Union claims that these scales of pay should be granted with effect from the date of reference. The Union also claims one additional increment for every one year's past service and the difference of pay between the existing lowest and minimum that may be fixed should be given as the minimum that increment to all.

8. As to dearness allowance, the Union's claim is Rs. 60 or so based on a calculation of Rs. 3 for every 10 points' rise above 180 points (1939 100). It is stated that it is known as the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry Scheme. The Union wants this scale of dearness allowance to be granted with effect from the date of reference.

9. The Company states in its written statement that the total wages paid to the workmen in question by the Company are adequate and compare favourably with the wages paid to such categories of workmen by similar companies in the region. The Company further submits that fair increments are given to the staff according to their efficiency. The claim of the Union for dearness allowance at the rate allowed to the subordinate staff of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry is untenable. Sweepers and Dhobi are not fully employed by the Company. Acutal period of service of each workman concerned and their existing basic wages and dearness allowance are marked as Annexure A. It may be noted that this Annexure A is also Ext. A.

10. Evidence was adduced by both the parties. P.W. 1 Shri A. K. Mukherjee, Assistant Secretary of the Union, P.W. 2 Shri Bibhuti Bhusan Dutt, Secretary of Martin Burn Employees' Union and P.W. 3 Shri Paramatma Pandey, a Durwan, were examined for the Union. Documents, Ext. 1 series and balance-sheets, Ext. 2, were marked for the Union. O.P.W. 1 Shri Sudhir Kumar Deb, the Head Assistant of the Company, was examined for the Company, and Ext. A, list of subordinate staff with their date of joining and wages, was marked for the Company. Exts. 1 to 1(e) are statements purported to show pay scale, retiring benefit, tiffin allowance, leave benefits, bonus benefits and overtime benefits of a number of mercantile firms in the Dalhousie Square area. These were signed by the General Secretary of the Union. P.W. 2 Shri Bibhuti Bhusan Dutt, Secretary of the Martin Burn Employees' Union, proved the contents of Ext. 1(a), being the statement as to pay scales, dearness allowance, leave and overtime benefits for the subordinate staff in Messrs. Martin Burn Ltd. The contents of the other statements were not proved by any competent witness. It also appears in the evidence of O.P.W. 1 that the Sweepers Hiralal and Ramprosad are part-time workers. The evidence of P.W. 3 Shri Paramatma Pandey also shows that the Dhobi washes clothes from outside and he comes once a day. In Ext. A, No. 1 is Jamadar, No. 2 is Assistant Jamadar, Nos. 3 to 19 are Durwans, No. 20 is the Duftri and No. 21 is the Assistant Duftri, Nos. 22 to 27 are Bearers "A", Nos. 28 to 38 are Bearers "B", Nos. 39 and 40 are Sweepers and No. 41 is the Dhobi. The Jamadar gets a basic pay of Rs. 65, Assistant Jamadar gets a basic pay of Rs. 43, the durwans get a basic pay ranging from Rs. 24 to Rs. 34 per month, the Duftri gets a basic pay of Rs. 37 and the Assistant Duftri gets a basic pay of Rs. 23. The Bearers "A" get basic pay ranging from Rs. 22 to Rs. 27 per month. Bearers "B" receive the basic pay of Rs. 22 or Rs. 23 per month. One Sweeper and the Dhobi get a basic pay of Rs. 23 and the other Sweeper gets a basic pay of Rs. 17. As to dearness allowance, the Jamadar, Assistant Jamadar, all the Durwans, the Duftri, Assistant Duftri and all the Bearers "A" get a dearness allowance of Rs. 42 per month. Bearers "B" and one Sweeper and the Dhobi get a dearness allowance of Rs. 37 per month. The other Sweeper gets a dearness allowance of Rs. 27 per month.

11. On giving my most anxious consideration to the matter of wages and dearness allowance paid to the subordinate staff of the Company, I am of the opinion that the wages should be increased to some extent and time scale grades should be introduced for the subordinate staff. There is evidence on record to show that the Company pays the same scales of wages to the employees of a number of other concerns, of which it is the Managing Agent. I am of the opinion that a considerable rise in the wages will result in great hardship to the Company, and may be followed by undesirable consequences. I do not, therefore, follow the wage scales as shown in Messrs. Martin Burn Ltd. and the other firms appearing in Ext. 1 series. The learned Advocate for the Company referred to my award in the case of Messrs. Sahu Jain Ltd., published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 12th March 1959. That Company is also the Managing Agents of some Jute Mills and other concerns. I have also taken into consideration the wage scales and the dearness allowance laid down for the subordinate staff in that award. It will appear that the dearness allowance for th subordinate staff in Messrs. Sahu Jain Ltd. is 8 per cent. of the basic pay or a minimum of Rs. 3 per month. In the present Company, the dearnes allowance is Rs. 37 for Bearers "B" and 1 Sweepe and the Dhobi and Rs. 42 for the rest of the sub ordinate staff. The dearness allowance shall b maintained at the present amounts. It will appea that the minimum basic pay for the Bearers "B is Rs. 22 and one Bearer "A" also gets Rs. 22 pe month as basic pay. The minimum pay for th Durwan appears to be Rs. 24 per month.

12. On a consideration of the matter, th following scales of wages are laid down for th subordinate staff:

(a) Jamadar: Rs. 65—2—75 (No. 1 i Ext. A).

(b) Assistant Jamadar: Rs. 48—1—60—(No. in Ext. A).

(c) Durwans and Duftri: Rs. 30—1—45 (Nos. 3 to 20 in Ext. A).

(d) Bearers "A" and "B" and Assistan Duftri: Rs. 28—1—40—(Nos. 21 to 38 i Ext. A).

(e) No time scale grade is laid down fo Sweepers and Dhobi, as they are part-time workers. They shall, however, get an increment of Rs. 5 per month in thei basic pay.

The Jamadar shall be given an increment o Rs. 6 and shall be fitted into the new scale at the appropriate stage. The Assistant Jamadar shal also be given an increment of Rs. 6 and then fitted into the new scale at the appropriate stage The Durwans and Duftri in Category C mentioned above shall each be given an increment of Rs. 6 and then fitted into the scale at the appropriate stage. The Bearers "A" and "B" and Assistant Duftri, as mentioned in Category (d) above, shall also be given an increment of Rs. 6 and then fitted into the new scale at the appropriate stage. These scales of salaries shall be effective from the date of the commencement of the operation of this award.

13. The Dearness allowance shall continue fo all the employees mentioned above as at the presen time.

14. These issues are accordingly answered.

Issue No. 3: Retiring Benefits

15. The written statement of the Union shows that they made a demand for gratuity at 15 days' pay for every completed year of service at the time of retirement or death. There was no demand for increase of the contribution to the provident fund. The claim in the adjudication proceeding was that as the provident fund provision is inadequate, the workmen should be paid a gratuity at the rate of one month's pay for each year of service on termination of service, forced or voluntary. A claim is also made for increase of provident fund contribution from 6¼ per cent. to 8 1/3 per cent. of the basic wage, or 2½ per cent. of the total wage, whichever is higher. The claim for increase of provident fund contribution was not incorporated in the charter of demands, as it appears from the written statement itself. This claim is not, therefore, competent. The Company states that the Managing Agency of the Company was taken over by the present Managing Agents in 1939. There was a provident fund scheme under the previous Managing Agents, the accumulations of which were fully paid to the members of the fund by the previous Managing Agents before handing over the Company to the existing Managing Agents. The workmen concerned joined the Ramdutt Ramkissendass Employees' Provident Fund in 1951. The Company states that the claim of the Union for a scheme of gratuity is untenable and should be rejected.

16. It has been laid down by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Arther Butler & Co., reported in 1952 (II) L.L.J. 29, that "before a scheme for gratuity can be sanctioned the financial condition of the Company must be considered in its broad aspect and that its profit-earning capacity, the profits earned in the past, its reserves and the possibility of replenishing the reserves if occasion arises and the claims of capital to a fair share of profits in the shape of dividend, having regard to the risk of investment, must be considered as material factors, and that the general financial stability of the concern must be taken into consideration before a long-term scheme, like a scheme for gratuity is sanctioned." This view has been approved by the same Tribunal in the case of Boots Pure Drug Co., reported in 1956 L.A.C. at page 76. It does not appear that the financial condition of the Company is such that a long-term scheme like a scheme of gratuity can be allowed, in view of the factors mentioned above. It is also to be considered that if any gratuity scheme for the small number of subordinate staff at the Head Office were allowed by this Tribunal, there would be a similar demand for introduction of gratuity schemes for the abnormally large number of workers in the Jute Mill of the Company, which would be beyond the capacity of the Industry to pay and will create industrial disputes where there was none. In the circumstances, the claim for retiring gratuity as made by the Union for the subordinate staff in this proceeding is rejected.

17. This claim is rejected, and it is awarded accordingly.

Issue No. 4: Medical facilities

18. The Union states that the medical benefits should be available free to the workmen and their dependants and this medical benefit should include free medical advice, free supply of medicine and charge of hospitalisation and medical diet, or in the alternative, two months' total wages as medical expenses in the year.

19. The Company states that the services of a qualified medical practitioner are available to the Head Office staff and when approved by him, reasonable cost of medicine is paid to the workmen concerned at the discretion of the Management. The Company also adds that fair medical facilities to the subject is the responsibility of the State and not of the employer and as such, these facilities should be left to the discretion of the employer and cannot be claimed as a matter of right. The claim of the Union should, therefore, be rejected.

20. In view of the existing medical facilities which is afforded by the employers, and in view of the fact that the employees have to work in the city of Calcutta, where there is medical facility afforded by the State, the claim for additional medical facilities by the Company, as made by the Union, is unjustified, and is rejected.

21. This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 5: Leave and Holidays

22. The Union claims that the privilege leave of 30 days as allowed now should be with full pay and dearness allowance and casual leave of 15 days and sick leave of one and a half years during the service period should be given to all with full wages. The Union states that there is no dispute regarding holidays.

23. The Company states that according to the Shops and Establishments Act, the workmen governed by the said Act are only entitled to 14 days' privilege leave with full pay cumulative for 28 days. As these workmen always demand 30 days' long leave in a year, they are allowed such leave for 30 days on completion of 12 months' service, on basic pay only and such leave is cumulative for two years. Fifteen days' leave without pay is also granted to the workmen in a year. Fifteen days' sick leave with full pay, including dearness allowance is allowed to the workmen concerned and any further leave, if necessary, is also granted to them without pay on the recommendation of the Company's Medical Officer. It is stated that these leave rules compare favourably with those in similar concerns in the region and the claim of the Union for further leave facilities should be rejected.

24. As the Company is the Clerical Department of a factory, it is a "commercial establishment" under the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940. According to section 12 of the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940, a person employed in a commercial establishment is entitled, after every 12 months' continuous employment, to privilege leave on full pay for 14 days, in every year, to sick leave on half pay for 14 days on medical certificate, and in every year to casual leave on full pay for 10 days. The privilege leave admissible may be accumulated up to a maximum of not more than 28 days, the sick leave admissible may be accumulated up a maximum of not more than 56 days and casual leave admissible shall not be accumulated. In this Company, 30 days' privilege leave on basic pay alone is allowed in place of 14 days' privilege leave on full pay in a year and this privilege leave is cumulative for two years. I consider that this is consistent with the spirit of the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act and should be continued. In view of the fact that the basic pay of the workers is being increased, the workers will now get more remuneration during their leave period. It is also awarded that the employees shall get 30 days' leave without pay in a year in place of the present 15 days in order to enable the upcountry men to go home. The sick leave allowed is at 15 days in the year with full pay including dearness allowance. This shall be cumulative up to a maximum of 56 days as permissible under the Act. Casual leave shall be allowed to the employees at 10 days in the year on full pay including dearness allowance. Casual leave shall not be accumulated.

25. This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 6: Conditions of Service

26. The Union states in this issue that overtime wages should be paid at double the rate for all work on Sundays, holidays and for work beyond 6½ hours in the day, which are standard working hours for all respectable offices.

27. The Company states that the job of the workmen of the category of Durwan and Jamadar is such that their services are required throughout the day and the week including Sundays and holidays. As these workmen are not employed on intensive duty and are not required to do 48 hours' work in any week, or 9 hours' work in any day, the question of payment of any overtime wages to these workmen does not arise. According to the spirit of the Shops and Establishments Act, overtime wages at the rate of 1½ times are payable only beyond 10 hours' work in any day or 56 hours' work in any week.

28. The Bengal Shops and Establishments Act does not prescribe any hours of work for the commerical establishments. Section 13 precribes wages for overtime work for a person employed in a shop or establishment for public entertainment or amusement. There is no provision in the Act for wages for overtime work in a commercial establishment, which the present Company is.

29. Considering all circumstances, it is awarded as follows: The subordinate staff shall continue to do the same hours of work as they are doing now. For work on Sundays and holidays, they shall get 1¼ times their wages on the basis of hours worked.

30. This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 7: Bonus for 1957

31. The Union in its written statement claims that bonus for 1956-57 and 1957-58 should be at 3 months' pay for each year. The Company, in its written statement, states that the Head Office staff were paid 1¼ months' bonus in 1957, which is generous and is comparable with that paid in similar other concerns. The claim of the Union for a higher rate of bonus to the subordinate staff in 1957 is untenable.

32. The issue as referred to the Tribunal for adjudication is in regard to bonus for 1957. The Union's claim for bonus for 1957-58 is, therefore, untenable. By Bonus for 1957, as it is in the Issue, is meant the bonus for the year ended 31st March 1957. Ext. 2 is the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account of the Hukumchand Jute Mills for the year ended 31st March 1957. The subordinate staff, who are involved in this proceeding, are those that are employed by the Head Office of the Hukumchand Jute Mills in Calcutta. The learned Advocate for the Union suggested that 3 months' basic pay can be paid as bonus for the year in question and suggested the following calculations in support of this claim:—

Gross profit	Rs.	23,75,808
Less Income-tax at the rate of 7 annas per rupee	Rs.	10,39,406
	Rs.	13,36,392
Less 6 per cent. dividend ...	Rs.	5,55,000
	Rs.	7,81,392

One month's basic pay of the Sub-Staff is Rs. 1,114 and hence for 3 months the basic pay of Rs. 3,342 is necessary.

One month's basic pay of all workmen of the Company is Rs. 4 lakhs approximately and hence for 3 months' basic pay of Rs. 12 lakhs is neceseary.

Therefore, the claim for additional bonus stands justified.

This calculation is marked X for identifiaction.

33. It appears from the balance-sheet, Ext. 2, that the total salaries, wages and bonus of all workmen in the Hukumchand Jute Mills was more than rupees one crore. I do not find how the Union could suggest that the total basic pay of all the workmen in the Company in one month is only rupees four lakhs. Considering the fact that no reserve for rehabilitation has been taken in the calculation and that there are three sharers in the available surplus, viz., the Industry, the Shareholders and the Labour, as enunciated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tata Oil Mills [1959 (II) L.L.J., page 250], it appears that the claim of the Union for three months' basic pay as bonus is unworthy of support. The workmen in the Head Office have been given one and a half month's basic pay as bonus along with the employees of the other concerns under the Managing Agency of the Company. Considering all the circumstances, I do not find that the Union has been able to substantiate its claim for a further amount of bonus, over and above one and a half month's basic pay that has been paid to the employees in question. The claim for additional bonus is, therefore, rejected.

34. This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 8: Tiffin allowance

35. The Union claims the tiffin allowance at Re. 1 per day per head. The Company states that it is not an industrial dispute and should not be enforced by a judicial Tribunal in the case of a Company who does not provide for such benefits. Therefore, the demand should be rejected.

36. On a consideration of the matter, it appears to me that a tiffin allowance of the kind as claimed by the Union should not be saddled by the Tribunal on the Company. It is, however, awarded that the any should allow a cup of tea every day to nployees concerned at lunch time free of cost.

This issue is accordingly answered.

On 6th September 1958 the Union, namely, Bengal Steam Laundry Workers' Union representing the workmen of Messrs. Bengal Steam Laundry Co. Private Ltd., filed its written statement of claim. On 24th November 1958 the Company (Messrs. Bengal Steam Laundry Company Private Ltd.) filed its written statement. Documents were filed later on and after completion of the pleading the case was fixed for hearing on 16th July 1959. The hearing was commenced on that date and it continued on several dates as there was some chance of compromise between the parties in the meantime. But no compromise was effected ultimately and on 10th September 1959 the hearing was resumed and it was concluded with arguments on 25th September 1959. The award was reserved.

AWARD

Issue No. 1: This issue relates to the claim of 49 workmen as per list attached to the order of reference for re-employment. It is an admitted fact that the Company, namely, Messrs. Bengal Steam Laundry Company Private Ltd. is one of the old laundering companies of Calcutta. According to the Company it was facing financial difficulties for some time past and that it had to close its business with effect from May 25, 1957, on account of the precarious financial condition including its incapacity to pay regular wages to its workmen as also its liabilities to the creditors. The Company closed its business for financial difficulties on and from 25th May 1957 and restarted its business with the help of a financier Shri B. Roy Choudhury from August 1957. The Union admits that the Company totally closed its business on and from 25th May 1957 but its contention is that the Company restarted its business by the middle of June 1957 by recruiting some new hands without giving any notice to the workmen. It is admitted further that on restarting of the business most of the old employees were taken back but on a slightly reduced scale of wages upon new agreement signed by them and that some of the old employees could not be taken back. The Union's contention is that 49 old employees as named in the list attached to the order of reference were not re-employed by the Company as they refused to sign an agreement, the contents of which they were not permitted to see. The Union further submits that the action of the Company in not allowing these 49 men was unjustified and mala fide and an ins of unfair labour practice. The Union, there prays that these 49 workmen should be dir to be re-employed by the Company from the m of June 1957, i.e., when they offered thems for duty on old terms and conditions of se and on payment of wages for the period of unemployment.

The Company resists this claim of the U regarding re-employment of 49 persons as tioned in the list attached to the order of refe on old terms and conditions of service on grounds elaborately set forth in paragraph its written statement. Its main contentions that of the 49 persons mentioned in the sch to the order of reference, the persons menti in the Annexure A to the Company's wr statement and in the revised list submitted by Company at the time of hearing (Ext. F) are entitled at all to be re-employed as some of persons are now working in the Company, joined the Company after closure but left same and similarly for the persons who were in the Company's employment at the time of cl and left service long ago, the question of re-employment does not arise. The Comp further denies that those persons who now clai be re-employed were asked to sign an agree without looking into its contents. Lastly, pany has always expressed its willingness to back those old employees who are eager to back to the Company, but it submits that it is possible to pay them wages on old scale and it is agreeable to re-employ these old emplo if they are prepared to sign an agreement in Form Ext. D and are prepared to accept w at a slightly reduced rate as in the case of old employees who have joined after restar the business inasmuch as the Company's finan position is still precarious.

Before I consider the merit of the claim of 49 persons mentioned in the list attached to order of reference for re-employment on old t and conditions of service, I must discuss circumstances which led to the total closure of business on and from 25th May 1957. It admitted by both the parties that the Compa business was totally closed with effect from May 1957 on account of financial difficul The Company was running at a loss, was un to pay regular wages to its workers, the arr of wages were mounting and the Company much debts to be paid to the creditors and th was a proceeding in liquidation against the C pany by Messrs. P. C. Dutt and Co. This admitted by P.W. 1 Benoy Bhusan Das, P.W Nishi Kanta Pyne who were old employees of Company. It is also admitted that a financier was found in the person of Shri B. Chowdhury (D.W. 1) who stopped the liquidat of proceedings and became the Director of Company in July 1957 and reorganised the C pany and started the business over again. Acc ing to Company and the evidence of D.W. 1 business restarted after the closure on and fr 1st of August 1957 and that all old employ were informed to come and offer themselves re-employment if they would choose. Accord to the Union the business restarted by the mid

June 1957 but there is no satisfactory documentary evidence on this point. On the other hand, from the representation made by the Union the Hon'ble Labour Minister on 3rd December 57 (Ext. A) it is found in paragraph 6 of the me that on 1st August 1957 Shri B. Roy oudhury called all the old employees through essenger and asked them if they were willing join the service of the Company. On this point e grievance of the Union is that all the old ployees who came to join were asked to sign paper without looking into the contents thereof d that some of the old employees signed such pers and some did not and these were the 49 rsons who now claim re-employment. Shri Roy Chowdhury (D.W.1), the present Director the company, stoutly denies that he got any per or agreement signed by the employees under ercion or threat or that he did not allow the old ployees to look into the contents of the documents before they signed it. On the other hand, s positive evidence is that those employees who gned the agreements (Exts. L to L/60) signed em voluntarily after the terms of the agreement ere explained to them in Hindi or Bengali as the se was and the amount of wages mentioned in the greement was the agreed sum which was incorporated in the agreement then and there. His rther evidence is that those of the old employees ho are now working in the Company after having gned those agreements have not raised any dispute regarding the reduced wages or arrears under aim.

It is, therefore, clear that the Company had to ose down its business on and from 25th of May 57 purely for financial difficulties as it is found om oral evidence as also from the balance sheets Ext. J). It is now well-settled that the Company has the fundamental right to close its usiness at any time and it cannot be compelled nder the law to restart the business against its ill. Under section 25FFF of the present ndustrial Disputes Act, 1947, where an undertking is closed down for any reason whatsoever ncluding financial difficulties or losses, every orkman who has been in continuous service for ot less than one year in that undertaking mmediately before such closure, shall get the enefit of compensation in accordance with the rovisions of sub-section (2) of section 25F of he Industrial Disputes Act as if the workman had een retrenched. It is not disputed that the losure of the business of the present Company on nd from 25th May 1957 preceded by a general otice to workers regarding the proposed closure Ext. 3) was a bona fide closure and not a mere retence or device to get rid of the employees. Therefore, the result was that on and from 25th May 1957 the services of the employees of the Company stood terminated under the law subject o the benefit of compensation to be allowed to hem under sub-section (2) of sectoin 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Company restarted ts business with the help of a financier Shri B. Roy Chowdhury (D.W. 1), the present Director, on and from 1st of August 1957 and issued a general call to all the employees to come and join the business on slightly reduced scale of wages on account of acute financial difficulties of the Company. Majority of the old employees joined the Company after signing the agreements Ext. L series and accepted to work on a slightly reduced rate of wages. But according to the Union the present 49 old employees as per list attached to the order of reference did not join as they were not willing to sign an agreement and to accept lesser rate of wages as it now transpires.

Now the question is whether these 49 old employees are entitled to be re-employed on old terms and conditions of service, namely, on old rate of wages and whether all of them are entitled to be re-employed at all. According to the Company the number of old employees who can claim re-employment cannot be more than 25 to 30. The Union is not sure about the actual number of old workmen who claim re-employment. In the list attached to the order of reference the number is 49, while in its representation to the Hon'ble Labour Minister, dated 3rd December 1957 (Ext. A) the number given was less. In fact the names of Damodar Chowdhury (No. 35), Balli Dhobi (No. 36), Amulya Das (No. 39), Umesh Paul (No. 40), Nityananda Bhadury (No. 41), Nemai Das (No. 42), Bhulan Das (No. 43), Probodh Das Gupta (No. 44), Sachin Dey (No. 45), Sricharan Nath (No. 46) and Khoka Dhobi (No. 47) in the list of order of reference do not actually find place in Ext. A. As it will be found further from Ext. G a letter written by the Deputy Labour Commissioner to Messrs. Bengal Steam Laundry Co., Private Ltd., dated 7th April 1958, the total number of workmen according to Bengal Steam Lundry Workers' Union who are still unemployed was only 35 as against the Company's figure of 20 to 25. The Company has filed Annexure A to its written statement and a list Ext. F modifying that annexure to show that out of the total number of 49 persons as mentioned in the list of the order of reference, 22 persons as named in Annexure A and Ext. F of the Company are not entitled to re-employment. Of these 22, Sati Bhattacharji (No. 21), Keshab Sen (No. 27), Amulya Das (No. 41), Nishikanta Bhadury (No. 42) and Bhuban Das (No. 43)—these five persons as mentioned in Group C of Annexure A to Company's written statement, are already working in the Company being re-employed thereafter restarting of the business. This is admitted by P.W. 1 Benoy Mohan Das, an old employee and Secretary of the Bengal Steam Laundry Workers' Union. The evidence of Shri B. Roy Chowdhury (D.W. 1) is that of these four persons mentioned in group D of Annexure A, Luxmi Jha is in his native village and Lekhraj Shaw is still in the service of the Company. P.W. 1 admits that these four persons of Group D are job workers working in the Company on no work no pay basis. None of these persons came and prayed for being re-employed. Therefore, the question of re-employment of these two groups of workers, namely, Nos. 21, 27, 33, 41, 43, 36, 37, 30 and 31 as per list attached to the order of reference does not arise at all.

According to the Company the persons in Group (b) of its Annexure A, Sukumar Parilal (No. 10), Jogesh Chandra Das (18), Phani Bhusan Sen (No. 26), and Nepal Chandra Dey (No. 33) are not entitled to re-employment as they were not in the Company's service at the time of closure. P.W. 1 Benoy Bhusan Das denies this fact and he says that these are the four persons who were in the employment of the Company but were on leave at the time of closure. At the same time this witness says Sukumar Parial is now employed elsewhere. Be that as it may, the Company is willing to take back old employees on certain terms and conditions, namely, on reduced wages. Now regarding the (A) Group of Annexure A as amended by Ext. F the Company's contention is that these persons joined the Company after closure but left thereafter and as such they are not entitled to re-employment. The Union admits the fact. But its contention is that they left as they refused to sign agreement, the contents of which they were not permitted to see (vide P.W. 3 Shyamakanta Pyne). No. 47 Khoka Dhobi is found in evidence to be working in the Company in its Park Street Branch on daily rate basis.

So the position is that, of the 49 persons in the list of order of reference who claim re-employment upon old terms and conditions of service, Nos. 21, 27, 33, 41, and 43 are admittedly working in the Company on the basis of new agreements on restarting of the business after the period of bona fide closure. So, the question of their re-employment does not arise at all. Similar is the case with Khoka Dhobi (No. 47) and Lekhraj Shaw (No. 31). Bepin Behari Biswas (No. 12) is admittedly dead. Therefore, the case for his re-employment does not come up at all. Nos. 30, 36 and 39 need not be re-employed as I have already found. The remaining 38 persons as per annexure A of this award out of 49 as per list attached to the order of reference had their services terminated by a closure of the business. Some of them Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 38, 40, 48 and 49 were allowed to rejoin but they left as they refused to sign an agreement accepting a slightly reduced rate of wages on account of extreme financial difficulties of the Company. Company contends that these persons are not entitled to be re-employed. A closure as in the present case had resulted in law in a retrenchment of its worker and the retrenched workers were entitled to retrenchment compensations according to law. But they claim re-employment on old terms and conditions. The Company is willing to take the old employees back on slightly reduced scales of pay upon agreements similar to Ext. L series as executed by majority of old employees after reopening of the business on account of extreme financial hardship of the Company which is an admitted fact. After restarting of the business by a Company, Company has a right to re-employ its old workmen on reduced wages if the financial condition of the Company does not permit to give the workmen their original salaries. The agreements which have been executed in this case by majority of workers on re-employment are found to be voluntary agreements on new conditions of service and these are quite valid in law. Considering the financial condition of the Company I am convinced that it is not possible for the Company to re-employ these 38 old employees out of total number of 49 on old terms and conditions of service as that will not be to the benefit either to the Company or to the employees. The Company is unable to pay the old rate of wages.

Having considered these circumstances and facts as admitted and proved in evidence I think that the Company's offer to re-employ the above workmen shall be open and these 38 workmen as per Annexure A of this award out of the 49 workmen as mentioned in the list appeared to the order of reference except Nos. 12, 21, 27, 33, 41, 43, 31 and 47, 36, 37 and 30 if they so like may offer themselves for re-employment in the Company on the same terms and conditions of service as mentioned in the agreement Ext. L series. Those of the employees who would not offer themselves for re-employment on the new terms and conditions of service by accepting reduced wages by 10 to 12 per cent. as accepted by majority of workmen on agreements Ext. L series within 3 months from the date of publication of the award will not have any benefit under this award. If they offer themselves for re-employment within this period on the terms and conditions of service as expressed in the agreement Form Ext. D, the Company is directed to take them in.

As regards the claim for compensation during the period of idleness of these workmen, I must say that evidence discloses that these workmen themselves were at fault, they knew the financial condition of the Company and they were all summoned on 1st of August 1957 as admitted by the Union in Ext. A to offer themselves for re-employment on new terms and conditions of service but they did not agree to that and courted unemployment themselves. In these circumstances, I cannot recommend any compensation to any of these workmen during the period of their idleness since after the re-starting of the business of the Company on 1st August 1957. Issue No. 1 is accordingly disposed of.

Issue No. 2. This issue is "whether the workmen mentioned in the statements attached to the order of reference are entitled to the sums shown against their names or any other dues and what should be the procedure for them." This is not a general issue of all the workmen of the Company. The majority of the workmen who have been re-employed on restarting of the business after closure on agreements (Ext. L series) have accepted the payment of arrear wages and provident fund by instalments as per terms embodied in the agreements concerned. Claim is now made by 43 workmen as per statements of dues referred to above. Amounts have been claimed under different heads such as arrear wages, attendance bonus, provident fund, interest and dividend on provident fund, old bonus, leave dues and special allowance. Bonus is no condition of service. The evidence adduced on behalf of the Union shows that the Union is not sure whether the claim of the amount under the head "interest and dividend on provident fund" is correct. Regarding the provident fund admittedly there are trustees of the fund and the money of the provident fund is vested with the trustees. Regarding the arrear wages there were previous agreements in 1957 [Exts. 2 and 2(a)]. According to the Union effect was not given by the Company to this agreement. But no steps are found to have been taken by the Union to enforce those agreements. Be that as it may, the amounts now claimed by these 43 workmen as per statements of dues attached to the order of reference are ascertained sums of money. The Company admits that huge arrears of pay are due to the workmen on account of its financial inability to pay. This is also clear from the aforesaid two agreements [Exts. 2 and 2(a)] as also from the evidence on record.

The contention of the Company is that these amounts as claimed by the 43 workmen as their dues are ascertained sums of money and that these do not form subject matter of adjudication of an industrial dispute under the Industrial Disputes Act. In my mind recovery of such amounts cannot form subject-matter of an industrial adjudication. It is for the individual workman to sue for recovery of the amounts claimed in a Court of competent jurisdiction. The reference on this issue No. 2 is not a properly framed issue and is not legally maintainable and I am afraid that an Industrial Tribunal has no jurisdiction to give any relief to the workmen upon this issue. I cannot give any relief to the workmen on this issue on the ground that an Industrial Tribunal has got no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon merits of such a claim. The issue No. 2 is accordingly disposed of.

Issue No. 3: This issue is "what changes, if any, should be made in the present minimum rates of wages paid by the company." The present rates of wages paid by the Company to its workmen on restarting of the business after closure on and from 1st August 1957 are to be found in the Union's Annexure Ext. 5/1 and the Company's statement Ext. E. The minimum wage given to a workmen under this list is found to be Rs. 47 as against the minimum of Rs. 52 fixed by the award of the 3rd Industrial Tribunal published under Labour Department, notification No. 247-Dis./11L-66(A)/51, dated 15th November 1951, published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 29th November 1951.

The Union's grievance is that the rate of wages in the Company is very low and even lower than the subsistence level and that it requires increment to cope with the higher cost of living. It is argued on behalf of the Union that having regard to the rates of minimum wages fixed by the different major awards of the Tribunals, namely, Jute Textile, Engineering and Colliery and keeping with the present-day rise in the cost of living index, the minimum wages should be fixed at Rs. 71 including basic pay and dearness allowance. In the present rates of wages as given by the Company to its workmen as shown by Ext. 5/1 and Ext. E and by the agreements Ext. L series basic pay and dearness allowance are not shown separately but the total emoluments are consolidated and shown as salary. It further appears from the Annexure D of Union's written statement(Ext. 5) that before the closure, minimum wage paid by the Company was Rs. 52 as per previous award of 1951. It is an admitted fact that the Company had to close down its business totally from 25th May 1957, on account of financial difficulties and that on restarting of the business on 1st August 1957 majority of the old employees accepted re-employment under the Company on executing agreements (Ext. L series) agreeing to accept a reduced salary which fell below Rs. 52 in some cases. I do appreciate that the minimum wages of Rs. 47 or Rs. 48 now given by the Company is much below the minimum wages fixed in respect of different kinds of industries by major awards. But the Company's present financial position is too wretched to permit even the minimum of Rs. 52 as fixed in the previous award of 1951. In fact, the majority of old employees realised this position and voluntarily agreed to accept lower rates of wages in view of the financial incapacity of the Company to pay more. None of these employees makes any grievance about the minimum rates of wages now paid by the Company.

In these circumstances I cannot recommend any alteration in the rates of minimum wages now paid by the Company to its workmen for the present. If, however, in future the Company improves financially, further consideration should necessarily be made in fixation of minimum wages to cope with the rising cost of living index. At present the Company should not be burdened with additional liabilities as that would disturb industrial harmony and may have the effect of driving the industry out of existence even. Admittedly huge arrears of wages are still due to the workers and that since the reopening of the business and acceptance of reduced wages by majority of workers as per agreement Ext. L series, there has been regular payment of wages to the workmen. So if on accepting a reduced wages the workmen are assured of regular payment of wages that will be conducive to both the employer and the employees and that would ensure industrial peace and help the industry to further progress and prosperity.

Having regard to all these considerations I do not propose to make any change in the rates of minimum wages paid by the Company to this workmen for the present. Issue No. 3 is accordingly disposed of.

This is my award.

AWARD

Issue No. 1: From the written statement of the parties, as well as the evidence of Shri Brajendra Kumar Bagchi (P.W. 1) who is the Secretary of the Union, it appears that the total number of workmen in the factory of the Company is about 6,000. There is a canteen which is run on profit basis. It has two branches, namely, tea and food. Some workers of the food canteen are paid by the Company. Formerly, the Company paid the wages and managed both the canteens. Now a Canteen Committee has been formed since June 1959 and both the canteens are managed by the committee and the workmen of the canteens are now being controlled by the committee, though hese workmen had been recruited by the Com-ıany and had been formerly under the Company's ontrol. The attendance registers of the work-nen are maintained at the canteens. The previous anteen Manager, who had been an employee of he Company, has been withdrawn after the ormation of the Canteen Managing Committee.

0 to 25 workmen of the food canteen are paid by he Company. All other workmen are paid out
f the profits of the canteen. Formerly, the said 0/25 workmen had been included in the payheet of the Company but since October 1959
hey have been paid on vouchers by the Canteen lanager, but the money is supplied from the 'ompany's fund. The account books of the nteen are kept by the Canteen Committee.

It is now contended on behalf of the Union that ıe canteens are to be run on non-profit basis ıd that the workmen of the canteen should be garded as the regular workmen of the Company ıd should be paid by it and should get all the ghts and privileges as of the regular workmen.

The sheet-anchor of the Company's case is that has got nothing to do with the running of the nteen except supplying such things as are quired to be done under the provisions of the ctories Act and rules framed thereunder and at the running of the canteen is solely the ncern of the Managing Committee formed under e same provisions, and it is for the latter to cide whether it would run it on profit or non-ofit basis.

A mere perusal of the relevant provisions of statute on this point, namely, the Factories t and rules framed by the West Bengal overnment, i.e., rules 67 to 73 will show that management cannot wash their hands off the tter regarding the maintenance of the canteens they have sought to do in this case. Provi-ns for canteens have been made in section 46 the Factories Act. Sub-section (1) of section is as follows:—

"(1) The (State) Government may make rules requiring that in any specified factory wherein more than two hundred and fifty workers are ordinarily employed, a canteen or canteens shall be provided and maintained by the occupier for the use of the workers."

Sub-section (2) of the same section specifies ne matters upon which the State Government
y frame rules as empowered by sub-section (1).
is an admitted fact that the Government of st Bengal have framed rules under section
1) and the rules relating to Canteens are from tion 67 to 73 as aforesaid. It is an undisputed t that these rules apply to the factory in the tant case. Now the term "occupier" as used section 46(1) means, the person who has imate control over the affairs of the factory where the said affairs are entrusted to a naging Agent, such Agent shall be deemed to the occupier of the factory. In the instant e there is no evidence that the affairs of the npany have been entrusted to a Managing ent. Hence, it is to be held that the Manage-nt of the Company are the "occupier" of the tory and they must provide and maintain the canteen as enjoined by section 46(1) of the Factories Act, read with the State Government's rules made thereunder. Reliance has been placed on behalf of the Company on the provisions in these rules for the formation of a Canteen Managing Committee. Rule 72(2) provides that the Canteen Managing Committee shall consist of an equal number of persons nominated by the Manager and elected by the workers. Here the Manager means none but the Manager of the factory; rule 72(1) provides that the Manager shall consult the Canteen Managing Committee from time to time as to certain matters regarding the running of the canteen; so there can be no doubt that the ultimate responsibility for maintaining the canteen rests with the Manager of the factory. A perusal of all the relevant rules on this point shows that the Canteen Managing Committee is intended for running the canteen on behalf of the Manager of the factory. Hence, it must be held that the canteen is a statutory part and parcel or appendage of the factory and the responsibility for running it lies with the Company. Rule 70(1) provides that food, drink, etc., served in the canteen shall be sold at a non-profit basis. In the rules, it has not been specified what is meant to be conveyed by the term "non-profit". It may mean (1) that all the costs of running the canteen including the price of foodstuff, etc., are to be charged on the consumers and nothing more should be charged for making any profit, over and above the said costs, or (2) that only the cost price of foodstuffs and nothing else should be charged from the consumers.

The scheme of the Factories Act and rules seems to favour interpretation (2) above, for, the object of the Legislature and the Government is that, workmen should be supplied with pure food and drink at a low cost while they have to work in the factory. If it be held that the statutory provisions and the rules accord with interpretation (1) above, the object of the Legislature in making these provisions will be frustrated; for, if the wages of the workers in the canteens be included in the cost price of foodstuff, etc., and realised from the consumers, the prices they will have to pay will not differ much from the price of such things in the open market and the provisions for maintenance of a canteen as envisaged by the statute and the rules will serve almost no purpose.

As a result, it is held that the workmen of the canteen are to be regarded as workmen of the Company and are to be paid from the Company's fund and they are entitled to their pay and dearness allowance as also to the other rights and privileges from the Company as regular workmen of the Company.

This finding is also supported by precedents. It has been decided by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of S. M. Sable and others reported in 1953 L.A.C., 425, that under section 3, sub-section (13) of the Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946, an employee in a grain shop in a textile mill is also an employee of the mill, as the running of such a shop is ordinarily a part of the undertaking within the meaning of sub-section (14), clause (c) of the section. The same principle was followed by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Ahmedabad Manufacturing & Calico Printing Co., Ltd., reported in 1955 L.A.C., 160, in the case of a canteen, as a canteen has to be established by the mill to which the particular provision of the Factories Act has been made applicable. In the case of Rajendra Mills Ltd., reported in 1955 L.A.C., 480, it has been decided that a canteen is a regular part of the factory run under statutory obligation laid down in the Factories Act. So, issue No. 1 is answered in the affirmative. It may be that all the workmen of the canteen may be regarded as appertaining to a single category of the Company's other workmen, or, it may be that the former will appertain to different categories of the latter. This matter is kept open for want of evidence and is expected to be amicably settled between the Company and the Union for fixing the canteen workers' scale of pay, etc.

Issue No. 2: This issue is very wide and vague, and also it has been contended on behalf of the Company that it cannot be the subject-matter of an industrial dispute as envisaged by the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act. Now, the Union's case regarding this issue is that, the work done by contract labours by this Company are works of permanent nature and are done in departments such as wagon painting shop, tank painting, packing, box-making, etc., and there is no justification for keeping contract system for the said types of work, as such a system affords scope for exploitation of labour through middlemen and it may be used as a means for unfair pressure and/or attack upon the regular employees of the Company, and hence, the contract system should be abolished.

The Company, on the other hand, generally denies the allegations of the Union on this point, but admits that works in some departments are got done by contract labour and asserts that it is entitled to do so as the method and system of production is Management's function and the workmen have no right to challenge the same.

The evidence of the Union's witness (P.W. 1) is that the loading and unloading of machines and raw materials, some work in the packing section, wagon painting, forging work and painting of wagon tank and some other works are done by contractor's labour. The evidence of the Company's only witness who is the Production Control Engineer (O.P.W. 1) is that only the painting of car lines is being done by outside contractors as there is no angle painting and rolling machine in the factory, but a machine has been ordered for and is expected to be installed soon; the setting work of pressing and forging had been formerly done by contractors, but now it is done in the factory as a machine has been purchased for the purpose and sometimes the contractors' workmen who work in the factory are supplied with some of the Company's implements. Thus, the fact is that some works of the factory connected with production are being done by contractors' labour. It seems that there is no absolute bar in the Company's doing so and the permanent workmen of the Company are not entitled to challenge the same, provided it be not proved that under cover of this method the Company is victimising them, or withholding the promotion of workmen fit to be promoted for doing wo carrying higher scales of pay. There is no su evidence on the side of the Union. Further, claim of the Union for total abolition of contr labour seems to be quite absurd, for it cannot gainsaid that occasions may arise when the Co pany will have to engage contract labour to c with sudden and temporary rush of work in so or other department. So, the management's rig to engage contract labour cannot be fettered has been prayed for by the Union.

Apparently, the issue under discussion is v wide and vague and no award can be passed respect thereof. It is contended on behalf of Union that though proper issues be not framed the Government in an order of reference, Tribunals are entitled to give such reliefs as m be incidental to the issues framed, and so, it contended that this Tribunal should pass an awa preventing the Company from employing contr labour in departments directly connected wi production, namely, forging work, wagon paintin and so on. This cannot be done in the insta case, as such a stand has not been taken in written statement filed by the Union and Company had no opportunity to present its ca specifically point by point regarding the same.

Lastly, the issue as framed cannot be subject-matter of a reference under section 10 the Industrial Disputes Act. It has been alrea observed above that the workmen are not entitl to object to the employment of contract labo unless it be proved that they are being adverse affected thereby. There is no such evidence this case. The workmen of the contractors a also not workmen as defined in the Industri Disputes Act. This has been held by the Labo Appellate Tribunal in the cases of Kargali Colli [1953 L.A.C. 405=1952 (II) LLJ 23]; Goen Mills [1953 L.A.C. 590=1954(I) LLJ 14 Gasliton Colliery [1953 L.A.C. 525=1954(I) LL 144]. Apparently, the Union is not entitled raise any industrial dispute on their behalf for th purpose of ameliorating their conditions of servic

As a result, it is held that this issue is legall invalid and no relief can be given to the work men in respect thereof.

Issue No. 3: The workers engaged in repairing maintenance and erection works required for th factory, etc., of the Company are permanent workers as has been proved by P.W. 1 and denied on behalf of the Company. It is evid that these workers are employed for maintena of the buildings, etc., of the factory and ot structures connected therewith and there is department of the Company which is known Building Department and is one of the perman ones. Apparently, it cannot be denied that t department is a part and parcel of the indus and is to be held in a manner connected with production work of the factory. There seems be no reason why these workers shall not regarded as workmen of the Company and shou not get the pay and dearness allowance and oth rights and privileges as enjoyed by the latte so, it is held that the workers of the Buildi Department of the Company are to be regarded regular workmen of the Company and they shou get pay and dearness allowance and other rights and privileges from the Company as regular workmen. It may be that all the workmen of the Company may be regarded as appertaining to a single category of the Company's other workmen, or it may be that the former will appertain to different categories of the latter. This matter is kept open for want of evidence and is expected to be amicably settled between the Company and the Union for fixing the canteen workers' pay scale, etc.

Summary of decisions.

Issue No. 1: The canteen workers are to be regarded as regular workmen of the Company and should be entitled to their pay, dearness allowance and other rights and privileges from the Company as its regular workmen.

Issue No. 2: This issue is invalid in law; also, no relief can be granted in consideration of the facts relating thereto.

Issue No. 3: The workers of the Building Department are to be regarded as regular workmen of the Company and should be entitled to their pay, dearness allowance and other rights and privileges from the Company as its regular workmen.

This is the award of this Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Lacour, by order No. 1649-I.R./IR/11L-167/58, dated 23rd April 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Regent Cinema, 2C Krishanalal Dass Road, Calcutta-2, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union, 126A Dharamtola Street, Calcutta-13, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Is the dismissal of Md. Osman justified? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Md. Osman previously employed as a Booking Clerk in Messrs. Regent Cinema, 2C Krishnalal Dass Road, Calcutta-2, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union's allegation is that Md. Osman was employed as a Booking Clerk for the last 15 years with a good record of service, but the Company suddenly dismissed him by a letter, dated 29th October 1957, without any enquiry whatsoever. The Union, therefore, seeks proper reliefs.

Decision

The Company took several adjournments to put in their written statement, but ultimately on 8th September 1959 both parties filed a joint petition of compromise settling the dispute amicably out of Court. The terms of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable and lawful and may be given effect to. In short, the Company agreed to reinstate this workman treating his continuity of service as unbroken. The dispute is, therefore, settled in terms of the petition of compromise, which do form a part of the award.

This is my award.

Acting under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by their order No. 435-I.R./IR/9L-5/57, dated Calcutta, the 7th February 1959, referred to the Second Labour Court, an industrial dispute between Messrs. Singtom Tea Estate, Darjeeling and their workmen represented by Darjeeling District Chia Kaman Shramik Sangha, Darjeeling, for adjudication.

Issue formulated in the order of reference is as follows:—

Whether Krishna Gurungni, Dhanu Tamangni, Ramri Gurungni and Manbahadur Rai are entitled to reinstatement and or compensation?

The case of the Union, briefly stated, is as follows—

Sonmaya Dorzini, Hastabahadur Rai, Ramala Gurungni and Dombere Rai were permanent workmen at Singtom Tea Estate. They left the Tea Estate for good on different reasons. In their places Krishna Gurungni, Dhanu Tamangni Ramri Gurungni and Manbahadur, the workmen mentioned in the issue were appointed by the Manager of the Tea Estate on 12th or 13th February 1958. They worked for about a month and then the Manager dismissed them without any reason.

The Company admits that Sonmaya Dorzini Hastabahadur Rai, Ramala Gurungni and Dombere Rai were workmen in the Tea Estate but denies that the workmen mentioned in the issue were appointed in their places. The case of the Company is that they might have worked in the Tea Estate without the knowledge of the Manager, but they were never asked to do so. So the Company contends that they were never workmen of the Tea Estate and as such the question of their dismissal does not arise.

Findings

Hence the crucial point for determination is whether the persons mentioned in the issue were workmen in the Tea Estate. The Union has examined five witnesses in support of its case. It appears from their evidence that the four persons in question worked for about a month in the Tea Estate. The Company has not been able to refute this portion of the evidence on behalf of the Union, but it is clear from the evidence adduced on behalf of the Union that the four persons in question worked as substitutes in place of four workmen who had left the Tea Estate for good. It is admitted by some of the witnesses produced on behalf of the Union that the persons in question received their wages in the names of the four permanent workmen who had left the Tea Estate.

The Company has examined two witnesses in support of its case, one is the Manager of the Tea Estate. He denies that he ever appointed the four persons in question. He has produced papers to show that the name of none of those four persons appears in any register maintained by the Tea Estate. The other witness is a Sardar of the Tea Estate whose duty is to distribute wages to the workmen. He also says that the four persons in question were never appointed by the Manager and that when the Manager saw them working, he stopped their work.

There is no reason to disbelieve the oral evidence of the Manager and the papers produced by him. The Union has not been able to produce any documentary evidence in support of its contention that the four persons in question were ever appointed by the Manager. The evidence adduced on both sides leads to the irresistible conclusion that the four persons in question worked surreptitiously for some time and that when this was detected, their work was stopped. On this fact it cannot be held that Krishna Gurungni, Dhanu Tamangni, Ramri Gurungni and Manbahadur Rai, the persons mentioned in the issue were workmen in the Tea Estate in question. As such no question of their dismissal arises. Hence the question raised in the issue whether they are entitled to reinstatement or compensation does not arise.

AWARD

Issue No. 1: It is said by the Union that the Company has got no definite scheme for leave or holidays for their workmen excepting that the workmen are paid 15 days' casual leave in a year without pay. It is further stated that the Company used to grant 10 days' festival leave with pay to their workmen previously but sometime past that also was stopped.

The workmen have asked for leave and holidays as follows:—

(1) 12 days' festival leave with pay per year,

(2) 15 days' medical leave with pay per year,

(3) 15 days' casual leave with pay per year.

On the side of the Company it is stated that there is a definite scheme for leave and holidays for both permanent and temporary workers based on the agreement, dated 24th December 1957, and in terms of the same the Company agreed to allow only 10 days' holidays' with pay and the workmen accepted those holidays on festival occasions, and no other paid holidays were made admissible by the agreement. It is further stated that the permanent employees are entitled to 10 days' festival leave with pay and 14 days' leave with pay according to the Standing Rules of the Company. It has been denied that the Company stopped 10 days' festival leave to the workmen for sometime past. According to the Company it offered 10 days' leave with pay to the temporary workmen for the year 1959. But the said offe was not accepted by the workers who preferred to have the matter decided by the Tribunal. It is added that the Company is still prepared to allow 10 days' holidays in a year, and the said holidays must either be enjoyed on festival occasions or they are to be distributed in the two ways, viz., three holidays on festival occasion such as Republic Day, Independence Day Viswakarma Puja Day, and the balance of the said leave as privilege leave. In the exceptional cases the Company, however, sometimes allow leave without pay to the maximum limit of 15 days in order to enable the temporary workmen to maintain their lien in service which they would have otherwise lost. Thus the Company contended that the leave facilities offered by it to the workmen are fair and reasonable.

In the chart, Ext. U, the Company gives the details regarding leave and holidays. On a reference to the same, it will be seen that the permanent workmen and the temporary workmen (all daily-rated and monthly-rated) get 10 paid festival holidays in a year. Further, the permanent workers (daily-rated) get 14 days' earned leave with pay after completing one year's continuous service. The clerks and the Supervisors get one month's earned leave with pay after completing one year's continuous service.

At the outset, I should mention that the present Company was formed in the year 1924 as a private limited Company, and since its existence it has carried out contracts for pile driving and reinforced concrete at different parts of India, and after the completion of the contract whose duration depends upon the volume of work, the services of all workmen engaged for the contract work, excepting a few skilled workmen, are dispensed with on payment of the legal dues. It is said that out of the skilled workmen only about 35 workmen are in the permanent roll of the Company, and the trading activities of the Company are uncertain and fluctuating as it depends upon the construction activities in the country.

In the evidence O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarma, the Assistant Manager of the Company, has said that they grant leave as follows:—

For permanent workers—14 days' earned leave with full pay is granted to each on completion of one year's service, in addition to 10 days' leave with full pay.

For the temporary workers—10 days' leave with full pay in a year is granted and they do not get any other leave.

In the cross-examination, the witness has stated that there is no casual or sick leave for the temporary workers. It appears that there was an agreement between the Union and the Company regarding leave and other matters on 24th December 1957 (vide Ext. D). Under the same the permanent employees (daily-rated) of the Company will get leave and holidays according to the Standing Rules of the Company, i.e., 14 days' leave in a year and 10 days' festival holidays in a calendar year. From the chart, Ext. U, it is seen that the permanent staff, i.e., clerks and supe visors get 1 month's earned leave with pay aft completing one year's continuous service besid 10 paid festival holidays. O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarm the Assistant Manager of the Company, h admitted in the cross-examination that there is casual or sick leave for the workers. From h evidence it is seen that the temporary workers g only 10 days' paid festival holidays in a year. far as the clerks and the supervisors are concerne they get 40 days' leave with pay, in all, in a yea This provision is found sufficient to meet a emergency including illness. So far as the oth employees are concerned, I think that there mu be some provisions for medical leave. It i accordingly, directed that the permane employees (daily-rated) will get three day medical leave with pay in a year. So far as t temporary workers are concerned, they will al get three days' medical leave with pay in a ye after putting in more than six months' continuo service. No other kinds of leave are fou necessary.

A contention was raised by the Union to t effect that the Company did not allow any lea to the workers in the year 1958, and, as suc pay of the leave is due. O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarm has said in his evidence that the festival holida were granted to the workers in 1958. Thus the is a great difference between the two parties this respect. In view of the same, it is held th the workers will get the pay of the leave question for the year 1958 if leave would be d to them. This issue is thus decided.

Issue No. 5: At the outset it should mentioned that the monthly paid staff includ supervisors and clerks. The Company's case that the clerical staff are not asked to work ove time at any time and, as such, the question of ra of payment for overtime work for them does n arise. However, I must hold that if the clerica staff are to work overtime then they must be pai overtime wages at the rate of one-and-half of th wages.

The Company admits that the supervisors a sometimes asked to work overtime on account special nature of reinforced concrete work whic is supervised by them and for the same th Company does not pay any overtime wages to the as their salaries have been fixed up taking int consideration all about the nature of their work It is added that they are given more facilitie such as lodging, subsidised messing arrangement better leave facilities and free electric current In this respect I will refer to the evidence O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarma. He has said that th supervisors are to remain beyond schedule hour of work and for that they do not get any separat overtime allowance and this sort of extra work ha been taken into consideration in fixing up thei salaries. He has added that they are to d reinforced concrete work and, as such, they canno leave any work in a half-done way, and are boun to complete work even by working late hours an as their duties are of this nature, so they hav fixed up the wages accordingly and their scales o wages are high. When it is found that while appointing the supervisors, the Company has fixed up their salaries taking the overtime work in consideration and the supervisors have agreed to work accordingly the question of fixing the overtime allowance for them does not arise. No supervisor has come to say anything contrary to this. Under the circumstances, the Company's version that the supervisors are being paid high wages for they are to work overtime is not being controverted by the supervisors. Under the circumstances it cannot be taken up that the supervisors are to work overtime without getting any remuneration for the same. The fact is that the supervisors' wages have been fixed by the Company taking into consideration that they are to work overtime. It is not shown that the remuneration which has been fixed up for the supervisors is in any way improper. The other facilities which the Company gives to them in the shape of free lodging, subsidised messing arrangement and free electricity are also in consideration of the fact that they are to work sometime overtime. These are certainly extra allowance to them in consideration of the fact that they are to work overtime. Having regard to the special contract of service under which the supervisors work, it is not at all required that a separate remuneration is to be prescribed for the overtime work. The issue is thus decided.

Issue No. 2: The Company filed a chart, Ext. O, to show the proper designation of the workers and in evidence Shri Sarma, O.P.W. 1., the Assistant Manager of the Company, has said that there were grievances among the workers regarding the classification, and over this point and other points there was a strike and after that the classification was made for each category of workers and there is a fixed wage. There are 2,095 workers and they have been classified as carpenter, driver, chowkidar, fitter, mechanic, head mason, mason, mechineshop operator, welder, skilled mazdoor, mazdoor, steel fixer, winch operator, mixer driver, hammerman, khalashi (scaffolding), concrete supervisor, muccadam, head carpenter, blacksmith, rejas, piling tindel, piling driver, piling serang, piling khalashi, etc.

I do not find anything wrong in the classification of the workers as made by the Company. There are three grades of fitters. The Union contends that there is no justification for maintaining three grades of fitters. According to the Company the three grades of fitters have been done in consideration of the efficiency. From the evidence of O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarma, it is seen that a practical test is held and on the result of the same promotions are made to the grades one and two from the persons working in grade No. 3. From the chart, Ext. O, it will be seen that as a matter of fact five fitters of grade No. 3 have been promoted to the grade of Fitter No. one or two. Certainly efficiency is to be judged and here the Company judges the same by holding practical test. This procedure cannot be called in question. There is one head carpenter and there is one head mason in the Company. For the same there should not be any grievance as the same was done in consideration of more efficiency and skill. So far as the mazdoors are concerned, they have been classified as skilled mazdoor, and unskilled mazdoor. O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarma, has said in the cross-examination that there is no unskilled mazdoor. The fact, that is found, is that the Company mainly deals in construction work wherein they are to make concrete mixture and for the same they engage illeterate persons who can, however, help in making mixture and for the same they have got knowledge of numbers. In view of the same these persons cannot be classified as semi-skilled mazdoors. So, the Company has rightly classified them as mazdoors. It is not found to be correct that the Company wrongly classified the skilled mazdoors as ordinary mazdoors. The Union has not been able to give me any instance wherein any injustice has been done. From Ext. O it will be seen that ordinary mazdoors are numbering 1,003. Simply from this figure it cannot be concluded that there are some workers who should have been classified as skilled mazdoors. The learned lawyer for the Union has suggested in his argument that a recommendation should be made for the formation of a committee consisting of three persons to examine the nature of work done by the workers and thereupon to make the necessary classification. I do not find that any useful purpose will be served by doing the same as it is well-known that the contract-work of the instant firm and other firms engaged in doing work at Durgapur will cease to operate by 1961. Moreover the management with its experience of day-to-day work is in a better position than the Union to perform the task of classification. Of course, without expert's advice the classification as done by the Company cannot be thrown away.

As regards wages, the Company has given a chart, Ext. X, showing salaries payable per month to the supervisors, clerks, etc. Regarding the workers' daily wages, another chart was filed by the Company and it is Ext. Y. It will appear from the same that the wages are inclusive of dearness allowance. So far as the supervisors and clerks are concerned, I do not find anything to show that their wages are not proper. In the evidence, Shri Sarma, O.P.W. 1., has said that they give the supervisors free quarters, subsidised messing arrangement and better leave facilities and their salaries were fixed after taking all these facts into consideration. So far as other workers are concerned, the Company's case is that wages are paid to them in accordance with the minimum daily rates as fixed by the Government by its notification No. 842Lab., dated 19th March 1952 (prescribed for Burdwan). A question naturally arises whether at present there should be an increment in the wages or not. Now, the contention of the Company is that in the present case there is no issue for fixation of wages or for revision of wages. It is said that the present issue relates to proper designation and wages of the workmen according to the nature of work done by them. The Company's argument is that at first the designation of the workmen is to be done and then it is to be seen whether according to that designation a particular workman is being given wages as per Government schedule or not. Of course, the issue is not definitely for the determination of wages or fixation of wages or for the revision of wages. In that view of the matter it must be said that we are not concerned in the present case for determining the scales of pay and grades for all categories of workmen. The question of fixation of wages is actually not called for in the present case. Further, there are no materials on record for proper assessment of the financial capacity of the Company. When it is found that the workers are getting minimum wages as fixed by the Government, it would be difficult to raise the same unless it is shown that the Company has financial capacity to pay more. The issue is thus decided.

Issue No. 3: The Company's case is that Shri Barun Kumar Ghosh was appointed as a Supervisor and in the course of his employment he was very irregular in his work for which the Company's work had to suffer. It therefore decided to terminate his temporary appointment with effect from 18th November 1958, by giving him a month's notice, and on a representation made by him the Company offered him a fresh job at Calcutta on the same terms and conditions of service, but Shri Ghosh refused to accept the alternative job and preferred to have his full and final settlement on 17th March 1959.

Now it is seen from the receipt, Ext. C, dated 17th March 1959, that Shri Ghosh actually received all his dues up to 17th November 1958 from the Company in full and final settlement of his claims after definitely stating that he had no further claim against the Company. Further he undertook by this document that he would not raise any further industrial dispute on the question of his legal dues against the Company. Shri Ghosh did not come to say that he did not make any final settlement about his right and dues. The position is clear to me that Shri Barun Kumar Ghosh amicably settled his dispute with the Company and left the service of the Company. There is, therefore, no point for adjudication so far as Shri Ghosh is concerned.

So far as Shri Kisen Singh is concerned, the Company's contention is that he was temporarily appointed as a Vibrator Operator at Durgapur, and on 30th October 1958 a complaint was received from the Senior Engineer, Shri A. K. Ganguly, to the effect that Shri Singh assaulted him while he was on duty and the matter was immediately reported to the police, and subsequently on 31st October 1958 the police arrested him and afterwards he was released on bail. It is also stated that on 5th November 1958 the Company issued a charge-sheet to him to which he replied and thereafter the Company held an enquiry which was concluded on 25th November 1958. Thereafter upon an agreement, dated 9th December 1958, the dismissal order was kept in abeyance till the police case against him was concluded, and in March 1959, it was found that Shri Singh was arrested by the police in connection with the theft case and he was discharged. Lastly, the Company confirmed the dismissal order by a letter, dated 13th March 1959. The Company has also stated that Shri Singh settled his dispute with the Company and withdrew all his dues stating that he had no dispute with the Company. From the record it is seen that Shri Singh sent a petition (Ext. B) to this Tribunal stating that he had no dispute with the Company in respect of his discharge. The receipt [Ext. B(1)], will show that Shri Singh withdrew Rs. 325 on 25th August 1959 stating that he made full and final settlement of all his claims against the Company. The other document, Ext. B(2), is the letter written by Shri Singh to the Union stating that he had settled with the Company all his pending matters and signed "no dispute" agreement and, as such, the issue about his dismissal should be withdrawn from the Tribunal. All these documents are found to be quite genuine. It is, therefore, clear to me that Shri Singh acquiesced in the order of dismissal passed against him by the Company. There is, therefore, no point for adjudication by him. Now the Union's case is that Shri Singh did not make any settlement with the Company and he simply withdrew money under pressure of poverty. Of course, Shri Singh did not come to say anything on oath. P.W. 2., Shri Haque, a member of the Union, has said in his evidence that Singh received payment from the Company in full satisfaction of his claim under duress, and he wrote him a letter, Ext. 6, and therein he stated that he was in difficulty for want of money and he was compelled to withdraw money from the Company. This letter is nothing but an afterthought. It cannot be acted upon at all. I have already refered to the documents, Exts. B, B(1), and B(2) executed by Shri Singh. By the letter, Ext. B, he asked the Tribunal to make a "no dispute" award so far as he is concerned. Under the receipt, Ext. B(1), he clearly stated that he had no dispute and further claims against the Company. Lastly, by the letter, Ext. B(2), dated 25th August 1959, he asked the Union to withdraw the issue concerning his dismissal. The letter, Ext. 6, is dated 30th August 1959. It is undoubtedly a subsequent production and no reliance can be placed upon it. From the materials discussed above, I find that Shri Singh acquiesced in the punishment of dismissal. So, there is no point for adjudication regarding Shri Kisen Singh. The issue is thus decided.

Issue Nos. 4 and 6: These two issues are taken together for consideration. The Union's case is that on or about 15th January 1959 the workmen of other contractors engaged in construction work at Oyaria started agitation against their employers for their legitimate demands and there was a strike throughout the area under the leadership of Union Contractors' Workers' Union. But the workmen of the instant Company did not participate in that strike although they had grievances against the Company, and the Company forced the workmen to a lock-out and subsequently intended to withdraw the same but the workmen did not respond to the same, and joined the strike launched by other workmen of contractors at Oyaria, and when the strike was withdrawn at the instance of the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Calcutta, the workmen rejoined their work.

The Company's case is that on 15th January 1959 there was violent demonstration by strikers of another Company to which the workmen employed by the instant Company also joined and the situation was such that it was impossible for them to carry on its normal work and it issued a notice, dated 15th January 1959, and immediately contracted the workers' representatives for their intervention, and on 16th January 1959 the Company again approached the workers' representatives and requested for the co-operation to resume normal work but the workmen did not join their work on 17th January 1959 and continued the strike which they started on 15th January 1959 along with the workmen of Messrs Simon-Carves Ltd., and joined their duties as and when they liked after 1st February 1959. It is stated that the strike was thoroughly illegal, unjustified and unreasonable, and was resorted to purely on extraneous considerations and in clear violation of the terms of the agreement.

So far as Shri T. K. Mukherjee, Shri Gour Ch. Ghosh, Shri Sadhan Roy, and Shri Sanat Chatterjee are concerned, the Company's case is that they took active part in the illegal strike. It is also mentioned that Shri Chatterjee and Shri Roy are no longer in the employment of the Company as Shri Roy had resigned from service, and the service of Shri Chatterjee had been retrenched on payment of all their dues. Shri Ghosh had also been dismissed as he was found guilty of gross misconduct.

Shri Mukherjee's case is that he attended office on 15th January 1959, 16th January 1959 and 17th January 1959, and thereafter he went to office in time on 19th January 1959 but he saw the office closed, and came back after waiting their for some hours. It is also stated that he saw the office closed on other subsequent days. He denied the Company's allegation that he took part in the illegal strike and added that on 5th February 1959 he sent a letter, Ext. 2, to the Company mentioning that office was found totally closed from the morning of 16th January 1959 to 1st February 1959. P.W. 3., Shri Roy, who was one of the workers' representatives, has said in his evidence that they did not resort to any strike on 15th January 1959 and there was a strike by the employees of other neighbouring concerns and, as such, the present Company stopped the work. He has further stated that they went to the Manager for work on 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959 but the Manager did not give them any work. Lastly, he has said that on 17th January 1959 the Manager agreed to give them work but he refused to give them pay for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959. This made their position difficult and there was consequently cessation of work, and at last on the request of the Conciliation Officer they agreed to resume work keeping the dispute regarding wages pending. In the cross-examination, the witness has admitted that the present Company stopped the work on 15th January 1959 as soon as the workers of the other Companies resorted to a strike and on 16th January 1959 they got the Company's letter, Ext. J, dated 16th January 1959. By this letter (Ext. J), dated 16th January 1959, the Company reported about the situation, which had prevailed on 15th January 1959, to the workers' representative and in it was stated that due to obstruction and threats by the strikers from other Companies normal work could not be carried on. The first thing, that is found, is that the workers of the other Companies resorted to a strike on 15th January 1959. The second thing, that is found, is that the present Company kept the work at the sites stopped on 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959 as the strikers of the other Companies were holding threats. For this stoppage of work, the workers cannot be made to loose their wages. It is, accordingly, held that the muster-roll workers will get wages for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959.

There is also a claim for wages from 17th January 1959 to 1st February 1959. In the written statement the Union has clearly stated that the workmen started strike on 17th January 1959 and continued the same till 1st February 1959 as the lock-out during 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959 was unjustified. In the evidence, P.W. 3, Shri Roy, has said that the workers resorted to a strike as the Company refused to pay them wages for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959. This thing was not mentioned specifically in the written statement. The notice, Ext. K, dated 16th January 1959, issued by the Company would clearly show that the Company requested the workers to attend their duties on 17th January 1959. So the fact comes clear that the Company which kept the work closed on 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959 because of the troubles created by the strikers of the other Companies, did not actually suspend their work at the sites on and from 17th January 1959. Now the question is, why did not the workers attend their duties on 17th January 1959? It is now better to refer to the evidence of O.P.W. 1., Shri Sarma, the Assistant Manager of the Company. In his evidence he has said that on 14th January 1959 the workmen of Messrs. Simon-Carves Ltd. at first began the strike, and the hunger-strike was resorted to by the two workmen of that firm on 14th January 1959, and on the morning of 15th January 1959 a general strike was organised by the workmen of this firm. On 15th January 1959 at about 10 a.m. one of their workmen named Narayan Pandit stopped work at one of their sites and all the workmen left the sites and joined the strikers of Messrs. Simon Carves Ltd. and proceeded to all other sites of the Company with violent slogans. The witness has added that thereafter they issued notice on different sites expressing their inability to continue their work as the strike was existing and on 16th January 1959 they again wrote to the workers' representatives by sending letters (vide Ext. J series) expressing that the strikers from other Companies forced to stop work by obstruction and threats. On 16th January 1959 they gave a notice asking the workers to join work but they did not join accordingly and all the muster-roll workers joined the strike and they rejoined the work on 2nd February 1959. In the cross-examination it was suggested that as the Company refused to lift the lock-out so the workers resorted to strike. Further it was suggested that as the Company refused to pay the wages for 15th, 16th and 17th January 1959, to the workers so the workers continued to strike up to 1st February 1959. This suggestion carries no weight as from the notice, Ext. K, dated 16th January 1959, it is seen that the Company asked the workers to join the work on 17th January 1959. It is not correct to say that the Company did not lift the lock-out on 17th January 1959. No question would arise that the Company refused to pay the workers their wages for 17th January 1959 as the fact is that the Company asked the workers to join the work on 17th January 1959, the position is clear that the Company closed the work only for the 15th and 16th January 1959. There is no justification on the part of the workers not to join their duties on and from 17th January 1959, and the Company's contention that the workers resorted to strike in sympathy with the strikers of the neighbouring concerns cannot be totally brushed aside. In the written statement the Union has simply stated that as the lock-out on 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959 was unjustified, the workers started strike. It has not been mentioned therein that the strike was resorted to as the Company refused to pay the wages for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959. Such a contention was raised for the first time during the hearing. It is nothing but an after-thought, and cannot be given any value. I have already stated that the Company stopped work at the sites on 15th January and 16th January 1959 being afraid of the situation created by the strikers of the other neighbouring concerns. In that view this lock-out cannot be called in question. But when the same was not out of any activities of the workmen, they should not be deprived of the wages for these two days (i.e., for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959). The strike resorted to by the workers from 17th January 1959 to 1st February 1959 was on extraneous consideration. So, the workers cannot claim the wages for the period from 17th January 1959 to 1st February 1959.

Now, I take up the case of four monthly-paid workers, viz., Shri T. K. Mukherjee, Shri Gour Ch. Ghosh, Shri Sadhan Roy and Shri Sanat Chatterjee. The Company's contention is that they took active part in the strike and that is why they were not paid their wages for the period from 15th January 1959 to 1st February 1959. In the evidence Shri T. K. Mukherjee, P.W. 1., has said that he was working as a Typist-clerk, and he attended office on the 15th, 16th and 17th January 1959, and daily reported for the office on subsequent days. His further statement is that he did not join the strike. O.P.W. 2, Shri Ranga, has said in his evidence that Shri Mukherjee attended the office on the 15th, 16th and 17th January 1959. Of course, he has added that Shri Mukherjee left the office on 17th January 1959 after signing the Attendance Register. This cannot be taken to be correct. When he attended the office, he must have worked during the office hours otherwise the Company would have marked him absent for the whole day. In my consideration Shri Mukherjee would get his wages for three days (viz. 15th January 1959, 16th January 1959 and 17th January 1959). The aforesaid witness works in the office and he is in charge of Banking transaction. He has said in the evidence that their office remained open during the strike days and he used to attend office daily during the strike period. O.P.W. 3., Shri Daga, has said in his evidence that the office was open during the strike and he attended office every day. I do not find any reason for disbelieving the evidence of these two witnesses. It is clear to me that the office remained open during the strike period. The statement of Shri Mukherjee that he found the office closed during the strike period cannot be accepted as correct. It is found that the office was all along open during the strike period and Shri Mukherjee attended office only on the 15th, 16th and 17th January 1959.

The other three workmen, viz. Shri Ghosh, Shri Roy and Shri Chatterjee, mentioned in their explanations that they did not work as there was stoppage of work by the Company on 15th January 1959, and 16th January 1959. Further, it was stated that they did so in accordance with the Agent's order. So, they would get wages for 15th January 1959 and 16th January 1959.

The next question is whether these three persons (Shri Ghosh, Shri Roy and Shri Chatterjee) should get wages for the remaining period in claim. The Company's contention is that they took active part in the strike. Now from the evidence of O.P.W. 2 and O.P.W. 3, it is found that actually the four workmen in question participated in the strike by taking active part. O.P.W. 2, Shri Ranga, has said in his evidence that Shri Mukherjee incited the strikers by delivering lectures with "Hindi slogans". He has further said that on 20th January 1959 on the morning when he was coming to office, he saw Shri Ghosh who was coming towards him and he caught his hand asking him not to go to office. Next he has said that he anyhow managed to come to the office. O.P.W. 3, Shri Daga, has said that Shri Mukherjee was amongst the strikers and Shri Ghosh was also there and he was giving a lecture inciting the strikers. Further he has said that Shri Roy and Shri Chatterjee were also in the strike and gave lectures supporting Shri Ghosh. Shri Mukherjee also stood up and gave lecture. Both O.P.W. 2 and O.P.W. 3, subsequently submitted written reports against the aforesaid persons to the office. Of course, Shri Mukherjee came to say that he did not take any part in the strike. The other three persons did not come to give any such denial on oath. I do not find that O.P.W. 2. and O.P.W. 3. deposed falsely. Of course, the evidence is that Shri Mukherjee attended the office on the 17th January 1959 and thereafter he left the office. It was not impossible for him to join the strike on the very day after performing the office work. Both O.P.W. 2 and O.P.W. 3 said that Shri Mukherjee gave lectures inciting the strikers who were in front of the office in the open place. After analysing the evidence I find that Shri Mukherjee took part in the strike on 17th January 1959 after office hours. He should get his wages for 17th January 1959 along with the wages for the 15th and 16th January 1959 as mentioned already. The other three workmen, viz., Shri Ghosh, Shri Roy and Shri Chatterjee, are found to have taken active part in the strike from 17th January 1959 to 1st February 1959. So, their claim for wages for this period cannot be allowed. They would get wages for the 15th and 16th January 1959, as mentioned above. Shri Mukherjee cannot claim wages from 18th January 1959 to 1st February 1959 as he took active part in the strike during this period. It has already been mentioned that the strike was in sympathy with the other strikers of the neighbouring concerns and it was from extraneous consideration. Shri Mukherjee and three others were not justified in taking active part in that strike.

In conclusion it is held that the muster-roll workers would get wages for the 15th and 16th anuary 1959. Shri Mukherjee will get wages for 5th, 16th and 17th January 1959. Shri Ghosh, Shri Roy, Shri Chatterjee would get wages for 5th and 16th January 1959. If the wages had ot been paid already to the workmen concerned, he Company should pay the same within seven ays from the publication of the award. These wo issues are thus decided.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Sailendra Nath Dey, 295 Kalighat Road, an employee of Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd, 42 Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24, against the aforesaid company. (Case No. 66 of 1958 under section 33A.)

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

Appearances:

For the applicant: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri N. K. Mookerjee, Advocate.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Sailendra Nath Dey, a workman in the Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd., filed before the First Industrial Tribunal before which an industrial dispute between the above Mills and their workmen was pending in pursuance of a reference, vide Government order No. 4100Dis./D/8L-14/56, dated 12th September 1956. That Tribunal as authorised by the Government of West Bengal by notification No. 1916-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated 13th May 1958, transferred this application to the Second Labour Court on 15th February 1958 for disposal.

The case of the applicant workman, briefly stated, is as follows:—

The applicant was working as a record-keeper in the Printing Department of the above Mills. Some times in September 1956, he was asked to do the work of a printer on the plea that the work which he was doing so long was no longer there. But instead of being given opportunity to learn the work of printing he was made to work as a cooly for pulling trolleys and carrying luggages. He continued to do the work of a cooly, but at the same time he made representation to the company protesting against such work and praying that he might be allowed to revert to his former post of a record-keeper. He sent the last representation on 11th December 1956. On that day he was told that his case was being considered and he was asked to await the decision of the management. He did not receive any orders up to 16th December 1956 and on 17th December 1956 he sent a letter enquiring of the orders and stating that if he did not get any reply by 23rd December 1956, he would consider that his services had been terminated wrongfully. In reply the company sent him a letter, dated 2nd January 1957 stating that he was absent without leave since 12th December 1956 and that he himself had caused termination of service.

The Company admits that the applicant who was working as a record-keeper was later given the post of a printer. The case of the Company, briefly stated, is as follows:—

The allegations made by the applicant in his letter, dated 11th December 1956, to the effect that he was made to do the work of a cooly were not correct. He was asked to continue as a printer, but he absented himself from 12th December 1956.

By his letter, dated 17th December 1956 the applicant himself terminated his service. The company did not terminate his service and as such there is no contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

DECISION

So the only point for determination is whether the applicant left the service of the company or the company terminated his service. The company says that the applicant was absent from the mills from 12th December 1956 but Shri Sudhir Kumar Sen, the then Labour Officer and the present Factory Manager of the Mills, who is the only witness examined by the company in this case, admits that the applicant was inside the mills on the 12th or 13th December 1956. His evidence read with the evidence of the applicant lends support to the inference that on 11th December 1956 the applicant was asked by the management to await decision of his petition of that date. If the applicant was absent from 12th December 1956 without the knowledge of the management, it could issue a charge-sheet against him for that reason or could at least inform him that he was being absent without leave. But there is no evidence that the management did either. The management contends that the applicant was absent without leave; but it does not state before me that it dismissed him on that ground. On the contrary, it holds that he himself terminated his service. So the question whether the applicant was absent without leave for some days after 12th December 1956 is really immaterial in view of the case of the company put before me. It appears to me that the company has interpreted the applicant's letter, dated 17th December 1956, as his letter of resignation; but this letter does not convey such a meaning. By this letter the applicant wanted to know the result of his representation, dated 11th December 1956. The Company instead of giving that reply waited for about a fortnight and then sent him a letter, dated 2nd January 1957. These two letters read together clearly lead to the conclusion that the company terminated the services of the applicant. As the company did not issue any charge-sheet or hold any enquiry before terminating the services of the applicant, I hold that the action of the company in terminating the services of the applicant is unjustified. In view of the strained relations between the applicant and the management, I do not order his reinstatement. I order that the company should pay him compensation equal to his wages for two years at the rate of his average wages for three months preceding September 1956.

The award will take effect within a month from the date of publication in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Bechu Kurmi and Shri Hardawari Roy is justified? What relief are they entitled to?

AWARD

The dispute regarding the workman Shri Hardawari Roy has been remanded to this Court by the Hon'ble High Court in the following circumstances:—The original reference was as to whether the dismissal of Bechu Kurmi and Hardawari Roy is justified, etc. This Court heard the original reference and decided that the dismissal of Shri Bechu Kurmi was made by some authority who had no jurisdiction to pass the order of dismissal, and accordingly the dismissal order was set aside and he was directed to be reinstated, and so far as the other workman Shri Hardawari Roy was concerned this Court similarly found his dismissal order unjustified, passed as it was by the Secretary who was not competent to pass the order of dismissal, and he was also directed to be reinstated. The other party to the dispute—Messrs. Vishudhananda Saraswati Databya Aushadhalaya, hereinafter called Aushadhalaya for the sake of brevity, moved the Hon'ble High Court under section 226 of the Indian Constitution, and that Court discharged the rule so far as Bechu Kurmi was concerned, but so far as the other workman Shri Hardawari Roy was concerned, the Hon'ble High Court quashed the orders passed by this Court, and remanded his case to this Court for trial according to law.

Whether the dismissal of Shri Hardawari Roy is justified?

Decision

So far as this workman Shri Hardawari Roy is concerned, the Union's case is that he was victimised for his active trade unionism on 7th October 1956, whereas the case of the Aushadhalaya is that he misappropriated a sum of Rs. 12 collected by him from one Thakurdas Damani in September 1956 which he did not deposit with the Management, and when confronted with the charge the workman Shri Hardawari Roy admitted his guilt and prayed for mercy. An enquiry was held by the Management wherein he was found guilty of misappropriating the sum of Rs. 12 collected by him from Thakurdas Damani on 21st September 1956. Admittedly, there was no charge-sheet in this case, but there was a verbal enquiry in which Hardawari Roy was told of the charge of misappropriating the sum of Rs. 12 collected by him from Thakurdas Damani on 21st September 1956. Both parties have adduced evidence before this Court, and the Court held an indepedent enquiry, and finds that the charge of misappropriation of Rs. 12 has now been established, because the Roker of 1956-57 which was not produced at the original stage of the trial has now been produced which goes to establish the charge. If this sum were credited in the Roker there could have been no charge of misappropriation, but since the Roker does not show the credit of Rs. 12, the natural inference is that the workman himself misappropriated this amount. There is no dispute that this sum of Rs. 12 was collected from Thakurdas Damani on 21st September 1956, and this collection is found entered as Ext. A-1 in the Hand Collection Book maintained by the Durwan himself. The Management, as a result of the domestic enquiry, found him guilty of the charge. As this Court is not a Court of appeal, it is not competent to interfere with the finding of guilty reached by the Management as observed by the Hon'ble High Court in its order. This view has been pronounced by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its latest decision in the case of G. McKenze & Co. Ltd. and its workmen and others reported in 1959 L.L.J., Vol. I, page 285, which runs as follows:

> 'Undoubtedly, the management of a concern has power to direct its own internal administration and discipline; but the power is not unlimited and when a dispute arises, industrial tribunals have been given the power to see whether the termination of service of a workman is justified and to give appropriate relief. In cases of dismissal on misconduct, the tribunal does not, however, act as a Court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the management. It will interfere—
> (i) when there is want of good faith,
> (ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,
>
> (iii) when the management has been guilty of a basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice, and

It is for the management to determine what constitutes major misconduct within its standing orders sufficient to merit dimissal of a workman but in determining such misconduct it must have facts upon which to base its conclusions and it must act in good faith without caprice or discrimination and without motives of vindictiveness, intimidation or resorting to unfair labour practice and there must be no infraction of the accepted rules of natural justice. When the Management does have facts from which it can conclude misconduct, its judgment cannot be questioned provided the abovementioned principles are not violated. But in the absence of these facts or in case of violation of the principles set out above, its position is untenable.

In the absence of any of the vitiating circumstances mentioned above, it would not be open to the industrial tribunal (in the instant case by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in appeal) to disbelieve the evidence of a witness examined at the domestic enquiry and come to a different conclusion on merits."

In the circumstances, I find on proper enquiry that the order of dismissal passed by the Management is justified. There are none of the vitiating elements, namely, lack of good faith, victimisation or unfair labour practice, basic error or violation of natural justice or baseless or perverse finding. In the circumstances, the order of dismissal is supported, as the Aushadhalaya can have no confidence in such a faithless workman, and in view of the interests of the Management no relief far less reinstatement would be justified.

The Aushadhalaya now raised the question whether it was an industrial dispute or individual dispute. This point was not taken at the original hearing. So, I refuse to entetain this point at this stage.

I, therefore, find that the order of dismissal of Hardawari Roy is justified for misappropriation of money and breach of faith, and that he is entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

AWARD

By Government order No. 504-I.R./IR/10L-120/58, dated the 11th February 1959, a dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., Victoria House, Calcutta-1 (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and the workmen of the maintenance section of the Mullajore Generating Station of the Company represented by Calcutta Eletric Supply Workers' Union, 35B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

The following issues have been framed by Government in this case:—

(1) Whether the employees of the maintenance section of Mullajore Generating Station are entitled to claim any overtime by way of right?

(2) Whether the employees of the maintenance section of the Mullajore Generating Station are entiled to compensation for loss of overtime earnings?

The contentions of the Union will appear from its written statement which luckily is very brief and may be quoted in extenso:—

"In the maintenance section of the Mullajore Generating Station, as well as in different Units and sections of the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., overtime work is a regular feature and has been so for about 15 years or more. Since the middle of 1958, such work has been stopped in Mullajore. The operation, performed by the workmen, doing maintenance job, used to be carried to extra time after normal periods of work. Emergency jobs also would be done in a similar manner. The overtime wages, earned by the employees concerned, were a part and parcel of their regular monthly earnings. Hence, stoppage of normal overtime work has created difficulty to the workmen, as there has been no corresponding increase in the basic wages.

Demand and remedies prayed for.—Workmen should be given overtime at per with the average quantum for the last ten years. In the absence of such work, compensation in the form of special initial increments should be allowed."

The contentions of the Company are that, overtime work cannot be claimed by the workers as of right, nor can any dispute be raised for the inability of the Company to give overtime work to the workmen or for payment of compensation in lieu of overtime work particularly when such work does not exist or is not considered necessary by the Company and that the dispute is novel and does not form a subject-matter of a valid industrial dispute. Further, the Company avers that sometime in July 1958, some trouble arose regarding overtime work. The maintenance workers refused to work overtime in excess of their normal working hours although a section of the workers were asked during this period to work overtime on urgent repairs. As they did not work the Company had occasion to get urgent repairs done by calling in a contractor. Thereafter, the workers agreed to work overtime, as intimated by the Union's letter, dated 19th September 1958 (Ext. A) as a result of discussion, from September 1958 and since then, overtime work at Mullajore maintenance section is being carried out as and when required by the number of men needed for the same.

Decision.

Both the issues in this case are taken up together for the sake of convenience.

In view of the aforesaid letter (Ext. A), dated 19th September 1958, written by the Union to the Company, it seems that no dispute as has been referred to this Tribunal should have been raised by the Union and it should be held that there is no dispute as alleged.

It has been candidly conceded by the learned representative of the Union that if there be no overtime work available the workmen cannot claim overtime by way of right; but, that is what is the subject-matter of issue No. 1 in this case. Apparently, this issue has not been properly framed. The concession made by the learned representative of the Union as aforesaid is certainly the dictate of sound common sense, because if there be no work available for being entrusted to the workmen to be done overtime after their normal hours of duties, the employer can never be compelled to create overtime work for them. Also, it has been held by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Mysore Spinning and Manufacturing Co., Ltd. [reported in 1955(I), LLJ., page 633], that an employee has no right to work overtime; rather, it is a mere liability and his right is only to get his wages determined for such overtime work as he might have done.

This being the position regarding the workmen's demand for overtime work, it can by no means be held that they can claim compensation for loss of overtime earnings, even though in the past, the employer might have found extra work for them to be done overtime. The case of the Company regarding the trouble about overtime work in July/August 1958 and the settlement of the matter thereafter in September 1958 (vide Ext. A) must be held to be correct. The Company maintains that all overtime work now available is being done by the regular workmen of the maintenance department.

The Union has examined two witnesses (P.W. 1 and P.W. 2) to prove that some of the overtime work is now being done by outside agencies. Their evidence need not be discussed but a mere perusal of the same, as has been recorded, will show that they have failed to prove that any overtime work is now being got done by the Company through outsiders and their evidence to that effect is not true. Also, an assurance has been given at the time of hearing of this case on behalf of the Company that all overtime work, if available, will always be got done by the regular workmen of the Company as before and the Company will not engage outsiders for doing the same. The Union ought to rely on this assurance and wait.

The Union has proved a list of overtime earnings of some workmen of the coal department in October 1959, but it is of no avail to the workmen concerned in this case, namely, maintenance people. They cannot claim similar overtime work as may be found for workmen of other departments. Reliance has been placed on behalf of the Union on the case of Crown Aluminium Works [1958 (I) LLJ., page 1] wherein their Lordships of the Supreme Court held that in consideration of the nature, history and duration of the payments made by the employer (of that case) towards the temporary dearness allowance, facility bonus and food concession (besides basic wages), these could not be held to have been made as matters of bounty but that in essence and in substance they form part of the basic wage and dearness allowance payable to the workmen. On the strength of this authority it has been contended on behalf of the Union that the overtime wages that have been earned by the workmen in question in this case should be regarded as a part of their basic wages and if sufficient overtime work cannot be found for them to earn the similar amount of overtime wages, the Company should pay compensation for making up the same. This argument cannot be accepted because the facts of the instant case are not at all in consonance with facts of the case cited above. In that case the amounts of temporary dearness allowance, facility bonus and food concession were fixed amounts and had been paid to make up the deficiency in the basic wages of workmen. In the instant case, there is no evidence what are the basic wages of the workmen concerned, nor has it been proved that the basic wage and the dearness allowance and other allowances which these workmen are entitled to get fall below the minimum wages that are being earned by similar workmen in the same region; also, the Union has not proved definitely what had been the amount of overtime earning of the workmen in question in the past. So, it cannot be held by any means that they are entitled to compensation for non-availability of overtime work or for insufficiency of the overtime work available, to augment the amount of basic wages, dearness allowance, etc., which they are getting. It may be also observed in this connection that there is no evidence, nor is it the case of the Union that when such basic wages, etc., were fixed the amount of their overtime earnings was taken into consideration or the same influenced the Management to fix the basic wages, etc., at a lower rate than what was to be allowed normally to them.

As a result, both the issues in this case are to be answered in the negative and it is awarded that the employees of the maintenance section of Mullajore Generating Station are not entitled to claim any overtime by way of right and that the same employees are not entitled to compensatic for loss of overtime earnings.

This is the award of this Tribunal.

Statements and other information required to be furnished to this

(Copy of the memorandum No. 3963-F/F/1A-6/59, dated the 18th November 1959, from the Government of West Bengal, Finance Department, Audit Branch).

It has come to the notice of Government that many Government servants who took interest-free advances on the eve of the Durga Pujas have been affected by the recent floods in West Bengal and that it will cause hardship to them if the first instalment of the advance is recovered from their salary payable on the 1st December 1959. Government are accordingly pleased to direct in partial modification of Government order No. 3189-F/F/1A/6/59, dated the 2nd September 1959, that the first instalment of the advance will be recovered from the salary of the Government servants concerned for the month of December 1959 payable during the month of January 1960 instead of from the salary for the month of November 1959 payable in December 1959 and that the remaining five instalments will be recovered from their salary during the following five months.

AWARD

By Government order No. 3539-I.R./IR/4L-6(C /58, dated the 22nd August 1958, the above indus trial dispute was referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. Subsequently by Government order No. 3743-I.R./IR/4L-6(C) 58, dated the 4th August 1959, the dispute was transferred to the present Tribunal under section 33B of the Industrial Disputes Act for the purpose of speedy disposal. The case was heard on 26th October 1959 and on subsequent dates hearing was concluded on 28th October 1959. Seven witnesses were examined for the workmen and two witnesses for the Companies and several documents were exhibited on both sides. The following six issues were referred for adjudication:—

Issues

(1) Whether abolition of the post of Havildar by redesignating it as Head Durwan and filling this post by a clerk is justified.

(2) Whether Nayaks are entitled to promotion as Havildar.

(3) Uniforms for scale labour.

(4) Whether the practice of overtime work f Durwans and change of gates by rotati as exist in Jagannath Ghat should extended to other Ghats.

(5) Whether the workmen are entitled overtime payment from 24th August 19 to 30th September 1956 as a result of th agreement arrived at on 24th August 19 between the Management and Paschi Bengal Mazdoor Congress. If so, at wh rate?

(6) Whether deduction of Rs. 5 per month for 13 months from the pay of Shri Ramsankar Misra is justified. Is he entitled to reimbursement of the amount?

The Joint Steamer Companies mentioned in the order of reference carry on the business of inland water transport in West Bengal and neighbouring States, and for the purpose of this business, the Companies maintain four Ghats, namely, Nimtollah Ghat, Kulpi Ghat, Jagannath Ghat and Armenian Ghat and a T.T. Shed where cargoes are accepted for transport by ships, steamers and launches. The Companies employ nearly 600 men in the subordinate staff at the various Ghats and out of them a considerable number consists of Durwans and there are also 200 labourers who do the work of weighing and are called Scalemen. Formerly, the Companies had Jamadars in charge of the Ghats appointed under individual agreements by which they had to pay cash security of Rs. 2,000 and were personally responsible for the protection and security of the said Ghats and the properties therein. The Jamadar was given power to appoint a Head Durwan and a sufficient number of Durwans for carrying on the duties of watchman in each Ghat and had also full power of control including dismissal over the Durwans so appointed. In the year 1952 the Jamadari system was abolished in Jagannath Ghat and the Jamadar's post was also abolished and an officer was appointed to supervise and control the work of the Durwans and watchmen in the said Ghat. Under this officer a Head Watchman called Havildar was appointed who was assisted by certain other watchmen called Naiks. The Havildar and the Naiks were appointed at the time by promotion from Durwans. The Havildar appointed in 1952 retired in 1957 and one Raghu Raj Singh was appointed to succeed him with effect from 1st September 1957. This Raghu Raj Singh was appointed under the designation of senior Head Watchman by transfer from the post of Cash Collecting Sarkar which he previously held. The post of Cash Collecting Sarkar is a clerical post and the post of Havildar was a non-clerical or subordinate staff post. The grade of the Havildar is Rs. 62—2—82 and the lowest grade of the clerical staff is Rs. 60—4—110. The Naiks' grade is Rs. 45—1—65 and the Durwan's grade is Rs. 36—1—56.

The case of the Mazdoor Congress is that by the appointment of Raghu Raj Singh by transfer from a clerical post to a subordinate post and by designating him as senior Head Watchman in place of the former designation of Havildar the Companies have violated the convention by which the Havildar's post was always filled up by promotion from Naiks who were promoted from Durwans and have taken away a valuable right enjoyed by the Durwans. It is further stated that by this appointment and by re-designation of the post the Companies have been trying to revive the system of Jamadari administration which had been abolished due to efforts of the workmen in the year 1952. Accordingly, the Congress contends that this appointment was not justified and should be set aside and that the Company should be directed to fill up the post by promotion from amongst the Naiks. This is the subject-matter of the first issue. The subject-matter of the second issue is that it should be declared by the Tribunal that the Naiks alone are entitled for promotion as Havildar and that a Havildar cannot be recruited from outside.

The third issue relates to a demand for uniforms for scale labour, i.e., for labourers performing the duties of weighing the cargoes to be transported. It is said that the other employees of the subordinate staff, viz., Durwans, Sweepers, Peons and Duftries, all get uniforms and that the Scalemen who perform duties involving dirty work and wear and tear of their wearing apparel should also be similarly provided with uniforms.

The fourth demand is for abolition of the jamadari system which prevails in Ghats other than Jagannath Ghat. In all the Ghats the Durwans have to do overtime work for which they get overtime wages. It is stated that in all these Ghats it is the Jamadars who distribute the overtime work and that they do so in a manner by which certain Durwans are favoured and get more overtime wages than others. It is further stated that in order to get overtime work payments have to be made to the Jamadars. It is prayed that overtime work should be distributed by a responsible officer by a system of rotation and that duties to the Durwans should also be assigned by rotation in order that all the Durwans may get equal opportunities to earn overtime wages and also to perform equal amount of work.

The fifth issue arises in this way. In the year 1955 there were certain disputes between the Companies and their subordinate staff represented by two Unions, viz., the present Union called Paschim Banga Mazdoor Congress and another Union called Inland Steam Navigation Workers' Union. The disputes were referred to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal and culminated in an award, dated 5th September 1956. One of the issues referred to that Tribunal related to working hours. There was an agreement between the Companies and Paschim Banga Mazdoor Congress which was signed on 24th August 1956. By this agreement the hours of duties were fixed and the working hours were reduced from 54 to 48 hours in a week. The Tribunal accepted this agreement and made an award on this basis. The Companies fixed hours of duties accordingly from 1st October 1956. The Union's case is that the hours of duties as in the agreement should have been operative from the date of the agreement, viz., 24th August 1956 as provided in the agreement itself, and that since the Companies did not reduce the hours from that day the workmen are entitled to overtime wages for the excess hours of duties performed by them from 24th August 1956 to 30th September 1956.

The sixth issue relates to Ram Sankar Misra, one of the Naiks of Jagannath Ghat. It is stated that he was promoted as Naik and thereby his pay was increased by Rs. 5 but was reverted to his original post of Durwan without any rhyme or reason and again promoted after 13 months. It is claimed that as his reversion was unjustified he should be awarded excess pay at the rate of Rs. 5 per month for the period of 13 months during which he remained on reversion.

I shall now take up the issues one by one.

Issue No. 1: With regard to this issue the Companies have denied that by appointing Raghuraj Singh by transfer from a clerical post and by re-designating his post as that of Senior Head Watchman they have violated any convention or taken away the right of the Durwans to be promoted as such. It is also denied that the Companies have any intention of reviving the Jamadari system by this appointment. An objection has also been taken by the Companies that appointment to a particular post or changing the designation of a post is a matter within the special power of the Management and that the workmen have no right to question such action of the Company, nor the Tribunal any jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the matter. With regard to suggestion that by this appointment the Companies were seeking to revive the Jamadari system at Jagannath Ghat, I may say at once that there is not an iota of evidence in its support. The system which was introduced at Jagannath Ghat in 1952 of controlling the Durwans by an officer still prevails and the Havildar of the Senior Head Watchman as Raghuraj Singh is called has not been given any extra powers or privileges which were not enjoyed by the former Havildar appointed in 1952. The Durwans are appointed by the Companies. They are controlled by the officer and the system of distribution of duties of overtime work by rotation still prevails there. There has been no agreement with Raghuraj Singh with the Jamadars in other Ghats and he has not been given any of the powers which are enjoyed by the Jamadars. Mere re-designation of the post cannot be objected to and it appears that in the Companies' papers the Havildar was also sometimes referred to as Head Watchman.

As regards the appointment itself no convention or understanding has been proved by which the Companies were bound to recruit a Havildar only by promotion from Naiks or Durwans. Only one Havildar has been recruited before Raghuraj Singh and simply because he was appointed by promotion from Durwans it cannot be said that a practice or convention has thereby been established. The Companies have stated in their written statement that since the Havildar is to be in charge of about 90 Watchmen or Durwans is to be responsible for the maintenance of discipline among these men. The Company wanted to appoint a man who possessed the necessary qualities essential for the performance of these duties and that for this purpose they kept the three Naiks at Jagannath Ghat under observation for some time to determine whether they would be suitable for promotion. As a result of this observation they were convinced that the existing Naiks would not be suitable for promotion and so they were obliged to look for a successor elsewhere. The Companies have further stated Raghuraj Singh was originally appointed as a Durwan at Jagannath Ghat in 1938 from which post he was appointed Cash-Collecting Sarkar in 1948. These facts have been challenged on behalf of the workmen but the Companies have produced the service record of Raghuraj Singh which shows that he had been appointed on 3rd June 1938 as Durwan at Jagannath Ghat and promoted as Cash-Collecting Sarkar on 1st July 1948. The list of Durwans produced also shows it. The staff register of Jagannath Ghat which has been produced relates to the clerical staff and therefore Raghuraj's previous appointment as Durwan is not shown therein. The entry therein shows that the word and figure July 1948 originally written therein indicating the time of his first appointment had been penned through and June 1938 substituted. This has been commented upon, but the reason for this was that as the staff register was for clerical staff, the time of his appointment as Cash-Collecting Sarkar was originally noted therein and this was subsequently corrected. There is suspicions in this and I find it established that he was originally a Durwan at Jagannath Ghat and served as such for 10 years.

So, the Companies have actually appointed a person who was originally a Durwan to the Havilder's post. He was not strictly an outsider, though he might have for some time worked in a semi-clerical post. It is also proved by the Assistant Superintendent that he was the seniormost but one of the Durwans at Jagannath Ghat. Considered from this aspect his appointment cannot be stated to have superseded any claims of the Durwans for promotion. In the matter of promotion whether to a subordinate post or to a superior post the question of seniority cannot be the only criterion. Integrity and efficiency have also to be considered and specially in a post like that of Senior Head Watchman who will control other watchmen, controlling ability has also to be taken into account. There is, therefore, no reason why the Tribunal should interfere in the matter of this appointment. Even if he be taken to be an outsider the Management has every right to appoint an outsider to a post for which suitable candidates for promotion are not available. This is the Management's prorogative with which the Tribunal should not interfere. A durwan of Jagannath Ghat named Shri Bisvanath Ojha made a grievance that during the time of Raghuraj Singh's predecessor, he used to work as time-keeper but that since the appointment of Raghuraj Singh he was not allowed to work as such. But he admitted in cross-examination that it was the Havilder's duty to keep the attendance register and records and that as Jadu Nath Singh was an old man, he was asked to do the work of a time-keeper. There was actually no post of time-keeper at Jagannath Ghat. Now, Raghuraj Singh keeps the register and does the work of time-keeper. This shows his ability and strictness in the discharge of his duties. I therefore find that the workmen are not entitled to any relief on Issue No. 1.

Issue No. 2: The Companies recognise the right of the Naiks to be considered for promotion to the post of Havildar subject to this that promotion should not depend on seniority alone but also on efficiency, ability and integrity. I do not think that the Naiks can claim more than this. I may say in this connection that three Senior Durwans were superseded when the present Naiks were appointed and, as stated by the Assistant Superintendent, the ground of supersesion was that they were not efficient. The Union's witness admitted the supersession but stated that these persons refused promotion. This can hardly be believed. So seniorty cannot be said to have been the sole consideration for promotion at the time these appointments. Without therefore falter-ig the Management's discretion in the matters would direct the Companies to consider carefully ie claims of the Naiks for promotion at the time f appointment to the post of Havildar or Senior lead Watchman at Jagannath Ghat.

Issue No. 3: As regards this demand, it ould be stated that there have been two previ-is adjudications, one in 1949 and another in 1956 hen uniforms were demanded for certain members f the subordinate staff. From the award of hri A. Das Gupta the first adjudication, dated 0th August 1949, it does not appear that uniforms ere then demanded for scale labourer. At that me the Tribunal recommended supply of uniforms o Durwans, Bearers and Peons who deal with ie public. In the next adjudication in 1956 lso no demand for scale-labour was made. reviously to this, on 23rd April 1954 there had een an agreement between the Companies and the mployees represented by the Inland Steam lavigation Workers' Union (Ext. Z) which shows hat a demand had been made by that Union for calemen and Sweepers and that the Company greed to supply uniforms to the Sweepers. The nion thereupon dropped the question of uniform or other category staff. No justifiable ground has een made out for uniforms for Scalemen who are rdinary labourers performing the duty of weigh-ng of cargoes. It is not exactly dirty work and loes not seem to involve such wear and tear of vearing apparel as a witness seemed to suggest. 'ertain photographs of Scalemen doing their work vhich have been filed show the nature of the duties hey perform. It has been stated that certain other 'ompanies supply uniforms to labourers doing the ame work but no employees from these Companies ave been examined. I am not therefore satisfied bout the necessity for uniform for this class of labourers.

Issue No. 4: A system of fixing of overtime and other duties for Durwans by rotation has been introduced and is being followed at Jagannath Ghat under instructions issued by the Companies but in the other Ghats the fixing of such duties is completely left at the discretion of the Jamadar. The Companies' case is that they do not interfere in this discretion because under the contract with the Jamadars they are solely responsible for the security of the Ghats and the properties therein and because any interference would place the Jamadars in a difficult position to discharge their responsibility. It is pertinent to note in this connection that at the time of the adjudication of the disputes between the Companies and their workmen represented by this Union and another Union named Inland Steam Navigation Workers' Union before the Sixth Industrial Tribunal in 1956 the other Union demanded abolition of the Jamadari system in the other Ghats and raised a great outcry against that system, while the present Union strongly supported that system as favourable to the Durwans and liked by them. The Companies have filed a document signed by the Durwans of these Ghats which was submitted to them in 1956 in which it was stated that the Durwans reiterated their determination to resist the abolition of the Jamadari system as it would "cut at the root of long standing privilege". A similar petition was filed before the Tribunal. The Tribunal recognised that there was possibility of corruption and nepotism in the system but did not interfere because of this opposition by the present Union backed by the Durwans. The Tribunal, however, pointed out that Companies were not likely to tolerate corrupt practices and would certainly devise ways and means to curb dishonest practices of the Jamadars and afford protection to the Durwans when necessary. It is not clear why in the course of three years there has been a sudden change of front on the part of the present Union. The Companies have, however, submitted to me a note which is reproduced in the Appendix stating that from 1st August 1958 the administrative control of Armenian Steamer Ghat and Kulpi Ghat has been transferred to the Controlling Superintendent at Jagannath Ghat and that it is also proposed to bring Nimtolla Ghat under the said Controlling Superintendent on or about 1st January 1960. When this administrative amalgamation is completed all these Ghats would be under one centralised control and it will be possible for them to be more easily governed by the policy issued by the Head Office. In the meantime the Union has claimed that the Companies should introduce the "rotation system" in allocating the duties of the Durwans and in arranging their overtime work as in Jagannath Ghat. The introduction of such a system is certainly desirable to prevent any chances of corruption or nepotism by the Jamadars and since the Companies have introduced centralised administration in two of the Ghats and are going to extend the same to the other remaining Ghat, I would recommend to the Companies to consider as early as possible the introduction of the system of rotation as prevails in Jagannath Ghat.

Issue No. 5: This demand has got no substance. It is true that the agreement in question which is set out in the award of the Sixth Industrial Tribunal, dated 5th September 1956, was signed on 24th August 1956 and there was a clause therein that while adjustments required under issue No. 1 which related to revision of grades and scales of certain categories of subordinate staff would be operative from 1st July 1956, the other issues would be effective from the date of the agreement. This agreement did not, however, conclude the adjudication because two Unions were parties to the adjudication and the agreement was concluded with only one of them. The Tribunal had therefore to consider the issue No. 2 of working hours in spite of this agreement and as it found the Companies' offer to reduce the working hours to 48 hours per week to be fair and just it awarded that the working hours would be 8 hours a day and 48 hours in a week from Monday to Saturday both days inclusive. The Tribunal next considered the hours of commencement and termination of duties and finally stated as follows. "It is hence awarded that work will commence at 8 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. or at 9 a.m. and close at 5 p.m. or at 10 a.m. and close at 6 p.m. with effect from the 1st day of the month following the publication of the award." This was the definite award of the Tribunal and it was to be effective from the first day of the month following the publication of the award. The award was published on October 4, 1956. The Companies, however, introduced the reduced working hours from 1st October though they were not bound to do so under the terms of the Award. In these circumstances the workmen cannot contend that the agreement in question became effective from the date of its signing, as stated therein, since it was subject to acceptance and confirmation by the Tribunal and the Tribunal was entitled to set out the day from which the working hours or any other provision of the agreement would be operative. From the fact that the Tribunal set out a different date for the introduction of the reduced hours it is clear that the Tribunal did not accept the date implied by the agreement. In these circumstances there was no legal obligation on the Companies to implement the agreement on this point from the date of signing. That they introduced the new working hours from the 1st October 1956 shows that they tried to meet the grievance of the workmen half-way and more than that they cannot be forced to do. The award properly interpreted leaves no room for enforcement of the working hours from any earlier date than that fixed by the award. This demand, therefore, should be rejected.

Issue No. 6: This demand also has no substance. Ramsankar Misra admits that he was reverted to his original post of Durwan after temporary promotion to the post of Naik. He did not make any representation to the Company against the said reversion. The Company has produced the letter (Ext. Z series) by which he was reverted and this letter shows that he was guilty of dereliction of duties. Subsequently he was given another chance and was promoted. Since he was not actually working as Naik during the period of 13 months he cannot claim anything for that period.

APPENDIX

Reorganisation of the Administration of the Calcutta Ghat Establishments of the Joint Steamer Companies.

The Calcutta Ghat Establishments of the Joint Steamer Companies are comprised of the following:—

Jagannath Ghat, No. 4 Calcutta Jetties, Armenian Steamer Ghat, Kulpi Ghat, Nimtollah Ghat, Tea Transit Sheds.

Prior to August 1958 the administration of these establishments came under the direct control of the Superintendent in charge of each of them, with exception of No. 4 Calcutta Jetties and Kulpi Ghat which were controlled by the Superintendents of Jagannath Ghat and Armenian Steamer Ghat respectively.

It was, however, felt by the Companies that consequent upon a reorganisation of their services, a centralised administration, directly under the control of the Head Office departments, would make for more efficient organisation and control and would ensure a more equitable distribution of work and a standardisation and regularisation of working conditions; consequently from 1st August 1958 the administrative control of Armenian Steamer Ghat and Kulpi Ghat passed to the Controlling Superintendent whose office is situated at Jagannath Ghat.

It has been found during the past 15 months that this reorganisation has led to an improvement in the administrative working of the Companies' Ghats in Calcutta and a fairer and more equitable distribution of work to those employees situated in these establishments. As a result of this it is now proposed to bring Nimtollah Ghat also under the aegis of the Controlling Superintendent on or about the 1st January 1960. When this administrative amalgamation has taken place all Ghats in Calcutta dealing with inward and outward general cargo handled by the Companies will be under one centralised control and it will thus be possible for all these establishments to be more easily governed by the policy issued by the Head Office of the Companies and it will obviate the loopholes which are always liable to occur when a number of different individuals are allowed to interpret a policy according to their own inclinations.

It may be mentioned that it is not at the present time intended to incorporate the administration of Tea Transit Sheds under the Controlling Superintendent as the functions of this establishment, dealing only with Tea, are not entirely similar to the other establishments and furthermore it is situated in a different part of Calcutta, some 5 miles away from the other establishments.

AWARD

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Jamair Co. Private Ltd., 42 Chowringhee Road, Calcutta (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen, represented by Jamair Employees' Union, Calcutta Airport, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), has been referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by Government order No. 2524-I.R./IR/4L-24/58, dated the 4th June 1959.

The following issue is framed by Government for decision in this case:—

Whether the retrenchment of the following 32 workmen is justified. To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

(1) Shri P. V. J. Rao, (2) Shri M. Mitra, (3) Shri S. Singh, (4) Shri R. Sreenivasan, (5) Shri V. R. Jaggannath, (6) Shri M. Mitra, (7) Shri K. N. Vasukutti, (8) Shri Ram Ch. Ram, (9) Shri Nageswar Lal, (10) Shri S. N. Prosad, (11) Shri Dilimiya, (12) Shri K. P. Upadhya, (13) Shri N. L. Sharma, (14) Shri B. Goswami, (15) Shri K. Mary, (16) Shri A. C. Burman, (17) Shri Md. Yasin, (18) Shri Asis Pandey, (19) Shri Sabir Ahamed, (20) Shri R. N. Bag, (21) Shri Gana, (22) Shri Sadgar, (23) Shri Kyas, (24) Shri Muneswar, (25) Shri Gagandev Misra, (26) Shri Luxmi, (27) Shri Tarpi, (28) Shri Phulina, (29) Shri Bhir Bahadur, (30) Shri Sudama, (31) Shri N. D'Silva, and (32) Shri Budhuram.

The case of the Union in its written statement is:—

The Union was formed on November 25, 1956, and was registered on February 7, 1957. The Company did not accept the formation of the Union in good grace. The Union presented a charter of demands to the Company on 10th March 1957. Thereafter, a dispute between the Union and the Company was referred to this Tribunal. The Company in order to victimise most of the office bearers of the Union and the leading members thereof retrenched the 32 workmen as aforesaid including the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer and other members of the Executive Committee of the Union. There was no justification for the retrenchment as the Company is a highly prosperous and flourishing concern. The employees retrenched from different categories were indispensably necessary for smooth functioning of the concern. After the retrenchment the Company appointed four new hands in the Accounts Department. Employees of other firms in which the Directors of the Company are interested are being brought for doing extra work for which they are paid by the Company. The Company in effecting the retrenchment has violated the principle of "last come first go" in several cases for the purpose of victimising some of the office bearers of the Union. The retrenchment was on the whole unjustified, mala fide and this is an instance of victimisation and unfair labour practice and it has increased the workload of the remaining workmen.

The Company's case in its written statement is—

Out of 32 workmen named in the order of reference Sudama (Serial No. 30) was actually not retrenched but his services had been terminated as he had absented himself without notice and permission of the Management and he was treated as having voluntarily left the service. Fourteen out of the remaining 31 retrenched workmen accepted their dues including retrenchment benefits in full and final settlement of their claims; their serial Nos. in the order of reference being 5, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 29, 31. So, these persons must be held to have no dispute with the Company and the reference regarding them is invalid. The Company is a new one. It was incorporated in Bombay in 9th November 1949 and subsequently transferred to Calcutta in June 1950. It is engaged in non-schedule chartered operations mainly between Calcutta and Dooars in North Bengal. The business being irregular and sporadic and entirely seasonal in character and there being competition on account of rapid development and expansion of road and river transport, there was an increasing decline in the business compelling the Company to resort to drastic economic measure to keep its existence, one of these measures being retrenchment of surplus hands. It operated 4 aircrafts up to 8th July 1954. One aircraft became totally unserviceable thereafter. Since 1954, the Company had been operating only 3 aircrafts until July 1958 when the Company had to sell one aircraft owing to substantial shrinkage of business. Inspite of the decrease of the fleet of Company's aircrafts it had all along been keeping surplus hands on its role but ultimately became compelled to take recourse to retrenchment for the purpose of economising as otherwise the Company would have to go out of the business, and so 31 workmen as aforesaid were retrenched. The retrenchment was bona fide, justifiable and on strictly economic grounds and the allegations of the Union to the contrary or their allegation of victimisation are altogether groundless. The Company had always been conciliatory in its attitude to the Union as would be evident from the fact that since the birth of the Union, there had been four memorandum of settlement executed and during the early part of 1959 a bipartite agreement on scheme of gratuity and several other stray matters was signed. In effecting the retrenchment the Company has not violated the principle of last come first go. No new hand has been appointed in the Accounts Department. Only a Chief Accountant has been appointed on account of the retirement of the incumbent of the post and the post of the electrician was abolished, which eventually caused the retrenchment of the workman who happens to be the Secretary of the Union. It is not a fact that the workload of the remaining workmen has increased due to the retrenchment.

Decision

At the outset, it is to be observed that the workman named Shri Sudama (Serial No. 30 in the order of reference) was not retrenched. The case of the Company that his services were terminated as he was regarded as to have voluntarily left the service is to be believed which is also corroborated by the evidence of the Managing Director of the Company (O.P.W. 1). So, the propriety of the retrenchment of the remaining 31 workmen is to be considered.

The first question to be determined is whether a case for retrenchment has been established and the onus to do so is on the Management. If it fails, its case would end there. If the Management is able to establish this, the next question to be considered would be the extent of retrenchment. If the retrenchment is bona fide, the number retrenched by it ought to be accepted. But the Tribunal will interfere in regard to the extent of retrenchment or to individual cases if it is found that the Management has acted partly on extraneous considerations or improper motives.

The avowed position taken by the Management in the instant case is that the retrenchment had to be made on the ground of economy which means that it wanted to get rid of the deadweight of uneconomic surplus.

In order to determine what was the financial position of the Company at or about the time of the retrenchment which was made on or about 19th April 1959, Annexure A to the Company's written statement wherein the profit and loss from the year 1950 to 1957 have been shown, is to be referred to. Here it is to be mentioned that the accounts of the Company have been audited up to 1956 but the accounts of 1957 and 1958 have not yet been audited. However, the Union is not in a position to seriously dispute the accuracy of the figures of profit and loss as shown in Annexure A. For, at the instance of the Union another dispute between it and the Company was referred to this Tribunal wherein the issues were as follows:—

"(1) Grades and scales of pay for all categories of employees.

(2) Night-shift allowance.

(3) Bonus for the year 1956-57."

The then Judge of this Tribunal gave an award wherein it was found that the Company had suffered a trading loss in the year 1956 almost to the tune of rupees one lac seventy-five thousands and odd as shown in Annexure A, and for this reason th reliefs claimed by the Union were rejected and th award of the Tribunal was published in th "Calcutta Gazette" of July 23, 1959, at page 2607 From Ext. A, it will appear that during the firs seven years of its existence (1950 to 1957), th Company incurred total loss about Rs. 3.68 lakh The Company has proved the gross revenue retur of 1955 to 1959 (Ext. 1). The volume of busines done in 1955 was about 37.71 lakh and Annexur A to its written statement will show that in tha year the Company made a profit of abou Rs. 97,000. In 1956, the volume of business don was to the tune of Rs. 37.87 lakh, but in that yea the Company suffered a loss of about Rs. 1.75 lakh as has been stated above and as cannot be gain said by the Union in view of the aforesaid awar of this Tribunal. In the years 1957 and 1958 th Company has done business to the tune o Rs. 37.87 lakh and Rs. 24.05 lakh respectively while in the first four months of the current yea the business done was almost equal to that of th first four months of the previous year, i.e., of 1958 Apparently, the volume of business of the Company is gradually shrinking and when compared with th trading result of 1956 as aforesaid it must be held that the Company is losing heavily. Therefore it is to be held that the Company is quite justifie in devising ways and means for curtailing expendi ture as far as possible if it wants to maintain its existence. The Company has therefore tried to justify the retrenchment in question as an economic measure. The Union has not been able to prove satisfactorily that other economic measures could have been adopted by the Company (without taking recourse to retrenchment) which might have reduced the amount of loss. On the other hand it has been sought to be proved by the Company that it had taken economic measures in other directions, namely, that the post of the Chief Engineer of the Company which had been held by (O.P.W. 1), has been abolished and he is doing the work of General Manager. It is admitted by P.W. 1 in his cross-examination that the person who was the Chief Engineer is now doing both the jobs. So, it is to be held that the appointment of P.W. 1 as the General Manager and non-appointment of another person as Chief Engineer is a measure of economy. P.W. 1 has said that the Company has appointed a Radio Engineer (who had formerly left the Company's service) on a higher salary. Now, it is not the Union's case that this Radio Engineer was not necessary for the purpose of business or that he has been appointed as a surplus hand. So, this evidence by P.W. 1 has got no value. There being no evidence on the side of the Union that there were avenues other than retrenchment for economising, it cannot be held that the Company has taken recourse to retrenchment arbitrarily, and solely as a vindictive measure. It must be held that the Company was fully justified in effecting economy by reducing the number of its labour force provided it can be established that there was a deadweight of uneconomic surplus on this head.

In view of the undisputed fact that formerly the Company had a fleet of four aircrafts which had been reduced to two in July 1958, it is to be, prima facie, held that the labour force required to operate two aircrafts will be much less than that equired for operating four and there is justification n the part of the Company to retrench the neconomic surplus as it was running at a heavy oss. From the statement filed by Union (Ext. 10), t will appear that in 1955 (when the Company had imittedly a fleet of only 3 aircrafts) there was a otal number of 166 workmen. This number ecame gradually reduced due to death or retirement or resignation of workers and ultimately, it ecame 130 in 1958; but, from the list of workers upplied by the Company (Ext. G), it appears that t the beginning of the year 1959, i.e., up to the late of retrenchment in question, there were 132 orkmen in all, and this statement is to be held s correct in preference to that of the Union Ext. 10). Out of this 132 workmen, 31 have been etrenched and the service of one has been erminated. So, at present, the Company has 100 orkmen including one Shri Saboo said by the ompany to have been appointed in place of Shri M. L. Bidani (Chief Accountant). So, ctually the present number of workmen is 99 and ot 98 as shown in the Union's statement (Ext. 10). t has been already pointed out that the number f workmen in 1955 when there was 3 aircrafts was 66 (vide Ext. 10). The present number of aircraft is 2. Apparently, the reduced number of orkmen is in proportion to the reduced number of ircrafts. On the face of it, nobody can have any uarrel with the Company regarding the number f workmen reduced, but it has been contended on ehalf of the Union that the nature of business one by the Company, namely, the running of aircrafts is such that the number of workmen does ot admit of being reduced or increased according o the number of aircraft reduced or increased; but, the Company must have a minimum number f workmen of different categories for running any ircraft at all. It is argued on behalf of the Company that this contention of the Union is not justifiable on the face of it; for, the number of orkmen required will mostly depend upon the olume of business done and also on the number f miles flown and hours flown; and it must be resumed that the labour force required for the aintenance or operating 2 aircrafts cannot be qual to that for four aircrafts. The Company has led a statement of hours flown and miles flown rom 1955 to 1958. It will be found therefrom hat the number on each of the heads in 1958 is ery much less than in the previous years, the eduction being almost one-third of the previous igures. This also shows that there was a surplusage in the labour force of the Company which t could reasonably regard as a deadweight of neconomic surplus and retrench the same.

It has been contended on behalf of the Union hat the number of workmen required does not epend on the number of miles flown or hours flown, ut on the number of flights made. Here it is o be observed that if the Union had thought that his particular point would outweigh the apparent ffects of the reduction of the Company's fleet of rcrafts and of the shrinkage of its volume of siness and the decline in the number hours flown or miles flown, and, would go to tablish its claim that the number of workmen in e beginning of 1958 which was about 130 was e minimum number required for running two rcrafts in view of the number of flights made by the Company, the Union ought to have asked the Company to supply a comparative statement regarding the number of flights made in the past several years. The Union has not done so, nor has it stated specifically in its written statement that the number of flights and nothing else will determine the minimum number of workmen required to operate two aircrafts and that the number of existing staff at the beginning of 132 was such minimum. The Union should have made out in its written statement such a specific case, in view of the financial position of the Company and other facts and circumstances discussed above. At the time of hearing the Union has examined one witness, Shri A. K. Ray who is working in the Wireless Department in the Indian Airlines Corporation since 1949. He has said that the number of workmen required depends mainly on the flights and not on the number of aircrafts but in every Company there is a minimum requirement of workmen and the minimum number of workmen required up to certain extent for 1 to 4 aircrafts is the same. This evidence is very vague and not very reliable because the witness does not say what is the minimum number of workmen required to operate two to four aircrafts, nor does he say that the existing number after retrenchment is inadequate for running two aircrafts by the Company. However, he had never been incharge of administrative work as has been admitted by him, as he is a Radio Engineer. He asserts that a Radio Engineer is in a better position than an administrative officer to say what are the minimum requirement for running an airline concern, because these matters are mainly technical. May be so, but the Company's present Managing Director is also an Engineer, evidently much more experienced than P.W. 6, for he (O.P.W. 1) is also incharge of the administration of the Company and the Union did not dare to ask him any question in cross-examination as to whether the number of workmen now in the staff of the Company is insufficient for running two aircrafts. Hence, it is held that the evidence of P.W. 6 is of no avail to the Union and that the present labour force of the Company after retrenchment is not inadequate for operating two aircrafts, even though the strength of such labour force may depend on the number of flights made and not on the numbers of hours flown or miles flown by aircrafts operating. The evidence of P.W. 6 stands condemned by the number of workmen from year to year as supplied by the Union (vide Ext. 10). It is a fact that the Company was operating 3 aircrafts from 1954, but the number of workmen gradually decreased from year to year up to 130 in the beginning of 1959. It is not the Union's case that the workload of the then existing workmen had increased due to this reduction of the labour force. So, the evidence of P.W. 6 that the minimum number of workmen required for operating 2 to 4 aircrafts is the same must be held to a myth.

The present condition of the Company can be compared with a leaky boat with too many passengers which can be possibly rowed to its destination provided some of the passengers can be left on the way. The financial position of the Company shows that it is likely to sink altogether if it has to carry on with the labour force that was in existence before the retrenchment. After the retrenchment it may hope to make some improvement in its financial position which eventually will provide sustenance to the workmen who have been retained after the retrenchment, which will be more conducive to social justice that compelling it to go to liquidation very soon, on account of the deadweight of an uneconomic surplus. So, it is to be held that the Company is quite justified in retrenching the 31 workmen as has been done by it and its action is bona fide.

It is now a well-settled principle that where in effecting retrenchment the Management acts bona fide, the number of workmen retrenched by it ought to be accepted.

It is contended on behalf of the Union that in determining the personnel for retrenchment the Management has acted in the instant case on extraneous consideration, viz., (1) on the motive of victimisation of the prominent office bearers of the Union, (2) increasing workload of the remaining workmen, (3) recruiting new hands in place of some of the retrenched workmen, and (4) non-observance of the principle of last come first go in some instances. Here it is to be noted that admittedly, the workmen of the Company belong to different categories. So, the principle of "last come first go" is to be applied in respect of the workmen categorywise and not taking all the workers in a body.

Contentions (1) and (4) are taken up together for the sake of convenience of discussion. It is stated in Annexure C to the written statement that Shri P. V. Jagannadharao (P.W. 1) who was the Chief of Stores and Supplies has been retrenched while there is no other workman in this department to do the work he had been doing; Shri M. Mitra (P.W. 9) who was the Union Secretary has been retrenched while a junior hand has been retained; that two account clerks, namely, Shri S. Singh who was Treasurer of the Union, and Shri K. N. Vasukutti who was clerk attached to the accounts department have been retrenched, while four new hands have been taken in that department and Shri Shreenivasan (P.W. 10) who was a traffic assistant and who was a member of the Executive Committee of the Union has been retrenched and a junior was retained, but the junior was also subsequently retrenched and offered a better job in one of the Directors' another firm.

It is a fact that P.W. 1 is the President of the Union, P.W. 9 is the Secretary and P.W. 10 is member of the Executive Committee of the Union. Here it is to be observed that the periods of service of all the workers have been given in the Company's statement (Ext. G).

As regards P.W. 1, he has been originally appointed as Personal Assistant to the Chief Engineer of the Company. It is also an admitted fact that the post of the Chief Engineer was abolished. Now, the Company might have dispensed with the services of P.W. 1 at that time but he was fitted in the Stores Department as the Chief of Stores and Supplies. It is also a fact that he was the juniormost employee in that department when he was posted there (vide Ext. G). It is the Company's case that the post of Chief of Stores and Supplies was quite an unnecessary one; so, it was abolished at the time of retrenchm and P.W. 1 was retrenched on the ground of abolition of his post as well as his being at t time the juniormost employee in that departme and so, it cannot be said that the Company acted with the motive of victimisation in retren ing P.W. 1. But, the Company's contenti though seemingly plausible, does not st scrutiny. It might have discharged P.W. 1 w the post of the Chief Engineer was abolish instead, he was appointed as Chief of Stores. should be therefore held that the Company nee such an officer. Now, the Company's plea is t this post was abolished at the time of retren ment. Of course, the Company has a right abolish any post that is not necessary. But, case of P.W. 1, the Company had recently crea the post and its abolition appears to have b made to get rid of P.W. 1 because he was Presid of the Union. Similarly, in the case of P.W. the Company says that the post he held v abolished. It is to be noted that P.W. 1, is President of the Union and P.W. 9, is its Secreta and at the time of the retrenchment, the Compa chose to abolish both the posts they held resp tively. This is somewhat suspicious. Suspic strengthens when one considers that the Compa did not act properly in retrenching two other off bearers of the Union, viz., Shri S. Singh (U n Treasurer) and Shri Sreenivasan (Member, U n Executive Committee), as will be presently tou So, it is to be held that the Company has appli the axe of retrenchment (which was, prima fac justified) being guided by extraneous considerati and motive of victimisation for getting rid of so marked workmen, viz., the active and promine office bearers of the Union. The Company h professed in its written statement a feeling complete amity towards the Union; but the tr feeling of the Management of the Company seer to be otherwise from the aforesaid facts. It also a fact that the Unoin which came into leg existence in 1957 placed several demands to t Company and made it to come before this Tribun in the case referred to above, while it had be having a very peaceful time before that. So, t Company could naturally look to the Union wi ill-favour and try to get rid of its active offi bearers.

For these reasons, it is held that the retrenc ment of P.W. 1 Shri P. V. Jagannadharao is n bona fide nor justified and is invalid.

P.W. 9 was one of the two aircraft electrician the other being Shri B. Hylton who was junior service to him (vide Ext. G). Apparently, t Company did not follow the principle of last com first go, and in order to justify the retrenchment o P.W. 9 it is stated on behalf of the Company th the post which he held was abolished; but fro the list supplied by the Company (Ext. G), it wi appear that P.W. 9 was not holding any particula post, but he was one of the two aircraft electrician and if the Company wanted to retrench one o these two, Shri B. Hylton should have bee retrenched and not P.W. 9, and the Company' explanation that the post of P.W. 9 was abolished is of no avail. Thus, the Company has not followed the provisions of section 25G of the Industria Disputes Act in the case P.W. 9 is concerned and his retrenchment should be held to be invalid.

The plea of abolition of his post seems not to be bona fide. It has been found about that the Company has taken similar plea to justify the retrenchment of P.W. 1 and for reasons mentioned in that connection, it is to be held that in retrenching P.W. 9, the Company has been guided by a similar motive.

Sreenivasan (P.W. 10) was one of the traffic assistants of the Company who was the last but one in length of service in this category (Ext. G), his junior being Shri D'Silva. P.W. 10 was retrenched on 20th April 1959. Apparently, there was a violation of the principle of last come first go in the case of P.W. 10. The Company's case is that Shri D'Silva was a traffic assistant at Saugaon, but the post he held there was abolished and a refueling assistant there did the work of traffic assistant in addition to his own duties and so, Shri D'Silva was brought on transfer to Calcutta and then he was retrenched on 29th April 1959. It appears that P.W. 10 was retrenched in violation of the principle of last come first go and finding this to be so, the Company took recourse to a stratagem, if one may say so, i.e., abolished the post which Shri D'Silva held at Saugaon Aerodrome and brought him to Calcutta on transfer and then retrenched him also. Apparently, the Company has retrenched P.W. 10 in violation of section 25G of the Act and then retrenched D'Silva to whitewash the same. In view of the facts and circumstances the retrenchment of those two workmen cannot be held to have been done properly and legally. It is to be noted that P.W. 10 was a member of the Executive Committee of the Union and the Company does not seem to have acted bona fide in retrenching him as also P.W. 1 and 9, as described above.

It will presently be found that the Company has not acted wisely and properly in retrenching another workman, viz., Shri S. Singh who is Treasurer of the Union and was attached to the Company's Accounts Department.

To determine point No. (2) as formulated above, it is necessary to state the categories from which the workers have been retrenched as also the number retrenched and that remaining after the retrenchment. A tabular statement will be convenient for the purpose. It is as follows and is collected from the Company's statement of workmen (Ext. G):—

Category, number retrenched and number remaining after retrenchment.

Clerks—3—5.
Cleaner (in the category of driver)—1—Nil.
Peons—1—3.
Loaders—11—27.
Durwans—2—4.
Traffic Assistant—2—8.
Machanics (Senior)—1—9.
Machanics (Junior)—2—6.
Cleaners—5—6.
Storekeeper—1—3.
Aircraft-electrician—1—1.

This table is at some variance with the list (Ext. 10) proved by Shri M. Mitra (P.W. 9), but Ext. G from which this table is collected is more reliable and is to be regarded as correct. Prima facie, the Union's contention regarding the increase of workload after the retrenchment cannot be accepted as valid, in view of the fact found above that the Company is now operating only two aircrafts instead of three as has been done up to July 1958. However, the Union has examined some witnesses who are workmen for proving that the workload has increased and P.W. 9 also has tried to prove the same. One of the said witnesses is Shri K. Marry (P.W. 3) who was the cleaner of the Company (not attached to the category of drivers in the table above). Subsequently he has been engaged on daily wages of Rs. 2, though he is said to have been used to get previous to retrenchment Rs. 60 per month as salary and had enjoyed all the privileges of a permanent worker. As he has been appointed after retrenchment on daily wages basis he says that he does not get all the privileges of a permanent worker. It is very difficult to understand how the Company can refuse him the privileges of a regular workman even though he is employed on daily wages. It is also not a fact that formerly his salary was Rs. 60, but it was Rs. 50 (vide Ext. C). It has been held above that the Company is justified in effecting the retrenchment and if after retrenchment the Company appoints a retrenched worker, that does not show that the retrenchment was not necessary or that the workload of the remaining workers has increased on account of the retrenchment. Also, this worker in question has not been appointed on wages less than what he got before retrenchment. Here it is to be observed that P.W. 3 is one of the five cleaners (of his category) retrenched and neither he nor the remaining cleaners say that their workload has increased. Shri Panchu Gopal Bag (P.W. 4) is included in the category of clerks. He is in charge of the booking at the Calcutta office of the Company since October 1952. He says that one of the retrenched clerks, namely, Shri M. Mitra used to assist him in his work daily at 4 p.m. and as Shri Mitra has been retrenched his workload has increased. A perusal of his evidence will show that he has not to work generally beyond the normal hours as a result of the retrenchment. Further, it cannot be held from his evidence that he had been formerly assisted by Mitra, for he, admittedly, wrote a letter to the Company on 3rd July 1959 (Ext. D). He did not complain that he was over-burdened with work, because of the non-availability of the assistance of M. Mitra. He simply complained of hard work. This letter (Ext. D) can be regarded to have been written for the purpose of creating evidence in this adjudication, for, it was written after the case had been referred to this Tribunal; so, no reliance can be placed on the evidence of P.W. 4 that the workload has increased on account of the retrenchment in question. Another witness is Lal Bahadur (P.W. 5), a Durwan. He says that before retrenchment, the Durwans used to get casual leave as well as weekly off days both of which have now been stopped; but, he does not speak of any specific instance of his prayer for casual leave having been refused by the Company. Further, he says that he is now getting off days and this is corroborated by his own letter (Ext. E), dated 31st August 1959. Shri Biswanath (P.W. 8) is a loader of the Company. From his evidence, it is clear that the workload of this category of workmen has not increased in spite of the fact that 11 loaders have been retrenched out of the total number of 38.

Shri Sreenivasan (P.W. 10) was a traffic assistant in Calcutta office and Shri D'Silva was a traffic assistant at Saugaon. The Company first retrenched P.W. 10; then brought over D'Silva from Saugaon and retrenched also the latter. It is a fact that the work of D'Silva is being done by one refueling assistant in addition to the latter's own duties at Saugaon. It cannot be ascertained whether the workload of the said refueling assistant has increased because of the removal of D'Silva from Saugaon Aerodrome. However, there had been six traffic assistants at Dum Dum (Ext. G). Out of them two have been retrenched. The Union has filed a comparative chart (Ext. 7) to show that the workload of the remaining 4 traffic assistants at Dum Dum has increased. From the chart it will appear that the traffic assistant formerly worked in three shifts and those who did night duty were given off days. Now, after retrenchment, the remaining traffic assistants have to work in two shifts. Those who have to perform night duties are given off days, but the hours of duty have not been increased. At present only the duty hours have been spread out with off period of 1½ hours, while formerly, the off period was one hour for the first shift and half hour for the other two shifts. Now, in view of the shrinkage of the business of the Company the workers remaining after retrenchment should not grudge this spread-out of their duty hours while, in fact, it cannot be held that their workload has increased or they have to work harder than before. However, the retrenchment of P.W. 10 and of Shri D'Silva cannot be sustained, as will be presently found.

As a result, it is held that from the evidence on record it cannot be found that the workload of the remaining workmen has increased or that they are not getting leaves, off days, etc., to which they are entitled because of the retrenchment.

As regards contention No. (3), the Union has seriously attempted to prove that the Company appointed four new hands in the Accounts Department after the retrenchment. Now from Ext. G, the list of staff supplied by the Company, it appears that there was one Accountant and two Assistant Accountants in the Accounts Department. Shri M. L. Bidani was the Chief Accountant who retired and the Company's case is that one Shri Saboo (who is alleged by the Union to be one of the new four employees in this department) has been appointed in his place. The other three alleged new recruits in this department are Sarbashri Somani, Agarwal and Jaharlal and it is not denied by the Company that these workmen as well as Shri Saboo are working in the Accounts Department. The evidence of the General Manager (O.P.W. 1) is that barring Shri Saboo, the other three workmen are the employees of the firm of auditors, namely, Messrs. G. Basu & Co., but his evidence is not very convincing on this point. It is said that some of these employees are regular employees of Messrs. Skyplayers & Co., and all of them except Shri Saboo have been borrowed b the Company to clear up the work of audit. At th time of hearing the Company produced som current account books on the prayer of the Unio and it is found that some of the account books ar written by Shri Saboo as well as by two new hand as is apparent from the affidavit filed by the sai Shri Saboo on 11th November 1959.

As a result, it must be held that the Compan could not afford retrenchment of the clerks wh worked in the Accounts Department. It i contended on behalf of the Union that the Compan has directed its axe towards this departmen because one of the clerks to be retrenched, namely Shri S. Singh was the Treasurer of the Union Now, Shri S. Singh could not be retrenched unles two other persons, namely, Shri M. Mitra and K Basukutty who were junior to him were retrenched It seems that the Company retrenched those two a well as Shri S. Singh with the object of getting ri of the Treasurer of the Union in the person o Shri Singh and this motive of the Company, viz. the retrenchment of the active office bearers o the Union became very prominent when the case also of P.Ws. 1 and 9 and 10 are taken int consideration. It cannot be contradicted by th Company that the Accounts Department is unde staffed; for, the Company's audit works are i arrears since 1957. Admittedly, the Company ha to do the current accounts work by the help o outsiders. So, the retrenchment of Shri Singh along with two other clerks junior to him is to b held to have been made for the purpose o victimising him.

As regards the contention of the Union that th Company has not observed the principle of las come first go (i.e., contention No. 4 above a formulated), it has been dealt with along contentio No. 1, and it is held that this principle has bee palpably violated in the case of P.Ws. 9 and 1 and one Shri Asis Pandey, mechanic. Here it i to be observed that the general orders of retrench ment were issued on 18th April 1959 while P.W. 1 was retrenched on 20th April 1959 and to validat his retrenchment, his junior, namely, Shri D'Silv was retrenched on 29th April 1959 (Ext. G). Fron this fact it is very difficult to hold that the Manage ment had actually decided for retrenchment o these two persons when it took the decision fo the retrenchment of others and the Union' contention that this is a stratagem to get rid o Srinivasan because he was a member of th Executive Committee of the Union cannot b brushed aside. For this reason, the retrenchmen of both Srinivasan and D'Silva is to be cancelled.

In this connection, it is to be observed that thei retrenchment has caused the spread-out of th working hours of the remaining traffic assistant as has been observed above which should be avoide as far as possible and the reinstatement of the sai two workmen will achieve that purpose.

As a result, it is decided that the step th Company has taken for retrenchment for th purpose of economy has been taken bona fide and the number of workers retrenched is not more than what was necessary to be got rid of. But the retrenchment of some individual workers, namely, Shri P. V. Jagannadharao (P.W. 1), Shri S. Singh, ri M. Mitra, Shri K. Basukutty of the Accounts epartment, Shri Sreenivasan (P.W. 10), hri D'Silva, traffic assistants, Shri Asis Pandey, echanic junior, and Shri M. Mitra, aircraft ectrician, are to be held as improper for reasons scussed above (serials 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 18, and 31 the list appended to the order of reference).

Two of these workmen, namely, Asis Pandey erial No. 18) and Shri N. D'Silva (Serial o. 31), besides 12 other workmen as mentioned paragraph 1 of the Company's written statement ve accepted their dues including retrenchment nefits in full and final settlement of their claims ter the order of retrenchment was served upon em. So, it is contended on behalf of the mpany that these persons must be held to have dispute with the Company as has been referred by Government. This point does not seem to be cessary to be decided so far as the 12 of the said rkmen are concerned, because the decision is at their retrenchment is justified. Only this rticular point is required to be considered in the se of Asis Pandey and D'Silva for the purpose deciding its effect upon the finding made above at their retrenchment was improper.

The Union has relied upon the decision of the bour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Tara tta versus Employers' Association (1952 L.A.C., ge 291) and of an Industrial Tribunal's award ported in 1956 (I) L.L.J., page 211. In the rmer case, the retrenched workmen received their otice pay from the Company concerned and it was ld that—

> "Considering the unequal position of an employer and needy workmen, mere acceptance of wages in lieu of notice, without more, should not be given the normal effect it would have in law. It must be proved that the acceptance was voluntary and made with full knowledge of its consequences upon the dispute."

the latter case, the concerned workmen cepted, as a result of agreement with the ployer cheques for retrenchment compensation d other dues but did not cash the same before e reference of the dispute to the Tribunal ncerned. So, it was held that the acceptance of e cheques by the employees could not be regarded their acquiescence to the action of the Company retrenching them. In the instant case, the trenchment compensation, etc., have been received cash by the said two workers; also, they have not ven evidence before this Tribunal to state that ey did so without understanding the legal plication of their action. But, the Secretary of e Union (P.W. 9) says that these workmen had en in dire necessity for money and he advised em to withdraw the compensation money, etc., ter the order of retrenchment and there is no ason to disbelieve his version. So, it cannot be ld that they accepted the termination of their rvice after retrenchment as proper, simply because ey have received payment of the retrenchment mpensation, etc. Hence, they are to be reinated as it has been found above that their trenchment was basically improper, even though ey have received the retrenchment compensation, c.

In this connection, it is to be observed that in arriving at the aforesaid decisions the principles laid down in the case of Biswamitra Press (1952 L.A.C., page 20, at page 33, paragraphs 16, 17 and 18) have been followed. It is held that the Company has not acted mala fide in making the retrenchment, as it was necessary to get rid of the deadweight of uneconomic surplus labour force; the number of workmen decided to be retrenched is aslo justified. But, the retrenchment of (eight) individual workmen, as discussed above, cannot be upheld, as it appears that the Management has been motivated by extraneous considerations regarding some of them, viz., victimisation for their Union activities; and has not followed the principle of "last come first go" in cases of some of them and has done so without any justifiable reason.

Summary of decision

The retrenchment made by the Company was required as an economic measure and was, prima facie, bona fide. The number of workers retrenched, i.e., 31 was not also unjustified, but for reasons mentioned above, the retrenchment of the following workmen are held to be improper and invalid. They are—

(1) P. V. Jagannadharao (Serial No. 1), (2) M. Mitra (Serial No. 2), (3) S. Singh (Serial No. 3), (4) R. Sreenivasan (Serial No. 4), (5) M. Mitra (Serial No. 6), (6) K. N. Vasukutti (Serial No. 7), (7) Asis Pandey (Serial No. 18), and (8) N. D'Silva (Serial No. 31).

The retrenchment of these workmen are set aside and they are to be reinstated by the Company within one month of the publication of this award. The continuity of their services should be regarded as unbroken and they should get full wages of all kinds which they were drawing at the time of their retrenchment, from the date of retrenchment till the date of reinstatement. The amount already paid to them by the Company by virtue of the interim award dated 17th September 1959 or any other amount legally due to the Company from them shall be deducted from the arrears of wages they are entitled to get. All the remaining workmen except Sudama (Serial No. 30) will get retrenchment benefits as offered by the Company in its notice of retrenchment (Ext. 1 series) less payments already made by virtue of the aforesaid interim award as well as other legal dues of the Company from them.

Serial No. 30, Shri Sudama, has not been retrenched; so, he will get no relief.

This is the award of this Tribunal. The aforesaid interim award, dated 17th September 1959, is made part of this award as Annexure A.

Interim Award

Order No. 18, dated 17th September 1959.

Messrs. Jamair Co., Private Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) is said to have retrenched 32 of their workmen sometime in April-May 1959. The Union of the workmen then raised a dispute that the retrenchment was invalid and unjustified and the same has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication by Government order No. 2524-I.R./IR/4L-24/58, dated the 4th June 1959. The names of the 32 workmen involved would appear from the Government Order of Reference. The issue raised is whether the retrenchment of these people is justified, and to what relief, if any, are they entitled.

The dispute is still pending. On 13th July 1959, the Union prayed for an interim relief by way of an order upon the Company to pay the compensation, etc., due to the workmen on account of their retrenchment. This prayer was not finally decided as it was agreed by both parties that the hearing of the dispute should be expedited, and in fact, the case was fixed for hearing on 1st September 1959, but the hearing could not be finished on that date, and so, it was adjourned to 4th September 1959; however, on account of some unforeseen circumstances, the hearing could not be proceeded with, and it was adjourned to 29th October 1959.

In the circumstances, the Union has filed a fresh petition on 15th September 1959 praying for the aforesaid interim relief.

Heard learned representatives of both parties.

It is common ground that 16, out of the workmen involved in this dispute, received compensation, etc., for their alleged retrenchment; so, the Union now prays for intem relief regarding the remaining 16 of the workmen named in their petition, dated 15th September 1959. It is contended on behalf of the Company that as the workmen have not accepted their retrenchment, they are not entitled to get any interim relief on account of compensation, etc., till the dispute is finally decided; or in the other words, the Union should not be allowed to blow hot and cold in the same breadth. But the position is this that if the dispute is decided against the Union, the workmen are sure to get the amount of compensation, etc., as was offered to them by the Company; if the Union succeeds, the workmen are expected to get something more than this amount. Thus, in any event the workmen named in the petition of the Union, dated 15th September 1959, are sure to get such amount from the Company as would be equivalent to the compensation, etc., offered to them on account of the alleged retrenchment. Now, in view of the impending Pujas and Dewali, it would be in the fitness of things to give some interim relief to the workmen. However, they will not get the entire amount of compensation, etc., as offered by the Company, but it is ordered that the Company do pay, by the 30th September 1959, by way of interim relief, to the 16 workmen named in the Union's petition, dated 15th September 1959, 70 per cent. of the compensation, wages for unavailed leave, and one month's notice pay as were offered by the Company to them on account of their alleg retrenchment.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existi between Garden Reach Municipality, Gard Reach, Calcutta-24, and their workm represented by Garden Reach Municip Employees' Association, Garden Reach, C cutta-24. (Case No. VIII-103/58.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. K. SARKAR, Judge, Second Industr Tribunal.

Present for the Municipality: Shri P. N. R Choudhuri, Advocate.

Present for the Association: Shri Narayan Gupta, President of the Association.

By Government order No. 2127-I.R./IR/14 5/57, dated 29th May 1958, the above dispute w referred under section 10 of the Industrial Dispu Act, 1947, to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal adjudication. Subsequently on 5th August 19 by Government order No. 3777-I.R./IR/14L-9/5 the dispute was withdrawn from the said Tribu and transferred to this Tribunal under section 3 of the Industrial Disputes Act for the purpose speedy disposal. The hearing of the case co menced before the present Tribunal on 9th Sept ber 1959 and was concluded on 5th October 19

The Municipal Employees' Association examined one witness while the Garden Reach Municipality examined 23 witnesses and both parties filed a large number of documents which were marked as exhibits.

The Garden Reach Municipal area was previously within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta Corporation from which it was separated and the Garden Reach Municipality was constituted with effect from the 1st April 1935. It has about 600 employees out of whom there are about 375 scavengers and other menials. The employees of the Municipality excepting the scavengers and certain menials formed the Garden Reach Municipal Employees' Association in 1940 and in 1945 the scavengers formed a separate Union. In 1946 both the Association and the Union submitted certain demands for fixation of pay scales, etc. The dispute arising out of the said demands was referred to an Industrial Tribunal constituted by Shri M. C. Banerji, Judge, in the year 1947 and culminated in an award, dated 22nd December 1947. By this award substantial increments were given to the employees and their grades and scales of pay were revised. The grades and scales of pay which the present employees are enjoying were fixed by the said award. In the year 1956 certain further disputes arose between the Municipality and the scavengers and other menials represented by Garden Reach Municipality Sramik Mahasabha which were referred to the Second Industrial Tribunal. But by the Award of the said Tribunal, dated 18th March 1957, no change was made in the grades and scales of pay fixed by the previous award on the ground that there had been no change of circumstances since the date of that award.

The present dispute arose in consequence of certain demands submitted by Garden Reach Municipal Employees' Association on behalf of all the employees excepting the scavengers and certain menials for revision of their pay scales, dearness allowance and provident fund contribution on 19th September 1956. In the meantime the Garden Reach Municipality had been suspended by Government order with effect from 16th May 1955 and the present Administrator Shri M. K. Ghosh had been placed in charge of the Municipality. As the demands were not accepted by the Administrator the Labour Commissioner was approached on 20th November 1956 and conciliation proceedings were started which terminated by the report of the Conciliation Officer on 8th January 1958. Thereafter the present reference was made on 29th May 1958.

The case of the Association is that at the time of Shri M. C. Banerji's Award the financial condition of the Municipality was bad and did not justify any higher grades and scales of pay than what were provided in the Award and that the said Award was mainly the result of certain offers made by the Municipal authorities themselves. It is stated that since that Award there have been two quinquennial reassessments of the Municipal holdings in 1951-52 and 1956-57 in consequence of which the income of the Municipality has been augmented by 250 per cent., and that it is, therefore, high time that the said grades and scales of pay should be revised and higher emoluments and dearness allowance granted to the municipal employees represented by the Association. It is further pointed out by the Association that most of the employees have reached the maxima of their respective grades as fixed by the aforesaid Award and have not been receiving any increments for several years. Finally it is contended that the minimum pay scales fixed by the said Award did not approximate what is conceived as the minimum wage.

It is next alleged by the Association that while the conciliation proceedings were pending the Secretary of the Association Janab Khosnobi Mollah who was the License Inspector of the Municipality signed in his capacity as Secretary a letter sent to the Conciliation Officer on 20th May 1957 commenting on certain actions of the Administrator and that when a copy of the said letter was forwarded by the Conciliation Officer to the Administrator for his comment the Administrator took offence at the letter and at once suspended Khosnobi Mollah and issued a charge sheet against him on 21st June 1957. The Association thereupon sent a strike notice to the Administrator, but at the intervention of the Conciliation Officer the strike was averted and the suspension order was withdrawn by the Administrator but he did not allow Khosnobi Mollah to join as License Inspector his original post. It is further alleged that during suspension another charge sheet was served upon him and that after a perfunctory enquiry held by the Administrator he was dismissed on 18th November 1957 while the conciliation proceeding was still pending. The Association characterises this order of dismissal as illegal being in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and also mala fide amounting to victimisation and unfair labour practice and demands reinstatement of the said employee to his original post with all back salaries.

The case of the Municipality is that though the income of the Municipality has increased in consequence of two quinquennial reassessments of Municipal holdings after the Award of Shri M. C. Banerji, the expenditure has also increased in equal proportion and that the financial condition of the Municipality is such that it cannot meet its annual expenses and is not in a position to bear any additional burden for meeting the demands of the Association. It is also stated that due to various causes the collections of the Municipality are far short of the demands and that the Municipality has incurred extensive liabilities to Government in the shape of loans, etc., which it was bound to repay. In these circumstances the Municipality pleads its total inability to pay the increased salaries and allowances demanded by the Association. As regards the dismissal of Khosnobi Mollah, it is stated that it was not illegal or in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act or mala fide and that he was dismissed on being found guilty of certain grave charges of misconduct in the discharge of his duties after full and proper enquiry in which he was given all facilities to participate and defend himself and he actually participated therein by submitting statements and cross-examining witnesses. In the circumstances it is pleaded that the dismissal was proper and justified and did not amount to victimisation or unfair labour practice.

The issues which have been referred for adjudication are fair in number and are as follows:—

(1) Revision of grades and scales of pay of all employees excepting scavengers and other menials.

(2) Dearness allowance of all employees excepting scavengers and other menials.

(3) Whether the existing Provident Fund needs revision. If so, what should be the rate of contribution.

(4) Whether the following employees are entitled to annual increment:—

(i) Shri Fazle Hussain, (ii) Shri K. K. Roy, (iii) Shri Majid Alam, (iv) Shri Md. Hussain, (v) Shri Md. Issa.

(5) Whether the dismissal of Shri Khosnobi Mollah is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

Before I take up the issues it is necessary to decide certain preliminary questions which have been raised. I have already referred to the award of Shri M. C. Banerji by which the present pay scales of the Municipal employees were fixed. I have also referred to the Award of the Second Industrial Tribunal, dated 18th March 1957, by which the Tribunal refused to make any changes in the grades and scales of pay fixed by Shri M. C. Banerji's Award for the scavengers and menials on the ground that there had been no material change of circumstances in the meantime. In doing so the Tribunal relied on the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Burn & Co. and their employees, reported in A.I.R. 1957, S.C. 38. It has been contended before me by Shri Roychoudhuri, Advocate of the Municipality, that on the authority of the above decision no change should be made in the grades and scales of pay fixed by Shri M. C. Banerji's Award in respect of other employees also. In the above decision the Supreme Court applied the principle of res judicata to decisions of Industrial Tribunals and pointed out that though section 11 of the Civil Procedure Code was in terms inapplicable the principle underlying the section expressed in the maxim "interest rei publicae ut sit finis litium" is founded on sound universal application. It was further pointed out that there are good reasons why this principle should be applicable to decisions of Industrial Tribunals and also because the object of the Industrial Disputes Act is bring about industrial peace and prevent disputes between employer and employees so that the production may not be adversely affected and larger interests of the society may not suffer and that if it is held that an adjudication loses its force when it is terminated under section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act and that the whole controversy is at large, then the result would be that far from reconciling themselves to the Award and settling down to work it, either party will treat it as a mere stage in the prosecution of a prolonged struggle, and far from bringing industrial peace, the Awards would turn out to be but truces giving the parties breathing time before resuming hostile action with renewed vigour.

But in the same case the Supreme Court observed that the Awards are liable to be modified by change in the circumstances on which they are based and it has been contended on behalf of the Association that there has since been a material change in the circumstances on which Shri M. C. Banerji's Award was based and that as such the principle of res judicata was not applicable. It is pointed out that the basis of the Award was certain offers made by the Municipal Commissioners which were accepted by the Municipal employees with certain modifications. Shri M. C. Banerji felt that the minimum pay scales and dearness allowance offered by the Municipal Commissioners fell short of the minimum recommended by the Central Pay Commission as the living wage but he observed that he based his Award on such scales only because the employees were agreeable to accept those wage-scales and also in view of the financial condition of the Municipality which was very unsatisfactory. At that time the income of the Municipality amounted to Rs. 3,89,000 per year but since then two quinquennial reassessments of the Municipal holdings have been made—one in 1951-52 and another in 1956-57—and the income of the Municipality has improved greatly in consequence, the present income being Rs. 11,12,000 as would appear from the Accountant's note. It is accordingly contended that a material change in the circumstances on which the Award was based, has occurred necessitating a revision of the grades and scales of pay fixed by Shri M. C. Banerji's Award. There is a great force in this contention, and I think that on the principles laid down in the Supreme Court decision itself, in view of this material change in the circumstances on which the previous Award was based, it is open to this Tribunal to consider whether the grades and scales of pay fixed by the said Award should be revised.

It has next to be considered how far the Municipality is able to bear any additional burden in spite of the augmentation of its annual income. For the Municipality it has been contended that its financial position is still very unsatisfactory and that though its annual income has increased from Rs. 3,89,000 to Rs. 11,12,000 since the previous Award its expenditure has also increased correspondingly resulting in deficits. This position has to be examined carefully—the more so as the Municipality is not a profit-making concern and has to perform certain statutory duties for which it has necessarily to spend a large amount out of its resources. In all the previous Awards regarding Municipalities the Tribunals have made a distinction between Municipalities and Industries making profits and have taken into account their financial condition and possibilities of improvement while adjudicating upon the demands of their employees for better pay-scales and other benefits.

According to the note of the Accountant, the essential annual expenditure which the Municipality has to incur for conservancy, water-supply, street lighting, education, establishment charges, etc., is about 11 lakhs leaving nothing for improvement of roads, drains, etc., and for clearing the liabilities of the Municipality which amount to about Rs. 28 lakhs. The Municipality has produced notes of audit of its accounts for certain years up to 1957-58 and the said notes show the deplorable condition of its finances. But the said also show the reasons for such deplorable ion which do not reflect credit on the Muni- uthorities and the employees in charge of ion. It is clear from them that the Muni- y's collections are very poor amounting to 8 per cent.—far below the Government um of 85 per cent.—and that it can improve ources in several ways. In the last audit 1 1957-58 (Ext. P.15) three reasons were for the unsatisfactory financial position:— fective budgeting by inflating the receipts, ie insufficiency of the conservancy and light- tes, viz., 4 per cent. and 1 per cent. against aximum of 10 per cent. and 3 per cent. res- ely, prescribed in the Act, and (3) poor collec- f rates and taxes which in the case of license nd trades and profession taxes is only 37 per The oral evidence given that it varies bet- 55 per cent. and 60 per cent. is belied by the udit note. It is said that in consequence of m civil suits challenging reassessments and tions issued therein large amounts of collec- have been held up, but, if so, the present ion is only temporary and will improve after uits are disposed of. Shri M. C. Banerji also ented in his Award on poor collections and ficiency of the rates and hoped that the posi- would improve. It is unfortunate that the ion still shows no improvement, but it is cer- y capable of improvement by speeding up tions and the Municipal authorities can also der the question of increasing the rates with- e limits imposed by the Bengal Municipal Act h Shri M. C. Banerji also recommended. ie same time I feel that in this condition the cipality will not be able to bear any great ional burden. I propose in the circumstances se only some of the grades and pay scales are very low and extend the time scales in other cases so that the Municipality will be to bear the burden without undue strain on sources. I also hope that the collections will be speeded up and the position of finances will nproved by the Municipality following the ions in the last audit note and finding addi- sources of revenue.

m not concerned in this case with the scaven- and menials whose demand for revision of cales, etc., was rejected by the Award of the d Industrial Tribunal in 1957, as already l. The lowest paid employees represented ie present Association are Peons, Durwans, and P. L. Khalasi. Their existing grade 25—2—40. The Union has demanded a of Rs. 30—2—50 for them raising the mini- n to Rs. 30. I revise their grade to Rs. 28— 48. The Steam Roller Fireman who is on the le of Rs. 25—2—40 should also be placed in grade of Rs. 28—2—48. The Association's and for a higher grade for him is not justified.

lock Sarkar, Sardar Jamadar and Sardar Peon on the next grade of Rs. 25—2—45. The on has demanded a grade of Rs. 35—3—65 for n. They do more responsible work than Peons Durwans, and so their minimum pay should be ed a little higher. I think that it will be fair x it at Rs. 30, but I do not see any reason for easing the rate of annual increment from Rs. 2 Rs. 3. I fix their grade at Rs. 30—2—50.

The next grade applicable to the Assistant Motor Mistry, Assistant P.L. Mistry and Mathor Mistry is Rs. 30—2—50. The Union has demanded Rs. 40—3—70 for them. They are skilled labour and so their minimum is raised to Rs. 35 but I cannot accept the higher rate of increment demanded. Their grade is fixed at Rs. 35—2—55.

P.L. Mistry's grade is Rs. 35—2—60. The Union has demanded Rs. 45—4—85 for him. I fix it at Rs. 40—3—70.

The Electric Mistry's grade is Rs. 35—5—65. The Union has demanded Rs. 50—5—100 for him. This grade is raised to Rs. 40—5—70.

The minimum of the Compounder and T.W. Driver is Rs. 35, and the respective grade are Rs. 35—3—65 and Rs. 35—3—70. The Association seeks to raise their grades to Rs. 50—5—100 and Rs. 50—5—90, respectively. Their minimum is raised to Rs. 40 and the grades are fixed at Rs. 40—3—70.

For the Water Inspecting Sarkar, Gowkhana Sarkar, Saughter House Sarkar, Vaccinator, Sub-Registrars, Burial Ground and Burning Ghat, the existing grade is Rs. 40—3—70. The Union has demanded Rs. 50—5—100 for them. The grade is revised to Rs. 45—3—75.

For the Steam Roller Driver whose grade is Rs. 45—3—75 the Association has demanded a grade of Rs. 50—5—90, for the Lorry Driver whose grade is Rs. 50—3—80 a grade of Rs. 50—5—100 and for the Ambulance Driver whose grade is Rs. 60—3—90 a grade of Rs. 60—5—110. There is no justification for claiming the same minimum for the Steam Roller Driver as for the Lorry Driver and I see also no reason for changing the rate or annual increment in any of the cases. The time scales are extended to 10 years and therefore no change in any of the grades is necessary. These three grades will continue to exist as at present.

For the Sub-Inspector, Vaccination, the grade is 45—3—80. The Union has demanded a grade of Rs. 55—5—110 for him. His grade is raised to Rs. 50—4—90.

For the Sub-Registrar, Births and Deaths, the existing minimum is higher than the Association's demand and the maximum demanded is already there. So no change is called for.

For the Head Master and Head Mistress the existing grade is Rs. 45—3—60. The Association has demanded a grade of Rs. 50—5—100 for them. The grade is raised to Rs. 50—3—80.

For the Assistant Teacher and Assistant Mistress the grade is Rs. 35—2—50 and the demand is for a grade of Rs. 40—4—80. It is raised to Rs. 40—2—60.

For the Maid Servant the grade is Rs. 15—2—30. The Union's demand is for a grade of Rs. 20—2—40. The grade is raised to Rs. 18—2—36.

The Female Attendant is on a fixed pay of Rs. 12 which is raised to Rs. 15.

For the Treasury Sarkar and the Bailiffs whose existing grade are Rs. 60—5—100 and Rs. 50—3—80, respectively, the Association has demanded the same grade, viz., Rs. 60—5—120. No reason has been shown for the same grade for them. I fix Rs. 60—5—110 for the Treasury Sarkar and Rs. 50—4—90 for the Bailiffs.

The Senior Clerk's grade is Rs. 75—5—100 and the Junior Clerk's grade is Rs. 50—3—75. The Association has demanded one grade for them, viz., Rs. 65—5—115—8—155. I see no justifiable ground for the existence of two cadres for clerks with very short time scales, unless superior qualifications are demanded for senior clerks as to which no evidence was given and no case was made. I therefore fix one consolidated grade for clerks, viz., Rs. 60—4—80—5—110.

The typist's grade is Rs. 70—5—100. I make no change in his grade in view of the higher minimum and higher rate of increment.

The Collection Inspector, Store Keeper and License Inspector have the same grade, viz., Rs. 75—5—120. The Association has proposed a grade of Rs. 100—5—130—10—180 for them. I do not find any adequate reason for such a high maximum and two rates of increment. The grade is raised to Rs. 80—5—130. The Association has demanded the same grade for the Electrician and also Surveyor and Draftsman whose existing grade is Rs. 80—5—130. So the present grade is left undisturbed.

For the Sanitary Inspector the grade is Rs. 100—5—140 and the Association's demand is for Rs. 130—10—180. For the Head Clerk, Accountant, Cashier and Tax Collector, Lady Doctor and Medical Officer the existing grade is Rs. 100—5—150. The Association's demand is for a grade of Rs. 120—5—160—10—200 for them.

I am not satisfied that such high maximum and higher rate of increment are justified by the qualifications of the incumbents as to which no evidence was given. Both the grades are raised to Rs. 110—5—160.

The Engineering Supervisor's grade is Rs. 110—5—160—10—180. The Association's demand is for a minimum of Rs. 130 and a maximum of Rs. 260. This is not justified in the absence of evidence that any high qualifications are required for the post. The grade is therefore left undisturbed.

There is at present no Health Officer and the Health Officer when appointed will have the pay fixed by the Government. So I do not make any change in the existing pay scale which is Rs. 175—10—250.

The Secretary's grade of Rs. 200—10—250 is also left undisturbed. In view of the higher rate of increment the time scale should not be extended further.

As regards fitting in the new grades where the minimum of a grade has been increased the employees on that grade will immediately get an increment of pay corresponding to the amount of the increase in the minimum. Thus where the minimum has been increased by a certain amount the employee concerned will get an increment of pay to that extent. Where the rate of annual increment in the time scale has also been increased the employee concerned will also be given the difference between the pay so increased and the next stage in the time-scale in order to fit him in to th time scale. Where the existing time scales only been extended the employees concerne get one increment according to the extended scale, if they have reached the maximum existing time scale and have been gettin maximum for more than a year. The adjust should be made within one month from th of publication of the Award.

Issue No. 2: The demand of the Empl Association is that dearness allowance wh present is Rs. 30 per month should be rais Rs. 45 per month for the staff getting Rs. 50 and above and Rs. 35 per month for th getting below Rs. 50. The dearness allo has recently been increased under orders of G ment by Rs. 5 for all employees whose total e ments after the increase do not exceed Rs. The Municipality has to pay one-third o increase—Government contributing two-third is mentioned in the written statement of the cipality that it has not yet been able on accou financial difficulties to provide for payment share of the additional dearness allowance. Government are also said to be considering ment of this additional dearness allowanc employees drawing more than Rs. 100 per m In view of this additional dearness allowanc the proposal of the Government to extend it higher grade employees and specially in vi the financial condition of the Municipal cannot accept the Union's demand for a h rate of dearness allowance. I may note in connection that the Awards regarding s Municipalities to which my attention was did not provide for dearness allowance at a higher than what this Municipality has paying.

Evidence was given about a compensatory a ance which had been granted by the Commissi of the Municipality during 1952-53 for a p of two years and it has been said that the man of the Municipality then promised to re the said allowance on improvement of the fina position of the Municipality. No such pr or undertaking has, however, been proved a do not also think that any question of compens allowance can arise in this case because it covered by the issue.

Issue No. 3: The Municipality at pr deducts 6¼ per cent. as contribution to the vident Fund from the monthly pay of the cipal employees and itself contributes the amount to the said fund. The demand is tha employees should be allowed to contribute month's pay in a year to the Provident Fund. 8⅓ per cent. of the monthly pay and the Mu pality should contribute a similar share. demand also cannot be accepted as no case of Municipality contributing 8⅓ per cent. has brought to my notice. It is only the Corpor of Calcutta which contributes at this rate there can be no comparison between the Cor tion of Calcutta and this Municipality. In present financial condition of the Municipalit question of increase in the contribution can considered.

Issue No. 4: This issue was not pressed. the persons mentioned in this issue have s got their increments excepting one, viz., Md. Hussain. So far as Md. Hussain is concerned, it has been stated that he is not a permanent hand, but he is working in a permanent vacancy, and the Municipality has undertaken to make him permanent within one month from the date of publication of the Award and to give him all the benefits for his past services. I direct accordingly that this be done within the period mentioned above.

Issue No. 5: Shri Khosnobi Mollah to whom this issue relates was at the relevant period and still is the Secretary of the Garden Reach Municipal Employees' Association. He entered the service of the Municipality in 1939 and was promoted to the post of the License Inspector on a pay of Rs. 75 per month after 8 or 10 years of service and he also performed the duties of Law Clerk of the Municipality for which he was given an additional allowance of Rs. 20. On the 21st June 1957 while the conciliation proceeding regarding the present dispute was pending he was suspended by the Administrator. What had happened was that he had signed as the Secretary of the Association a letter, dated 20th May 1957, which was sent to the Conciliation Officer and in this letter he had commented on a letter of the Administrator sent to the Labour Commissioner on 24th April 1957. A copy of the said letter, dated 20th May 1957, was sent to the Administrator by the Conciliation Officer for his comments. On receipt of this letter the Administrator suspended Khosnobi Mollah on the ground that he had falsely maligned the Administrator in most unbecoming language and tone and had brought false charges against him in the said letter thereby causing serious breach of office discipline which amounted to gross misconduct, and he directed him to submit his explanation as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him. It may be stated here that in his letter to the Conciliation Officer, dated 17th April 1957, the Administrator had pleaded that the financial condition of the Municipality was extremely miserable and that until the financial position improved it would not be possible to allow any increments of pay or allowances to the employees (Ext. 1). As comment on this plea of the Administrator the letter, dated 20th May 1957 [Ext. 1(a)] contained the following paragraph to which objection was taken by the Administrator:—

> "As regards 2nd paragraph of his (Administrator's) letter I may say that the financial condition of the Municipality is not at all bad as he thinks to be and as the picture he has drawn up in his mind. Had it been so, he might not have saddled the Municipal finances by appointing his own men for nothing in different departments on the plea to pull up works and thus increased the expenditure by about Rs. 40,000 yearly at a venture."

The reference here is to the appointment of certain additional hands by the Administrator in order to pull up arrears and the insinuation is that this expenditure was unnecessary and that the Administrator had incurred it to provide for his own men. For a Municipal employee to make such a statement about his superior officer is certainly reprehensible and constitutes a breach of office discipline. Khosnobi Mollah's defence is that he signed the letter not as a Municipal employee but as the Secretary of the Association, and that he had signed it because the Working President who had drafted the letter and got it typed and was to have signed it was not available at the time. In the letter the words "Working President" appear in type but those have been penned through and the word "Secretary" substituted. Even for a responsible office-bearer of the Association it was improper to make such insinuations without substantiating them. The Administrator called upon him to substantiate the insinuations but he evaded it and asked him to write to the Association for substantiation. Then the Association gave notice of a strike and the Conciliation Officer intervened and ultimately as the result of a conference the Administrator withdrew the suspension order on 24th July 1957 on Khosnobi Mollah giving an undertaking in writing that he would not in future indulge in any false propaganda either against the Administrator or the administration (Ext. 26). The Administrator had given him a draft for the undertaking which contained an expression of regret for the "wrong" statements in the letter [Ext. 2(c)], but Khosnobi Mollah refused to give an undertaking in that form. After the withdrawal of suspension Khosnobi Mollah was appointed Lighting Inspector and grievance has been made of the fact that he was not allowed to join as License Inspector. As a matter of fact, however, he was officiating in the post of Tax Daroga when he was suspended and had ceased to be License Inspector sometime before that.

While Khosnobi was under suspension another charge sheet had been served upon him on 8th July 1957 and the Administrator had started an enquiry regarding the charges which were seven in number after taking his explanation which was submitted on 22nd July 1957 [Ext. 3(a)]. The enquiry was continued and a large number of witnesses were examined by the Administrator and after taking a second explanation from Khosnobi Mollah on 12th October 1957 (Ext. 36) he came to the conclusion that the charges had been proved and that Khosnobi was guilty of "corrupt and dishonest conduct and practice and gross dereliction of duty" and dismissed him on 18th November 1957. The Municipality's contribution to the Provident Fund of Khosnobi Mollah was also forfeited by the order of dismissal.

The Association's case is that the above order of dismissal having been made during the pendency of the conciliation proceedings before the Conciliation Officer contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and was therefore illegal. Secondly the Association contends that the order of dismissal was mala fide and prompted by the desire of the Administrator to take revenge on Khosnobi Mollah for his having written the letter of 20th May 1957 and that the Administrator took this step after having been compelled to withdraw the order of suspension under a threat of strike. Thirdly, the Association contends that the enquiry held against Khosnobi Mollah was perfunctory, that he was not given proper facilities to defend himself and that the Municipality procured witnesses and made them depose falsely under inducement and intimidation.

With regard to the first contention the record of the proceedings before the Conciliation Officer was called for and it appears therefrom that the conciliation proceedings remained pending until the 8th January 1958, when the Conciliation Officer sent his report to the Government under section 12(4) of the Industrial Disputes Act. My attention has however been drawn to the another report sent by the Conciliation Officer to the Government on the 4th November 1957 a copy of which appears in the file. This report is described as a report under sub-section (3) of section 12 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Shri Roy Choudhuri for the Municipality has contended that this report concluded the conciliation proceedings but that is not correct. Under sub-section (3) of section 12 a Conciliation Officer is required to send a report to the Government "if a settlement of the dispute or of any of the matters in dispute is arrived at in the course of the conciliation proceedings". The report in question only shows that the dispute arising out of the suspension of Khosnobi Mollah had been settled by conciliation and that the Administrator had agreed to withdraw the order of suspension. It also refers to the withdrawal of the strike notice by the Association as a result of conciliation. The other matters in dispute, however, remained pending and the Conciliation Officer promised to send a further report about the same in future. The final report under sub-section (4) of the section was sent by the Conciliation Officer on the 8th January 1958 in which he mentioned that the conciliation had failed to resolve the other matters in dispute and he recommended that the issues Nos. 1 to 5 should be referred to the Tribunal. Legally, therefore, the conciliation proceeding was pending at the date of dismissal of Khosnobi Mollah.

Shri Roy Choudhuri next argued on the strength of sub-section (6) of section 12 that since the Conciliation Officer did not submit his report within 14 days of the commencement of the conciliation proceedings and since the time had not been extended by any agreement between the parties in terms of the proviso to that sub-section, the conciliation proceedings should be deemed to have terminated after the expiry of 14 days. A similar contention had been preferred before the Supreme Court in the case of Audheri Morol-Kurla Bus Service versus State of Bombay, reported in 1959-II, L.L.J., page 236, but the Supreme Court negatived this contention. Kapur J. referred to the provisions of section 20, sub-section (2) which lay down that a conciliation proceeding shall be deemed to have concluded—(b) where no settlement is arrived at, when the report of the Conciliation Officer is received by the appropriate Government and held that the said provisions applied to all conciliation proceedings whether in regard to utility services or otherwise, and that though section 12(6) contemplated the submission of the report within 14 days that would not affect the pendency of the conciliation proceedings under section 20(2)(b).

Shri Roy Choudhury advanced an argument that the Administrator was not aware that the conciliation proceedings were still pending and he referred to a letter written by him to the Conciliation Officer on 4th September 1957 (Ext. O) enquiring whether conciliation efforts were being continued to which no reply was received. But whether the Administrator was aware or not would not make any difference to the legal position. Merely because his letter, dated 4th September 1957, was not replied to he had no reason to conclude that the conciliation proceedings had terminated. The question of his knowledge is not at all relevant in this matter.

Section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is divided into three parts and it is argued on both sides that sub-section (2) of the section applies in the present case. This sub-section provides that during the pendency of any conciliation proceeding before a Conciliation Officer or a Board, etc., in respect of an industrial dispute, the employer may, in accordance with the Standing Orders applicable to a workman concerned in such dispute (a) alter in regard to any matter not concerned with the dispute, the conditions of service applicable to that workman immediately before the commencement of such proceeding or (b) for any misconduct not connected with the dispute, discharge or punish whether by dismissal or otherwise, that workman: provided that no such workman shall be discharged or dismissed, unless he has been paid wages for one month and an application has been made by the employer to the authority before which the proceeding is pending for approval of the action taken by the employer. Then sub-section (5) of the section lays down that where such an application is made under the provisions to sub-section (2) for approval of the action taken by him, the authority concerned shall, without delay hear such application and pass, as expeditiously as possible, such order in relation thereto as it deems fit.

It must be held therefore that Khosnobi Mollah had been dismissed during the pendency of the conciliation proceedings before the Conciliation Officer. It is also clear that no application had been filed before the Conciliation Officer for approval of the Administrator's action as required by the proviso to sub-section (2). It appears that thereafter the Conciliation Officer wrote to the Administrator proposing the holding of a conference on 3rd December 1957, but the Administrator did not agree to attend the conference. He, however, met the Conciliation Officer on 7th December 1957 and gave him a copy of his report and subsequently sent to him copies of the charge sheet and explanations and of the evidence recorded by him. It has been contended by Shri Ray Choudhury that this action of the Administrator amounted to seeking approval of the Conciliation Officer within the meaning of the proviso to sub-section (2). But that proviso requires an application to be made by the employer for approval of his action and the letters written by the Administrator on 29th November 1957 and 10th December 1957, as seen from the Conciliation Officer's file could not be construed as such application and the Conciliation Officer also did not treat the letters as such.

The Supreme Court has laid down in the case of Indian Iron & Steel Co. versus Their workmen, A.I.R. 1958 SC. 130, that in cases of dismissal on misconduct the Industrial Tribunal should not act as a Court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the Management. It will interfere (i) when there is a want of good faith, (ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice, (iii) when the management has been guilty of basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice and (iv) when on the materials the finding is completely baseless or perverse. The contention on behalf of the Association is that all these four elements are present in the instant case and therefore the Tribunal should interfere. With regard to the first two elements the basis of the charge that the action of the Administrator was mala fide and prompted by a desire to victimise Khosnobi Mollah who was the Secretary of the Association is the letter, dated 20th May 1957, already referred to. It is true that the Administrator had taken offence at that letter and considered himself maligned, but only because of that incident it cannot be said that the subsequent action taken by the Administrator in dismissing him was mala fide or prompted by a desire to victimise him. The stand taken by the Administrator on that letter was not unjustified as I have shown, and in any case, the chapter of suspension had been closed when the Administrator withdrew the order of suspension and was satisfied with the undertaking given by Khosnobi. It is said that the Administrator did not willingly withdraw the order of suspension but was forced to do it under a threat of strike, and that he therefore decided to take his revenge by other means. But this view is hardly justified because the Administrator had served the charge sheet on Khosnobi Mollah before the withdrawal of the order of suspension and that charge sheet was the outcome of investigation started during the period of suspension about Khosnobi Mollah's conduct and work. The fact that this investigation was started during his suspension is not also a proof of mala fides. As has been explained in the written statement, this had to be done because a number of complaints were received against him, and because his successor found that various grave lapses and irregularities had been committed by him which caused a loss to the municipal exchequer. It is quite possible that the Administrator had not been aware of the doings of this employee until he was suspended and his successor was appointed. It is also quite possible that persons who did not venture to complain against him when he was in office came forward to lodge their complaints after he had been suspended. I am not satisfied therefore that the elements No. (i) and (ii) cited above have been made out in this case.

With regard to element No. (iii) it is sufficient to note that the enquiry held by the Administrator was an open enuiry and that he allowed all facilities to Khosnobi Mollah to explain the charges and participate in the enquiry by cross-examining witnesses. He submitted two explanations and appeared in several stages of the enquiry along with the present President of the Association who was allowed to cross-examine witnesses on his behalf. Copies of the depositions of witnesses were also supplied to him. Khosnobi has stated that he did not attend all the days of the enquiry and did not cross-examine some of the witnesses because he found that the answers elucidated by cross-examination were not being recorded by the Administrator. No such complaint was, however, made in writing at any stage of the enquiry and it was never suggested to the Administrator that he was not properly recording the evidence. This plea was taken at a very late stage in the second explanation of Khosnobi Mollah submitted on 12th October 1957 (Ext. 36) after the conclusion of the enquiry and receipt of the copies of depositions of the witnesses. Even then it is not suggested in this explanation that he had at any stage refused to cross-examine a witness or participate in the enquiry on this ground. Nor is it suggested what answers elucidated in cross-examination had been omitted from the record. Reference has been made by name to one witness only who has since died. I am not therefore satisfied that this plea is correct or that facilities for defence were denied to Khosnobi Mollah. I find that there was no basic error or violation of the principle of natural justice in the matter of this enquiry.

The next question is whether the dismissal was justified. The report of the Administrator which has been filed before me (Ext. 112) is a lengthy document containing 90 type-written pages and which shows that the Administrator took ample evidence and dealt with the evidence thoroughly and scrutinisingly. The Municipality, however, did not rest content with the filing of the report but adduced independent proof of the charges against Khosnobi Mollah before me. A grievance was made about non-production of the depositions recorded but, as already stated, copies of the depositions had been supplied to Khosnobi Mollah and were in his possession and some of the witnesses examined before me were cross-examined about their previous statements. No instance was pointed out to me in which the evidence discussed in the report did not correspond with the recorded evidence. I cannot therefore hold that the Association has been prejudiced in any way.

I now come to the charges. They are 7 in number and the first charge is as follows:—

> "It has transpired since you have been suspended from 21st June 1957 that you were in the habit of realising license fees in your capacity of License Inspector from various persons under the Garden Reach Municipality without issuing necessary receipts or licenses, and that instead of crediting the realised amounts to the Municipal funds you defalcated the money yourself for your own selfish purpose."

In this charge are enumerated the names of 18 persons and the respective amounts realised from them with dates, and it is stated that the list is not exhaustive there being others also from whom license fees were realised without granting receipts. Of these 18 persons the first one Lalit Mohan Ghosh is dead. Out of the remaining 17, 11 persons have been examined before me, and they all stated that they had paid the sums mentioned in the charge to Khosnobi for arrears or current license fees but did not get any receipt therefor from him. All these persons are license-holders under the Municipality and there is no evidence or suggestion that any of them had any particular or personal reason to depose falsely against Khosnobi Mollah. The general suggestion against some of them is that they have been promised some favours by the Municipality like remission of arrears, etc., and so they gave false evidence. This has been denied by them. Khosnobi Mollah's further suggestion that they had deposed under threat or intimidation was not put to them. In one case there is corroborative evidence of payment. There is also corroboration of the complaints in some cases. Khosnobi Mollah denied these payments and even stated that it was not his duty to realise license fees from the license-holders and that such realisations were made by the bailiffs under him. But there is evidence of other municipal employees that he used to realise license fees, and Dr. Mahabbat Khan, a former municipal commissioner, has deposed that he paid license fees to Khosnobi Mollah and that the latter used to visit the houses of licensees for realising license fees. The suggestion was put to him that Khosnobi Mollah had deposed against him in an election case but this was not admitted by the witness and Khosnobi Mollah himself said nothing on this point. Receipts granted by Khosnobi Mollah under his signature and cash deposits made by him show that he did make collections himself and the plea that he never made any collection of license fees cannot be believed for a moment. So far as the complaints made against him by these persons are concerned, their genuineness has been questioned because many of them did not bear any rubber stamp of the Municipality. The Administrator has explained in his report that these complaints were received by himself and that he kept them in his confidential file and did not give them to the office for which reason they did not bear any rubber stamp showing the date of receipt. When the witnesses themselves have deposed and spoken about their complaints, I have no reason to suspect their genuineness. Nor is there any reason to disbelieve their evidence. It is, therefore, clear that Khosnobi did realise license fees from these persons without giving them any receipts and without crediting the sums to the Municipality and that the Administrator was justified in holding the charge proved on the evidence of these witnesses and other witnesses examined by him.

The second charge and the third charge are interrelated and are as follows:—

II. "That you are the License Inspector of the Garden Reach Municipality being entrusted with the duty of entering all trades, business and concerns as per schedule VI of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, in the Demand Register of Licenses, voluntarily omitted to enter in the said Demand Register from year to year hundreds of shops with an ulterior motive of illegal gratification."

III. "That you intentionally dropped a number of names of persons from the current Demand Registers although their arrears were not cleared off....."

With regard to these charges Khosnobi Mollah in his explanation stated that he did not voluntarily omit to enter any shop in the Demand Register or drop any names of persons having arrears from the current Demand Register. He said that some names might have been omitted or dropped because he could not complete the Demand Register before he was suspended. My attention has been drawn to rule 79 of the Bengal Municipal Act which lays down that in every quarter the License Inspector should submit periodical report for each kind of license fees, etc. Apparently this was not done. Certain statements submitted by Khosnobi Mollah for the years 1948-49 to 1954-55 (Ext. G series) which have been produced show that they were all submitted in 1956 or 1957 and excepting one they all bear the same date 3rd March 1956. These are statements containing lists of shopkeepers who had left, i.e., closed their business and shops. His successor Aziz Ahmed deposed that as a matter of fact as he found on enquiry, many of these shops were open and functioning, and that he also found that about 400 shops which were functioning under the Municipality had not been assessed to license fees and entered into the Demand Registers. He also deposed that huge amounts of arrears had not been realised and had become unrealisable. Certain irregularities in the Demand Registers prepared during the time of this witness have been pointed out to me. I need not enter into these matters because the work of Aziz Ahmed is not under investigation. But the fact remains that Khosnobi Mollah admitted that certain names had been omitted or dropped and some instances have been proved before me by examining the persons concerned. One witness Md. Din, O.P.W. 15, has deposed that his father Madho had a beef stall and that about 2 years ago the shop was transferred in the name of the witness, mutation having been effected in the License Register by Khosnobi Mollah. At the time of mutation 3 years' license fees were in arrear. Madho's name disappeared from the Demand Register and Mahammad Din's name appeared therein in 1956-57. The arrears due from Modho were not brought forward to the next Register, according to the rule for the purpose of realisation as his name was dropped from the Register altogether. Another person Shri Debendra Chandra Dev, O.P.W. 23, has stated that he had a betel shop within the Municipality for the last 7 or 8 years and that the shop was not assessed for license fees until two years ago during the time of Aziz Ahmed. Many other instances like these may be found by comparing the Demand Registers. The Administrator relied upon the evidence of Aziz Ahmed and though his evidence has been criticised on grounds such as he was once convicted in a criminal case and he wanted to succeed Khosnobi Mollah as License Inspector, I do not consider them to be sufficient reasons to discredit him. There can be no doubt as found by the Administrator that Khosnobi Mollah left a large number of shops unassessed which were assessed in the time of his successor and he also dropped several names from the Register as "left", though the said shopkeepers were continuing to do business and all these could not have been done accidentally as suggested by Khosnobi Mollah. From the large number of instances found the Administrator was justified in coming to the conclusion that this was done voluntarily. Md. Din has given evidence that he had paid his father's arrears to Khosnobi Mollah but did not get any receipt. If that evidence is believed and the Administrator has believed it, that furnishes the clue why Madho's name together with the arrears disappeared from the Demand Register. The only possible inference is that Khosnobi Mollah appropriated this payment and his action could not have been an accidental omission.

The fourth charge is "That you in your capacity as License Inspector of Garden Reach Municipality showed grave dereliction of duty and gross negligence in not complying with numerous orders of the Administrator in connection with matters concerning license resulting in loss, pecuniary and otherwise to the Municipality". So far as this charge is concerned, certain applications for license have been produced which were made over to Khosnobi Mollah for enquiry and report by the Administrator, but no enquiry was made and no report was submitted in consequence of which the licenses were not granted and thereby loss was caused to the Municipality. The Secretary of the Municipality has proved that he received these applications (Ext. M series) and noted "through L.I." on them, and the Administrator signed thereunder. This means that the License Inspector was to enquire and report to the Administrator. The practice is that the reports of the enquiry should be noted on the applications themselves. These applications did not bear any report. Sometimes reports may be submitted in separate sheets, but no separate sheets were there. If such reports were made on separate note sheets they would have been attached with the applications. The Administrator therefore rightly held this charge proved. It goes without saying that such negligence in carrying out orders caused much loss to the Municipal exchequer.

The fifth charge is "That in the matter of imposing the license fees and also in the matter of their realisation in time you showed great negligence causing heavy loss to the Municipality.". This charge is partly covered by the charges Nos. 2 and 3. Even if in some cases shops were left unassessed or arrears were not realised due to the negligence of the officer such negligence which caused heavy loss to the Municipality was absolutely inexcusable. It may further be stated here that certain receipts and counterfoils have been produced before me which show that realisations made by Khosnobi Mollah on certain dates were not deposited in the Municipal Office until several months later (Exts. A to D series). No proper explanation has been given as to why they were deposited so long after realisation. These were not the subject-matter of any specific charge but they show in what negligent manner Khosnobi Mollah was carrying on the duties entrusted to him.

The charges Nos. 6 and 7 were held proved by the Administrator but in my opinion they have not been established. The charge No. 6 relates to a notice of appeal which, it is alleged, was received by Khosnobi Mollah in his capacity as the Law Clerk but was not handed over to the Municipal Lawyer or no steps were taken for representation with the result that the appeal was heard ex parte. Khosnobi's explanation is that he gave it to the Municipality's lawyer Payodhi Babu in time. Since Payodhi Babu was not examined either by the Administrator in the enquiry or before me this charge cannot be said to have been made out. This charge also does not relate to the License Department.

The last charge is that when he was appointed the License Inspector in 1949 he was directed by the Commissioners to furnish a security of Rs. 1,000, but that he deposited only Rs. 500, and did not deposit the balance. Khosnobi's explanation is that he was exempted from depositing the balance by the then Chairman of the Municipality. The Administrator also did not call for deposit of the balance when he took over the charge of the Municipality in 1955. In these circumstances there can be no charge of "misconduct" against Khosnobi Mollah for not having deposited the balance, and it should be presumed that he had been exempted from depositing it.

I find therefore that there was sufficient material in proof of the first five charges and the said charges are so serious involving corruption and grave dereliction of duty and resulting in so much loss to the Municipal exchequer that his dismissal on these charges was, in my opinion, fully justified.

In these circumstances no question of reinstatement arises, and the only question which remains is whether Khosnobi Mollah is entitled to any compensation or to the retirement benefits which have been denied to him by the order of dismissal in view of the fact that the dismissal was in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. I have given my full consideration to the matter and come to the conclusion that in the circumstances of the case and in consideration of the grave charges on which he was dismissed he is not entitled to any compensation beyond one month's salary as provided in the proviso to subsection (2) of section 33 of the Act.

As has now been settled by decisions of the Supreme Court section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act only imposes a ban on the ordinary right which the employer has under the ordinary law of punishing his employee and also provides for removal of this ban by the granting of express permission in appropriate cases by the authority mentioned therein. The only jurisdiction which such authority has under the section is to determine whether a prima facie case for the meeting out of such punishment as the employer proposes has been made out by him and the employer is not actuated by any mala fides or unfair labour practice or victimisation. It is also settled that even where a workman complains of violation of section 33 under section 33A of the Act it is not the function of the Tribunal merely to decide whether there has been a violation of section 33 and make a declaration to that effect. The Tribunal should also adjudicate upon the complaint and decide whether the dismissal was justified on the merits (Automobile Products of India versus Rukmaji Bala, A.I.R. 1955 SC. 258: Caltex versus Fernandes, A.I.R. 1957 SC. 326).

It is therefore clear that contravention of section 33 does not affect an order of dismissal where it is justified on the merits and as to compensation for such contravention the matter is within the discretion of the Tribunal and should be governed by the facts of each case. I may refer in this connection to a case before the Bombay High Court [Batuk K. Vyas versus Surat Borough Municipality, A.I.R. 1953 Bom. page 133 (4 F.I.R. 171)] where the Municipal Borough had dismissed an employee during the pendency of a dispute between the Municipality and its workmen before a Tribunal, and an application having been made by the dismissed employee under section 33A, the Tribunal came to the conclusion that the Municipal Borough was justified in dismissing the petitioner. It was held that the Tribunal acted within its jurisdiction in confirming the order of dismissal, though the dismissal may have been in contravention of section 33. In reply to the argument that such interpretation of section 33A would permit the employer to evade the law and would be highly prejudicial to the workman it was observed that if the dismissal justified the only prejudice the workman could complain of was that it would have been delayed till the application for permission under section 33 was disposed of and he would have earned some more salary. But prejudice can be obviated in proper cases by the Tribunal awarding compensation to the workman. In this case the Tribunal had considered the question of compensation and come to the conclusion that in the circumstances of the case no compensation should be awarded. I also find in the circumstances of this case that no compensation should be awarded to Khosnobi Mollah beyond one month's pay. As to retirement benefits the Municipality had the right to forfeit its contribution to the Provident Fund in the case of an employee dismissed for grave misconduct and I find no reason to interfere specially in view of the loss caused to the Municipality by his actions. I award accordingly that Khosnobi Mollah be only paid one month's salary including dearness allowance within one month from the date of the publication of the award.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. S. Antool & Co. Private Ltd., 91 Acharya Profulla Chandra Road, Calcutta-9, and their workmen represented by S. Antool Mazdoor Union, 33 Manicktalla Main Road, Calcutta. (Case No. VIII-C-349 of 1958.)

For the Union: Shri Mani Mukherjee, General Secretary of the Union.

Acting under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by its order No. 5504-I.R./IR/13L-40/58, dated Calcutta, the 24th December 1958, referred an industrial dispute to the Second Labour Court between Messrs. S. Antool & Co., and their workmen, represented by S. Antool Mazdoor Union, for adjudication regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the order of reference,

Schedule

(1) Annual increment, (2) Dearness Allowance, and (3) Special increment for high cost of living.

The case of the Union, briefly stated, is as follows:—

In the year 1954 the Union raised an industrial dispute claiming inter alia (1) grades and scales and (2) dearness allowance for the workers of Messrs. S. Antool & Co. The dispute was referred to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, which by its award, dated 13th December 1955, rejected the claim for grades and scales and dearness allowance. It however directed the Company to pay its employees the minimum basic salary of Rs. 30 per month. Since that award there has been an improvement in the financial position of the Company. So the Union by a letter, dated 20th May 1957, intimated to the Company its intention to terminate the award. This was followed on 20th June 1958 by a charter of demands. This has led to the present reference on the issues mentioned therein. The Union prays for an award on the following lines:—

(i) annual increment at a flat rate of Rs. 15 with retrospective effect from 1st June 1958;

(ii) dearness allowance at a flat rate of Rs. 10 for the employees drawing basic pay up to Rs. 50 and dearness allowance at a flat rate of Rs. 45 for the employees drawing basic pay from Rs. 51 to Rs. 100;

(iii) special increment for high cost of living at a flat rate of Rs. 15.

The Company has raised a preliminary objection to the effect that the intimation to terminate the award issued by the Union is not a valid notice of the termination of the award. As to the issues mentioned in the order of reference, the contention of the Company in a nutshell is that it has not the capacity to pay the increment of salary and dearness allowance claimed by the Union.

Decision

I first take up the preliminary objection raised by the Company. Its contention in this regard is that the intimation of the termination of the award was not served by the workmen individually and as such it cannot be deemed to have been issued by any of the parties under the award. It appears from the notice Ext. B that it was issued by the Secretary of the Workers' Union. There is nothing in the Industrial Disputes Act to uphold the contention that the notice of termination of an award should be issued by individual workmen. On the contrary, the whole trend of the Industrial Disputes Act recognises Unions of workmen as having authority to act on behalf of workmen in respect of industrial disputes. So in the instant case the notice issued by the Secretary of the Union must be deemed to have been issued by the workmen themselves. So there is no substance in the preliminary objection of the Company. Hence I reject it.

I now take up the issues. I consider them together as they are inter-related. Two factors which, in my opinion, should determine the issues are (i) cost of living index and (ii) the capacity of the Company to bear the additional burden. As to the cost of living index it is clear from the cost of living index issued by the State Statistical Bureau, West Bengal, that there has been a substantial increase in the cost of living between 1956 and 1958. So on the ground of cost of living the workers can reasonably demand an increase in their emoluments. As to the capacity of the Company to bear additional burden, it appears from the evidence (Ext. C) that while it was incurring losses up to the year 1953-54, it began to make profits from 1954-55; the profits have been steadily increasing. It, however, appears from Ext. C that the Company has huge debts. The Company is managed by three Directors who are brothers. It is admitted by one of the Directors who has deposed in this case that the largest creditor, viz., Sm. S. S. Devi, is their mother and the other creditors are also their close relations. The Company has not shown the reasons why it was necessary to incur such huge debts. It may be argued that this question does not arise, as these debts have been accepted in the balance-sheets of the Company certified by registered auditors. This would normally be the case if the creditors were unrelated to the Directors. But in the present case in view of the close relationship between the creditors and the Directors, the debts shown in Ext. C must be looked upon with suspicion. The Company has produced statements showing that while the cost of raw-materials purchased by it have gone up the prices of commodities sold by it have gone down. The Company has produced a statement showing the analysis of bills from year to year. It appears therefore that the volume of work done by it has not decreased much. So in spite of the above adverse situation, the Company has been able to make some profits. On an analysis of the evidence adduced in this case and of the documents produced by the Company, specially the balance-sheets, I am convinced that the financial position of the Company is not so bad as has been attempted to be proved by Shri Pran Kumar Mukherjee, one of the Directors, who deposed in this case. At the same time I am of the opinion that the Company is unable to bear the burden of meeting the total demands made by the Union. Further, as there is no fixed grade and incremental scale, there is no case for annual increment. So I reject the claim for annual increment. I also hold that the Company is unable to pay any special increment on account of the high cost of living. So I reject that claim also. As to dearness allowance, however, I order that the Company should pay all its employees, irrespective of their basic pay, a monthly dearness allowance of Rs. 25 (rupees twenty-five) in place of the present dearness allowance. I reject the claim of the Union to pay dearness allowance with retrospective effect on the ground that this would cause hardship to the Company. So I order that the dearness allowance ordered to be paid by me shall be paid with effect from 1st December 1959.

Purbachal Cinema, P.O. Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Biswanath Roy is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Biswanath Roy previously employed in Messrs. Purbachal Cinema, P.O. Katwa, district Burdwan, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

Decision

The Company in this case seeks to justify the dismissal of the workman Shri Biswanath Roy on the basis of the charge as per Ext. 1 which was brought home to him as a result of the enquiry held in his presence wherein he was given all reasonable facilities to defend himself. First of all, let me refer to the charge the gist of which is his unjustified refusal to accept a good two-Rupee Note tendered to him by a cinema-goer in spite of his undertaking to mend his conduct in future. The charge-sheet (Ext. 1) was followed by his explanation (Ext. J) wherein he stated that he returned a soiled two-Rupee Note asking the intending purchser of the ticket to alter the same, and thereby he considered that he had committed no offence. This explanation is dated 28th December 1956. His explanation was followed by an enquiry with due notice given to him as per Ext. K whereby the enquiry was notified to be held on 5th January 1957 at 9 a.m. The enquiry was accordingly held wherein the Management was represented by Shri Jatindra Mohan Dutt, Upendra Nath Sarkar, Paramesh Chandra Sadhya, and the workman himself attended the enquiry but brought no witness in his behalf. In this enquiry, Shri Brahma Gopal Dutt, a partner of the Cinema Company, was examined who deposed that the workman was in the habit of not returning changes to purchasers of tickets, and that the workman was previously warned for such conduct. His further evidence is that on 30th October 1956 and 31st October 1956 the workman did not sell tickets to certain customers on the plea that there were no small coins for giving as changes to them. Previously again on 10th November 1956 the workman admitted his guilt, asked for apology and undertook not to commit such offence in future, and in spite of that, on 22nd December 1956 the workman returned a two-Rupee Note to customers who asked for 2 second class tickets in spite of the presence of the Manager himself on the spot. The two customers after the refusal of the workman to accept that 2-Rupee Note bearing No. F/79 026698 went to the third class counter and purchased two third class tickets. At the enquiry, the workman was asked to cross-examine this witness, which he refused. Another witness Shri Paramesh Chandra Sadhya also testified to the incident that took place on 22nd December 1956. The evidence of Shri Jatindra Mohan Dutt is to the effect that the workman admitted the two previous offences committed by him on 30th October 1956 and 31st October 1956, and that he also asked for apology on 10th November 1956. The workman at the conclusion of the proceedings stated that he never asked for an apology, though he admits to have confessed his previous guilt. The evidence recorded during the proceedings of enquiry read as a whole goes to establish the charge in this case, and I find none of the vitiating elements of mala fides, policy of victimisation or unfair labour practice or perverse finding or basic error on facts present in this case, and I think, the Court will not be justified in interfering with the decision of the Management, and in this I am supported by the latest decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of G. C. McKenzie and Co., Ltd. and its workmen and others reported in 1959 L.L.J. Vol. 1, page 285, which laid down as follows:—

"Undoubtedly, the Management of a concern has power to direct its own internal administration and discipline; but the power is not unlimited and when a dispute arises, Industrial Tribunals have been given the power to see whether the termination of service of a workman is justified and to give appropriate relief. In cases of dismissal on misconduct, the Tribunal does not, however, act as a Court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the Management. It will interfere—

(i) when there is want of good faith,

(ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,

(iii) when the Management has been guilty of a basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice, and

(iv) when on the materials the finding is completely baseless or perverse.

It is for the Management to determine what constitutes major misconduct within its standing orders sufficient to merit dismissal of a workman, but in determining such misconduct it must have facts upon which to base its conclusions and it must act in good faith without caprice or discrimination and without motives of vindictiveness, intimidation or resorting to unfair labour practice and there must be no infraction of the accepted rules of natural justice. When the Management does have facts from which it can conclude misconduct, its judgment cannot be questioned provided the abovementioned principles are not violated. But in the absence of these facts or in case of violation of the principles set out above, its position is untenable.

In the absence of any of the vitiating circumstances mentioned above, it would not be open to the Industrial Tribunal (in the instant case by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in appeal) to disbelieve the evidence of a witness examined at the domestic enquiry and come to a different conclusion on merits."

This workman beyond dispute is a part-time worker of this Cinema Company, and he is substantively a School Teacher, and I think his instant occupation is hardly compatible with his duties as a School Teacher and he is a square peg in a round hole. The instant charge having been established, and due regard having had to his previous misconducts on record, I find no reason to disturb the finding arrived at by the Management, and the punishment meted out to him does not call for any interference.

In the circumstances, the dismissal of the workman is found justified, and he is entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

Whether the termination of employment of Shri Umakanta Gossai is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a dispute arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified termination of employment of Shri Umakanta Gossai, previously employed in Messrs. Shree Ganesh Jute Mills Ltd., 66/2 Salkia School Road, Bandaghat, Howrah, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union's allegation is that this workman Shri Umakanta Gossai was working in the Company as a driver with a good record of service, but the Management became cross with him for his active trade unionism, and so arbitrarily transferred him by its letter, dated 11th November 1957, to Messrs. Vijoy Iron Foundry. The workman appealed to the Management, but to no effect. As the workman did not carry out the order of transfer, he was not allowed to resume his duties. The

m. therefore, impeaches the order of transfer legal and unjustified, and seeks proper reliefs.

ie Company, on the other hand, denies the n's allegation and contends that Shree Ganesh Mills Ltd. and Messrs. Vijoy Iron Foundry to all intents and purposes, under the same agement, and that services under these two panies are inter-changeable. So, this work- unjustly refused to carry out the orders of fer which the Company was competent to pass. the Company contends that the workman is led to no relief.

Decision

is case became ripe for hearing, and ultimate- ie parties settled the dispute amicably out of t and put in a joint petition of compromise. terms of compromise appear to be fair, reason- and lawful and may be given effect to. In t, the workman tendered his resignation and as paid one month's notice pay of Rs. 72, an ratia payment of Rs. 324 and his full accumu- ns of provident fund to the tune of 712.30nP. The dispute is, therefore, settled rms of the petition of compromise which do a part of the award.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri G. KUMAR, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

By Government order No. 1533-I.R./IR/11L-121/59, dated 18th April 1959, a dispute between Messrs. Union Drug Company Ltd. of 182 Rai Ambica Charan Roy Bahadur Road, Behala (Head Office: 285 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta), hereinafter referred to as the Company and their workmen has been referred to this Tribunal by Government for adjudication. Thereafter Shri Ramyed Dosaj and Shri Ganga (Syce) who were workmen of the Company have been discharged. So they have jointly filed this application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. Their allegation is that the Company has contravened the provision of section 33 of the Act and has acted mala fide in discharging them.

The Company has filed a written statement alleging that the department in which these 2 workmen were employed has been closed as the Company was incurring loss in running that department; hence the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable as they have been retrenched on account of closure of a department.

The main dispute between the Company and the workmen was regarding revision of dearness allowance, abolition of contract system of labour and increase in the rate of tiffin allowance and the dismissal of a worker, namely, Shri Sushil Kumar Chatterjee. So it is to be held that the closure of a particular department of the Company was not connected with the dispute. Apparently, the two petitioners have been discharged for matter not connected with the dispute. But as they have not been discharged for a misconduct their dismissal is not covered by section 33(2) of the Indu Disputes Act or by any other provision of s 33. So it cannot be held that the Company contravened any provision of section 33 in charging the two petitioners. Hence they no "locus standi" to make an application section 33A of the Act and so the instant cation should be rejected as not maintain It may be observed that the learned represen of the petitioner has been candid enough to this position, as the only witness examin behalf of the petitioners, namely, Shri Mrity Bose (P.W.1) admits that the Company has the department in which the petitioners employed.

As a result it is awarded that the appli under section 33A of the Industrial Dispute filed by the two petitioners is rejected as not tainable and they will be at liberty to take and legal steps for redress of their grievance

By Government order No. 1533-I.R./IR/11L-121/59, dated 18th April 1959, a dispute between Messrs. Union Drug Company Ltd. of 182 Rai Ambica Charan Roy Bahadur Road, Behala (Head Office: 285 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta), hereinafter referred to as the Company, and their workmen has been referred to this Tribunal by Government for adjudication. Thereafter the petitioner Shri Mrityunjay Bose, who is one of the workmen of the Company was discharged with effect from 9th May 1959 without any previous intimation to him. His evidence is that when on the said date, i.e., on 9th June 1959, he attended office as usual and was about to sign the attendance register he found that his name had been struck off therefrom and he was told by the clerk concerned that his services had been dispensed with; then he approached the Managing Director who also told him that his services would no longer be required and if required he would be re-appointed in future. No order of dismissal in writing was served on him. Then he filed the instant application on 11th June 1959. Subsequently, he was verbally asked by the Managing Director to join his duties from 16th July 1959. He actually did so and he is still in the Company's employ.

In this application he has prayed for his arrears of wages, etc., for the period during which he was not allowed to join his duties. He also prays that continuity of his service may be regarded as unbroken.

The Company after being served with notice appeared but did not file any written statement. So the case was heard ex-parte on 5th November 1959. Thereafter a petition has been filed on behalf of the Company on 16th November 1959 wherein it is admitted that the petitioner was out of employment from 6th June 1959 to 15th July 1959 and the Company agrees to pay his unpaid wages on account of the said period of idleness.

From the facts as stated by the petitioner i will appear that he was discharged for som undisclosed reasons not connected with the dis pute but he was not paid or offered wages for on month nor was any application under the provis to section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Ac was filed by the Company. So apparently th Company contravened the provisions of sectio 33(2) of the Act in regard to the petitioner Further, the Company's action was thoroughl unjustified. So the petitioner is entitled to th reliefs prayed for to which the Company ha agreed in its said petition, dated 16th Novembe 1959.

As a result the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is allowed. Th continuitly of the service of the petitioner Shr Mrityunjay Bose will have to be regarded a unbroken. The Company is to pay him his ful wages which still remain unpaid on account o the aforesaid period of forced idleness. This i the award of the Tribunal.

Workers' Union, 1 Bazar Lane, Bally, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Dulal Chandra Dey is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Dulal Chandra Dey previously employed in Messrs. Bhattacharjee & Co. of 55/7 Sasthitala Road, Calcutta-11, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The case of the Union in short is that Shri Dulal Chandra Dey, the workman concerned was first employed by Messrs. Bhattacharjee & Co. in 1954, but was abruptly dismissed when he was not allowed to enter the factory on 4th November 1958 and resume his work by the proprietor Shri Nanda Dulal Bhattacharjee.

The Company's case in a nutshell, on the other hand, is that this workman left his work voluntarily as he obtained a better chance elsewhere.

Decision

Now the Court is called upon to determine which version is correct. It is common ground that there was no charge-sheet, nor was there any enquiry. The sheet-anchor of the argument for the Union is that the factory has got no latrine nor urinals, and so the workmen employed therein are required to go to the latrines of Sealdah Railway Station to ease themselves, and that on 3rd November 1958 at about 9-30 a.m. this particular workman felt a call of nature and went to the Sealdah Railway Station latrine with the permission of the proprietor himself, but when he came back after easing himself he was rather reprimanded as he was Assistant Secretary to the Union, and was told that he was bound to carry out what he told him, otherwise he was asked to get out, so he left his duty post. On the following date, i.e., 4th November 1958 he was not allowed access into the factory by the proprietor. Thus the Union seeks to make out that it is a case of abrupt dismissal from service without any charge-sheet, enquiry whatsoever. For the Company the Union's case is argued to be negatived for the following reasons:—

(1) The bus fare between this factory and Sealdah Railway Station is anna 1-3 each way, and so the story of workmen's going to the Sealdah Railway Station latrine for easing themselves is inherently against the pecuniary interest of the workmen, and deserves no credence, and it is inconsistent with the existence of two other latrines beside the factory that are allowed to be used by the workmen employed in this factory along with some other tenants of the same landlord. The Company's witness Shri Gopinath Seal (C.W. 2) has deposed to that effect, and I have no reason to disbelieve him in the circumstances of the case.

(2) Secondly, this workman admittedly accepted employment in Plastic India Company with effect from 4th November 1958, and that this employment had already been secured, and it seems to be more consistent with truth that the workman left the factory at about 9-30 a.m. on 3rd November 1958, and when he was interrogated by Shri Gopinath Seal (C.W. 2) he told Shri Seal that he had already got a better chance elsewhere and that as he had already taken advance from the new Company, he was to serve there.

These arguments for the Company are quite cogent, and I find it difficult to reject them. It is indeed difficult to believe that workman would spend annas 2-6 for going to the Sealdah Railway Station latrine and coming back after easing himself once. This suggestion is absurd. This workman was obviously discontented with his job in this Company, and Ext. A, dated 14th January 1958, written by the workman to the proprietor clearly states that he had got better employment elsewhere, and that in the meantime the proprietor was asked to recruit a substitute in his place. The previous resignation tendered by this workman as per Ext. A was not accepted and he continued in his job. On 4th November 1958 the workman accepted a job elsewhere without pressing his grievance for abrupt dismissal, and then it obviously struck the workman that thereby he was going to lose the benefit of his service for more than 3 years under the Company, so he approached the Company not so much for reinstatement as for benefit of discharge under section 25F(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is also clear from his evidence that the workman is not even now anxious for his reinstatement as his present job is rather a better one as it is on monthly wage basis as compared to the job under the Company which was on daily wage basis. On a careful consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and bearing in mind the evidence on record—both oral and documentary—I am convinced that this is no case of dismissal, but it is a case of voluntary termination of service by the workman himself, as he had got a better chance elsewhere carrying monthly wages instead of daily wages as in the instant Company. The Union cannot fall back upon a plea that the employer agreed to reinstate this workman at any stage of conciliation proceedings, which however is repudiated by the employer. Even assuming that the employer agreed to reinstate the workman at any prior stage, he cannot be compelled to reinstate the workman after the reference is made to this Court and in the peculiar circumstances of the case.

The employer's case that the workman voluntarily terminated his employment and accepted a better job elsewhere on the date following the date of alleged dismissal is fully established beyond reasonable doubt. Thus it is held that this is no case of dismissal, but it is a case of voluntary termination of the employment by the workman himself and as such the workman is entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Sarvasree Jugar Kisore Paul, Sailendra Nath Paul and Panchanan Senati, 9 South Nowdapara Road, Ariadaha, 24-Parganas, on the one part and their workmen represented by National Federation of Engineering Workers' Sramik Shivir, Talpukur, 24-Parganas, on the other. Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Dhar, Advocate.

For the Union: Shri N. R. Roy, Advocate, assisted by Shri Nirmal Banerjee.

Acting under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by their order No. 2954-I.R./IR/10L-75/58, dated, Calcutta, the 16th July 1958, referred to the Second Labour Court, an industrial dispute between Sarvasree Jugal Kisore Paul, Sailendra Nath Paul and Panchanan Senati and their workmen represented by National Federation of Engineering Workers, for adjudication, regarding the matter specified in the schedule to the order of reference.

Issue

(1) Whether the termination of employment of the following workmen is justified. What relief are they entitled to?

(i) Shri Dhirendra Santra.

(ii) Shri Adhibas Baag.

(iii) Shri Nasiram Das.

(iv) Shri Bishnupada Hazra.

Shri Jugal Kisore Paul, his brother's son Shri Sailendra Nath Paul and his sister's son Shri Panchanan Senati are partners of a business of manufacturing and repairing machinery spare parts and mill stores at Ariadaha in the district of 24-Parganas. Shri Dhirendra Santra, Shri Adhibas Baag, Shri Nasiram Das and Shri Bishnupada Hazra were their permanent employees in the above business. They put in services in that business for different periods. Their services were terminated between June 1957 and December 1957 without any reason. In view of the fact that the security of service under the above employers is lacking, the Union does not pray for the reinstatement of the above workmen. Instead it prays for retrechment compensation, wages for the period of forced unemployment, leave wages, and unpaid wages.

The case of the employers, briefly stated, is as follows:

They have no joint business, they have separate businesses of their own. Shri Dhirendra Santra and Shri Adhibas Baag were contractors under Shri Panchanan Senati for sometime and left the work of their own accord. Shri Nasiram Das and Shri Bishnupada Hazra were piece-rated workers under Shri Jugal Kisore Paul. They worked up to 21st December 1957 and began to absent themselves without any notice with effect from 23rd December 1957. Shri Jugal Kisore Paul asked them several times to attend their duties, but to no effect. He never terminated their services. Shri Sailendra Nath Paul has no concern with any of the four workmen mentioned above, as none of them was ever in his employment.

Findings

On the point whether the three employers are running the business jointly, the only evidence on behalf of the Union is the oral evidence of the four workmen concerned and another workman whose services had been terminated earlier. Even they admit that for some years the above three employers are conducting their business in separate sheds. The employers on the other hand have produced acquittance rolls wherefrom it is clear that their businesses are separate and that Shri Dhirendra Santra and Shri Adhibas Baag worked under Shri Panchanan Senati, Shri Nasiram Das and Shri Bishnupada Hazra worked under Shri Jugal Kisore Paul. So the liability in respect of Shri Dhirendra Santra and Shri Adhibas Baag is on Shri Panchanan Senati and that in respect of Nasiram Das and Bisnupada Hazra is on Shri Jugal Kisore Paul. Shri Sailendra Nath Paul is not concerned in this dispute.

The next point is whether Shri Dhirendra Santra and Shri Adhibas Baag were contractors or workers of Shri Panchanan Senati. It is clear from the acquittance rolls Exts. C(5), C(10) and C(11) produced by Shri Panchanan Senati that the above workmen were workers on the piece-rate system. There is nothing to show that they were contratcors. So I hold that they were workmen under Shri Panchanan Senati.

The next question is whether the employers terminated the services of their respective employees or the latter gave up their services. On this point it is admitted by Shri Nasiram Das and Shri Bisnupada Hazra that they were asked by Shri Jugal Kisore Paul to re-join their work. If really Shri Jugal Kisore Paul had terminated their services, there is no reason why he should ask them to re-join. As regards Shri Dhirendra Santra and Shri Adhibas Baag, both sides have adduced evidence in respect of their respective contentions. Prima facie, there is no reason to reject the evidence on either side. So I have considered the evidence in the light of probability. The Union has not shown any reason why Shri Panchanan Senati should take it into his head to terminate the services of these two employees after they have put in services for a pretty long time. The Union has not shown any reason why he should have any malice against them. In view of this probability, I cannot believe that Shri Panchanan Senati terminated their services. So I hold that they left their services of their own accord.

In view of the above considerations, I hold that the employment of Shri Dhirendra Santra, Shri Adhibas Baag, Shri Nasiram Das and Shri Bisnupada Hazra was not terminated. As such no question of relief arises.

The award of this Tribunal in respect of this proceeding was made on 29th August 1958 and was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 25th September 1958.

2. On 24th November 1958, Shri Narayan Chandra Dey and 211 other workmen of Messrs. Swadeshi Industries Ltd. filed a complaint stating that the opposite party Company laid off the petitioners in batches on different dates commencing from 6th October 1956 during the pendency of the proceeding with a notice stating that the workmen would be entitled to lay off compensation. It is prayed that the action of the Company may be held as illegal and unjustified and that the Opposite Party Company may be directed to pay lay off compensation to the petitioners. The Company opposed the claims on various grounds.

3. Since 3rd January 1959 neither party appeared on as many as eleven different dates. Radhey Shyam Food Products, 6 Foreshore Road, Ramkrishnapur, Howrah, and their workmen represented by West Bengal Confectionery and Food Products Mazdoor Union, 90 Lower Chitpur Road, Calcutta-7, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:

Schedule

Whether the discharge of Shri Fulena Mistri is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified discharge of Shri Fulena Mistri, previously employed in Messrs. Radhey Shyam Food Products, 6 Foreshore Road, Ramkrishnapur, Howrah, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union's case in short is that the workman Shri Fulena Mistri was working in the mills for 1½ years without any blemish. The said workman on receipt of a telegram from his native village informing him of the illness of his father approached the Company which verbally allowed him to go home. From his native place the workman sent an application praying for 6 weeks' leave by registered post which was acknowledged by the Management. The Company thereafter sacked him for his failure to report for duty in time.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the material allegations of the Union and justifies the termination of employment of the workman concerned on the ground of his unauthorised absence.

Decision

The case was dragged on for a considerable length of time, and 20th April 1960 was fixed as the date of hearing. But both parties in the meantime on 17th November 1959 put in a joint petition of compromise stating that the matter has been settled amicably between them. The te of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable lawful, and may be given effect to. The disp is, therefore, disposed of in terms of the petit of compromise which do form a part of award.

Saraswati Dal Mills, both at No. 1, Cross Road, Ramkrishnapur, Howrah, and their workman Shri Lalbahadur represented by the West Bengal Confectionery and Food Products Mazdur Union, 90 Lower Chitpur Road, Calcutta-7, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:

Schedule

Whether the discharge of Shri Lalbahadur is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified discharge of Shri Lalbahadur, previously employed in Messrs. Janata Dal Mills and Messrs. Saraswati Dal Mills, both at No. 1, Cross Road, Ramkrishnapur, Howrah, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The case of the Union in short is that Messrs. Janata Dal Mills illegally terminated the employment of 13 workmen and re-opened a mill subsequently under a different name, but did not re-employ the aforesaid illegally dismissed 13 workmen. The Union contends that the termination of service of Lalbahadur is illegal, and hence the dispute.

Messrs. Janata Dal Mills alone put in a written statement contending that it is not an industrial dispute, and affirming that the workman concerned—Lalbahadur was never employed under them and as such he is not entitled to any relief.

Decision

The case went on for a considerable length of time, and on the date fixed for hearing, i.e., 17th November 1959, both parties put in a joint petition of compromise stating that the dispute has been settled amicably between them. The terms of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable and lawful and may be given effect to. The dispute is, therefore, disposed of in terms of the petition of compromise which do form a part of the award.

3. The case was fixed for hearing on 12th November 1959, on which date, neither party appeared. It may be mentioned here that one of the three workmen, Shri Moni Bhusan Bhattacharya, appeared on 24th April 1959 and filed a petition stating that he did not want to proceed with the matter and prayed for permission to withdraw the case against the Company. Since then, neither the two workmen who did not file any petition like Shri Moni Bhusan Bhattacharya to withdraw from the proceeding, nor the Company appeared on as many as seven dates between 13th May 1959 and 3rd November 1959. AWARD

By Government order No. 4081-I.R./IR/ 24/58, dated the 21st August 1959, a disp between Messrs. Jamair Co. Private Ltd., Chowringhee Road, Calcutta (hereinafter refe to as the Company), and their workmen re sented by Jamair Employees' Union, Cale Airport, Dum Dum, Calcutta (hereinafter refe to as the Union), was referred for adjudication Government to this Tribunal. The only i framed by Government was –

Whether the workmen are entitled to w for the day of strike on 21st April 1959

Sometimes by the middle of April 1959 Company discharged 29 of its workmen by wa retrenchment for the alleged purpose of econo ing, as the Company was running at a loss.

The Union took exception to this retrenchm and demanded that the Company should revok and intimated their intention to go on a to strike within 30 hours of the receipt of a le (Ext. 1) addressed to the Company on 20th A 1959. On the same date the Company wrote a le (Ext. 2) to the Union alleging that the retre ment had been decided upon as an inevit step and that the proposed strike would be ill as another dispute was pending before this bunal for adjudication at that time. Howe the workmen went on a token strike from 9 p of 21st April 1959. Eventually the Company not pay the wages to the workmen for the da the strike which has resulted in the reference this case.

The Union's case is that the strike was ju fied as the discharge of 29 workmen on account the alleged retrenchment was not bona fide and the Union had a right to take recourse to a strike as a lawful and constitutional means to record its protest against the action of the Company.

It is contended on behalf of the Company that the strike was ab initio illegal in view of the then pending dispute before this Tribunal between the Company and the Union. Further the strike was unjustified.

It is a fact that a dispute between tthe Company and the Union had been referred to by the Government to this Tribunal by order No. 2391-I.R., dated 10th June 1958, and it terminated with the publication in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 23rd July 1959, of the award of this Tribunal regarding the same. The strike in question was made on 21st April 1959. Apparently it took place during the pendency of the aforesaid dispute.

This strike was made in direct contravention of sub-section (b) of section 23 of Industrial Disputes Act which is as follows:—

"No workman who is employed in any industrial establishment shall go on strike in breach of contract and no employer of any such workman shall declare a lock-out—

(a) * * * * *

(b) during the pendency of proceedings before a Tribunal and two months after the conclusion of such proceedings; or

* * * * *"

Hence the strike is to be held to be thoroughly illegal. But it is contended on behalf of the Union that such conclusion cannot be made as the Company has failed to prove that the strike had been held "in breach of contract" as provided in section 23. What the Union means to say is that there had been no contract between the workmen and the Company that the former would not go on strike during the pendency of a dispute before a Tribunal/Labour Court, or, that the workmen would not be entitled to claim wages if they go on strike on justifiable grounds, whatever may be the other contingencies, namely, pendency of a dispute in a Tribunal or Labour Court at the time of such strike or the pendency of conciliation proceedings before a Board, etc. The Union's argument seems to be a result of too much stretching of the plain interpretation of the term "in breach of contract" as used in section 23. In this section it is not stated that the contract, the breach of which is contemplated, should be express; so, it must be held that the word "contract" here means a contract, either express or implied. It is not the Union's case that there is any express or written contract of employment between the workmen and the Company. So in the instant case the contract for service means an implied contract which is that the Company must pay wages provided the workers render service and the Company shall not have to pay if they do not render service (except on recognised and justifiable grounds) or refrain from work on pleas which are illegal and/or unjustified. So, the workmen having not rendered any service on the date of the strike in question in spite of the remonstrance of the Company, it is to be held that the workmen went on strike in breach of contract and as such the strike was thoroughly illegal, in view of section 23(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, on account of the pendency of a dispute between the parties at that time in this Tribunal. It has been held in the case of Ram Naresh Kumar versus State of West Bengal (1958 I.L.J Vol. I, page 5) that the expression "breach of contract" in section 23 of the Industrial Disputes Act means breach of contract of service or employment and not a special contract not to go on strike and it is clear from the fact that while there must necessarily be a contract of service, express or implied, between the workmen and his employer, special contract not to go on strike does not constitute an essential part of the contract between a workman and his employer, so that contract of service may exist without any such special contract. Thus, in the instant case, it should be held that there was an implied contract between the workmen and the Company that they should not refrain from attending their duties in violation of legal provisions.

As a result, it is held that there is no substance in the contention of the Union that the workman did not strike work on the day in question in breach of contract.

As the strike was ab initio illegal the workmen are not entitled to claim wages for the period of strike; so the question whether the strike was justified or not is not required to be decided. However, it may be observed here, that the workmen subsequently took the proper step regarding the retrenchment which instigated the strike, viz., they got a reference made to this Tribunal on that point, and it may incidentally be mentioned that this Tribunal has found in connection with that reference that the Company's action in making the retrenchment was not unjustified, and, so it is to be held that the strike in question was not only illegal but unjustified too.

This is the award of this Tribunal that the workmen are not entitled to wages for the day of strike on 21st April 1959.

Angus, district Hooghly, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Is the dismissal of Shri Sitaram Sirdar of the Preparing Department justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Sitaram Sirdar of the Preparing Department by Messrs. Angus Jute Mills, P.O. Angus, district Hooghly, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

The Union states that the Company arbitrarily and unjustifiably dismissed the workman in this case on the basis of untrue allegation that he was guilty of misconduct under rule 14(c) of the Company's Standing Orders. The Company did not hold any enquiry, but mala fide dismissed him.

The Company seeks to justify the dismissal of the workman and contends that the dismissal was the outcome of a properly held enquiry, and that the Company had no mala fides in the matter, and the Court should not disturb the instant dismissal.

Decision

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 1st March 1960, but on 6th November 1959, the parties put in a joint petition of compromise stating that the dispute has been settled amicably, and the parties prayed for a "no dispute" award on the basis of the terms embodied in the petition of compromise. The terms of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable and lawful and may be given effect to. The dispute is, therefore, disposed of in terms of the petition of compromise which do form a part of the award.

Decisions

Issue No. 1—Bonus for 1957.

6. The Union states in its written statement that the Company has earned considerable profits in 1957, being mainly due to the extra efforts put in by the workmen and there is a considerable amount of available surplus after deducting the prior charges, but the Company refused to grant five months' wages as bonus to the workmen, as demanded, which is just and fair. The Union, therefore, prays that the Tribunal should hold that there is sufficient available surplus after deduction of prior charges as laid down in the Full Bench formula and direct the Company to pay five months' pay as bonus for 1957.

7. The Company, in its written statement, states that the claim has been made on assumption that the Company earned a huge profit justifying the payment of bonus as claimed. The balance-sheet and profit and loss account for the year ended 30th April 1957, would show that the Company incurred a loss in the year in question to the extent of Rs. 89,000 and odd and its total accumulated loss up to 30th April 1957, is Rs. 7,92,452. The claim for payment of any bonus is, therefore, not justified and should be rejected.

8. At the time of the hearing, the learned Advocate for the Union stated that 54 days' basic pay was paid by the Company to the workmen as bonus for the year in question, but that the workmen took the amount as advance against five months' claim for bonus. The balance-sheet and profit and loss account of the Company for the year in question is Ext. A. It shows a loss of Rs. 89,102.68 on the trading results. The total loss up to date appears to be Rs. 7,92,152.34. In any case, it is clear that the trading results of the year in question for which bonus has been claimed, shows a loss of Rs. 89,102.68. When there is trading loss, the workers are not entitled to any bonus, because there will be no available surplus of profits according to the Full Bench formula in the Bombay Millowners' case, reported in 1952 L.A.C., 433. This will also appear from the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Muir Mills Ltd., reported in 1955 L.A.C., 1. The learned Advocate for the Union stated at the time of his argument that the financial condition of the Company was not bad and that, there have been an increase in the expenditure on salaries, wages and bonus for the year in question over that in the preceding year. In any case, prima facie the duly audited balance-sheets of a concern indicate the true financial position of the concern and it will be for the person who assails it to establish dishonesty or fraud (vide decision of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Rashtriya Mill Mazdoor Sangh, reported in 1955 L.A.C., 95 at page 116). There is nothing to show that there is any defect in the balance-sheet, Ext. A. This balance-sheet is, therefore, to be accepted as genuine. That being so, it is clear that there is a trading loss in the year 1957, for which bonus has been claimed. It is admitted that bonus has been claimed for the year for which Ext. A is the balance-sheet. In these circumstances, it is awarded that the claim for bonus as made by the Union should be and is rejected.

9. This Issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 2—Introduction of Production Bonus and Issue No. 4 Interim relief since August 1957 for all workmen.

10. The Union states in its written statement that there was a Production Bonus Scheme in the Company, which was also confirmed by an award of this Tribunal in 1956 with some modifications, but that the Company without terminating the said award, stopped payment of the said Production Bonus since August 1957. The Union, therefore, prays that the Tribunal should hold that the old system of Production Bonus was reasonable and justified and that sudden stoppage of the said bonus payment in August 1957, was unjustified and should direct the Company to re-introduce the said Production Bonus Scheme with retrospective effect from the date of reference. The Union also claims that the Tribunal should direct the Company to pay the said Production Bonus to the workmen from the date when it was discontinued till the date when it is re-introduced by the Tribunal according to the decision in Issue No. 2.

11. Evidence was adduced on both sides on the pleadings of the parties. P.W. 1 Shri Bimal Chandra Bose, and P.W. 2 Shri Ram Chandra Marik deposed for the Union and O.P.W. 1 Shri Prem Narayan Mathur, the Manager and the Chief Chemist in the Company, deposed for the Company. Documents, Exts. A to I were marked for the Company. O.P.W. 1 is a worker in the Hydrogen Compressor Department for the last 17 or 18 years. This witness states that the Company had a Production Bonus Scheme since the date of the starting of the Mill about 20 years ago. This scheme of Production Bonus was suspended in August 1957. At the beginning, Production Bonus was not given to all workmen. Only a few workers used to get the bonus and the others did not get it. The workers agitated over the matter and the Company then paid half the Production Bonus to those few men and the other half to some other people. There was another movement against this discrimination and the matter was ultimately referred to the Tribunal. By the award of the Tribunal, Production Bonus was given to all workmen. The workers got Production Bonus for about 1 or 2 years, but after that the Company stopped payment of the bonus. The witness claims that Production Bonus should be restored with retrospective effect from August 1957. The witness admits in cross-examination that new machines have been installed in all the departments since 1957, and that before the installation of these new machines, some 25 to 30 tons of Vanaspati were produced per day, but after the installation of these machines, the production is 40 to 45 tons per day. The witness denied that the Company notified that the Production Bonus would be paid for production beyond 50 tons. P.W. 2 Shri Ram Chandra Marik, who is a worker in the Electrolite Department, also states that a new machine has been installed in his department, which is working satisfactorily. O.P.W. 1 the Manager, Shri Mathur, states that the Production Bonus is still in existence, but that the target of production above which the bonus is available has been increased from 25 tons to 50 tons on account of the greater productivity of the newly installed machineries. He states that previously the plant was capable of turning up up to 30 tons and now, on account of the installation of new machineries in 1957, the maximum production can be 60 tons, and the Company has, therefore, revised the target of production from 25 tons to 50 tons. He also states that the production can be raised up to 80 tons. The system of payment was that for a production of over 5 tons over and above 25 tons, a bonus of Rs. 20 was to be distributed amongst all the workmen. Ext. H shows the production chart for the purpose of Production Bonus payment from January 1954 to September 1959. The Union states that in May 1957 production was more than 25 tons for 16 days. This appears from the Production Bonus statement for the relevant month. The Company pays Production Bonus only when production was at least 5 tons in excess of the target. This target was revised in August 1957, and raised to 50 tons in place of 25 tons. It appears that since the target was raised, the workers have not been able to earn any Production Bonus, as the production did not reach 55 tons on any day since August 1957. It appears that in January 1959, on one day, the production was 51 tons, and as Production Bonus is payable when there is an excess production of 5 tons over the target, no bonus was offered. Ext. F(1) is the award of this Tribunal, which was published under notification, dated 14th August 1956. By this award, the Production Bonus was directed to be distributed to the permanent workmen in proportion to the basic wage earned by the individual permanent workmen. The rate of Production Bonus was Rs. 20 per extra charge of 5 tons beyond the target production of 25 tons per day. It appears that the same rate of Production Bonus, being Rs. 20 for an excess charge of 5 tons over the target is still continuing today, but that the target has been raised from 25 tons to 50 tons by the notice, dated 25th October 1957, Ext. C. It was argued by the learned Advocate for the Union that the Company ceased to implement the award, Ext. F(1) of this Tribunal, without issuing any notice of termination to the Union. In fact, however, there has been no termination of the award, Ext. F(1), but only the target beyond which the Production Bonus would be available, has been raised from 25 tons to 50 tons, following installation of new machines yielding higher production in 1957. I do not find that there has been any violation of the award. The real question here is whether the fixation of the target at 50 tons in place of 45 tons as it existed prior to October 1957, has been justified, in view of the installation of more productive and new machines in 1957. The decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Titaghur Paper Mills, reported in 1959 (II) L.L.J., page 9, shows that where a Production Bonus Scheme is in force and has become a term of employment, there is no reason why the Tribunal should not have the power to vary its terms if circumstances justify it. The Tribunal has, therefore, the power to vary the terms of the Production Bonus Scheme if the circumstances justify such an alteration. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 Shri Mathur shows that Production Bonus was paid for 2 days in April 1957 and for 3 days in May 1957, but that there has been no payment of Production Bonus since the target was revised in October 1957. There has been production up to 51 tons on one day in January 1959, but Ext. H shows a maximum production of 44 to 46 tons generally in the period subsequent to October 1957. According to the terms of the Production Bonus Scheme, the Production Bonus of Rs. 20 is payable for a minimum of 5 tons excess production over the target on any day. Considering all these circumstances and on giving my most earnest consideration to the matter, I award that the target of the Production Bonus shall be fixed at only 40 tons per day in place of 50 tons. Over this target of 40 tons, a production of 5 tons shall give the workers a Production Bonus of Rs. 20, to be distributed according to the directions of the previous award of this Tribunal in 1956, Ext. F(1). This target of Production Bonus at 40 tons per day shall remain at this figure for the next two years, that is, till the end of 1961, and the Company shall be at liberty to revise the target if there is a general rise in the daily production of their commodity. The target of the Production Bonus is so fixed as to yield not more than one excess charge of 5 tons for some days in the month as it obtained in the period prior to October 1957. This revision of the target shall be effective from the date of the commencement of the operation of this award.

12. The Union claims for reintroduction of Production Bonus Scheme with retrospective effect from the date of reference. The target is reduced to enable the workers to get the Production Bonus for some days in a month. The Company's case is that it is paying more wages than its competitors, viz., Hindusthan Development Corporation, Swaika Vanaspati Products Ltd. and Vegetable Products Ltd., as shown in Ext. E. It also appears that these other Companies do not pay any Production Bonus to their workers. No retrospective operation to the revision of the target is given, in view of these facts.

13. The Union also claims for an award for the Production Bonus from the date when it was stopped till the date when it is re-introduced by this award. As has been mentioned above, the Production Bonus was not discontinued—only the target was revised. The claim for Production Bonus for any past period is not justified and is rejected.

14. Issues Nos. 2 and 4 are accordingly answered.

Issue No. 3—Dearness allowance and Issue No. 5—Introduction of grades and scales of pay.

15. The Union states in its written statement that the Company pays a very low dearness allowance to its workmen, being Rs. 1-4 per day per workman since 1955, and this dearness allowance has not been increased, although the cost of living has risen considerably since the time when Rs. 1-4 dearness allowance was introduced on a flat rate. The Union also states that the Company pays Bengal Chamber of Commerce rate of dearness allowance to its Head Office employees, but denies the same to the employees of the factory. There is no grade and scales of pay for the workmen. Increments of wage were allowed to the workmen, but granting of increments was stopped about 3 years back.

16. The Company denies that the employees at the Head Office are being paid according to the rate prescribed by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, although it is true that the employees at the Head Office are paid dearness allowance at a higher rate, than that paid to the employees of the factory. It is true that the Company has been paying dearness allowance to its workers at Rs. 1-4 per day since long, but instead of increasing dearness allowance to the workers, the Company, on account of the increase in the cost of living, increased the basic wages of the workmen concerned from time to time. If the total wages paid by the Company are compared with the total wages paid by other concerns manufacturing Vanaspati in West Bengal, it would be found that the workmen under the present Company are better off than many of the other Vanaspati factories. There is no incremental scale of pay for the workmen in this Company. The Company, in the past, revised the existing scales of wages and increased the same from time to time, but it never promised or gave any indication that this would be a regular feature in the future. Considering the present financial position of the Company, and also the fact that the Company recently invested a large amount for remodelling the mill, and also considering the fact that the future is still uncertain, the question of introduction of grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen cannot arise. The Union's prayer for back increments to the workers since 1955 cannot be entertained by the Tribunal, in view of the issue which has been referred to the Tribunal.

17. O.P.W. 2 Shri Ram Chandra Marik states that the wages paid by the Company are insufficient and the dearness allowance is at Rs. 1-4 per day, or Rs. 32.50 per month, and this dearness allowance is received at the same rate since 1956. O.P.W. 1 Shri P. N. Mathur, Manager, states that the dearness allowance was raised to Rs. 1-4 per day for all categories of workers in 1954, and the same rate of dearness allowance is continuing till now. Exhibit D is a chart of the wages of the various categories of workers in the Company. The General Mazdoor at the present time gets Rs. 1-4-6 (Rs. 1.28) as basic pay and Rs. 1-4 (Rs. 1.25) as dearness allowance, and this is the minimum wage paid to the permanent workmen. It appears in evidence of O.P.W. 1, the Manager, that the temporary workers get Re. 1 as basic wage and Rs. 1-4 as dearness allowance per day. It appears that he committed a slight mistake and it was admitted at the time of argument by both the parties that although the total wage of a temporary worker per day was Rs. 2-4, the distribution was at Rs. 1-2-6 (Rs. 1.16) as basic pay and Rs. 1-1-6 (Rs. 1.09) as dearness allowance. I have already discussed that the balance-sheet of the Company (Ext. A), shows that there was a trading loss in the year ended 30th April 1957 to the extent of Rs. 89,000 and odd and that the total loss still outstanding is nearabout Rs. 8 lakhs. As has been mentioned above, Ext. E shows that the wages offered by this Company to the workmen at the factory compare favourably with those paid by the three other Vanaspati concerns in West Bengal, as mentioned in the document. Incremental scales of pay necessarily involve increase in expenditure under labour charges year after year. It does not appear that incremental scales of wages are also paid by the other three Companies mentioned in Ext. E, who are the competitors of the present Company in the market. In view of the financial position of the Company as mentioned above, incremental scales of wages to the workmen are not, to my mind, justified.

18. The learned Advocate for the Union pointed to the wages paid in the Jute Industry, as well as in the Engineering Industry in West Bengal, and stated that by the last award in the Engineering Industry, the minimum wage paid to the workmen in that Industry is now Rs. 75 per month. The learned Advocate also pointed out the grades scales of wage awarded by the last Engineering Award in November 1958, for the various categories of workmen, being unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled. I do not consider that the Vanaspati Industry of the present Company is in such a stable financial condition as to be able to pay the wages as are prevalent in the Engineering Industry. The minimum wages paid to the temporary workers in this Company is Rs. 58-8, being Rs. 2.25 per day, and that paid to the permanent workers is Rs. 65-13, per month, being Rs. 2.53 per day. In the Jute Industry, the minimum wage is Rs. 67.17 per month. The evidence of O.P.W. 1 shows that out of 192 employees in the factory, 160 are permanent employees and 32 are temporary employees. Considering all these circumstances, I award as follows:—

(a) The temporary employees shall get the minimum wage as are payable to the permanent employees, both in basic wage and dearness allowance.

(b) The basic wage of all categories of permanent workmen shall continue as at the present time.

(c) The dearness allowance of all employees is increased from Rs. 1.25 to Rs. 1.32 per day. This increase in the dearness allowance will result in a total increase of Rs. 1.82 per month for all employees. The minimum wage will, therefore, be raised to nearabout Rs. 67-10 (Rs. 67.60) per month.

19. It is also to be considered that this Company pays a Production Bonus which has also been revised in a previous Issue. I do not consider that any further alteration in the wage structure is called for in the circumstances of the case.

20. Issues Nos. 3 and 5 are accordingly answered.

Issue No. 6—Privilege leave and casual leave.

20. The Union states in its written statement that the workmen of the Company do not enjoy either casual leave or privilege leave, and the Union prays that the Company should grant 15 days' privilege leave per year to all the workmen, which will be accumulated for 3 years and the Company should also grant 15 days' casual leave per year to all its workmen with a provision for suitable reward for those workmen who do not avail of any casual leave in the year. The Union states that the Company grants 9 festival holidays with pay and other leave with pay according to the provisions of the Factories Act. The Company is now governed by the provisions of the State Insurance Act in respect of sick leave. The Company submits that taking into consideration all these circumstances, the present leave rule under the Company is fair and proper and requires no revision.

22. In view of the fact that the Company grants statutory leave under the Factories Act, the claim for privilege leave of 15 days in the year cumulative for 3 years cannot be justified and is rejected. The claim for casual leave with pay in a factory is not justified and this claim is unworthy of support. Casual leave for 10 days without pay is allowed to the workmen, as it is in vogue in the Jute Industry. The claim for casual leave with pay is rejected.

23. This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 7—Permanency of temporary workmen.

24. The Union prays that the Company should declare all those workmen as permanent workmen who have completed 3 months' continuous service in the Company, or have completed 6 or more months' service in the Company in any year preceding the date of reference.

25. The Company states that under the Standing Orders of the Company, a workman taken in a permanent vacancy is made permanent on completion of 6 months' probation. According to the exigencies of the business, the Company is compelled to take some temporary hands purely on a temporary basis. Their cases are also covered by the Company's Standing Orders. At present, the Company has in its roll 193 workmen out of which 161 are permanent and 32 are working as budli in place of permanent workmen on temporary leave. The Company, therefore, cannot concede to the demands of the Union.

26. A workman who is taken in a temporary vacancy, as for example, in a leave vacancy of a permanent workman, cannot be made permanent, as it will then be against the interest of the permanent workman who is on leave. A workman who has been engaged for a work which is essentially of a temporary nature likely to be finished within a limited period, is a temporary workman. It cannot be claimed that although he is a temporary workman, he should be made permanent after a period of 3 months or 6 months' service. This claim is unworthy of support and is rejected.

27. This issue is accordingly answered.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Ludlow Jute Co., Ltd., Chengail, Howrah, and their workmen, represented by National Union of Jute Workers, 3 Commercial Buildings, 1st floor, 23 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1. (Case No. VIII-C—175 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by their order No. 3355-I.R./IR/71-44/57, dated Calcutta, the 11th August 1958, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Ludlow Jute Co., Ltd., and their workmen represented by National Union of Jute Workers, to the Second Labour Court, for adjudication.

Issue formulated in the order of reference is in the following lines:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

The facts of the case in brief are that in 1955 under instruction of the Government, the management of Messrs. Ludlow Jute Co., Ltd., wanted o introduce Employees' State Insurance Scheme a the jute mill. The workers raised a protest gainst introduction of this scheme and threatened rouble, if the management insisted on the introuction of the scheme. On 24th August 1955, at bout 2-30 p.m. the workers came out of the mill, truck work, surrounded the Manager's office, nan-handled an officer and caused damage to the ower house. On 15th September 1955, the anagement issued a charge-sheet on Shri arbeswar Pattanaik, the workman in question, on he ground that he was one of those workers who ad struck work and took an active part in the bove riotous and disorderly conduct of the workrs. Accordingly he was dismissed on 24th eptember 1955.

The case of the Union, in brief, is that Shri arbeswar Pattanaik had given his consent to the ntroduction of the Employees' State Insurance cheme, that he worked on 24th August 1955 and hat he was not one of those workers who indulged n the riotous and disorderly conduct on that date, s he had no reason to do so. As the manageent declared a lock-out on 24th August 1955 he eft the place for his native village in Orissa on the ollowing day. Later learning that the mill had een reopened he returned and went to the mill or work on 21st September 1955. The charge-heet was then handed over to him and he was sked certain question. But no enquiry was held nd eventually he was dismissed arbitrarily.

The company, on the other hand, contends that Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik took a leading part in he disorder on 24th August 1955 and that this as been proved by an enquiry held on 22nd Sepember 1955. Accordingly he was dismissed.

Appearances of the parties are as follows:—

For the Company: Shri M. K. Raha, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

For the Union: Shri N. R. Roy, Advocate.

DECISION

The Union has examined only one witness, viz., Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik. He has stated the case of the Union. The company has examined three witnesses. One of them, viz., Shri Saroj Kumar Dutta, the Personnel Manager of the Ludlow Jute Co., Ltd., has described the trouble on 24th August 1955. He also says that he held the enquiry on 22nd September 1955. He admits that the management declared a lock-out on 24th August 1955. He says that he does not remember whether any letter stating that the enquiry would be held on 22nd September 1955 was issued to Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik. No such letter has been produced before me. So I hold that no such letter was issued to Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik. Another witness Shri Bijan Behari Dey, on behalf of the company says that on 22nd September 1955 Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik appeared at the mill gate, his explanation was taken and the enquiry was held. This shows that the enquiry was held on the date Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik appeared at the mill gate. But Ext. C produced by the company shows that the charge-sheet was handed over to Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik on 21st September 1955. Shri Gopal Chandra Chakraborty, another witness on behalf of the company, says that his statement was recorded at the enquiry, but the Enquiring Officer did not ask Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik to cross-examine him. From this evidence it is clear that either no enquiry was held on 22nd September 1955, as contended by the Union, or the enquiry on 22nd September 1955 was not properly conducted. So I am unable to accept the finding of that so-called enquiry. So I have to turn to the evidence adduced before me to find out whether the charge against Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik has been substantiated. Shri Saroj Kumar Dutta and Shri Bijan Behari Dey admit that they did not see Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik at the time of the trouble on 24th August 1955. It is to be remembered that Shri Saroj Kumar Dutta says that he was present throughout the trouble on 24th August 1955 and that he tried to dissuade the workers from continuing the trouble. Shri Gopal Chandra Chakraborty also does not depose before me that he saw Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik taking part in the trouble. So I hold that the charge on which Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik has been dismissed has not been substantiated

Hence I hold that the dismissal of Shri Sarbeswar Pattanaik is not justified. Accordingly I order that he should be reinstated and should be paid his wages for the period of forced unemployment. The above order shall take effect within 15 days from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette."

AWARD

Issue No. 6: The Union's case is that all workmen should be made permanent after six months' employment. The company's contention is that the temporary workers cannot be confirmed and the claim of the Union to make all workmen permanent after six months' employment cannot be accepted. In my finding there should be a provision for making temporary workmen permanent, and it is held that the temporary workmen should be confirmed on completion of 240 days' work.

Issue No. 3: The Union's case is that the company did not pay any Puja bonus to any worker for the year 1957. The company's contention is that the Union's claim for Puja bonus as made for the year 1957 is neither legal nor justified. It has been further stated that bonus as and when paid only in some years was paid by way of ex-gratia payment and that in the year 1956 the company suffered loss and, as such, the workmen were not entitled to any bonus in 1957 before Pujas.

The point need not be adjudicated upon as at the time of hearing the learned representative of the company agreed to pay the workers 15 days' wages as a gesture of good-will. The fact is that over this matter of bonus all troubles arose between the company and their workmen, and some of the workers resorted to hunger strike for the same. To bring a happy relation between the management and the workmen, the learned representative for the company agreed to pay the workers 15 days' wages for the year 1957 as ex-gratia denying the liabilities to pay any customary bonus in the name of the Puja bonus. I find that this thing will create a happy relationship between the company and the workmen and it does not appear to be unfair or unreasonable. The Union also did not object in this respect. The object of the Industrial Disputes Act is to establish a happy relationship between the capital and labour. I do not find it would be just and expedient to take up the adjudication of the point in question in the present proceeding when it is seen that the company is eager to establish a happy relationship with its workers by paying them 15 days' wages as ex-gratia for the year 1957. The matter is thus disposed of and it is noted that both the parties will have the right to reagitate the point of customary Puja bonus in future.

Issue No. 8: The Union's case is that all apprentices should be made permanent after one year's employment and should be fitted in grades according to the type of work done by them individually. The company's contention is that there was no demand in respect of this issue at any time and the Union's statement does not contain any scheme of improvement.

Regarding this issue, it is directed that after working for three years an apprentice should be absorbed in regular employment by the management on being satisfied of his fitness.

Issue No. 7: The Union's case is that the ontract system prevailing in the present company should be immediately abolished.

The company's contention is that according to s requirement, independent contractors have een engaged and the said contractors engage ontract labour and the engagement of the ontractors is essential for the company's interest nd it should not, therefore, be abolished.

In the evidence O.P.W. 1, Shri Lahiri, has said at there are contractor's labour in the company. .P.W. 2, Shri Singha, has said that there are ntractors' labour in the company and through ie contractors the work of casting, fan-covers, stings of valves etc., are done. He has added at fan manufacturing work is the main work the instant company and the contract labour stem runs in the company, more or less, throughut the year. It is, therefore, clear that the ntractors do not work for a short period and hat they do through their labourers is a part nd parcel of the company's main work, viz., anufacturing fans. Further, I find that the ntract work is done within the company's ctory and the gate passes are issued to the ntractors' labourers by the company. The nion filed a copy of the letter written by the ntractor, Shri Monmatha Paul, to the Labour mmissioner, West Bengal. On perusal it would seen that Shri Paul was not really a labour ntractor and he was a moulder of the company, d in that capacity he used to supervise the work the other labourers. The condition was that e company used to pay the labourers through ri Paul, who denied to have any responsibility r paying dearness allowance to the workers. In e letter it has been clearly stated by Shri Paul at the paying of dearness allowance to the rkers is not his responsibility. The real posion in 1953 was that Shri Paul was acting on half of the company in supervising the work of e contractors' labourers and used to pay them ter getting money from the company. Of urse, there is nothing to show that this position derwent any change in the subsequent years. e Union demands the abolition of the system contract labour. Considering the circumstances the case and the facts that the work done by contractors' labourers are, more or less, stant, I am of opinion that the contract system ould be abolished. A sudden abolishment of s system may not be convenient. It is accordly directed that this contract system should be olished within one year from the publication this award. It is further directed that the mpany should in consultation with the represenives of the Union absorb the contract labourers the employment of the company and fix their ges according to categories in which they would placed after considering their seniority, length service, skill, etc. The issue is thus decided.

ssue No. 5. The Union's case is that durwans e to work overtime without getting overtime es. It is, accordingly, demanded that overtime es should be given to durwans.

he company's case is that the durwans do not k overtime and, as such, the payment of overe wages with retrospective effect does not arise. It is also stated that the durwans work for normal hours as usual and the claim is vague and should be rejected.

P.W. 2., Shri G. Bahadur, has said in his evidence that he has been working in the present company as a durwan since 1952, and till 4th May 1959 he had to work every day for 12 hours. He has also added that all the durwans of the company work like him. From his evidence it further appears that there are 9 durwans in the present company. Of course, he has stated that two new durwans and a Jamadar had been newly recruited in May 1959. According to him, they are at present working for four hours at day time and four hours at the night from 4th May 1959. Of course, it is seen that durwans are to work on every day and they do not get any Festival holiday and they get only 25 paid holidays in a year. In the cross-examination the aforesaid witness has said that in other places durwans work on Sunday and get overtime. But this has not been proved by producing any independent materials. Further, the Union did not examine any durwan of other companies to corroborate the statement of the aforesaid witness. The fact, however, remains that besides P.W. 2., Shri Bahadur, none of the other durwans has come to say that they had to work overtime. In my consideration durwans would get overtime wages at the rate of one-and-half of the wages if they are to work overtime more than eight hours a day including Sunday. It is noted that the durwans belong to essential service and they are to work on every day and they have been salaried accordingly. However, if they are to work more than eight hours a day, they will get overtime wages as mentioned above. The issue is thus decided.

Issue No. 1: The Union's case is that there was a settlement of existing disputes on 24th November 1956 and the company violated the terms of the agreement and after that, in September 1957, they had recourse to illegal lock-out and the fifteen workers mentioned in this issue were refused employment when the lock-out was lifted.

The company's case is that the workers adopted the "go-slow" tactics in work and production and further they committed other acts of indiscipline and in spite of various notices no improvements were seen, rather the position was further deteriorating and the company was compelled to declare lock-out by a notice, dated, 18th September 1957. It is also stated that acts of indiscipline and subversive activities increased on account of launching of illegal and unjustified "hunger strike' by some workers at the factory gate, and when the position was found to be somewhat improving, the company by notice, dated 9th October 1957, lifted the lock-out with effect from 10th October 1957. But the workers did not report to work and staged illegal and unjustified strike and continued the same. Several notices were given asking the workers to resume work and after some days, workers gradually started joining work but the persons mentioned in this issue did not report to work and those who joined the work have been named in the annexure 'A' to the written statement. It is added that the company was always willing and is still willing to employ them and there was no reason and there cannot be any reason for refusing employment to them and they were/are at liberty to come for work and the company is ready to engage them.

In the annexure 'A' to the written statement, the company's case is that Shri Sunil Kumar Sarkar, Shri Nimai Ch. Dutta and Shri Sadhan Koley were apprentices and Shri Chittaranjan Samaddar, Shri Naratham Koley, Shri Purna Ch. Mukherjee, Shri Keshab Ch. Das, Shri Girdhari Lal, Shri Jagabandhu Sadhukhan and Shri Akhil Ch. Kundu were temporary workers, and Shri Lal Pati, Shri Jay Chand and Shri Appa were the employees under the contractor Shri Monmatha Paul, and Shri Bankim Chakraborty was the employee under the contractor, Shri Kalipada Paul.

The company's contention is that there is no relationship of "master and servant" between the company and the last four persons mentioned above. Regarding Shri Bankim Chakraborty, the company's version is that he is working under the contractor Shri Kalipada Paul, and regarding Shri Lal Pati and Shri Jay Chand, the company's allegation is that they did not turn up, and regarding Shri Appa, it is said that he joined but left. So far as Bankim, Jay Chand, Latpati and Appa are concerned, it appear that they were employees of the independent contractors. So, no question would arise to the effect that the company refused to give them employment. When the company is not their master, they cannot make any grievance against the company. None of them has come to say on oath that they were the employees of the company, and the company refused them employment. The company's version that the aforesaid four persons were not their employees is found to be quite correct. They are not, therefore, entitled to get any relief from the company.

Now, I take up the cases of the eleven persons, viz., Shri Sunil Kr. Sarkar, Shri Nimai Ch. Dutta, Shri Sadhan Koley, Shri Chittaranjan Samaddar, Shri Naratham Koley, Shri Purna Ch. Mukherjee, Shri Kartick Karmakar, Shri Keshab Ch. Das, Shri Girdhari Lal, Shri Jagabandhu Sadhukhan and Shri Akhil Ch. Kundu. After perusing the oral and documentary evidence and analysing the same, I find that the trouble arose in September 1957, over workers' demand for Puja bonus in 1957 just before the Puja, and by giving notices some workers had recourse to hunger strike in front of the factory gate. As a result of this there were subversive activities and acts of indiscipline, and also there were ante-management slogans. Thus there was a creation of chaotic stage for which the company had to declare a lock-out on 18th September 1957 and when the position subsequently became good, the company lifted the lock-out on 10th October 1957. It is also seen that the hunger strikers were arrested by the police and were prosecuted for attempt to commit suicide. The trying Magistrate convicted them and acquittal was obtained upon appeal. It does not, however, appear to me that the lock-out was illegal or unjustified in any way. The aforesaid persons were working under the system of "no work, no pay". So, their claim for compensation cannot be sustained. Further, it is seen that the company issued notices asking the workers to join the work after lifting the lock-out. But the aforesaid workers did not join. The services of these notices were effected by sending the copies to t Union and also by affixing copies on the Fact Notice Board, outside the factory gate. 'T Union contended that no notices were individua sent to workers and those who joined got noti individually by post from the company. It w a case where the workers were being represent by the Union and the aforesaid persons were me bers of this Union. Under the circumstances, t company did the best thing by sending copies the notices to the Union. The contention th the company should have sent the noti individually to the workmen concerned throu post asking them to join work must be repell Of the aforesaid workers, only one, viz., Sh Sarkar, P.W. 3, came to say that he did not g any notice from the company after the withdraw of the lock-out. But he admitted that he he of it and went to join work on the very day wh the lock-out was withdrawn. So, it is clear th these workmen had the knowledge regarding t lifting of the lock-out and the company's aski the workmen to join duty. None of the aforesa workers came to say on oath that he had knowledge about the company's withdrawing t lock-out. Under the circumstances, the conte tion that the workers had no knowledge of t company's lifting the lock-out cannot be giv any value. It is the definite case of the compa that the aforesaid workers did not come to jo the work after the withdrawing of the lock-ou This is found to be correct. As mention already, only Sunil Sarkar, P.W. 3, said that was not allowed to work. Others did not come say anything of this kind. It is very difficult act upon the statement of Shri Sarkar, P.W. The company has expressed its willingness take up the workers even now. It cannot thought that previously the company refus employment to any of the workers. The corre position is that none of the aforesaid persons we to work after the withdrawing of the lock ou The contention that the company refused emplo ment to the aforesaid workers is not found to b correct. When the aforesaid workers did n turn up to work and when they work under th system of "no work, no pay", the question granting any kind of compensation to them do not arise. It is directed that the aforesaid perso are at liberty to join the company's services (they would so like) within fifteen days from th publication of the award. The issue is thu decided.

Issues Nos. 2 and 4: These two issues are take together. The Union's demand is that all exist ing scales should be enhanced by 25 per cent and dearness allowance should be increased in th same proportion.

The company's case is that it is a very smal one and its financial condition is precarious and it is not at all stable. Further it is stated th the company has been paying wages as per th award of the Third Industrial Tribunal, publishe under Government order, dated 11th Februar 1956. In the said award, the Tribunal discusse the claim of the Union in respect of the issue "Grades and scales of pay" in details and rejecte the claim of the Union, and after the said awar the company introduced production bonus schem by which the workers have been getting a decen amount over and above the wages which they were getting by virtue of the award and under the established principle the workers are not entitled to any incremental scale in case of existence of production bonus scheme inasmuch as efficiency is reflected on the said scheme and the emoluments of the workers are increased thereby.

Regarding dearness allowance, the company's contention is that this issue was also adjudicated upon by the Third Industrial Tribunal and the award thereof is still binding, and the company's financial position is bad and it is unable to increase dearness allowance in any manner.

It is seen that in the case of previous reference the Union made some demands regarding the grades and scales of pay and also asked for incremental scales of pay. The learned Tribunal after considering the financial position of the company rejected the Union's claim for revision of grades and scales of pay. In holding so, the learned Tribunal referred to the balance-sheets of the company for the period from 1950 to 1954 and found that the company had earned no profit and sustained losses. Of course, it is seen that in 1956 the company made a profit of Rs. 11,000 [vide Ext. B(1)]. The balance-sheets of 1957 and 1958 have not been brought and it is said that they are not as yet ready. Under the circumstances it is very difficult to ascertain that the company earned higher profits in the years 1957 and 1958. Now, the Union's demand is that pay should be increased by 25 per cent. If this is to be allowed, then the company will have to spend more than Rs. 11,000 per year. When the company had sustained losses year after year from 1952 to 1954, a year's profit (by which I would refer to the profit of the year 1956) will not go to establish the financial stability of the company. Further, it is seen that under production bonus scheme which is running in the company, a worker is entitled to get more wages. The learned representative for the Union has argued that the workers should be paid in accordance with the award of the Third Major Engineering Tribunal, but it is seen that the aforesaid award will be applicable to the company having at least 250 workers. The present company has not that number of employees. So, the Union's contention cannot be accepted.

Regarding the grades as claimed, the Union has given no materials whatsoever. It is the nature of the job that matter most in fixing the grades and this question can only be solved with the aid of expert. But the Union did not make any attempt in this respect. Under the circumstances, I am unable to interfere with the existing grades. Regarding the increase in the basic wages, I would say that this can be awarded only when both financial ability and stability exist. No definite materials are forthcoming to prove the same. So, the claim for revision of scales of pay cannot be maintained.

Now, I take up the case of dearness allowance. It appears that since 1954 there has been a rise in the cost of Living Index. Considering the same, I increase the dearness allowance by Rs. 5 for each worker, and in deciding so, I note that the company has got the financial capacity to bear the same. The increment of the dearness allowance by Rs. 5 as allowed will take effect from 1st December 1959. These two issues are thus decided.

Issue No. 9: The following is the charge-sheet against Shri Jyotirmay Mukherjee:

To Shri Jyotirmay Mukherjee.

Dated 18-9-1957.

Charge-Sheet

You are charged for having committed the following misconducts:—

1. Since 13th September 1957 you have been instigating, inciting and/or urging the workers to adopt slow-down tactics and to continue the same and you are responsible for adopting and participating in the slow-down tactics by the workers in the factory.

2. Since 13th September 1957 you have been adopting and continuing the slow-down tactics in production and thereby giving much less production than the production you had been giving up to 12th September 1957.

3. Since 13th September 1957 you have been acting in a manner of insubordination and disobedience in not carrying out the orders and instructions of the superiors to maintain discipline and/or to give production as was given by you previously up to 12th September 1957.

4. Since 16th September 1957 you have been doing acts subversive of discipline by making anti-management slogans in the factory premises and/or in front of the gate by using mike.

5. You instigated, incited and/or misguided some workers to go on hunger-strike near the factory gate since 16th September 1957 and the said hunger-strike is going on (five workers are on hunger-strike) at your incitement and/or instigation, amounting to act subversive of discipline.

6. Your attendance records show that you are very irregular in your attendance in that in 1956 you absented from work for 38 days and in 1957 you absented for 23 days and also last in attendance on many days.

You are therefore asked to show cause in writing within 2 days from the receipt of this charge-sheet why you should not be dismissed for the aforesaid charges of misconduct.

D. C. Bhattacherjee,
Works Manager.

The company found him guilty in respect of the above charges levelled against him. The contention of the Union is that Jyotirmay Mukherjee is the Secretary of the Workers' Union since its inception, and he has been victimised for his Union activities, and the company had recourse to unfair labour practice to have his service dispensed with.

The copy of the charge-sheet against Shri Subal Chandra Guha and Shri Dhirendra Nath Ghosh is given below:

To Shri Subal Chandra Guha and Shri Dhirendra Nath Ghosh.

D. C. Bhattacherjee,
Works Manager.

The company found them guilty in respect of the charges framed against them and dismissed them. The Union's contention is that Shri Ghosh is an active member of the Executive Committee of the Union and Shri Guha is the Joint Secretary of the Workers' Union and they have been victimised for their union-activities, and the company had recourse to unfair labour practice to dismiss them.

On a perusal of Exts. 11, 12 and 13, it will be seen there was an enquiry against the aforesaid three workers by the management, and in course of the enquiry witnesses were examined, and the workers prosecuted were also examined. The proceedings of the enquiry containing the statement of the witnesses examined are not, however, forthcoming, and for the same the Union has contended that the dismissal cannot be accepted by this Tribunal. Although the punishment is within the jurisdiction of the management, the Tribunal is to see if there are any materials to justify the action taken by the management. It is seen that the Managing Director passed the order of dismissal after enquiry and investigation into the charges and also from his personal knowledge. He did not keep notes of what he found personally as against the workers in question. In absence of the statements of the witnesses examined during the enquiry proceedings and in absence of what was found by the Managing Director personally against the workers prosecuted, it is difficult for me to accept the findings arrived at by the punishing authority. O.P.W. 1 has said in his evidence that in September 1957, the workers (Bankim, Dhiren and Subal) had recourse to "slow-down" tactics, and asked the other workers to stop the production bonus scheme unless the bonus matters were settled. He has added that he asked all the workers to go on work but Jatin, Subal and Dhiren asked the other workers not to work, and the matter was informed to the Works Manager and the Director, who came and inspected the work and saw the "slow-down" tactics amongst the workers and further saw Jatin, Subal and Dhiren to incite the other workers for not doing work. They also used loud-speaker. O.P.W. 2 has said that Jyotirmoy excited the workers for not to go on work but to hunger strike, and the workers went away giving slogan both inside and outside the factory and there was a total stoppage of work. In the cross-examination he has stated that no witnesses were brought before the enquiry and no one was examined at the time of enquiry. But from the Exts. 11, 12 and 13 it will appear that the workers prosecuted were examined and also some witnesses including the Works Manager and others were examined on the side of the management. But the aforesaid witness has said that no witnesses were examined. This discrepency cannot be reconciled.

The evidence of O.P.W. 1 and O.P.W. 2 cannot be readily taken into belief as they are highly interested persons. O.P.W. 2 is the Director-in-charge of the company, and O.P.W. 1 is the Machine Shop-in-charge of the company. When in Exts. 11, 12 and 13 it is stated that witnesses were examined and the workers were also examined, it is obvious that what they stated, must have been recorded, and non-production of the same tells heavily against the company. I do not find any good materials or any satisfactory evidence of reliable character to substantiate the finding of the punishing authority. The learned Lawyer for the company drew my attention to the chart prepared by him regarding incentive wages earned by the workers. It is contended that this very chart will prove that the workers prosecuted deliberately adopted the "go-slow" tactics regarding the incentive scheme. It is said that upon an agreement with the employees on 24th November 1956, the incentive scheme was introduced by the company. The relevant clause of this agreement relating to the incentive scheme is given below:

"The Union on behalf of the workers agree to the offer of ex-gratia payment equivalent to one month's basic salary and in the interest of the company, the Union agrees for and on behalf of the workers to the following terms:—

(i) They will forthwith start to work on the incentive scheme, to give increased production in the interest of the company. The rates for different items of work will be fixed on the basis as followed previously, subject to modification from time to time according to changed methods of operation, fixtures, etc.

(ii) Refusal to work overtime or on incentive scheme under normal conditions, will be considered as offence."

The agreement was signed by Shri Jyotirmoy Mukherjee as the Union's representative on 24th November 1956. It was also signed by the company's representative on that very day.

On behalf of the Union it was argued that the incentive scheme was not agreed upon by all the workers and Shri Mukherjee who signed this agreement as the Union's representative was not authorised by any resolution of the Executive Committee of the Union to make any agreement relating to any incentive scheme. The chart produced by the company will show that from January 1957, there was payment of incentive wages to the workers up to sometime in September 1957. Mere payment of incentive wages will not go to conclude that, as a matter of fact, workers accepted the incentive wages plan. I have already mentioned the clause relating to the incentive plan as incorporated in the alleged agreement of 24th November 1956. We do not get there all the details of the plan. There is only a vague recital that the incentive scheme would be started. No definite time was fixed for the same, and the workers were not given any training or advice regarding the same. There was no time study. There was also no time saving device and further there was no job evaluation. Of course, in the evidence it has been said by O.P.W. 1 that there was some time study in their factory by Shri Ganguly who came to fix the piece-rate after the lock-out. This Shri Ganguly was not examined in this case. What is found is that all things necessary for implementing the alleged incentive plan were not taken up by the company. Under the circumstances it is reasonable to conclude to say that the alleged incentive scheme was running in a provisional or experimental basis, and it is why the production were not uniform. This will be clear from the chart prepared by the company and filed in this case. That chart will show that sometimes materials were not supplied on proper time and there was variation in production under the alleged incentive scheme. The Union's contention that the scheme was not acted upon and the company did not insist upon the same cannot be brushed aside. The agreement regarding the incentive scheme, dated 24th November 1956, came into existence after the Act 46 of 1956 [Industrial Disputes (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act of 1956] came into force. Under this Act a new defination was given to the word "settlement" [vide section 2(p) of the Act] and it includes a written agreement between the employer and workmen arrived at otherwise than in the course of conciliation proceeding where such agreement has been signed by the parties thereto in such manner as may be prescribed and a copy thereof has been sent to the appropriate Government and the conciliation officer. Under the rules framed by the Government, it is seen that the settlement shall be in form "J" and shall be signed by the employer himself or by the authorised agent and in the case of workmen, either by the President or Secretary of a trade Union of workmen. This rules came into force on 15th November 1958, i.e., long after the making of the alleged settlement regarding the incentive bonus. Here, the settlement is found to have been signed by Shri Mukherjee, who described himself as the Union representative, and he did not sign it as the Secretary of the Trade Union of the workmen, and there is nothing to show that Shri Mukherjee was authorised by the workers to sign the settlement. Of course, when the settlement was signed by Shri Mukherjee, there were no prescribed rules. But to make the settlement binding upon the workers, it must be proved that Shri Mukherjee was given the authority to sign the settlement on behalf of the workers. It should have been shown that the Executive Committee of the Union actually passed the resolution authorising Shri Mukherjee to sign the settlement on behalf of the workmen. The constitution of the Union was not brought into the evidence. The contention of the Union that the alleged settlement was not binding upon the workers carries some weight. Whatever that may be, I have already mentioned that the scheme was on experimental basis and the details thereon were not known to the workers. Under the circumstances, the absence of extra work beyond the standard performance of each day cannot be made the subject matter of penalty. Of course, in the explanation submitted by the workers, it was stated that the extra work was stopped simply because the company did not pay back the huge money which was deducted in the name of Provident Fund and invested in a way unknown to all workmen. It is also stated that this matter was brought to the notice of the management many times and the company did not enlighten the Union in this respect. The fact is that in the balance-sheet nothing was mentioned about the Provident Fund money deducted from the wages of the workers. The other fact is that the Union was not enlightened about the whereabouts of the Provident Fund money of the employees. But the Union tried to know what the company actually did with the Provident Fund money of the workmen for a long time. The Company kept silent in this respect. This created an idea on the mind of the workmen that the company has not kept the Provident Fund money in a secured way and the company, on the other hand, is making profit out of it by investing the Provident money in money lending transaction or otherwise. So, it was thought that the best way would be to stop the extra work. The question is whether this stoppage was a deliberate one or not. I find that this stoppage was not deliberate as it was provoked by the company's attitude for not disclosing to the Union for whereabouts of the Provident Fund money of the employees. Further, the incentive plan was only on provisional basis and it was not acted upon fully. So it did not become a term of the employment. In the explanation the workers stated that the company was getting extra work on payment of some extra wages which was unjust. That goes to show that there was no job evaluation and I have already mentioned to the fact that the company engaged one Shri Ganguly for job evaluation for some days after the lock-out. It is not known why this job evaluation was not made shortly after the starting of the scheme. If the job evaluation was made in proper time then the workers would not have any opportunity to say that wages for extra work had been unjust. There was breach of duty on the part of employers. This is also one of the reasons for which workers ceased to work upon the alleged incentive plan. When it is seen that the company did not do all things necessary for this scheme, any disciplinary action for violating the scheme which is found to be incomplete cannot be called for. The earning of a worker upon the incentive bonus is nothing but an additional emolument. The management can insist upon a production when an incentive scheme is properly drawn up and duly applied and agreed upon by the workers. In the present case, this is found wanting. I accordingly conclude that the dismissal of the three aforesaid workers for not acting upon the alleged incentive plan cannot be maintained. The other charges against them were not substantiated by any satisfactory evidence. It is held that the dismissal of the three workmen cannot be maintained, and they should be reinstated.

In the special circumstances discussed above, I would say that neither the employers nor the employees are free from blame. Of the three dismissed workers only Shri Mukherjee deposed in the case. He did not state that he was idle after the discharge. The other two dismissed workers did not come to say anything on oath. That the dismissed workers had actually suffered for not having employment elsewhere cannot be taken into belief in absence of evidence. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case as discussed above, I am of opinion that it is not a case where back wages or any compensation can be given to the three workers in question. It is directed that the three workers (Sarvasree Jyotirmoy Mukherjee, Dhiren Ghosh and Subal Guha) are entitled to join in the services of the company, and they will join in the service within a fortnight from the publication of the award, and the period of absence will be treated as special leave without pay. If they do not join within the said period, they will forfeit their right to reinstatement.

W. BASU MAZOOMDER,

The Management of the Company and the office bearers of the Union are to be congratulated for being able to settle the disputes amicably which is more conducive to industrial peace and for the welfare of both capital and labour than if the matter had been contested and dragged on.

versus

Messrs. Shiva Durga Iron Works Private Ltd., 156/1 Madhusudan Pal Choudhury Lane, Howrah, Opposite Party.

For the Petitioner: Shri M. M. Saha, Advocate and Shri Anadi Das, President of the Union.

For the Opposite Party: Shri S. R. Bhanja Chowdhury, LL.B., Labour Adviser, Howrah Manufacturers' Association.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The applicant is one Shri Jaharlal Karati, a moulder employed under Messrs. Shiva Durga Iron Works Private Ltd., the opposite party. He was dismissed by the opposite party from services on 21st June 1958 upon enquiry into 3 distinct charges, dated 27th February 1958, 23rd April 1958 and 20th May 1958 (Exts. C, C3 and G respectively) against him for several acts of misconduct, during pendency of an industrial dispute between the opposite party and its workmen as referred to this Tribunal by the Government under order No. 767-I.R./IR/10L-16/58, dated 28th February 1958 in which award was passed by this Tribunal on 13th February 1959.

The applicant's case is that he was dismissed by the opposite party in violation of the mandatory provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act and as such the applicant has the right to come under section 33A of the said Act. On merits the case of the applicant is that he has been wrongfully and illegally dismissed by the opposite party on account of his trade union activities and that the charges levelled against him were groundless and there was no due enquiry into the alleged charges against him.

The opposite party resists this application both on the grounds of its maintainability as well as on merits. The opposite party contends that the present application under section 33A is not maintainable on three grounds—the first ground is that the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act are attracted only in cases where a workman is dismissed for any misconduct not connected with the pending dispute in accordance with the standing orders. It is, therefore, argued on behalf of the opposite party that as the opposite party has no standing orders regulating the conditions of service of its workmen there could not be any violation of provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act which apply only to cases where dismissal for misconduct takes place according to the standing orders of the company. It is true that there have been different views expressed on this point by different Industrial Tribunals and there is no decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court on this point as yet. But from the wordings of the section 33(2)(b) itself it clearly follows that the proviso to section 33(2)(b) is to be complied with by the company only in cases where dismissal for misconduct takes place in accordance with the standing orders. Therefore, in my opinion, in the instant case there having been no standing orders of the company, the opposite party was not required to fulfil the conditions laid down in proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act when it dismissed the present applicant for misconduct. I accordingly hold that there has been no violation of the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act by the opposite party because the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Act does not apply in the present case. As such the present application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable.

The second ground urged by the opposite party is that the relief which the Tribunal can grant to an applicant under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is an equitable relief and the applicant who claims this relief must be diligent and come before the Tribunal with his application in time and that any delay on his part will defeat equity in his favour. In the present case the dismissal admittedly took place on 21st June 1958 and the applicant came with his application under section 33A of the Act on 17th June 1959, i.e., about a year after the alleged dismissal. But I do not think that this delay is inordinate and it will defeat equity in favour of the applicant. So this ground taken by the opposite party regarding maintainability of the present application under section 33A is negatived.

The third ground taken by the opposite party is that the present application is not maintainable in view of an overall agreement between the opposite party and its workmen regarding settlement of disputes. The agreement is dated 19th August 1959. There is a stipulation in the said agreement in paragraph (jha) that all individual disputes between the company and individual workman pending before the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court at the time of the said agreement would be deemed to have been settled. The applicant Shri Jaharlal Karati (P.W. 1) denies that he was a party to this agreement or that he authorised the union to settle the dispute between him and the opposite party regarding his dismissal in question. It is admitted by the opposite party's own witness Shri Sunil Kumar Roy, the office General Assistant, that by the agreement (Ext. J) the dismissed workers have not been benefited. Unless the workman concerned authorises the union to take up his cause and an application is properly filed before the Tribunal for withdrawal or non-prosecution of the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act it cannot be found that the present dispute between Shri Jaharlal Karati and the opposite party which is not specifically mentioned in Ext. J has been settled in fact or in law by this agreement (Ext. J). From this agreement it is clearly found that there was no consideration for settlement of the present dispute between the opposite party and the present applicant. As such I find that this agreement does not bar the present application under section 33A by the applicant Shri Jaharlal Karati being proceeded with before this Tribunal. So that ground of objection regarding maintainability of the present application is also negatived.

The result, therefore, is that only on the ground that there has been no violation of the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act inasmuch as the dismissal of the workman concerned for misconduct was not in accordance with any standing orders, the present application is not maintainable under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Although I find that the present application under section 33A by the applicant Shri Jaharlal Karati is not maintainable I proceed to deal with the facts of the case on merits as both parties ha led evidence. The only question for decision this case would be whether the dismissal of Sh Jaharlal Karati by the opposite party has be wrongful and mala fide or if there has been a violation of principles of natural justice whether the dismissal in question is baseless perverse. It is now well-settled that the manag ment of the concern has the power to direct own internal administration and discipline. Y this power is not unlimited and when a dispu arises the Industrial Tribunal has been given t power to see where the termination of services a workman is justified and to give appropria relief. In the present case applicant Shri Jahar Karati was dismissed on 21st June 1958 by t opposite party by the letter of dismissal, dat 20th June 1958 (Ext. I) after enquiry into thr distinct charges brought against him, namel charges, dated 27th February 1958 (Ext. C 23rd April 1958 (Ext. C/3), and 20th May 19 (Ext. G). These charge-sheets relate to differe acts of misconduct alleged by the opposite par against the present applicant. In the first charg sheet (Ext. C) the allegation against the applica was that on 26th February 1958 the applica incited the workmen to stop work for two hou and created disturbance within the factor He was asked to show cause and the applica showed cause on 1st March 1958 (Ext. C2) which he admitted that the work of the facto was suspended for two hours but he denied t allegation that he did incite any of the worke Over this charge-sheet, the evidence shows, the was an ex parte enquiry. The workman Sh Jaharlal Karati (P.W. 1) says that he did n attend the enquiry which was held on 6th Mar 1958 according to the opposite party as that w a holiday. But it is not clearly proved that 6 March 1958 was a holiday. Exhibit C/1 is t notice which was signed by Shri Jaharlal Kar to the effect that the enquiry would be held 6th March 1958. In his evidence Shri Jahar Karati wants to say that no enquiry was held the charge-sheet (Ext. C) but he admits that h wages for 2 hours' work were deducted by t company for stoppage of work. The proceedin of the enquiry regarding charge-sheet, dated 2 February 1958, have not been produced befo this Tribunal. Be that as it may, it is an admi ted fact that after the ex parte enquiry into t charge-sheet (Ext. C) no disciplinary action w taken against the applicant who was allowed work. Therefore, so far as the charge-she (Ext. C) is concerned, this much is clear th there was stoppage of work for two hours by t workers on 27th February 1958 and there w some hand of the applicant in the matter whi resulted in deduction of his wages for two hour

Then I come to the next charge-sheet, dat 23rd April 1958 (Ext. C/3). To this the appl cant replied and his reply is Ext. 3(c), dated 23 April 1958. In the said charge-sheet the alleg tions were that he threatened some of the worke with assault. In the reply [Ext. 3(c)] the appl cant Shri Jaharlal Karati denied the allegatio totally. But in a subsequent statement (Ext. I which bears the signature of Shri Jaharlal Karat the applicant admitted the guilt. But now he sa that this statement was taken from him und threat and coercion by the opposite party. But this fact is denied by O.P.W. 1 Shri Sunil Kumar Roy. His definite evidence is that it is not a fact that the opposite party got this confessional statement (Ext. D) by coercion or undue influence. It cannot be believed that the applicant was an active member rather a leader of the workers' union and who signed two agreements with the company including the agreement (Ext. 2) on behalf of the union, would consent to make a statement against his will under coercion or compulsion by the company. It is, of course, true that before the formation of the union there was no charge-sheet given to the workers by the company. The applicant's contention is that he was charged with false allegations simply because of his trade union activities. This is stoutly denied by the opposite party. The management held an enquiry into the charge-sheet, dated 23rd April 1958 (Ext. C3) on 5th June 1958, of which the enquiry proceedings are Ext. H. The applicant admits that he was given the copy of the enquiry proceedings and that the enquiry (Ext. H) was held in presence of several persons, namely, Jagatbandhu Mukherji, Chandicharan Nandy, Sunil Kumar Roy, Robiram Dhara, Tarapada Karar and others. Their names also find place in the enquiry proceedings (Ext. H) and these persons were examined.

Now regarding the enquiry proceedings the applicant's grievance is that he was not allowed to cross-examine the opposite party's witnesses or to adduce evidence on his behalf nor were the enquiry proceedings read out and explained to him. But the evidence of Shri Sunil Kumar Roy who was one of the witnesses to the enquiry, is that the proceedings were drawn up after interrogating the applicant, that his answers were correctly recorded and that the proceedings were read out to the applicant who took a copy of the proceedings and that the signature of the applicant on the enquiry proceedings (Ext. H) was not taken by compulsion or under coercion. From the enquiry proceedings it was clear that Shri Jaharlal Karati was examined and he was asked a few question, to which he gave specific replies which were recorded and that the applicant signed the enquiry proceedings after the proceedings had been read out to him and he had admitted the correctness of the proceedings. The applicant was a prominent member of the union and it cannot be expected of him that he would sign the enquiry proceedings without being satisfied as to the correctness of the recording of the proceedings. In the circumstances I give more credit to the witness O.P.W. 1 than to the applicant himself who is an interested person. From these enquiry proceedings it is evident that the applicant admitted the allegations made against him in the charge-sheet (Ext. C/3), dated 23rd April 1958.

Next I come to the last charge-sheet, dated 20th May 1958 (Ext. G), to which the applicant gave reply [Ext. 3(d)], dated 21st May 1958. The main allegation against the applicant in this charge-sheet was that on 20th May 1958 at about 4-45 p.m. the applicant was found gossiping with one Monmotha Karati and when the Manager asked the reason for it he entered into the altercation with the Manager and ultimately behaved improperly towards the Manager and abused him. In his reply [Ext. 3(d)] the applicant admitted that he was gossiping with Monmotha Karati but he denied that he behaved improperly with the Manager or that he abused or threatened the Manager. The enquiry was held into this charge-sheet on 5th June 1958 and it was written by O.P.W. 1 Shri Sunil Kumar Roy. From the evidence on record I am convinced that the enquiry proceedings (Ext. H/1) were made correctly and these were properly read out and explained to the applicant who signed it after admitting its correctness and taking a copy of the same. From that proceedings it is clear that the applicant admitted during the proceedings that he lost his temper and made objectionable remarks regarding the Manager who was holding the preliminary enquiry into the incident of 20th May 1958. The applicant P.W. 1 admits that he received the copy of the proceedings (Ext. H1), but his case is that enquiry was not properly held against him and that he was not given any chance of examining his witnesses. As against this my reply is the same as in regard to the charge-sheet (Ext. C/3), namely, that it is not expected of a prominent member of the union who acted for the union in two agreements with the company that he would shut his eyes to the enquiry proceedings and merely signed his name without being satisfied as to the correctness of the proceedings.

To sum up I find that the enquiry was properly held into each of the three charge-sheets (Exts. C, C/3 and G) regarding the allegations of misconduct of the applicant after giving due opportunity to the applicant to defend himself and that the proceedings were correctly recorded in presence of the applicant who signed the same after admitting the correctness of the proceedings. So there was no violation of the principles of natural justice so far as these three enquiries are concerned. There was no mala fides or want of good faith on the part of the management because it had given more than one chance to the applicant to improve his conduct and to mend his ways. Management is responsible for maintaining discipline within for harmonious relation between the employer and the employees and for smooth working of business and as it is now judicially recognised, it has the power to direct its internal administration and discipline. In the instant case this power was exercised not capriciously but with due respect to the principles of natural justice and bona fides. The charges against the applicant were certainly the charges of indiscipline which is a misconduct and for the series of acts of misconduct the management was ultimately compelled to dispense with the services of the workman concerned Therefore, the judgment or the conclusion arrived at by the management after due enquiry into the charges which were more or less admitted by the applicant himself was not perverse nor baseless. In the circumstances, I find that the dismissal of the workman Shri Jaharlal Karati was justified by the facts of the case and that his dismissal was not wrongful or in violation of the principles of natural justice. As such the applicant fails to succeed.

The result, therefore, is that the application of Shri Jaharlal Karati under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act fails on two grounds, namely, first, on the ground that it is not maintainable as there has been no violation of provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act in this case and secondly, on merits, namely, that his dismissal for misconduct was justified by facts and circumstances of the case. The application under section 33A is accordingly rejected.

This is my award.

AWARD

By order No. 5636-I.R./IR/10L-155/58, dated the 30th December 1958, a dispute between Messrs. India Malleable Castings Ltd., Belghoria, 24 Parganas (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen, represented by India Malleable Castings Labour Union, Belghoria, 24 Parganas (hereinafter referred to as the Union) has been referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by Government.

The only issue is regarding bonus for 1956-57.

The Union claimed bonus equivalent to three months' basic wage. Then there was a settlement at the intervention of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, whereby the Company agreed to pay one month's basic pay as advance against the claim for bonus for 1956-57 and it was also agreed by both the parties that the issue of bonus of 1956-57 would be referred for adjudication.

The contention of the Union is that the payment of bonus is a condition of service in the Company. This contention, however, has been given up at the time of the hearing of the case.

The next contention of the Union is that the available surplus that would be found out on a scrutiny of the balance-sheet of the Company for the year 1956-57 would justify the granting of bonus equivalent to three months' basic wage, specially as the workmen do not get proper living wages.

The contention of the Company on this point is that there is no available surplus to allow payment of bonus equivalent to three months' basic wage.

Thus, the first point to be determined is the amount of the available surplus which is to be done in the light of the Full Bench Formula. For this purpose both parties rely on the audited balance-sheet of the Company. At the time of hearing the Union has wanted to give evidence that a sum of Rs. 25,000 on account of income from weighbridge has not been included in the balance-sheet. The evidence on this point has been disallowed as the Union did not raise before the date of hearing a specific plea on this score nor did state on solemn affirmation that any such sum has been left out of the balance-sheet. This is like springing a surprise on the Company at the time of hearing and so, evidence on this point has been disallowed. The figures in the balance-sheet will be expressed approximately in lacs and decimals of a lac. The balance-sheet shows a net profit of about nearly .47 lacs. In view of the latest statement of account filed by the Company on 14th November 1959 and the only statement by the Union filed on the same day, it appears to be common ground that to this is to be added back .84 lacs on account of depreciation; .16 lacs on account of special bonus paid for a previous year; .10 lacs on account of reserve for doubtful debts and also a sum of Rs. 1,547 which has been debited in the balance-sheet on account of charities and contributions. The last-mentioned sum has been agreed by the Company to be added back evidently because charity begins at home and, there, the own workmen of the Company are in need of charity not very much less than other people outside. Thus, according to the statement of account filed by the Company, the notional gross profit is approximately Rs. 1.59 lacs. To this the Union wants to add back a sum of Rs. 2,412 debited in the balance-sheet on account the Managing Agent's commission on profits. is contended on behalf of the Company that the anaging Agents are entitled to commission to a rtain percentage according to the provision of e Indian Companies Act and the amount charged ill not be found excessive according to such per- ntage. That is true. So, this sum of Rs. 2,412 ill not be added back to the notional gross pro- s as has been demanded by the Union.

Thus, the notional gross profit is found to be s. 1.59 lacs approximately. From this is to be ducted first the amount on account of normal preciation.

As regards depreciation, the Company wants a duction of about Rs. 84 lac. while the Union's aim is that this amount is excessive and the rmal statutory depreciation according to the ritten down value of the assets in the balance- eet of the Company would come up to Rs. .74 c approximately. The Union's contentions and e calculation given in the statement filed by the nion are accepted as correct. So, .74 lac pproximately is to be deducted on account of epreciation. Next, a sum of about Rs. .25 lac to be deducted for income-tax at annas 7 as per pee.

The next item is return on paid-up capital. Both arties agree that it should be at the rate of 6 per nt. But there is a difference regarding the mount of subscribed capital as shown in the alance-sheet which is Rs. 5.39 lacs on account of 7,000 ordinary shares at the rate of Rs. 5 each nd 15,400 deferred shares at the rate of Re. 1 ach. Though in the balance-sheet, it is stated hat all the shares are fully paid, there is a note howing that out of the aforesaid shares 9,375 rdinary shares and 19,750 deferred shares are llotted as fully paid-up pursuant to a contract, ithout payments being received in cash. In view f this the Union contends that a sum of s. 65,625 should be deducted from the alleged mount of subscribed capital (Rs. 5.39 lacs), be- ause, the Company has not received and utilised he cash value of the said shares for which no pay- ent has been made by anybody. This contention f the Union is to be accepted in view of the fact hat from the balance-sheet or from the Profit and oss Account, it does not appear that the Company ctually had got any return for the said unpaid hares allotted as fully paid up without payments n pursuance of an alleged contract. It is not known hat the contract is, but in order to get a dividend or the said shares, it must be shown that by virtue f that contract the Company gets something by ay of return on account of the unpaid shares rom the holders thereof, and that has been taken nto account in the balance-sheet. There is no ndication whatsoever on this score in the balance- heet and therefore the Company cannot claim hat any amount should be deducted from its gross rofits on account of dividend for those shares. hus, the actual amount of subscribed paid up apital is held to be 4.73 lacs approximately and 6 per cent. return on the same amounts to Rs. .28 ac approximately.

The Company also wants to deduct a sum of s. 1,241 on account of interest on advance pay- ent of income-tax. This cannot be allowed as no such specific amount is to be found in the balance-sheet. Also, the Company wants to deduct Rs. 798 on account of shares transfer fee. The Union's case is that this is also a profit arising during the year from the business, but the share transfer fees cannot be regarded as a trading profit and should be left out of consideration in determining the available surplus. So, a sum of approximately Rs. .01 lac is to be deducted from the notional gross profit as found above. Thus, the findings can be tabulated as follows:—

		Lacs. Rs.
Net profit (approximately)	...	.47
Add depreciation (approximately)	...	.84
Special bonus (approximately)	...	.16
Charity and contribution (approximately)	...	.02
Doubtful debts (approximately)	...	.10

Deduct:

		Lacs. Rs.
Depreciation (approximately)	...	.74
Return on paid-up capital (approximately)	...	.23
Income-tax at annas 7 per rupee (approximately)	...	.25
Shares transfer fee (approximately)	...	.01
Total	...	1.28
Less (approximately)	...	1.28
Available surplus (approximately)	...	.31

The Union contends that to this amount should be added a rebate on income-tax notionally on three months' bonus as claimed by it. This is to be done in view of the principle laid down by their Lordships of the Supreme Court in the case of A. C. C. and others versus their workmen (1959 I, LLJ., page 644, at page 649). This rebate in the instant case comes up to Rs. .20 lac approximately. Thus, the total available surplus becomes Rs. .51 lac approximately.

Now, it is common ground that the Company has to pay nearly Rs. .15 lac by way of basic wage per month to the workmen. The Union demands bonus equivalent to three months' basic wage in view of the amount of available surplus as found above. But in consideration of the fact that in this amount is included a notional rebate of income-tax on account of the amount of bonus claimed and that the Company has a subscribed paid-up capital of approximately Rs. 5 lacs, the entire amount found as available surplus cannot be disbursed by way of bonus to the workmen. It is held that it will be according to social justice if the workmen are awarded a bonus equivalent to two months' basic wage. More it is to be noted that the Company has not pressed or proved any deduction from the available surplus on account of rehabilitation.

It is therefore awarded that the Company do pay to its workmen a bonus equivalent to two months' basic wage for the year 1956-57. Any sum paid in advance as bonus for the year 1956-57 will be deducted from the sum awarded. In paragraph 13 of the written statement the Union has claimed bonus also for the workmen of some other Companies, said to be subsidiary to the Company named in the order of reference. This claim is rejected as not covered by the said order, nor pressed.

This is the award of this Tribunal.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Empire Bone Mills (Managing Agents Messrs. B. N. Elias & Co. Private Ltd.), Norton Buildings, 1 and 2 Old Court House Corner, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by B. N. Elias & Co., Ltd. Employees' Union, 19 Ramdhone Mitra Lane, Calcutta-4. BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. K. SARKAR, Judge Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri P. P. Ginwala, Counsel.

Present for the Union: Shri H. L. Roy, Advocate.

By Government order No. 206-I.R./IR/11L-54/58, dated the 19th January 1959, the above dispute was referred under section 10 of t Industrial Disputes Act to the Fourth Industr Tribunal for adjudication. Subsequently, Government order No. 3516-I.R./IR/11L-54/ dated the 28th July 1959, the dispute was wi drawn from the said Tribunal and transferred the present Tribunal under section 33B of t Industrial Disputes Act for the purpose of spee disposal. The dispute relates to only one iss viz., "Whether the retrenchment of Kailash N Sood is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

According to the written statement of the Uni Kailah Nath Sood was appointed as a clerk in t Company on 20th March 1950. It is also sta that his services were appreciated and that at c time he was given double increments. On 3 July 1957 he was found to be surplus and w retrenched. The Union's case is that his retren ment was not justified and was in contravention section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act a that in his case the principle of "last come, fi go" was not followed. It is further stated t the retrenchment was not bona fide but was outcome of the intention of the Company to cr the Trade Union of the employees in consequen of certain previous disputes.

Messrs. Empire Bone Mills is a proprieto concern of Messrs. B. N. Elias & Co. Priv Limited. Its business is to crush bones collec from different parts of India in its mills situa at Bangsabati for the purpose of manure. Mess B. N. Elias & Co. are also the Managing Age of several other companies. The offices of all th concerns are situated at the same place and employees of the diccrent concerns have the sa terms and conditions of service. There is also system of transfer of employees from one conc to another whenever necessary. The Compan case is that after the partition of India the sup of raw bones for crushing declined as no sup was available from Pakistan, and that gradu supplies from several States of India also decli with the result that the mills had to be clo from time to time for shortage of supplies. S closure became more and more frequent and work of the mills became more and more int mittent from 1953 and ultimately in January 1 the position became so bad that on the 1 January the Company was compelled to retre its workmen and clerks. Since then the Comp has been working the said mills only at inter with casual labour when sufficient stock of bones for carrying on the mills can be accumula The Company denies the allegation that retrenchment of Kailash Nath Sood was mala or that it was a measure of victimisation crushing trade union activities. It is stated t Sood was appointed as a Munshi and his duty to translate documents from English into U and vice versa as the Company had to deal w Urdu-knowing suppliers and that when he retrenched he was the juniormost among Munshis in the employment of the Compa Finally it is stated that he could not be transfe to any other department or concern of Company because there was no room for a Mun anywhere.

Shri Sood has admitted that he was in charge of translation work from Urdu into English and vice versa, though he has stated that in addition he had to look after litigations and do routine work of a clerk. His letter of appointment, Ext. 1, however, shows that he was appointed as a "Munshi" which term was translated as "clerk" in English. I therefore accept the Company's case that Shri Sood was appointed as Munshi with the duty of doing translation work. He might have done this or that occasionally but that is immaterial for our purpose. He has further admitted that there were three Munshis in the office and that he was the juniormost among them. There was only one person junior to him in the whole office and that person did other duties, namely, looked after the business of the Company with the Railways.

That the mills had to close down several times from 1953 onwards is clear from the Annexure A to the Company's written statement and Shri Sood has also admitted such closure three or four times a year during 1956 and 1957. He suggested, however, that these closures were due to the fact that the Company wanted better prices or to the fact that bookings on Railways were delayed. He did not admit that the Company had to close the mills for dwindling suplies raw bones. The fact, however, is proved by the statement filed by the Company (Ext. D) of the arrival of raw bones in the factory during the years 1956 to 1958. In 1956 the total was 18,761 tons. It dwindled down to 13,534 tons in 1957 and to 7,033 tons in 1958. It is also clear from the certificates obtained from the auditors of the Company for the years 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1958 that every year the Company sustained heavy losses amounting to Rs. 1,76,418, Rs. 5,04,050, Rs. 3,69,002 and Rs. 3,94,141 respectively (Ext. B series). The export figures (Ext. A series) show a similar state of things, viz., decline in the export of mill products.

None of these figures has been challenged. So the position is clear that the Company could not keep the mills functioning for want of raw materials and was suffering heavy losses in its business. The closure from time to time is also admitted as stated above. In these circumstances the Company commenced retrenchment in 1957 and ultimately retrenched all the employees in January 1958. The letter of retrenchment issued to Kailash Nath Sood on 21st July 1957 (Ext. 2) mentions that due to "continued bad trading conditions" his services had to be terminated. The bad trading conditions have been fully proved. There is nothing to show that the Company's action was not bona fide. The only statement in the evidence of Kailash Nath Sood is that he was disliked by the Company's present Manager because he was a member of B. N. Elias Employees' Union and that he was retrenched for that reason. It is not stated that he was an office-bearer or an active member of the Union or that he alone among the employees of the Empire Bone Mills was a member of the Union. In the circumstances it is not possible to believe that his membership of the Union was the cause of his retrenchment. In the written statement various disputes between B. N. Elias & Co. Ltd., and their workmen of certain other departments have been referred to and it has been suggested that the Company was very anxious to crush the Union activities. No evidence was, however, led on the point. Merely because there had been such industrial disputes it cannot be presumed that the Company wanted to retrench Kailash Nath Sood in order to crush the activities of the Union. I hold accordingly that the retrenchment was bona fide and that it was justified by the trading position of the Company as mentioned above.

As already stated, among the Munshis Kailash Nath Sood was the juniormost and, therefore, the principle of "last come, first go" embodied in section 25G of the Industrial Disputes Act should be taken to have been followed. It has been stated that there was another clerk in the establishment who was junior to Kailash Nath Sood. But that clerk was not a "Munshi". He was in charge of the affairs of the Company in connection with Railways and he was specially suitable for this work because he was a retired Railway employee and knew all the rules and regulations of the Railways. This is not disputed by Kailash Nath Sood. In the circumstances I hold that his retrenchment did not violate the provisions of section 25G of the Act.

It was contended at the time of argument that the provisions of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act were not observed and that no notice in the prescribed manner was served on the appropriate Government as required by clause (c) thereof. But this was a new point raised at the stage of argument, no question having been put to the manager of the Company on the point and no objection having been taken in the written statement. This objection was therefore disallowed.

Kailash Nath Sood was given one month's salary in lieu of notice as well as a sum of Rs. 152.93nP. as salary in lieu of leave due to him and a sum of Rs. 470.75nP. as gratuity (Ext. 2). He, therefore, received all the retrenchment compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act which was payable to him.

A last point was raised that the Company subsequently engaged a Munshi but did not offer the employment of Kailash Nath Sood. But actually the Company did not engage a whole time Munshi. It temporarily engaged one to do casual work for a few days in a month at the end of 1958, as is clear from the evidence of the Manager. In any case, such seasonal appointment in 1958 even if not offered to Kailash Nath would not invalidate his retrenchment which happened on 31st January 1957. The question of transfer to other departments could not also arise in his case because no Munshi was required in other departments and there was no room for him elsewhere. This is clear from the evidence of the Manager which I accept.

I find, therefore, that Kailash Nath Sood is not entitled to any relief and his case should be rejected. I award accordingly.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. India Jute Mills, Serampore, Hooghly, and four of their workmen represented by National Union of Jute Workers, 3 Commercial Buildings, 1st floor, Calcutta-1. (Case No. VIII-61 of 1959.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. R. GHOSH, Judge, third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Nikhil Ranjan Roy, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri Satish Chandra Sen, Advocate of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitor.

By order No. 1256-I.R./IR/7L-48/58, dated the 26th March 1959, the Government of West Bengal in the Labour Department referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. India Jute Mills, Serampore, Hooghly, and four of their workmen represented by National Union of Jute Workers, 3 Commercial Buildings, 1st Floor, Calcutta-1, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

(1) Whether the following workmen are entitled to any sick leave benefit? If so, what benefit are they entitled to?

(i) Shri Ramjatan Das, L. B. No. 5214.

(ii) Shri Jadubir Das, L. B. No. 5191.

(iii) Shri Raj Kumar Das, L. B. No. 5240.

(iv) Shri Piar Chand Das, L. B. No. 4592.

The reference was received by this Tribunal on 4th April 1959 and after due notices had been served upon the parties, the Union, namely National Union of Jute Workers representing the four workmen mentioned in the issue under reference filed its written statement of claim on 13th May 1959 and Messrs. India Jute Mills, Serampore, Hooghly (hereinafter to be described as the Company) filed its written statement on 23rd June 1959. The date of hearing was fixed on 19th November 1959 on which date the hearing commenced and the evidence was recorded in part and the hearing of the case with arguments was concluded on 21st November 1959. The award was reserved.

AWARD

Issue No. 1: The only issue under this reference relates to the claim of sick-leave benefit by four workmen Shri Ramjatan Das, Shri Jadubir Das, Shri Rajkumar Das and Shri Piarchand Das against the Company. The admitted fact is that there was a dispute between 89 specified Jute Mills including the present Company Messrs. India Jute Mills and their workmen referred by the West Bengal Government to an Industrial Tribunal known as Jute Omnibus Tribunal and that the said Tribunal gave an award which included amongst other things a direction for sick-leave to be granted by the Companies to the workmen who were parties to the said dispute. The relevant portion of the said award which relates to provisions for sick-leave is embodied in paragraph 14(6) and issue No. 13 of the award and it runs as follows:—

> "We direct that with regard to the employees of all descriptions, sick-leave on half pay up to 15 days in a year shall be allowed, on the basis of a medical certificate from the Medical Officer of the Mill or from a qualified and registered medical practitioner approved by the Mill Authorities."

It is also admitted that the Company (Messrs. India Jute Mills) implemented the said award with its direction with regard to the sick-leave benefit.

The Union's case is that since the date of operation of the said award the workmen of the present Company are being allowed the sick-leave benefit as provided for in the said award and that in cases where the workmen went on leave to their native villages which are in different States other than the State of West Bengal and fell sick, their medical certificates from local medical practitioners (Allopath, Homeopath and Aurvedic) had always been accepted by the Management and that the Management has not up to this time made any arrangement to prepare any of list of approved medical practitioners outside the State of West Bengal from which the workmen of the present Company hail. (Vide paargraphs 5 and 6 of the Union's written statement.) The Union's specific case with regard to the present dispute is that four of the workmen of the Company, namely, Shri Ramjatan Das, Shri Jadubir Das, Shri Rajkumar Das and Shri Piarchand Das who were all permanent workmen of Messrs. India Jute Mills went on leave and fell sick in their native villages and they asked for sick-leave with medical certificates from qualified medical practitioners of their localities in support of their sickness, that these workmen were allowed extension of leave but were not granted sick-leave benefit according to the First Omnibus Jute Award of 1948.

It is admitted by both the parties that out of the four workmen under order of reference Shri Ramjatan Das went home on leave and applied for sick leave from 9th June 1958 to 5th July 1958 by sending the medical certificate from a local Homeopath Dr. S. R. Sharma, M.D., Homeopath, dated 4th June 1958 (Ext. D), that Shri Jadubir Das went home on leave and applied for sick leave from 30th June 1958 to 26th July 1958 by sending a medical certificate from the said Homeoptah, dated 24th June 1958 (Ext. A), that Shri Rajkumar Das, another workman, went home on leave and applied for sick leave from 16th June 1958 to 5th July 1958 by sending a medical certificate from the same Homeopath Dr. S. R. Sharma, dated 13th June 1958 (Ext. B) and that Shri Piarchand Das went home on leave and applied for sick-leave from 16th June 1958 to 9th August 1958 and sent a medical certificate from the said Homeopath Dr. S. R. Sharma, dated 13th June 1958 (Ext. C/1). The documents filed by the Company Exts. A, B, C/1, D and G as also the evidence of D. W. 1 Shri Prafulla Kumar Banerji, Senior Labour Officer of the Company, go to show that Shri Ramjatan was allowed extension of leave without pay from 9th June 1958 to 5th July 1958 (4 weeks), Shri Jadubir was allowed extension of leave without pay from 30th June 1958 to 26th July 1958, Shri Rajkumar was allowed extension of leave without pay from 16th June 1958 to 5th July 1958 (3 weeks) and Shri Piarchand Das was allowed extension of leave without pay from 16th June 1958 to 5th July 1958. None of them was allowed any sick-leave benefit, i.e., on half pay up to 15 days in a year according to the Jute Award of 1948, which the company had given effect to. The case of the Union representing the above four workmen is to the effect that during 1958 none of these four workmen had taken any sick-leave before they applied for sick-leave from their native villages for the periods in question. The Union accordingly claims that these four workmen are entitled to sick-leave benefit admissible to them under the Major Jute Award of 1948 and that the Management was wholly unjustified in not allowing each of these four workmen 7½ days' wages as sick-leave benefit for the period in accordance with the provisions of the said award.

To this the answer of the Company is that under the direction of the Major Jute Award of 1948 employees of all descriptions serving under the Company are entitled to sick-leave on half pay up to 15 days in a year only on the basis of a medical certificate from Medical Officer of the Mill or from a qualified or registered medical practitioner approved by the Mill Authorities, that in the present four cases the medical certificates were received from a Homeopathic practitioner and these certificates were not considered by the Management to be genuine and the Company, therefore, did not grant them any sick-leave but treated their absence as authorised leave without pay and did not pay them wages for the period of their absence. The Company's further contention is that these four workmen had made it a regular practice to send medical certificates from the doctors of their native villages on the expiry of their authorised leave which could hardly be accepted as genuine inasmuch as every time they went home they became sick just on the expiry of the leave and that the Company had, therefore, great doubts about the genuineness of their meidcal certificates in question for sick-leave as the grant of sick-have benefit in such cases was discretionary with the Company which refused to grant the sick-leave as applied for. [Vide paragraphs 2(e) and (f) of the written statement of the Company.]

Now the questions for consideration in connection with the present issue are: whether under the terms of the Major Jute Award of 1948 which are admittedly still binding upon the parties to the present dispute, the present Company was bound to recognise the medical certificates from Homeopath of their native place, namely, Dr. S. R. Sharma and to grant sick-leave benefit to these four workmen or whether it was discretionary with the Company to recognise or not to recognise such medical certificates in accordance with the directions regarding sick-leave contained in the aforesaid award. The award in question clearly lays down that the employees of all description serving in the Companies including the present Company shall be allowed sick-leave on half pay up to 15 days in a year on the basis of a medical certificate from the Medical Officer of the Mill or from a qualified or registered medical practitioner approved by the Mill authorities. From a plain reading of these lines it is clear that in cases where a medical certificate is not produced from the Medical Officer of the Mill, the medical certificate must be produced from a qualified and registered medical practitioner approved by the Mill Authorities. So the discretion in this matter was evidently left with the Management for disapproving of a medical certificate which is not produced from a qualified and registered medical practitioner. It is, of course, true that the present Company has not yet made a list of registered medical practitioners of the localities outside the State of West Bengal approved by the Mill Authorities from which its workmen hail. The evidence on the side of the Company shows that before 1954 the Company did not recognise medical certificates sent by workers from their native place. There was a representation in 1953 by the National Union of Jute Workers signed by Shri Ainul Huq Ansari (P. W. 4), Secretary of the Union, in which one of the demands was that the Company should approve outside medical practitioners for granting of certificates. (Vide evidence of D. W. 1 Shri Prafulla Kumar Banarji, Senior Labour Officer, and Ext. E.) The minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee, dated 2nd July 1958, would also show that the Company was reluctant to recognise medical certificates from Vaids, Homeopathic practitioners and Hekims. There was a discussion over the matter between the Management and representatives of the employees and the view point expressed on behalf of the employees was that at least certificates from Kaviraj should be recognised for granting medical leave to the employees who apply for sick-leave from their native villages with certificates from local doctor. The Company also admits that after 1954 as a result of several bi-partite conferences it agreed to relax the rule of non-recognition of certificates from doctors of the localities from which the workmen come and did actually recognise the medical certificates of such doctors when it was satisfied about the genuineness of such certificates.

In the instant cases the Company's clear stand is that these four workmen took authorised leave and went home but sent medical certificates from a Homeopathic practitioner who was not approved of by the Management. It further contends that as the Company was not satisfied about the genuineness of these certificates it refused to grant any sick-leave benefit to these four workmen in regard to their extended leave for the periods in question.

Upon careful scrutiny of evidence on record it clearly follows that all the four certificates produced by these four workmen in support of their prayer for sick-leave (Exts. A, B, C/1 and D) were produced from a Homeopath, Dr. S. R. Sharma, M.D., of Saran. This doctor is not a registered medical practitioner as the Union's own document Ext. 7 would clearly indicate. He is, of course, an M.D. (Homeo.). So, he may be regarded as a qualified doctor but in any case he is not a registered medical practitioner. Under the clear terms of the Jute Award of 1948 the Company was bound only to recognise certificates from a qualified and registered medical practitioner approved of by the Mill Authorities. Now so long as no list of approved doctors is prepared by the Company, the Company is certainly at liberty not to recognise the certificate of a doctor who is not qualified or who is not a registered medical practitioner. In the present cases Dr. S. R. Sharma is not a registered medical practitioner and, therefore, under the terms of the aforesaid award the Company was not bound to recognise his certificate. Although in some cases it had recognised the genuineness of such certificates when it was satisfied about the same it was evidently discretionary with the Management to recognise or not to recognise such certificates. Furthermore in the present case the evidence on behalf of the Company praticularly Ext. G and the sworn testimony of D. W. 1 and Exts. A, B, C and D series would show that these four workmen were in the habit of extending their leave by producing certificates from local doctors and the four medical certificates in the present case come from the very same doctor who is not a registered medical practitioner. The evidence on behalf of the Company definitely is that it had great doubts about the genuineness of the four medical certificates (Exts. A, B, C/1 and D), and, therefore, it did not recognise the certificates and did not grant any sick-leave benefit to the four workmen who claim such benefit in the present dispute.

From the above facts and circumstances as disclosed in evidence I come to this finding that under the clear terms of the directions regarding sick-leave in the Jute Award of 1948, the Company was not bound to recognise the medical certificates Exts. A, B, C/1 and D granted by Dr. S. R. Sharma, M.D. (Homeo.) who is not a registered medical practitioner, recommending sick-leave for the four workmen under reference and that it was discretionary with the Company under the ter of the said award to recognise or not recognise such certificates from a Homeop who is not a registered medical practitioner. further find from the evidence on record that these four individual cases this discretion w reasonably and properly exercised by the Manag ment in terms of the Jute Award of 1948 and i arbitrarily and that the action of the Company this respect was justified. That being the po tion the four workmen, namely, Shri Ramjat Das, Shri Jadubir Das, Shri Raj Kumar Das a Shri Piarchand Das are not entitled to any sic leave benefit as claimed by them. No other reli is available to them either in the context of e dence on record and under the terms of the Maj Jute Award of 1948 which are still binding, up the parties to the reference. This issue accordingly decided against the four workm concerned who are not entitled to any relief the present dispute.

Before I part I must say that some prelimina objections were taken by the Company regardi maintainability of the present reference in par graph 1, clause (a), (b) and (c) of Company written statement. As the learned Advocate f the Company has not ultimately pressed the preliminary objections at the time of hearing do not like to go into the merits of the same.

This is my award.

AWARD

By Government order No. 3644-I.R./IR/11L-239/58, dated 29th August 1958, a dispute between Messrs. Container & Closures Ltd. (Managing Agent: Macneill & Barry Ltd.), P.O. Gorifa, 24-Parganas (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen, represented by the Containers & Closures Labour Union, Courepore, Naihati, 24-Parganas (hereinafter referred to as the Union) has been referred to this Tribunal by Government for adjudication.

The issues framed by Government for decision are:—

(1) Revision of grade and scales of pay for all categories of workmen.

(2) Revision of existing festival holidays.

(3) Revision of existing sick leave facilities.

(4) What should be the casual leave for the worker?

(5) Revision in existing medical facilities.

(6) What should be the procedure for recruitment?

(7) Procedure for promotion.

The Union's case is that the Company is a flourishing concern and making substantial income; that there has been a general rise in the wage structure of various industries in the locality and the the cost of living of the workmen has also gone up very high; that the terms of employment and the conditions of service of the workmen of this Company are much inferior to those prevailing in the locality and are urgently needed to be revised and improved. In April 1958, the Union presented some demands to the Management of the Company out of which some were dropped on agreement and some (as appear from the issues quoted above) have been referred by Government to this Tribunal as agreed by both parties. In Annexure B of its written statement the Union has given the existing grades and scales of pay for workmen of different categories and in Annexure C, the revised rates demanded for them have been given. So far as the leave, holidays, medical facilities, etc., are concerned, the Union's case will be found in the prayer portion of its written statement which will be recounted in their proper place in course of discussion presently.

The case of the Company in its written statement is that there has been no rise in the production of the Company due to any improvement in the efficiency on the part of the workmen. There has not been any general rise in the wage-structure in the locality, nor is the cost of living higher in proportion to the wages last revised and the terms of employment and conditions of service of the workmen of this factory are much better than the same prevailing in the locality for similar industries; that there is no necessity for revising the same. The Company's case regarding the Union's demand for leave, holidays and medical facilities, etc., will be referred to in course of the discussion to be made presently.

Decision

Before taking up the discussion of the issues, it is to be noted at the outset that neither party has referred to the present financial position of the Company as being relevant for the purpose of decision of the matters in issue. So, it is to be entirely left out of consideration.

Issue No. 1: Neither the Union, nor the Company has adduced any evidence in this case. But the Union solely relies in support of their claims as formulated in this issue No. 1 upon the Third Omnibus Engineering Award passed by Shri G. Palit, the then Judge of this Tribunal, and published in the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", dated 5th November 1958. It may be observed here that the industry in the instant case can be regarded as an engineering industry and the wages, pay scales, etc., and classification of the workmen should be made as far as practicable to conform with that award; and it may be stated with due deference to the learned Judge that he passed the award after consideration of the overall position in respect of the engineering industry, as well as the Jute and the Textile industries in the same region. He took also into consideration the rise in the living index of workmen.

From Annexure B to the written statement of the Union it appears that the workmen of the Company are divided into the following categories:—

(1) Clerical Staff (Grades D, C, B, A),

(2) Durwans,

(3) Operatives.

The operatives are divided into:—

(a) General workers,

(b) Semi-skilled (machine-man and solder-man),

(c) Die-setter operatives,

(d) Mistries (apprentice and improvers),

(e) Journeymen (Grades C, B, A).

In the said Annexure B the Union has given the existing grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen of all grades. These are not required to be reproduced here.

In the Third Engineering Award the workmen of an engineering concern have been recommended to be divided into the operative, clerical section, supervisory staff and subordinate staff.

The operatives have been divided into four groups, i.e., Group D (unskilled category), Group C (corresponding to the semi-skilled category), Group B (corresponding to the skilled category), Group A (corresponding to the highly-skilled category).

The clerical section has been divided into three categories, namely, (1) Non-Matriculates, (2) Matriculates or Under-graduates and (3) Graduates.

The supervisory staff has not been divided into categories.

In the subordinate staff are included (1) Peons are Bearers, (2) Durwans, (3) Drivers and (4) Lorry Drivers.

Here, it is to be mentioned that the Union has not seriously pressed that the workmen in the instant case should be moulded into the classes and categories as have been propounded in the Third Engineering Award. It is to be noted that the classification or categorisation made in that award has not the binding force of a statutory provision, nor of a ruling of a Court. The learned Judge who passed the award has himself made this classification and categorisation tentatively. In paragraph 13 of the award, there is an observation made by him to this effect:—

> "So, even for an expert body the work of classification may very well be taken to be an impossible task, let alone for a non-technical Tribunal like myself. I also recognise, as pointed out, that the conventional classification of semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled does no longer hold good. 'Skill' has been transferred from the man to the machine. Man is appraised by his manipulative power to operate a machine." (Vide page 5431 of the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", dated 5th November 1958.)

So, it is held that the classification and categorisation of the workmen in the instant case should remain as they are. It is only to be seen whether the pay-scales of the workmen of the different classes and categories are less than what have ben awarded for the same type of workmen in the Third Engineering Award.

Upon a comparison of the grades and scales of pay of the workmen in this case with the same as awarded by the said Award, it may be asserted by way of a general observation that the workmen in the instant case are much better off than those whose pay-scales, etc., are governed by the said award. The learned represntative of the workmen also has found some difficulty in pressing the claims of the Union as made in its written statement. The reason will be obvious if a few instances be cited.

For example, in the Third Engineering Award, the clerical staff has been divided into three categories as mentioned above. The pay-scale of the non-Matriculate clerks is Rs. 60—3—90 (in 10 years), while the lowest paid of the categories of the clerks of the Company, namely, Group D, have the pay-scale of Rs. 67-87 (increment at the rate of Rs. 5 per year).

The top grade clerks in the said award, namely, Graduates have a pay-scale of Rs. 75—4—115—E.B.—5—165 (in 20 years), while the top-grade clerks, i.e., Grade A in the instant case have a pay-scale of Rs. 147—187 (increment at the rate of Rs. 10 per year).

The Durwans have been awarded in the said award a scale of pay which is Rs. 35—1—55, while the Durwans in the instant case have a pay-scale of Rs. 48—54-8 (the increment being bi-annual, at the rate of Rs. 2 in the second year; at the rate of Re. 1 in the 4th and 8th years; and at the rate of annas 8 at the end of 10th, 12th and 14th years). No further examples need be cited; such is the case in respect of all categories of workmen, i.e., the Company's rates are much more liberal than that awarded by the Third Engineering Award.

From the Annexure B to the written statement it will appear that operatives of the semi-skilled class have been divided into two categories, namely, (1) semi-skilled and (2) semi-skilled (machine-man and solder-man) and the pay-scale of the latter is a bit higher than that of the former. So, it has been contended on behalf of the Union that the workmen of the latter type should be classified as skilled workmen and should get a pay-scale as awarded by the Third Engineering Award for workmen of the skilled class. This contention of the Union cannot be upheld; because, it has been already held above that in view of the liberal rates of pay given by the Company in the instant case and in view of the existing classification of workmen which cannot be regarded as less practical and less scientific than that made in the Third Engineering Award, it is to be held that the semi-skilled machine-man and solder-men should be regarded as semi-skilled and their pay-scale should remain as at present.

In the said award, there is a category of operatives connoted as highly-skilled. Their pay-scale is 110—3—155 (in 15 years). In Annexure B to the written statement of the Union, all the pay-scales quoted regarding the operatives are below this scale, but the learned counsel for the Company has given this Tribunal to understand that there is a pay-scale of Rs. 132-13-6ps.—158-13-8ps. (in 5 years) prevalent in the Company, in respect of a particular type of daily-rated workman that has not been mentioned in the Annexure B to the written statement of the Union. There is no reason to doubt the veracity of the statement made by the learned counsel.

As a result, it is to be held that the existing grades and scales of pay of the workmen of the Company are in no way below par with the award passed by the Third Engineering Tribunal but are much more advanced and liberal. As a result, it is held that there is no necessity for revision in grade and scales of pay for any categories of the workmen in the instant case.

Issue No. 2: The Company at present allows 10 festival holidays with pay and 2 holidays without pay. It is contended on behalf of the Union that these two festival holidays without pay should be granted with pay. The Company vehemently opposes this proposal; because, in no concern of any industry 10 days' festival holidays is granted with pay. It is a fact that in the Jute, Cotton, Engineering and Coal industries, the numbers of festival holidays granted with pay are 8, 9, 8 and 2 respectively. In view of this position the learned representative of the Union has not been able to press the claim for converting the two additional festival holidays without pay into holidays with pay but has suggested that the two holidays without pay should be abolished. The Company is agreeable to that. If the Union wants that these two additional holidays without pay should be abolished it is at once to make a proposal to that effect to the Company, but so far as the 10 festival holidays with pay are concerned, either the festivals allocated for these holidays are to be the same as at present unless changed by agreement between the Union and the Company; or, if the festivals for the allocation of the holidays are to be changed the Company should have the option to allocate three of the holidays, the Union 5 and the remaining two are to be observed on the Independence Day and the Republic Day, i.e., 15th August and 26th January, respectively.

Issue No. 3: At present, the Company grants non-cumulative sick leave with full pay, etc., for 15 days to the monthly-paid staff and to daily-rated workmen 15 days' sick leave in a year with 7 days' basic pay and full dearness allowance for 15 days. This provision made by the Company is not in conflict with any of the statutory provisions on this subject, namely, Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, 1940, and the Factories Act, 1948. Also, it has been reported on behalf of the Company to this Tribunal that the provisions of the Employees' State Insurance Act will be made applicable to the concern in the near future. So, it is held that the existing provisions for sick leave is not required to be revised.

Issue No. 4: This issue is somewhat vague. It relates to the casual leave "for the worker". In the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, 1940, the term "worker" does not appear, at least in the section of "definition", i.e., section 2 of the Act. In the Industrial Disputes Act, the term "worker" has not been used in the "definition" section, i.e., section 2, but a term "workman" has been defined in sub-section (5). The term "worker" as it is, has been defined in sub-section 2(1) of the Factories Act, 1948, as follows:—

> " 'worker' means a person employed, directly or through any agency, whether for wages or not, in any manufacturing process, or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for a manufacturing process, or in any other kind of work incidental to, or connected with, the manufacturing process, or the subject of the manufacturing process."

So, it is to be held that the term "worker" as used in this issue means the employees who are governed by the Factories Act. If that be so, casual leave cannot be claimed by the factory workers as a matter of statutory right. However, in the Jute and Cotton industries 10 days' casual leave with pay are granted to the factory workers, but in the engineering industries no casual leave either with pay or without pay is known to have been granted by any concern. However, as every person is expected to attend to some urgent personal affairs and as the factory workers are granted no other leave except privilege leave for about 18 days in a year according to the provisions of the Factories Act, they should be allowed some days as casual leave without pay and it is held that 7 days will be sufficient for the purpose. Thus, it is awarded that the factory workers will get 7 days' non-cumulative casual leave per year without pay. In view of the term "worker" used in this issue No. 4 and of the definition thereof, it is to be held that this issue does not concern the question of casual leave of the clerical staff, and, so, the question of their casual leave need not be decided. If the clerical staff choose to be included in the definition of "worker" as given in the Factories Act, and in all respect too they may so intimate to the Company and they should get 7 days' casual leave without pay as has been provided for the factory workers.

It can be contended that the clerical staff should be regarded as "persons employed" "in commercial establishment" as defined in section 2 of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, 1940; but, no such case has been made out on behalf of the clerical staff demanding that the question of their casual leave should be governed by section 12 of that Act.

Further, it is to be observed that the Company came into existence long before the coming into operation of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, 1940; for, from the list of some workers supplied by the Union (Ext. 1), it will appear that one of them had joined the Company's service on 4th January 1926. It is a fact that the Company grants one month's privilege leave with pay every year to the clerical staff and it is stated on behalf of the Company that no casual leave is given to the clerical staff in view of this quantum of privilege leave granted which is much in excess of the same kind of leave granted by other engineering concerns or other industries, which in no case exceeds 21 days. It is a fact that in the Jute, Cotton and Engineering industries 10, 10 and 7 days' casual leave with full pay respectively are granted by most of the concerns, but in view of the quantum of privilege leave granted by this Company in the instant case it does not behove the Union to claim any more leave as casual leave with pay on the analogy of the aforesaid concerns. If it be held that the question of leave of the clerical staff are to be governed by the provisions of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, it may be claimed by the Union that according to sub-section (b) of section 12 of the Act, they are entitled to 10 days' casual leave with full pay; but, it has been found above that this Company started working long before the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act came into operation and the leave rules of the Company must have been framed before that. Now, the Company admittedly grants one month's privilege leave with full pay per year to the clerical staff while in section 12(a) of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, provision is made only for 14 days' privilege leave with full pay. If the clerical staff wants to have the casual leave as stipulated in section 12(b) of the Act then the question of their leave as a whole should be reopened, for the obvious reason that they are enjoying one month's privilege leave with full pay instead of 14 days according to the Act, and at the same time they cannot fall back upon section 12(b) and claim 10 days' casual leave with full pay. In a case like this where the leave rules existing in a Company have been framed before the coming into operation of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, and where the question of leave comes for decision before an adjudicating authority by way of an industrial dispute the term "leave" should be taken in its generic sense, and it is to be seen whether the total quantum of leave available to the staff is equal to the total quantum of leave that can be claimed under section 12 of the Act. If it be found that the quantum of leave that is being granted by a concern is more than the total quantum of leave allowable under section 12, it will be inequitable to demand literal obedience by the employer to the provisions of section 12 and to grant all or every specific items of leave provided in that section over and above what is being enjoyed by the staff. Here it may be observed that the provisions of section 12 of the Act regarding leave have undergone several changes since it came into force in 1940. This Company as well as many other Companies had been in existence from before 1940 and have their own leave rules and in deciding the question of leave of the staff it is to be seen whether the provisions of section 12 of the Act is being substantially complied with. If the answer be in the affirmative the total quantum of leave should not be abnormally increased by strictly adhering to the provisions of section 12 of the Act and ordering that the employer must give all and every specific kind of leave, even though the total quantum of leave granted on any one or more of the specific heads is in excess of what can be claimed by the employee under the statutory provision. It may also be observed that if the quantum of leave be increased to an abnormal extent that will hamper production and it will not be conducive to industrial peace, for the employer can by no means be expected to view it with good grace that the employees should be enjoying abnormally long periods of leave with pay taking advantage of a statutory flaw. Here, it may be noted that the clerical staff who are getting one month's privilege leave in this Company will be losers if on a reconsideration of the question of leave as a whole their privilege leave be reduc (which obviously must be done) for maki provision for casual leave; because, casual leave non-cumulative while privilege leave is cumulativ

As a result, it is held that no provision can made in this adjudication regarding the casu leave of the clerical staff firstly because the issu i.e., issue No. 4 does not cover them and second because the question of their casual leave cann be isolated and decided unless the whole questi of all kinds of their leave be submitted t adjudication. However, they will be allowed casu leave without pay, as has been provided above f factory workers, provided they expressly intima to the Company that they desire henceforth to treated as factory workers in all respects.

Issue No. 5: It is common ground that present the Company has no arrangement of i own for medical treatment of its workers, but the are two factories one of Gourepore Jute Mills a the other of Messrs. Jenson and Nichols adjacent to the factory, both of which have we equipped dispensaries and competent medic officers. The Company has made arrangement wi these Companies to attend to the need of i workers for which the Company pays to the sa Companies for the services rendered by them a the cost of medicine supplied. The Union deman that there should be a dispensary within t factory premises for the treatment of the worke They also demand that their family membe should be treated there. Under the existi circumstances it is very difficult to hold that t family members of the employees are also entitl to medical aid and treatment from the Compan However, it cannot be gainsaid by the Compa that under the present arrangement its workm cannot have proper and timely facilities for trea ment in the hospitals of the neighbouring tw Companies. It is contended on behalf of the Un that the workmen of the Company sometimes g step-motherly treatment from the staff of t hospitals of the said two Companies. That is n unlikely. However, it is submitted on behalf the Company that the provisions of the Employee State Insurance Act are to be very soon appli to the factory and there is no reason to disbeli this. Hence it is awarded that the existi arrangement for medical treatment of the workm should not be disturbed, but if the provisions the Employees' State Insurance Act are not appli to the factory within six months of the publicati of this award the Company will have to make i own arrangement for medical aid and treatment its employees. This period of six months may extended with the consent of the Union, necessary.

Issue No. 6: Ordinarily, recruitment employees is a management function, but in t instant case there was an agreement between t management and the workmen sometime February 1955 (vide Ext. 1) that 50 per cent. the vacancies will be reserved for the nominees the employees named in a list appended to Ext. It appears from this Ext. 1 that some of the wor men named in the list were not willing to nomina anyone and some intimated that they would supp the names of their nominees later on and so nominated their recruits and some have do nothing. It is a fact that the Company has stopped appointing the nominees of the workmen from sometime in December 1955 (vide Ext. A). This means that the arrangement evidenced by Ext. 1 continued for about 10 months. It is stated on behalf of the management that this arrangement was stopped because the workmen abused the privilege granted by Ext. 1. The Union's case is that the Company is for ever bound to fill up 50 per cent. of the vacancies by the nominees of the employees. The agreement (Ext. 1) does not support this proposition. Its implication is that the workmen specifically named in the list would be eligible for nominating one recruit each (and only once) for filling up 50 per cent. of the vacancies. On a consideration of the whole matter it seems that the agreement is very vague and cannot be regarded to be permanently binding on the Company. However, the Company seems to be bound by Ext. 1 to consider the case of the nominees of the persons named in the list (Ext. 1). Only those persons of the list who are still in the Company's service and who are willing to nominate recruits and who have not as yet exercised that option seem to be entitled to nominate one person each for filling up 50 per cent. of the vacancies that may occur. The Company's contention is that the concession given by Ext. 1 to the workmen was being abused. This is not unlikely. In order to safeguard against such abuse it is directed that the nominees of the workmen who are still entitled to nominate a recruit for a vacancy according to Ext. 1 shall have to be recommended for appointment by a majority of the Works Committee. If a nominee of a particular workman is not recommended by the Works Committee such workman would lose his right to make any further nomination in terms of Ext. 1. This method of filling up 50 per cent. of the vacancies in the manner aforesaid from the nominees of the workmen named in the list (Ext. 1) will not be binding on the Company after the said list of workmen is exhausted in the manner as aforesaid.

However, it may be observed that the management has taken a laudable and tangible step towards allowing labour to participate in the management by making this arrangement for filling up 50 per cent. of the vacancies from nominees of the workmen. This is a good sign and it is recommended that the Company will consider whether this method may be continued provided that the nominees of the workmen are recommended by the Works Committee.

Issue No. 7: Promotion is entirely a management function and the management can be expected to have so much wisdom as to consider that if posts in higher grades falling vacant are not ordinarily filled up by promotion of eligible men from lower grades, then it cannot expect to get unstinted and whole-hearted service from the workmen as a body. So, it is recommended that at the time of filling up a vacancy in any grade the management will consider the question of promoting a workman from the lower grade. If a workman thinks himself eligible for promotion but be superseded or be not given promotion on account of direct recruitment to such a vacancy he will be at liberty to represent his case to the Works Committee through the Secretary of the Union and the decision of a majority of the Works Committee in this matter will be binding on the Company. If the Works Committee finds him not eligible for promotion he will not have any claim on that score. If the Works Committee recommends him as fit for promotion the Management will have to promote him whenever any opportunity occurs for the purpose.

SUMMARY OF THE DECISIONS

Issue No. 1: There is no ground for revision in grade and scales of pay for all categories of workmen.

Issue No. 2: The number of existing festival holidays with pay will not be increased. The two additional holidays without pay may be abolished at the option of the Union. So far as the 10 festival holidays with pay are concerned, either the festivals allocated for these holidays are to be the same always as at present unless changed by agreement between the Union and the Company or if the festivals for the allocation of the holidays cannot be agreed upon, the Company should have the right to allocate three of the holidays, the Union five, and the remaining two are to be observed on the Independence Day and the Republic Day, i.e., 15th August and 26th January, respectively.

Issue No. 3: No revision is allowed of the existing sick leave facilities.

Issue No. 4: Seven days' non-cumulative casual leave without pay per year is to be given only to the actual factory workers, viz., those who are allowed privilege according to the Factories Act. No provision is made for casual leave of the clerical staff. But, if they desire to be treated as factory workers, they would get casual leave without pay as provided for such workers.

Issue No. 5: No revision is made in the existing medical facilities for the present. If the provision of the Employees' State Insurance Act be not applied to the factory within six months from the date of the publication of this award, the Company will have to make its own arrangement for giving medical aid and treatment to its workers if not desired by them otherwise.

Issue No. 6: Fifty per cent. of the vacancies will have to be filled up by nominees of workmen who are in service, if recommended by a majority of the Works Committee, but the workmen who have already nominated their nominees or who have declined to nominate any will not be entitled to nominate any more recruit. This method of recruitment from nominees of workmen will not be binding on the Company after the list (Ext. 1) of nominees is exhausted. The list being too long cannot be made a part of the award. It will be kept with the record of this case, each page bearing the sign and seal of this Tribunal. Parties will be at liberty to take out certified copy thereof. It is recommended that after the list is exhausted the Company will consider whether the method of filling up 50 per cent. of the vacancies by nominees of workmen, recommended by the Works Committee, may be continued.

Issue No. 7: Promotion being a management function should be ordinarily made by the management. When a workman thinks himself fit for promotion, but passed over or put off by direct recruitment to a higher post, he will be at liberty to place his case before the Works Committee through the Secretary of the Union and if a majority of the Works Committee recommends him for promotion the management shall promote him at the next available opportunity.

In conclusion, it is to be observed that the workmen of the Company are much better off in regard to their conditions of service than the employees of other similar industries in the same region. It is expected that instead of raising disputes over demands, which are mostly unreasonable, they would work heart and soul for the progress and prosperity of the Company, to which they are most likely to be participants; because, if the Company makes more profits they will be entitled to claim more remuneration by way of bonus; because, the claim for bonus, if established, cannot be ignored in view of the fact that the wages they are now getting do not come up to what are called living wages. It is expected that what is said just now will be taken by the workmen not as pedantic moralising but as a sound piece of practical advice.

This is the award of this Tribunal.

Their allegations are that a few months after the aforesaid reference the workload of the petitioners was increased and so they have to work overtime; that for want of canteen facilities they have to spend about Rs. 15, per head extra for tiffin and meal (it is not mentioned whether the sum of Rs. 15 as alleged is a daily or monthly expenditure, however, it may be presumed that this is a monthly expenditure); that the petitioners should be compensated by the Company adequately on account of the change of the conditions of service in the form of extra and continuous work without any corresponding arrangement for food.

The Company has filed a written statement denying the allegation of the workers regarding increase in workload or the alleged change in the condition of their service and denies its liability for compensation for its alleged failure to arrange for food of the petitioners. The Company has also raised a preliminary objection that the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act as made by the petitioners is not maintainable in law.

Before going into the merits of the case the learned representatives of the parties have been heard regarding the Company's preliminary objection as to the maintainability of the instant application and for reasons to be stated presently it appears that this objection of the Company is to be upheld.

The only issue in the aforesaid main dispute was:—

Now the issue raised by the petitioners in the instant application is similar and for this reason alone it cannot be raised by way of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, or, decided by this Tribunal. Here it may be observed that this Tribunal's award regarding the aforesaid main reference was published at page 964 of the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 21st May 1959 and it is quite likely that the dispute raised in the instant application is to be solved in the light of that award and so no separate award on the same dispute can be made in this application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Even if it be held that the dispute raised in this application is not covered by the said award or is outside the scope of the issue decided thereby, it cannot be raised by way of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act; for even if it be assumed that the allegations made by the petitioners in the instant application are correct it cannot be said that the Company has taken any action as contemplated by any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act. Here it is to be remembered that the issue in the main reference was regarding canteen facilities that should be provided for the workmen. The allegation of the petitioners now is that they have been made to work overtime by the Company without arranging for canteen facilities. It is not the case of the workmen that previously when they had to work overtime they had been provided with some canteen facilities; if they had been actually so provided with canteen facilities for overtime work and now they are compelled to work overtime without the Company's affording such facilities then it might have been regarded as a matter connected with the dispute and so the Company might have been required to obtain express permission in writing of the Tribunal for making them work overtime without arranging for proper canteen facilities, as that would be tantamount to changing a condition of service as contemplated in section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act. As this is not the case of the petitioners, the alleged action of the Company is not covered by section 33(1)(a) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Also it is apparent that the Company has not taken any action against the workmen for any misconduct either connected with the dispute or not connected with the dispute; nor has the Company changed the condition of service of the petitioners in regard to any matter not connected with the dispute. So it must be held that the alleged action of the Company as has been complained against by the petitioners does not come within the purview of any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act. So there cannot be any question of the Company's contravening any of the provisions of section 33 and as such, the petitioners have no locus standi to make an application like the instant one under section 33A of the Act.

As a result it is held that in any view of the case, the instant application is to be dismissed as not maintainable and it is, therefore, so dismissed. The applicants will have the liberty to take such other legal action regarding their alleged complaint as they may be advised.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Philips India Ltd., 7 Justice Chandra Madhab Road, Calcutta-20, and their workmen represented by Philips Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street (First Floor), Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII—178 of 1958.)

AWARD

A dispute between Messrs. Philips India Ltd., 7 Justice Chandra Madhab Road, Calcutta-20 (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Philips Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street (First floor), Calcutta-12 (hereinafter referred to as the Union), has been referred to this Tribunal for decision by Government order No. 3728-I.R./IR/10L-6/58, dated the 6th September 1958.

The issues framed by Government are:

(1) Are the workmen entitled to any additional bonus payable on the accounts for the year ending 31st December 1956? What should be the quantum of such additional bonus?

(2) Working hours.

It is gratifying to note that issue No. 1 has been settled between the parties and they have filed a compromise petition in respect thereof on 8th September 1959 on the basis of which an interim award has been passed on that date which together with the compromise petition will form Annexure A to this award.

Apparently, decision is to be given regarding issue No. 2 only. It is common ground that from 1947, the duty hours of the workmen in the Head Office and Regional Offices of the Company are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays (with one hour's recess) and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays (without recess). Thus, the total weekly working hours are 39, while previous to 1947, the working hours had been from 9-30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays with one hour's recess and 9-30 a.m. to 1-30 p.m. without recess, i.e., the total weekly working hours were 36.

Now, the workmen contend that the duty hours of the employees employed in Head Offices of almost all merchantile firms associated with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and of the Chamber itself are 6½ hours with one hour's recess on weekdays and they demand that the working hours of the Company should be from 9-30 a.m. to 5 p.m. with one hour's recess on weekdays and from 9-30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays without recess, i.e., they want 36 hours' week, as the Company is a constituent of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

The Company's case is that though it is a member of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce it is not obligatory upon it or any other member of the Chamber to follow any practice of service conditions available to the office staff of the said Chamber or to any one of its other constituents. Also, the Company contends that the issue regarding working hours as framed is wrong. Thereafter, Government by corrigendum No. 5291-I.R., IR/10L-6/58, dated the 15th December 1958, has deleted issue No. 2 and substituted only "working hours" in lieu thereof. The substituted issue does not seem to have been framed after proper appreciation of the real dispute between the parties on the score of working hours. For, the issue as amended means working hours for all types of workmen of the Company. However, the additional written statement filed by the parties shows that they understand the issue to be in respect of the working hours of the workmen of the Head Office and Regional Offices of the Company, and so, the award that is to be passed in respect of this amended issue No. 2 will govern only the said types of workmen.

In the additional written statement filed by the Company it is contended that from its very inception the minimum working hours were 39 per week except for a short period when on account of introduction of Bengal time it had temporarily reduced the working hours to 36 hours per week. In the year 1947 it reverted back to normal working hours of 39 hours a week upon consultation with the employees, and no complaint was made from any quarter over such a change, and there is no reason why the existing working hours should be reduced to 36 hours a week.

As regards the Company's statement that previous to 1942 the working hours were 39 a week, the evidence adduced by both sides is not adequate for deciding one way or the other. So, this particular point is left undecided. However, it is not the case of the Union that the working hours of the Company prevailing at present is in contravention of any statutory provision in that respect. The workmen of the Head Office and the Regional Offices apparently are covered by the provisions of the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940. The maximum working hours of an employee governed by the provisions of that Act have been laid down as 56 hours in a week [vide

Apparently, the workmen concerned in the instant case cannot invoke any statutory provision in support of their claim but their contention is that their working hours should be fixed according to those observed by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce of which the Company is a member and also of other Companies affiliated to the said Chamber. It is to be mentioned here that sometime in 1947 there had been an industrial dispute between the said Chamber and its employees which was decided by a Tribunal what was published at page 115 of "Awards Made By Tribunals", published by the Labour Department of the Government of West Bengal in 1954. It appears that the working hours of the employees of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce had been 36 hours a week which had been arranged in consultation with the staff, and the Tribunal maintained the same, but this cannot be an authority in support of the claim of the workmen in the instant case. The Bengal Chamber of Commerce is not a trading concern. It is simply an association of some Companies and is run on a non-profit basis. So, the working hours prevalent for the workmen of the Chamber cannot be claimed as a matter of right by the workmen of the member Companies. Also, it is not the uniform practice of the member Companies that the workmen of all of them have a 36 hours' week. On the other hand, from the award made in the dispute between the Imperial Tobacco Co. of India Ltd., and their employees which was published in the "Awards Made By The Tribunals", published by the Labour Department of the Government of West Bengal in 1955, at page 77, it appears that the working hours are 38½ a week. It is admitted by the Secretary of the Union in the instant case (P.W. 1) that the working hours of Metal Box and Co. (which is a very prominent and flourishing concern) are 39 a week. Thus, the Union cannot claim to have a 36 hours' week on the strength of uniformity of practice in other Companies. P.W. 1 has said that G.E.C., Associated Electricals Co., and Balmer Lawrie are similar concerns as the Company in the instant case, but he has not said what are the working hours observed by those Companies. It is the case of the Company in the instant case that its pay structure is much more favourable to the workmen than that of most Companies and P.W. 1 has not been able to deny this fact in view of which it is to be held that the Company is not at all unjustified in having a thirty-nine hours' week for its workmen and the latter should not grudge the same after that has been observed since 1947.

Before legislation in industrial matters was taken up by the State, an employer had the right to dictate the extent of working hours for its employees because the ordinary rule is that one who pays the piper has the choice of the tune to be called. This choice has been curtailed by several legislations in this country. It has already been observed that the prevailing working hours of the Company do not offend against any such legislation. Working hours now imposed by the Company on its workmen in the instant case do not incline one to believe that they are being sweated by the Company. They should take these hours with good grace in view of the better pay structure and conditions of service that are prevalent in the Company and in view of the feeling of amity which seems to be existing between them and the Company, which has been palpably exhibited in the instant case by the fact of the amicable settlement of the main dispute in the instant adjudication, namely, that regarding bonus.

In view of the facts and circumstances as discussed above, it inclines one to believe that this demand regarding working hours made by the workmen of the Head Office and the Regional Offices of the Company is somewhat unreasonable. The workmen should guard against raising such demands in future which are most likely to embitter the present atmosphere of peace and amity between them and the Company. Their aim should not be "minimum work, maximum pay"; but, it should be "more work, proper pay".

It is awarded that the working hours of the workmen of the Head Office and the Regional Offices of the Company should continue to be the same as prevalent at present, i.e., thirty-nine hours a week. However, the workmen will be at liberty to alter the hours of their attendance or departure by reducing the period of recess but that should be done amicably by arrangement with the Company.

This is the award of the Tribunal.

Annexure A-1

Order No. 15, dated 12th September 1959.

Issue No. 1 in this case is as follows:—

Are the workmen entitled to any additional bonus payable on the accounts for the year ending 31st December 1956? What should be the quantum of such additional bonus?

On 8th September 1959, the parties have filed a joint petition and a memorandum of settlement whereby they have settled the dispute so far as this issue No. 1 is concerned.

The memorandum of settlement contains not only the terms of settlement regarding this issue No. 1, but also regarding a different dispute pending before this Tribunal. So it is not possible to pass an interim award in respect of issue No. 1, but there is a common prayer in the aforesaid joint petition filed by the parties on 8th September 1959 that an order may be made by the Tribunal for payment of 1956 bonus in terms of the agreement. Hence,

Ordered

It is ordered that the Company, namely, Messrs. Philips (India) Ltd., do make payment, by 1st of October 1959, to its workmen concerned in this dispute of the additional bonus for 1956 in terms of the memorandum of settlement filed before this Tribunal on 8th September 1959.

A "no dispute" award regarding issue No. 1 will be made when the dispute will be finally disposed of.

Department, by their order No. 4066-I.R. (R) 13L-29/58, dated Calcutta, the 25th September 1958, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Ananda Bazar Patrika Private Ltd. and their employees represented by the Indian Journalists Association, relating to the issue mentioned below for adjudication by the Second Labour Court,

Issue

1. Whether the discharge of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was justified? To what relief by way of reinstatement and or compensation is he entitled?

The incidents relating to this case, in brief, are as follows:

On 16th December 1957, Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee, Chief Reporter, Ananda Bazar Patrika, went on leave for about a month. He sent a letter, dated 13th December 1957, to the Managing Director, Ananda Bazar Patrika (P) Limited, informing that he was going on such leave and that Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty would be working in his place temporarily until he resumed his duties. He had a copy of that letter hung up on the notice board of the reporting section of Ananda Bazar Patrika. Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar who was a reporter in the Ananda Bazar Patrika saw that copy of that letter on the notice board on 16th December 1957. He resented the arrangement on his feeling that he was senior to Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty and ought to have been given charge of the reporting section during the absence of the Chief Reporter Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee. On that very day he saw the Editor of Ananda Bazar Patrika about the matter and put his grievance before him. The latter advised him to see the Managing Director as he was leaving for Delhi that evening. Accordingly Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar saw the Managing Director that evening and placed his grievance before him and requested him to cancel the arrangement made by Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee. He saw the Managing Director on the two successive days and made the same request; but the Managing Director refused to do anything until Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee joined. Then on 20th December 1957 Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar wrote a letter to the Managing Director summarising his interview with him and stating that he would decide assignments of his duties himself and act accordingly till the Chief Reporter resumed his duty. He hung up a copy of that letter on the notice board of the reporting section. On 31st December 1957 the Managing Director issued a letter which may be termed a charge-sheet to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar calling for his explanation as to why he had hung up a copy of the letter on the notice board without the former's permission. Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar replied on the same date giving his explanation and stating that he was removing the copy of the letter from the notice board on that very day. On 11th January 1958 the Managing Director issued another charge-sheet to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar stating therein that he had ignored the assignments of duties made to him on 21st December 1957, 23rd December 1957, 27th December 1957 and 28th December 1957 and calling for his explanation. Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar gave his explanation on the following date. He was informed by a letter, dated 29th January 1958, of the Managing Director that an enquiry relating to the charge-sheets against him would be held by Shri Sudhangshu Kumar Basu, Editor, Hindusthan Standard, on 1st February 1958. The enquiry was eventually held on 7th February 1958, 11th February 1958, 12th February 1958, 13th February 1958, 14th February 1958, 17th February 1958 and 21st February 1958. The Enquiring Officer in his report, dated 14th April 1958, held that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was guilty of deliberate disobedience of the lawful orders of a lawful authority and that his acts were deliberate acts, subversive of discipline and office rules. Accordingly by a letter, dated 5th/15th May 1958, the Managing Director informed Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar that he merited dismissal, but in consideration of his long service with the Company, the management have decided to terminate his services.

The case of the Union, briefly stated, is as follows:

A few years back the Board of Trustees of the Provident Fund of the employees of Ananda Bazar Patrika (P) Ltd., consisted of Sarbashri Asoke Kumar Sircar, Managing Director of the Company, Sudhangshu Kumar Basu, Editor, Hindusthan Standard, and four others. They made an advance of about ten lacs of rupees from the above fund to the Company. This caused an agitation amongst the employees of the Company. Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar took a leading part in that agitation and at his instance resolutions were passed at the general meetings of the beneficiaries of the fund disapproving of the above action of the Board of Trustees and unseating the employees' representatives on the Board of Trustees. As a member of the Works Committee also Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar had often to come in direct clash with the management in his efforts to safe-guard the interests of the employees. These actions on the part of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar naturally irritated the management which began to seek an opportunity to get rid of him. So the charge-sheets mentioned above were issued against him. At the enquiry four witnesses were examined on behalf of the Company but Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was not allowed to examine any witness on his behalf. Further, many questions put by Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to the witnesses of the Company in cross-examination were illegally disallowed by the Enquiring Officer. So the enquiry was perfunctory. As such the orders of the termination of the service of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar are unjustified.

The Company however denies that the action taken against Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar had any connection with his alleged activities in connection with the Provident Fund or other matters relating to the interests of the employees. It contends that the charge-sheets were issued against him for his actions relating to the matters mentioned in the charge-sheets. A proper enquiry was held and he was found guilty of the charges mentioned in the charge-sheets. Accordingly his services were terminated.

For Ananda Bazar Patrika (Private) Limited: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

For Indian Journalists' Association: Shri D. L. Sengupta, Advocate, Shri Satyen Banerjee, Advocate, Shri Madan Mohan Saha, Advocate, assisted and instructed by Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar.

Decision

It has been proved beyond any shadow of doubt by the evidence adduced before me that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was the mover of the resolutions by which the action of the former Board of Trustees of the Provident Fund was disapproved and the employees' representatives on the Board were unseated. This naturally caused embarassment to the management. It also appears from the evidence before me that the relation between Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar and the management was not cordial. He was smarting under some grievance against the management. His letter, dated 6th October 1956 (Ext. 4a), is an expression of such grievances. Naturally a management cannot take the language and the contents of such a letter in good grace. So the contention of the Union that the Company was unfavourably disposed towards Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar is well founded.

As to the enquiry, the Union has argued before me that as the Enquiring Officer is an outsider, the enquiry was void ab initio. But there is nothing in the Industrial Disputes Act or in any decisions that an outsider cannot hold an enquiry. So there is no substance in this argument on behalf of the Union. There is, however, something to be said in support of the argument of the Union that Enquiring Officer Shri Sudhangsu Kumar Basu was one of the members of the Board of Trustees who were unseated in consequence of the resolutions passed at the instance of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar. But Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar did not raise this objection when the enquiry was being held by Shri Sudhangsu Kumar Basu. So the Union cannot press this argument before me now. I, however, find that the Enquiring Officer did not allow Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to examine a single witness on his behalf. Further, the Enquiring Officer disallowed some very relevant questions put by Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar in cross-examination to the witness on behalf of the Company. These actions of the Enquiring Officer offend against the principles of natural justice. Further, the punishment meted out to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar is much too severe in consideration of the charges levelled against him. It is also in evidence that the Editor is the head of the Editorial Department including the reporting section. So justice and fair-play demand that the management ought to have consulted the Editor before deciding upon the punishment of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar; but there is nothing in evidence to show that the management did this. All these lead to an inference of mala fides on the part of the management. I shall have also occasions later in course of my award to point out to facts which would show that the management has consistently betrayed mala fides in this case. So I am unable to accept the finding arrived at at the domestic enquiry and I feel called upon to consider the evidence adduced before me to com to a finding about the issue mentioned in the orde of reference.

In view of the evidence adduced before me th following points emerge out of the issue mentione in the order of reference:

(1) Whether Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar wa justified in hanging up the copy of h letter to the Managing Director, dat 20th December 1957, on the notice boar of the reporting section;

(2) Whether Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee, th Chief Reporter of Ananda Bazar Patrik was justified in nominating Shri Madhu sudan Chakraborty as his successor durin his absence on leave;

(3) Whether Shri Madhusudan Chakrabort had lawful authority to make assignmen of duties to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar;

(4) Whether Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar di obeyed the assignments made to him c 21st December 1957, 23rd December 195 27th December 1957 and 28th Decemb 1957.

Point No. 1: Though Shri Pulakesh De Sark in his letter, dated 31st December 1957, tried justify his conduct in hanging up h letter, dated 20th December 1957, on the noti board, towards the end of the letter he offered remove the letter from the notice board uncond tionally and he did so on that very date. Sh Asoke Kumar Sirkar, the Managing Directo says before me that he did not take any action o that letter of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar. Actuall nothing happened between 31st December 1957 an 11th January 1958. Normally one would expe the management to be satisfied with the explan tion of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar contained in h letter, dated 31st December 1957, in view of th fact that he removed his letter, dated 20th Decem ber 1957, from the notice board. But if th management thought it proper not to be satisfie with that explanation, it could at once hold a enquiry on that charge-sheet and should not hav waited till 1st February 1958, for another charg sheet to crop up in the mean time, for holding th enquiry. This delay is suspicious and shows th the management was not bona fide in its actio So even if Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was not just fied in hanging up his letter on the notice boar the management ought not to have taken an action against him in view of the fact that h removed the letter as soon as he learnt that th management took exception to his conduct.

Point No. 2: Shri Asoke Kumar Sarkar, th Managing Director of Ananda Bazar Patrika (P Ltd., admits in his evidence before me that Sh Shib Das Bhattacherjee is not an appointin authority; but he supports the action of the latte in nominating Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty a his successor on the ground that this is a temporar arrangement. Though this may be a temporar arrangement it is unthinkable that an employee o an institution, unless he is the head of the office should have the power to nominate his successo during his absence on leave. The Company ha not produced any evidence that Shri Shib Da

Bhattacherjee is an exception to this rule. It has been admitted by some of the witnesses on behalf of the Company that the Editor is the head of the Editorial Department including the reporting section, though this has been denied by Shri Asoke Kumar Sarkar. Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee addressed his letter intimating his going on leave to the Managing Director, by-passing the Editor. This is obviously an act of indiscipline. Shri Asoke Kumar Sarkar admits in his evidence before me that he characterised the letter of Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee as an intimation to the Managing Director and not as an order. Obviously, such a letter could become an order, only after it was approved of by the Editor or the Managing Director; but there is nothing to show that the letter of Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee was approved of by the Editor or the Managing Director. So I hold that Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee was not justified in nominating Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty as his successor during his absence on leave. As such, his letter to the Managing Director cannot be termed an order, as has been admitted by the Managing Director himself.

Point No. 3: In view of my finding on Point No. 2, it is clear that Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty had no legal authority to assign duties to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar. Shri Asoke Kumar Sircar in his evidence before me says that he told Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar definitely to obey the orders of Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty during the absence of Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee; but this statement is belied by his contemporaneous conduct. Immediately after his conversation with Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar the latter wrote him a letter, dated 20th December 1957, intimating that he would decide his assignments himself; but the Managing Director did not take Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to task for writing so. It cannot be argued that the letter escaped his notice, because on 31st December 1957 he issued a charge-sheet to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar calling for his explanation for having hung up the letter on the notice board. Even in the evidence before me he says that he objected to the publication of the letter and not to its contents. If really he had asked Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to obey the assignments made to the latter by Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty, he could have called for an explanation from Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar for what he had stated in the last paragraph of his letter, dated 20th December 1957 (Ext. G3). Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty has admitted in evidence that the Editor had asked him to consult Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar about the assignments of duty made to the latter. If Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty had legal authority to make assignments of duties to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar, the Editor could not have asked him to consult Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar about his assignments. If really the authorities, I mean the Managing Director, wanted Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to obey the orders of Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty, the Managing Director could either give written orders to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar asking him categorically to obey the orders of Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty or convey his approval to the letter of Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee nominating Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty in his place. The Managing Director did neither. Thereby he created a confusion and led Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to believe that he could ignore the assignments made to him by Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty, if the circumstances so demanded. This action of the Managing Director lends support to the argument on behalf of the Union that the management laid a trap for Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar to enter into. So I hold that Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty had no lawful authority to make assignments to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar.

Point No. 4: It appears from evidence that the Work Diary of the reporter shows a particular assignment in the name of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar on 21st December 1957. The evidence led by the Company is that he was informed over the 'phone on the previous day to attend the assignment. But it is admitted by O.P.W.4 Shri Amitava Chowdhury who tried to inform Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar over the 'phone, that a lady responded to the telephone call and that he communicated the massage to her. This is all the evidence about the communication of the assignment to Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar; but this evidence does not show that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar received the communication. It is in the evidence that the usual practice is to send information through peons in such cases; there is no explanation why this was not done in this case. So this also lends support to the Union's argument of the entrapping of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar. Anyway, it must be held that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was not informed of the assignment on 21st December 1957. So there can be no question of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar disobeying any assignment allotted to him on 21st December 1957. As to 27th December 1957 it is admitted on all hands that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was on leave on that date. The Company has argued that he availed of the leave without the permission of Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty who claims to have been acting as the Chief Reporter during the relevant time. Whether there is any substance in this argument or not, the fact remains that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was on leave. That leave cannot be called unauthorised, as he got wages for that day. If a reporter remains absent lawfully on a particular day, it is not understood how he could carry out any assignment made to him on that date. Obviously, the duty of the person who was looking after the work of the reporting section on 27th December 1957 was to allot the assignment to some other reporter. Anyway, Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar cannot be said to have disobeyed the assignment on that date. The assignment of duty allotted to him on 28th December 1957 was made on 27th December 1957, the day on which Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was absent. There is no evidence that the assignment allotted to him on 28th December 1957 was specifically brought to his notice. Further, he has explained that he could not carry out the assignment noted against him in the Work Diary on 28th December, 1957, in deference to the wishes of the Managing Director about covering certain important function. The explanation is a reasonable one. On 23rd December 1957 Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar went to cover an important function and he has explained how he failed to notice the assignment noted against his name in the Work Dairy on that date. This explanation is also reasonable. The evidence adduced before me in this respect shows Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar's inability to comply with the assignments noted against his name in the Work Diary. But this is not the same thing as disobedience. Disobedience means intentional failure to carry out the assignments. The Company has not tried to prove that volition. It has, however, argued that the last paragraph of the letter of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar, dated 20th December 1957 (Ext. G3), leads to an inference of such volition. This inference is, to a certain extent, valid; but circumstances show that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar did not act according to the threat contained in the last paragraph of that letter. If really he intended to disobey the assignments made by Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty, he could have done it with effect from 16th December 1957; the day on which Shri Shib Das Bhattacherjee went on leave. But there is no evidence to show that he failed to carry out his assignments on any other day except the four days mentioned in the second charge-sheet. He has given explanation for his failure to carry out the assignments on those days. As I have pointed out above, the explanations are reasonable and ought to be accepted. So I hold that Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar did not disobey the assignments of duties made to him by Shri Madhusudan Chakraborty.

In view of the above considerations I hold that the termination of the service of Shri Pulakesh De Sarkar was unjustified. So I order that he should be reinstated and paid his emoluments for the period of his forced unemployment. The money received by him as per order No. 6, dated 27th January 1959, should be adjusted against his claim of emoluments for the period of forced unemployment. The above order will take effect within a month from the date of publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

AWARD

By Government order No. 5441-I.R./D/10L-16/56, dated the 20th December 1956, a dispute between several Companies and their workmen was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co., Ltd., No. 8, Swinhoe Street, Calcutta-19 (hereinafter referred to as the Company), was one of the parties thereto.

During the pendency of that dispute the Company discharged Shri Sitaram Upadhya (hereinafter referred to as the petitioner) who was one of its workmen by an order, dated 21st November, 1958, with effect from the date of his suspension, i.e., 20th October 1958. The order of dismissal was passed as a result of an enquiry by Shri D. N. Varma (O.P.W. 1), Labour Officer of the Company, regarding a charge of misdemeanour to which he had pleaded not guilty and which was as follows:—

> "While on duty from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on 27th October 1958, you had picked up one Roller from Building Department, without permission and took it out carefully concealed under ash on your tractor, without a gate pass or authority."

The order of dismissal was passed on 21st November 1958 as has been stated above. The Company filed on 4th December 1958 an application under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act in view of the pendency of the aforesaid dispute. The award in that dispute had been published before that in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 5th November 1958. So, after the expiry of one month therefrom, i.e., from 6th December 1958, this Tribunal became functus officio so far as the application under section 33(2) was concerned in view of section 20, sub-section (3) of the Act. As a result, this application was struck off on 8th December 1958. On the same date the petitioner filed the instant application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

As will appear from the charge quoted above, the petitioner was accused of dishonestly removing a roller out of the factory; or, in the other words, he was charged with theft of the roller.

The petitioner alleges that the charge was false and groundless and that the Company has contravened the provision of section 33 of the Act in dismissing him.

The Company's case is that it has not contravened any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act and that the charge brought against the petitioner was true and that the present application is not maintainable in law.

So, the points for decision are—

(1) is the application maintainable?

(2) has the Company contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act?

(3) has the charge against the petitioner been, prima facie, proved?

Point Nos. 1 and 2: These two points are taken up together for the sake of convenience. It is contended on behalf of the Company that the instant application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable, in view of the fact that the Company's application under section 33(2) of the Act had been struck off on 6th December 1958 and the Tribunal had become functus officio from that date. This contention cannot be upheld because an application under section 33A of the Act is not a proceeding relating to the order of reference made by Government, nor arising out or in connection thereof. Such an application is to be regarded as an independent proceeding and can be made even after the order of reference has ceased to exist by virtue of section 20, sub-section (3) of the Act.

Reliance has been placed on behalf of the Company on two awards of this Tribunal relating to applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act; one was between Shri Hari Sawain and Messrs. I. G. N. & Rly. Co., Ltd., and the other was between Shri Triloki Nath Tewari and 10 others and Bengal Ingot Co. Private Ltd., reported at pages 3150 and 3159 respectively of the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 27th August 1959. The facts of these cases are not similar to that of the instant one. In those cases, the workmen had not filed the applications under section 33A of the Act in proper time, but in the instant case, it appears that the petitioner filed this instant application within 17 days of the dismissal while the Company had filed its application under section 33(2) of the Act about 13 days after the order of dismissal and only three days before the award was published; even there was no time to issue a notice to the workman of the same and he had no opporunity to say his say in the matter. Further, there is no evidence on the side of the Company to show that it had paid or tendered wages for one month to the petitioner as required by the proviso to section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Therefore, it is to be held that the Company has contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Act as it had not filed an application for approval before this Tribunal of the dismissal of the petitioner within a reasonable time from the date of the order of dismissal and as it had not paid or tendered wages for one month to him.

As a result, it is held that the instant application is maintainable and that the Company has contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act in its action of dismissing the petitioner and the said previous awards of this Tribunal referred to above are of no avail to the Company.

At the time of hearing, an objection has been raised on behalf of the Company regarding the representation of the petitioner in this case. It is a fact that he is now no longer a member of the Union to which the workmen of the Company belong, but he has been represented in this case by Shri Shyam Chakravorty who is the Vice-President of the Engineering Workers' Union, West Bengal and who certified that the petitioner is a member of that Union. So, the Company's objection on this ground is overruled.

Point No. 3: It is common ground that the petitioner was in the permanent employ of the Company as a tractor driver; on 27th October 1958 he was engaged in carrying out ash in a trailer attached to the tractor for dumping the same somewhere outside the factory. The Company's case is that at about 11 a.m. while he was taking out the tractor with the loaded trailer he picked up a roller from a lot that was lying in the building department of the Company, concealed it inside the ashes and drove out; on being questioned by three of the workers of the building department, namely, Sarbashri Nritya, Kanai and Gosta (O.P.Ws. 3, 4, 5), as to why he was taking out the roller, he told that it would be necessary if the tractor underwent a breakdown or went out of order, but it would be replaced when he would come back with the tractor. But he did not replace it when he returned.

These facts are proved by three witnesses of the Company, namely, O.P.Ws. 3, 4 and 5, whose evidence deserves, prima facie, credence. In the instant application under section 33 of the Act, the petitioner has simply averred that the charge against him is false and groundless; but at the time of evidence he has not denied the Company's case that on 27th October 1958 he was engaged in work as stated above. Further, he says that a tyre of the trailer got punctured and in order to get the wheel lifted for repairing the same, he used a roller from a nearby stack inside the factory premises; after repairing the tyre he asked one Sundar (P.W. 2) an apprentice driver who was with him to replace the roller in the stack which the latter did; further he got the punctured tyre repaired from a workshop at his own cost which he did not recoup from the Company in view of the proceeding against him that followed; also, he says that the false case against him has been concocted as a result of his quarrel with one Mohon Mistry.

The petitioner has failed to prove that he had any quarrel with Mohon Mistry. Even, if that were a fact, that cannot be any reason why the three eye-witnesses of the incident (O.P.Ws. 3, 4 and 5) would depose falsely against him. So, this part of the petitioner's case regarding motive of the charge against him is held to be altogether unfounded. The story given by him in his evidence regarding his taking the roller for the purpose of repairing a tyre and the replacement of the same by Sundar (P.W. 3) should be initially regarded with some suspicion in view of the fact that no such case has been made out in his instant application; if, really these were the facts, it is very difficult to understand why the petitioner would not relate the same in his instant application.

The petitioner has examined the said Sundar (P.W. 2) and Sudama (P.W. 4) to prove that he actually repaired the punctured tyre as alleged; but from the attendance register of the Company (Ext. E), it appears that P.W. 2 did not attend the factory on that date; P.W. 3 appears to have been on leave on that date (vide Ext. F, leave pass). There is no reason to disbelieve these facts transpiring from these documents and it must be held that P.Ws. 2 and 3 did not attend the workshop on the date of the incident and they have given false evidence to support the petitioner's case which is also false. Here, it is to be observed that the petitioner did not examine any witness before the enquiring officer (O.P.W. 1); he says, that he was not allowed to examine any witness, but O.P.W. 2 says that he did not adduce any evidence though asked to do so, at the time of the enquiry, and also, in the notice (Ext. D) given to him regarding the date of the enquiry. There is no reason to disbelieve the evidence of O.P.W. 1 and it is to be held that when he made the enquiry the petitioner had not been able to make out a case n his defence and to manufacture witnesses in upport thereof. It is also remarkable that in rder to give a colour of truth to his story of a yre having been punctured he has stated that he ot the punctured tyre repaired from a workshop utside the factory, but strangely enough, he does ot remember the amount paid by him nor did he ecoup the amount from the Company. If he had ctually spent the money on 27th October 1958 it as quite probable that he would demand the same rom the Company on the next day and his plea in vidence that he did not make the demand in view f the charge cannot be believed to be correct as the harge appears to have been intimated to him on 1st November 1958.

He has examined the Durwan (P.W. 3) who was on duty at the gate at the time of occurrence. The Durwan says that he did not find anything in the tractor or in the trailer at that time but he admits that when the vehicle was taken out by the petitioner he (P.W. 3) simply moved around it for the purpose of inspection and did nothing else. Now, the evidence of O.P.Ws. 3, 4 and 5 is that the petitioner had concealed the roller inside the ashes on the trailer. So, the evidence of the Durwan (P.W. 3) does not conclusively prove that the roller had not been taken out by the petitioner. That he did so is proved beyond doubt by O.P. Ws. 3, 4 and 5 whom there seems to be no reason to disbelieve. It is argued on behalf of the petitioner that if these three witnesses had actually seen the petitioner concealing the roller and taking it out of the factory they would have immediately made a row and reported the matter to the Durwan, but these witnesses say that they did not take such a course of action because the petitioner told that the roller would be necessary in case the vehicle went out of order and he would replace the same on his return, but as he did not replace the same as promised they reported the matter the next day, i.e., on 28th October 1958 to their Supervisor (O.P.W. 2) whose evidence is that after receiving the report from them he counted the stock of rollers and found one short and then reported the matter to the Manager.

In view of the fact that the petitioner has not ated the very material facts regarding his alleged efence in his application under section 33A of the dustrial Disputes Act which he has tried to prove y his own evidence and that of P.Ws. 2 and 4, ho are found to have deposed falsely, and that he as concocted a receipt (Id. X) to support his plea i defence, it can by no means be held that the vidence against him given by the witnesses of the ompany is false or fabricated or unreliable and it held that the enquiring officer was quite justified i finding the petitioner guilty of the charge on uch evidence and the Company was also justified n dismissing the petitioner on such finding which pparently has been done in pursuance of the ertified Standing Orders of the Company.

The petitioner has proved a letter, dated 4th December 1958 (Ext. 1), written by the Manager Shri V. Rama Iyer to another person recommending hat the petitioner was a good driver and mechanic. This is of no use to the petitioner in this case, nowhere within the four corners of Ext. 1 the nager recommended the petitioner as an honest workman. It has been elicited in the cross-examination of the Enquiring Officer Shri Varma that the price of the roller would be about Rs. 20. This has been done probably with the object to show that the petitioner would not possibly care to commit theft of an article of so small a value, but it is to be observed that the petitioner's total wages which have also been proved by the same O.P.W. 1 in his cross-examination is about Rs. 110. So, it was not at all unlikely for him to be induced to take away the roller with the object of fetching a sum of Rs. 20 by its sale.

The petitioner has also failed to prove that the Company or O.P.W. 1 has violated the principles of natural justice at any stage of the proceeding against him or that either of them has been motivated by any policy of victimisation or unfair labour practice.

As a result, the application filed by the petitioner under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is dismissed on contest and it is held that his dismissal by the Company is justified.

This is the award of the Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 591-I.R./IR/9L-15/58, dated 15th February 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Ltd.) and one of their workmen Shri Subir Das Gupta, represented by the Dooars Tea Garden Indian Employees' Association, Demdima Tea Estate, P.O. Birpara, Jalpaiguri, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Subir Das Gupta is justified? To what relief by way of reinstatement and/or compensation is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of Shri Subir Das Gupta previously employed in Messrs. Hope Tea Estate, P.O. Nagrakata, Jalpaiguri (Managing Agents Messrs. Duncan Bros. & Co. Ltd.) hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity.

Decision

The preliminary point urged on behalf of the Company is that it is an individual dispute and as such the reference is incompetent and the Court is not entitled to adjudicate upon it. In arguing this point, special emphasis is laid on the term "one of their workmen", and it is contended that majority of workmen made no grievance of the dismissal of the workman concerned, nor did they make common cause with him. In the instant case, it appears that the workman is represented by Dooars Tea Garden Indian Employees' Association, Demdima Tea Estate, P.O. Birpara, Jalpaiguri. The law is very well settled that a dispute which was initially an individual dispute may very well develop into an industrial dispute when the majority of workmen employed in the Company or their Union espouse his cause. It really makes no difference whether the dispute is between the Company on one hand and one or more workmen on the other hand, but in order to be an industrial dispute the dispute must be collectively taken up by majority of workmen forming a registered Union. In this view of mine, I am supported by the case laws reported in 1953 Vol. I, L.L.J. page 195, 1955 Vol. II L.L.J. page 477 and Hon'ble Supreme Court's decision in the case of Central Province Transport Services and Raghunath Gopal Patwardhan reported in 1957 Vol. I L.L.J. page 477 which pronounce the same view. It is laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that the preponderance of judicial opinion is clearly in favour of the view that a dispute between an employer and a single employee cannot per se be an industrial dispute within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, but it might become one if it is taken up by the Union or a number of workmen. Since the Union took up the cause of the workman, there is the natural presumption that the Union took up his cause, and this presumption is not rebutted by any evidence to the contrary vide the case of Hindusthan Times Ltd, New Delhi, and Chief Commissioner, New Delhi, and others reported in 1957 Vol. II L.L.J. page 466. The contention raised on behalf of the Company is negatived, and thus I hold that this is an industrial dispute.

Now I will take up the case on merits. There is no dispute in this case that the workman Shri Subir Das Gupta was employed first as Junior Office Clerk in May 1949, then promoted to the rank of Store Clerk and confirmed as such on 31st March 1955. There was no charge-sheet against him during this period, in other words, his service record was quite clean. He, however, was charge sheeted on 28th April 1956 vide Ext. 3. The main charges against him are inefficiency and neglect of duty for his failure to keep proper record of the stocks of rice in his charge. To be more specific the number of bags of rice shown in the Stock Book on 10th April 1956 was 1,281, while physical check by Mr. Fordyce in his presence revealed only 1,245 bags in stock or a loss of 36 bags. The charge-sheet further recites that on dates given below the quantities of rice issued from the stock and entered in the stock book did not tally as follows:—

	Stock book. Mds.	Actual issues. Mds. srs.	Loss. Mds. srs.	Gain Mds. srs.
13-1-56 ..	90	54 8	35 37	..
20-1-56 ..	90	76 27	13 13	..
27-1-56 ..	90	75 9	14 31	..
3-2-56 ..	90	84 4½	5 35½	..
10-2-56 ..	90	83 31½	6 8½	..
19-2-56 ..	95	88 1	6 39	..
16-3-56 ..	64	70 2	..	6 2
23-3-56 ..	62	73 39½	..	11 39½
30-3-56 ..	64	71 16	..	7 16
Loss ..		93 16½
Gain ..		23 17½
Nett loss		67 30

The stock in hand should therefore be 3,288 mds 35 srs. and not 3,220 mds. 36½ srs. as shown by the workman. On the aforesaid charges, the workman was called upon to explain in writing at the Manager's Office at the factory on 2nd May 1956 at 8 a.m. why disciplinary measures should not be instituted against him, and it was further stated that in the event of his not presenting any explanation on that date the matter will be disposed of in his absence. Annexure B to the Union's written statement is the explanation submitted by the workman concerned. The explanation is pretty long and I refrain from quoting that explanation in extenso, but simply state the substance thereof. In his explanation, the workman denied the charge of being inefficient or negligent in discharging his duties. In doing so, he has specified his duties as looking after general stores, typing, keeping office records and doing other miscellaneous jobs in the office and also working as a substitute for other employees on leave. To add to that, keeping records of rations was also assigned to him with effect from 1st April 1954, and so he explains that for the pressure of his duties the method of keeping accounts in vogue though not considered satisfactory had to be adopted. He has further specifically denied having held charge of the actual stock of rice in the store room, as the Manager kept the keys in his own custody at his bungalow, and the place of storage was open to access by the Chowkidars who regularly opened the godown with the keys brought from the Manager's bungalow, though he had occasions to open the godown when the Chowkidars were not available. It further appears from his explanation that this Tea Estate has been receiving supplies of foodstuff from Messrs. Steel Bros. & Co. Ltd. and as the stock was considerable it was not possible to ascertain the stock position frequently after giving allowance for all kinds of loss and shortage due to damage of bags at the bottom consequent on long storage and moisture, wear and tear of bags, occasional fannings of dusty matters, unavoidable mistake in mass and individual distribution, consumption by rats and pests besides the system of free distribution to bungalow and lay women. Furthermore, he explains that the management in their anxiety to get adequate supplies of stocks in advance to tide over the difficult times of the monsoon, the actual stock position was always reported to be less explaining discrepancy between actual stock in hand and the book position as reported, and this system had been obtaining in the garden for many years past. In his explanation he has also given a comparative study of the position as follows:—

	Percentage of loss
1953 (May to December) ...	15.74
1954 (January to March) ...	24.92
1954 (April to December) ...	6.58
1955 (January to December) ...	7.73

The aforesaid position is stated to show how much the workman concerned succeeded in keeping down the percentage of loss to the minimum. In short, the workman explains that the actual distribution work being carried out by the Chowkidar and the keys to the godown being kept in the custody of the Manager, he cannot be held responsible for the stock whether it is in excess or deficit and also because the entries in the books were always at variance with the actual stock position.

It is common ground that there was an enquiry (vide proceedings Ext. E) held by the Manager in presence of the Assistant Manager and the Head Clerk. Admittedly, the workman was present at the enquiry, but he alleges that the answers given by him were recorded in loose sheets and not in the bound book (Ext. E) as produced by the Management in Court at the time of trial. The answers given by the workman clearly show that the account books were not correctly kept and that he never complained of pressure of duties and that he never did physical checking of stocks which he should have done as a Store Clerk. During his evidence in Court Mr. Thallon candidly enough admitted that the workman was more efficient than his predecessor-in-office, and that he never accused him of theft by any charge-sheet. As the Manager himself does not hold the workman guilty of the charges formulated, I cannot go further than that and thus let the enquiry rest where it is.

On 12th April 1956 the Manager admittedly received a verbal report of theft in the godown on 11th April 1956 and intimated to Messrs. Duncan Bros. (Ext. F-1). Police were also informed of this theft as per letter (Ext. F, dated 12th April 1956), and the Police as a result of an investigation submitted a final report saying that the commodities alleged to have been sold, i.e., rice, are unidentifiable. The criminal case, therefore, led to no definite result. Yet, the Manager states that he would press the Police to re-start the case. Be that as it may, the charge of theft as matters stand now has been given a go by by the Management itself. The Stock Book (Ext. A), Chowkidar's Book (Ext. B), Assistant Manager's "Ration Account Statement" (Ext. D), Sale Proceeds Books (Ext. C, C-1 and C-2) are all discrepant, and admittedly no two books agree and no book can be relied on as the entries do not represent the correct state of things. Thus these entries are not worth the paper on which they are written and lead to no definite conclusions. It is further admitted by the Manager and the Assistant Manager that never before was any checking made of the stock. If the Manager or the Assistant Manager or even the Head Clerk exercised proper supervision over the stock, there would have been hardly any scope for such shortage. In view of the discrepancies in all these books, I cannot say with any amount of certainty with reference to these books of account that there was really any deficiency of stock as alleged by the Management. If I say that there was shortage of actual stock with reference to wrong figures I would be wrong. It may be stated also that the Management used to submit returns weekly to Messrs. Steel Bros. & Co. who were the suppliers of stocks of foodstuffs to the garden and monthly to Duncan Bros. Ltd. who were the Managing Agents of the Tea Estate, and these two returns did never agree. The workman says that in order to ensure supplies of foodstuff sufficiently in time before the monsoon set in, the issues were inflated and stocks were shown as less than what it was actually. Such state of things in a garden managed by Messrs. Duncan Bros. Ltd. can never be countenanced and is indeed to be regretted. The workman has tried to absolve himself of the charge of making incorrect entries at variance with the actual stock, and to shift the blame on to the shoulders of the Manager and the Chowkidar, but the Manager has himself denied it whom I cannot disbelieve. There is no written instruction in support of this defective system by the Manager as alleged by the workman to save his own skin. The system of showing less stock in order to obtain adequate supplies before the monsoon and the obvious lack of supervision on the part of the supervisory staff is wrong and cannot but be regretted and that only gave scope for disparity. Truth and fair-play demand that the reports required to be submitted to the higher authority, namely, Duncan Bros. Ltd., should always agree with the actual stock, as also the stock position to be reported to the suppliers Messrs. Steel Bros & Co. Ltd., should be in agreement with the actual stock in hand. In other words, all the books regarding stocks on head of receipt, issue and balance should always agree. Any discrepancy between the stock position and the report really smacks of irregularity and there must be some rub somewhere, no matter where its source is. The Management, it appears, slept over such undesirable state of things, namely, discrepancy between the actual stock and the report, and that is responsible for the entire bungling. I am also in agreement with the Manager that the workman concerned cannot be held guilty of the charge of theft or of inefficiency, but I would hold him responsible for making incorrect entries at variance with the actual stock and submitting untrue reports to Managing Agents and Contractor-Suppliers in the absence of written orders from the Manager in this respect. The workman would have been well advised if he had sought for Manager's instruction in support of submitting discrepant returns to Messrs. Steel Bros. Ltd. and Duncan Bros. Ltd. If he would have done that, he would not have laid himself open to this charge of failure to keep correct records as required of him. Keeping incorrect accounts is itself sufficient to create distrust of the Management in him, and I don't think, I would be justified in foisting an untruthful workman on the Management. No Management can work with a dishonest man, and I think, I shall have not the least justification in thrusting such a dishonest worker upon the Management as it would be tantamount to putting premium upon dishonesty in the garden.

At this stage, I would impress upon the Management the necessity and importance of keeping correct accounts of stocks. I may suggest that accounts should be kept by a clerk whose duty it would be to keep correct accounts and there should be a godown clerk who should be responsible for actual stocks and the Head Clerk should make periodical physical checking of stocks, say, monthly and Assistant Manager should check at least bimonthly and the Manager should make physical check of stock at least twice a year. If this system be followed, there would be remote chances of fraud in this connection.

On a careful consideration of the charge-sheet, the evidence on record—both oral and documentary, I must repeat as already said that the workman cannot be held guilty of the charge of negligence or inefficiency which is also admitted by Mr. Thallon. The workman cannot, however, escape being found guilty of failure to make correct entries in account books. As the charg is already there in the charge-sheet, it cannot b said that the Management cannot hold him guilt of a charge not given in the charge-sheet. Th law is well-settled that a workman cannot be hel guilty of a charge not formulated in the charge sheet which he had no opportunity to explai resulting in violation of principles of natura justice, i.e., no man can be condemned unheare i.e., audi alteram partem. But in the instan case, there has been no violation of the principle of natural justice, nor do I find any mala fides o the part of the Company, nor any unfair labou practice. No case of victimisation arises in thi case. A case of victimisation can properly aris when the action sought to be taken against th workman has been taken for extraneous reason which, for example, may not be connected wit the discharge of his duties as an employee i relation to his employer, etc. (vide 1959 L.L.J Vol. II, page 649, Jaipur Spinning & Weavin Mills Ltd., and Government of Rajasthan an others). But the instant action is the direc result of the workman's failure to keep correc accounts, so no case of victimisation arises. would further add that in deciding this ca having regard to the incorrect and irregularl kept account books, I have not attached an importance to the result of the enquiry as held b the Management, but the Court has practicall held an independent enquiry which the Court entitled to (vide 1956 L.L.J. Vol. I, page 13 Vithal Setty and Choksi Silk Mills), and as result thereof irrespective of the findings of th Management the Court finds the workman guil of the charge of failure to keep correct account which is one of his normal duties, and he ha thus deviated from truth and displayed a conduc quite unworthy of him, and as such the Manage ment cannot repose any confidence in him.

Thus I would convert the order of dismissal int one of discharge and grant him 3½ months' wages as he put in 7 years' service from May 1949 t May 1956. In doing so, I am supported by th ruling reported in 1956 L.L.J. Vol. I, page 45 (Bimal Kanta Mukherjee & Newman Printing Works) wherein it is laid down as follows:—

> "The employer having had grave suspicion that the concerned workman committe theft, it would not be conducive to industria peace or harmonious relationship to orde reinstatement of the concerned workman In the circumstances, the concerned work man was directed to be discharged fro service with effect from the date of occur rence of the alleged misconduct with pay ment of one month's wages and dearnes allowance in lieu of notice and (2) pay ment of six months' basic wages as comp sation for loss of employment."

Before concluding I would advert to the Standi Orders (Ext. J) of the Company. Both part agree that the Standing Orders did not come in force when the offence was committed, but as t Court held an independent enquiry it is perfec justified now in passing the order of discharge the instant case irrespective of the Standi Orders. The Union, it may be stated, urged reinstatement, but that is altogether out of question in the interest of the industry itself in the present circumstances of the case. This prayer for reinstatement is refused by balancing the relevant factors irrespective of any legalistic or doctrinaire approach.

Thus the order of dismissal is converted into one of discharge awarding 3½ months' wages in full to the workman concerned who is directed to be paid the same by the Company within a month of the publication of this award in "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award.

Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

Metal Box Company of India Ltd., Hide Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta-23 (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen employed in their Hide Road Factories (hereinafter referred to as the Union), was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication by Government order No. 5169-I.R. IR/10L-28/58, dated the 5th December 1958. The issues framed by Government were as follows:—

(1) Whether the termination of employment of Sarvashri (1) Gabboo Goala, (2) Ram Bahadur, (3) Bhattoo Rajbhar, (4) Mohd. Illias, and (5) Amirullah is justified? Are they entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

(2) Is Shri Sukha Ranjan Roy entitled to any further payment on account of retirement benefits? Is he also entitled to receive any amount from the Bonus Reserve Account?

(3) Production Bonus.

(4) Trip Bonus, Tiffin allowance and overtime wages for Lorry Drivers and workmen of despatch department.

On 13th November 1959 a joint petition of compromise together with an annexure signed by the Calcutta Manager of the Company as well as by its Solicitor on the one hand and by the present President and the Secretary of the Union on the other hand has been filed. The terms of the compromise are fair and reasonable. An award is therefore passed as prayed for by the parties in terms of the petition of compromise, dated 13th November 1959, and the annexure thereto all of which will form part of this award as Annexure X, collectively.

Both the Management of the Company and the office bearers of the Union have acted wisely and discreetly in settling the dispute amicably. It is needless to say that amicable settlement of industrial dispute is the best way of maintaining industrial peace between employers and employees, and the more that is taken recourse to the more assured will be the industrial progress of the country. The example set by the Management and the office bearers of the Union in the instant case may be profitably emulated by others of their class.

In the matter of an industrial dispute

Between

The humble petition of the Metal Box Company of India Ltd. and the Metal Box Workers' Union

1. By an order No. 5162-I.R./IR/10L-28/58, dated 5th December 1958, made under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of West Bengal referred to this Hon'ble Tribunal an industrial dispute between The Metal Box Company of India Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and its workmen employed in Hide Road Factories represented by the Metal Box Workers' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union), on the following—

Issues

(1) Whether the termination of employment of Sarvashri (1) Gabboo Goala, (2) Ram Bahadur, (3) Bhatoo Rajbhar, (4) Md. Ellias, and (5) Amir Ullah is justified? Are they entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

(2) Is Shri Sukha Ranjan Roy entitled to any further payment on account of retirement benefits? Is he also entitled to receive any amount from the Bonus Reserve Account?

(3) Production Bonus.

(4) Trip bonus, tiffin allowance and overtime wages for Lorry Drivers and workmen of despatch department.

2. On the last date of hearing on 7th September 1959 both the Company and Union filed a petition before your Honour making a joint prayer for adjournment of the hearing to enable the parties to come to an amicable settlement by bipartite negotiation and your Honour was pleased to postpone the hearing till 18th November 1959.

3. Thereafter several joint conferences were held in order to effect an amicable settlement of the industrial dispute between the parties and finally the parties have agreed, in order to bring industrial peace and harmony to resolve the said dispute in the manner and on the following—

Terms of Settlement

(i)(a) The Company has conceded to the request of the Union to change the orders of dismissal in respect of Sarvashri Gabboo Goala, Ram Bahadur and Bhatoo Rajbhar into those of discharge. The Company agrees to pay all monetary benefits to the three named employees as in the case of a discharge simpliciter.

(b) The Union agrees to drop the issue regarding Mohammed Ellias and Amir Ullah. In order to foster better relations with the employees and the Union the Company has agreed to pay ex gratia to these two employees a certain amount of money, agreed to by the Union.

(ii) Issue No. 2: The Company has agreed to the request of the Union that in view of the past service to the Company by Shri Sukhesh Chandra Roy (wrongly mentioned as Shri Sukha Ranjan Roy in the order of reference) he should also be paid ex gratia a certain agreed sum of money and the issue regarding his claim for further payment on account of retirement benefits and Bonus Reserve Account is hereby dropped.

(iii) Issue No. 3: (a) In order to give better incentive to production to its employees the Company agrees to introduce as soon as possible a revised Production Bonus Scheme, as formulated by the Company and as negotiated and finally agreed upon by the Union, in place of the existing Production Bonus Scheme.

A copy of the revised Production Bonus Scheme showing figures relating to targets of production, rates of manning and incentive payments is annexed hereto and marked with the letter (A). In this copy of the revised scheme figures have been separately shown for a 7½-hour day as well as a 8-hour day.

(b) As the factories of the Company are now actually working a 7½-hour day, the scheme based on the 7½-hour day will be made effective. It is, however, agreed by and between the parties that if on a future date the Company decides to switch over to a 8-hour day in its factories the scheme relating to the 8-hour day will be given effect to in place of the 7½-hour day scheme.

(c) If within a period of one year of its introduction it is found that the revised scheme is adversely affecting the employees or the production in the factories, either party shall be at liberty to open negotiations for revision of the scheme.

(d) In view of the fact that it is not possible at present to introduce the revised Production Bonus Scheme in Factory No. 2, the Company, taking into consideration the preservation of good relationship with its employees, agrees to pay at a flat rate of 50 nP. per day actually worked to its daily-rated employees of Factory No. 2 as an incentive to better production in place or in lieu of the revised scheme.

(iv) Issue No. 4: (a) It is agreed by and between the parties that the working hours of the Lorry Drivers will be 9½ hours per day inclusive of ½ hour for recess.

(b) Each Lorry Driver will get an overtime allowance of Rs. 20.00 per month at a flat rate. In consideration of payment of this allowance each lorry driver will remain liable to work if necessary up to 66 hours a week including Sundays, but no Driver will be made to work more than 66 hours in a week including Sundays.

(c) In addition to the allowance mentioned in preceding sub-clause, the Trip Bonus which Lorry Drivers are now enjoying will continue be paid to them under the Company's Trip nus Scheme now in vogue.

(d) The workmen of the Despatch Department o come under the purview of the Factories Act, ll continue to receive overtime allowance as pro- led under the said Act.

(e) The issue regarding tiffin allowance and ertime wages is hereby dropped in view of the tlement reached above.

4. The above terms arrived at between the rties settle all the issues mentioned in the order reference and the parties agree to accept them full and final settlement of the dispute.

Your petitioners therefore jointly pray that ur Honour will be pleased to approve of the tlement and pass an award in the matter ordingly making this petition of compromise a rt of the award.

And your petitioners as in duty bound shall er pray.

THE METAL BOX CO. OF INDIA LTD., CALCUTTA

Revised Production Bonus Scheme

1. A Production Bonus can only be earned if tra tins are made and sold, and therefore the ures on which the bonus will be paid are based completed products on the lines for Line Bonus d ready for despatch, in respect of Pool Bonus. l daily or hourly paid permanent employees will eligible to earn either Line or Pool Bonus and e Scheme does not cover monthly paid factory ployees and casual workers.

2. The Scheme is divided into two parts:—

(a) A Line Bonus will be paid to employees working on all main assembly lines in each factory and this will be based strictly in accordance with the Manning Schedule (Schedule "A") and the number of tins produced each day. The Line Bonus targets are given separately (Schedule "B").

(b) Pool Bonus will be paid to all other daily or hourly-rated employees who are not working on lines rated for Line Bonus on the basis of the average number of bonuses earned by the lines. This will be arrived at by adding all the bonuses earned on a particular day and divided by the number of lines run on that day including the shifts. This average will be adjusted for the capacity usage of the installed lines in the Factory. The adjustment will be as per the following Schedules:—

If over 75 per cent. of the installed lines	100
If 51 per cent. to 75 per cent. ...	75
If 26 per cent. to 50 per cent. ...	50
If up to 25 per cent.	25

3. With a Production Bonus of this nature there is a danger that quality may deteriorate and scrap may increase. If, therefore, tins are rejected by a customer the Pool and Line Bonus for the day on which they are returned will be reduced accordingly. Moreover, any such tendency to produce more at the cost of quality will be discouraged and in the event of the scrap on any order exceeding 2 per cent. the Line Bonus will be liable to be withdrawn for those days on which the scrap has exceeded 2 per cent. In the cases of Extrusion and R.S. Closures, the scrap allowances will be 10 per cent. and 5 per cent. respectively.

4. An employee must work for a full day to qualify for Line or Pool Bonus.

5. To qualify for Line Bonus an employee must work on an assembly line for a full day. If a line starts late or closes during the day, the workers who are transferred elsewhere will be eligible for Pool Bonus. If, however, the line has already earned a bonus the workers will qualify for the Line Bonus so earned. If, however, a line runs all day and no bonus is earned the workers on that line will not qualify for Pool Bonus. In the event of a line manufacturing different tins during the day and having different ratings, the bonus, if any, will be paid on the ratings of the type of tin that the line runs for the longer period. If men are transferred from one line to another the production of both lines will be taken and bonus paid on the ratings of the type of container that the line runs for the longer period.

6. Employees must realise that the Production Bonus Scheme is secondary to the general scheme of operating the factory. If policy dictates that a line must be stopped for the manufacture of samples or for any other reason and employees are thus prevented from earning bonus, they will have to realise that action is necessary for the success of the business. Stoppages will, of course, be avoided wherever possible to enable employees to earn the highest bonus available.

7. The Bonus Scheme is based on the present equipment and machinery installed and the existing factory layout. The Management, therefore, reserve the right to revise the targets and manning to the extent the improvements are made. Additions to or reduction in the existing plant layout will accordingly call for suitable amendments to the Scheme from time to time.

8. Scale of Pay.—Schedule "C" is attached showing the rates at which the bonuses will be payable for various grades of employees, depending on number of hours worked in a week.

There are three scales, viz., A, B and C and are payable in accordance with the grade in which they are placed irrespective of what job they do on a particular day:—

"A" scale is applicable to all unskilled employees.

"B" scale is applicable to all semi-skilled employees.

"C" scale is applicable to all skilled and highly skilled employees.

9. This Production Bonus Scheme is effective from.....

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDERS

No. 6932-I.R./IR/13L-24/58.—21st December 1959.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4551-I.R./IR/13L-24/58, dated the 3rd November 1958, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. W. Newman & Co., Ltd., 3 Old Court House Street, P.O. Box No. 76, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Newman's Employees' Union, 10/2 Malanga Lane, Calcutta. (Case No. VIII-C-275 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court, West Bengal.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sengupta, Advocate.

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by their order No. 4551-I.R./IR/13L-24/58, dated Calcutta, the 3rd November 1958, referred to the Second Labour Court, an industrial dispute between Messrs. W. Newman & Co., Ltd., and their workmen represented by Newman's Employees' Union, for adjudication.

The issues formulated in the order of reference are as follows:—

Issues

(1) Grade and scale of pay.

(2) Dearness Allowance.

(3) Gratuity.

The case of the Union, briefly stated, is as follows:—

In 1948 there was an industrial dispute between the Company and the Union over scales of pay and other matters and the dispute was referred to an Industrial Tribunal. The Tribunal by its award fixed certain scales of pay, rates of dearness allowance and rates of gratuity. The Company, however, refused to follow the terms of the award after one or two years. In the meantime there has been an increase in the cost of living index. The Union therefore appealed to the Company to raise the scales of pay and rates of dearness allowance, but to no avail. So the Union has raised the present dispute.

It has made the following demands:—

(A) Clerical staff:

"B" Grade:

75—4—99	— 7 — 148	— 10 — 188
6 Years.	7 Years.	4 Years.

(Explanation: This grade also includes Collecting Sarkars.)

"A" Grade:

160—10—220	12½—270
6 Years.	4 Years.

Steno Typist will start from "B" Grade with a starting salary not less than Rs. 113 (113).

Sub-staff:

32—1—40	— 2 — 60	— 3 — 75
8 years.	10 years.	5 years.

(B) Dearness Allowance: This should be given as announced by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce from time to time.

(C) Gratuity: Gratuity at the rate of one month's last salary drawn including dearness allowance should be paid to all members in general under the circumstances of death or retirement on account of superannuation or on medical grounds.

The Company contends that according to the law then in force, the award of the year 1948 was operative for one year only. So the Company was not under any legal liability to carry out the terms of the award after one year. Further, the Company could not implement the award after one year due to its poor financial condition. It further contends that it has given its employees dearness allowance at the rates mentioned in that award. It resists the demands of the Union as regards the grade and scales of pay and the rate of dearness allowance on the ground of its financial incapacity. As to gratuity, it holds that it has a scheme of contributory provident fund in operation and it will be impossible for it to grant the benefit of gratuity in addition to the benefit of contributory provident fund.

Decision

Issue No. 1: Grade and scale of pay.—The Company has contended that it is running at a loss, but the statement showing profit and loss

(Ext. A2) proved by it shows that since 1955 it has been making profits consistently and almost increasingly. The learned Advocate on behalf of the Company has drawn my attention to the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Burn & Co., Ltd., and their employees reported at pages 226 to 234, in L.L.J., 1957, Volume I. Therein their Lordships have held that a wage-scale once fixed should not be altered lightly, as this would encourage industrial disputes. But the present dispute has arisen due to an action on the part of the Company itself, viz., its non-implementation of the award of 1948, under the protection of the law then existing. Though this action on the part of the Company has been quite legal, it cannot be called fair. If the Company had accepted that award whole-heartedly, the employees also might have settled down to the recommendations mentioned in that award. So the Company has set the ball rolling in the present dispute. Hence it does not now lie with it to raise the plea of res judicata. So I have now to consider the present position. The present position is that the Company has been making profits and that there has been an increase in the cost of living index. It is now a settled law that the following factors should be taken into consideration in arriving at fair wages:—

(i) productivity of labour;

(ii) prevailing rate of wages in the same or similar occupations in the same or neighbouring localities;

(iii) the level of national income;

(iv) the place of industry in the economy of the country.

It has been held by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in Buckingham & Carnatic Company's case that of the four factors the most precise and the important factors are the capacity of the industry and the prevailing rate of wages. It is clear from the evidence that the Company has the capacity to pay wages higher than it has been paying now and that the prevailing rates of wages in some concerns in the locality are higher; but its capacity is not so high as to pay the scale of pay demanded by the Union. So I order that the Company shall pay its employees according to the following scales:

Clerical staff 'B'—Rs. 60—3—90.

Clerical staff 'A'—Rs. 75—5—135.

Steno-typist—Rs. 100—5—150.

Sub-staff—Rs. 30—1—45.

If the present salary of any employee does not fall in any stage of the above time scales, he shall be placed at the next higher stage under the new time scale.

Issue No. 2: Dearness allowance.—The Union has demanded dearness allowance at the rates announced by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce from time to time. But the evidence shows that the Company is not in a position to pay dearness allowance at those rates. The Company is not a member of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. Even some members of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, for example, Calcutta Tramways Company do not pay dearness allowance at the rates announced by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. The action of the Calcutta Tramways Company has been approved of by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in their decision reported at pages 450 to 454, in L.L.J. 1956, Volume II. The learned Advocate for the Union has argued that the employees should be given dearness allowance on the basis of the cost of living index. But it has been held by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the Buckingham & Carnatic Co. case that "dearness allowance to the extent of cent. per cent. neutralisation of the rise in the cost of living cannot be allowed. It would lead to a vicious circle and all fillip to the inflatory spiral. There is also no reason why the industrial workers should not make some sacrifice like other citizens". I have not been shown any ruling of any higher Court disagreeing with this sound principle laid down by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal. So the Union cannot claim payment of dearness allowance at par with the cost of living index. As, however, the Company has some capacity to pay dearness allowance at higher rates than at present, I order that the Company shall pay dearness allowance at the following rates:—

Basic pay up to Rs. 50—Rs. 30 .

From Rs. 51 to Rs. 100—Rs. 35.

From Rs. 101 to Rs. 150—Rs. 40.

Rupees 151 and above—Rs. 50.

Issue No. 3: Gratuity.—The Company has adduced evidence to the effect that it has introduced Contributory Provident Fund since 1948. The Union has not challenged this fact. It, however, contends that the employees should be given gratuity for the periods of service not covered by the Provident Fund Scheme. It appears from the evidence that the present Management took over the Company in 1947. Prior to that the Company used to be managed by some Europeans. It appears from Ext. A that the European Management paid gratuity to these employees for their services up to 31st March 1944. So the periods of service uncovered by Provident Fund Scheme in the case of some employees will be that between 1944 and 1948. The Company however contends that it has made fresh appointments after the present Management took charge of the Company. The evidence on this point is not clear. Nevertheless, as the period in question, i.e., 1944 to 1948 is a small one and only some employees are concerned in it, I order that the Company will be under no obligation to pay any gratuity to any of its employees. The scales of pay and the rates of dearness allowance ordered by me above shall take effect from 1st December 1959.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

Presiding Officer.

No. 6893-I.R./IR/11L-371/59.—18th December 1959.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2054-I.R./IR/11L-39/58, dated the 14th May 1959, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Guest Keen Williams Ltd., 97 Andul Road, Howrah, and their workmen represented by (1) Engineering Mazdur Sabha, 4 Nityadhan Mukherjee Road, Howrah, (2) Guest Keen Williams Staff Association, 6 Ramkumar Ganguly Lane, Howrah, and (3) Guest Keen Williams Mazdur Union, 164 Andul Road, Howrah, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order, being a matter specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal Shri Kapildeo Singh, a workman of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had discharged the said workman concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Industrial Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

AWARD

A dispute between Messrs. Guest, Keen, Williams Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen was referred to this Tribunal by Government for adjudication under Government order No. 2054-I.R./IR/11L-39/58, dated 14th May 1959.

The dispute concerned the quantum of bonus for the year 1957 payable in 1958.

During the pendency of the dispute the Company terminated the services of Shri Kapildeo Singh, one of its workmen who is the petitioner in this case, by letter, dated 10th June 1959 (Ext. A) on the ground that he had been absenting himself without leave since 2nd May 1959. This the Company was quite within its rights to do in view of paragraph K of section 8 of its Standing Orders.

The workman has filed the instant application on 15th September 1959 praying for reinstatement and other reliefs, but has not appeared on the date fixed for hearing of this case, i.e., on 5th December 1959 on which date the evidence on the side of the Company has been taken as a preliminary objection has been raised on its behalf that the instant application does not come within the purview of section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act and hence is not maintainable.

It is proved beyond doubt on behalf of the Company that the petitioner was not discharged or dismissed, nor any action was taken by the Company against him as contemplated under any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act, but his services were terminated in pursuance of the Standing Orders of the Company as he had absented himself without authority and the action was justified in view of the Standing Orders of the Company stated above. Evidently, the question of contravention by the Company of any of the provisions of section 33 of the Act does not arise at all and so the petitioner has no locus standi to make a complaint under section 33A of the Act.

As a result, it is held that the instant application under section 33A of the Act is not maintainable and is therefore rejected. This is the award of the Tribunal. The petitioner may pray for a reference under section 10, Industrial Disputes Act, if so advised.

Issues

(1) Dearness allowance.

(2) Whether the refusal by the manageme to allow Shri Raghuraj Singh and Sh Lakhindar Das to work is justified? what relief are they entitled?

AWARD

Issue No. 1—Dearness allowance: The Uni asserts that the Company does not pay any dearne allowance to any of its employees. The Uni claims that the Company should pay dearne allowance at a flat rate of Rs. 35 per month view of its sound economic position. The Compa says that though it does not pay dearne allowance specifically, the salaries paid by it to employees include dearness allowance. It conten that the salaries paid by it compare favourab with the totals of pay and dearness allowance pa by similar concerns to their employees. Th company submits that it has not the capacity pay any dearness allowance in addition to th salaries which it has been paying to its employe prevailing rate of wages in the same or similar occupations in the same or neighbouring localities; (ii) the capacity of the industry. It has been admitted by P.W. 2 Shri Ram Lakshman Mollah and P.W. 3 Shri Syed who have been examined on behalf of the Union that the workers of their category in similar concerns do not get higher emoluments than what they themselves get; nay, their emoluments are rather higher than those of the workmen of their category working in similar concerns. O.P.W. 1. Shri Ramnivas Bagaria, the Proprietor of the Company, says that the total value of the work done by the Company in a year is about 3 lakh rupees and that the Company makes a profit of 2½ per cent. to 3 per cent. on the total value of the work. The Union has not been able to show that any part of the statement is untrue. According to this statement the owner earns about Rs. 8,000 per year. This cannot be called a high profit and he should not be asked to part with any portion of it in order that his employees may get more wages. If the salaries paid by him to his employees be considered to consist of "pay" alone, such pay is definitely much higher than fair wages. Obviously, he did not mean to pay his employees so high a basic pay. So it must be held that the salaries paid by him include dearness allowance. As I have already observed, these salaries include fair dearness allowance. It is also in evidence that he pays bonus of one month's pay every year to his employees, contributed 1 anna on each rupee to the employees' provident fund and grants leave with pay for 15 days in each year to his employees. So I reject the claim of the Union for payment of any dearness allowance.

It has been held in many leading cases that th factors determining the wages should be (

Issue No. 2: Whether the refusal by the management to allow Shri Raghuraj Singh and Shri Lakhindar Das to work is justified? To what relief are they entitled?

The employees of the Company formed a Union in order to redress their grievances. The proprietor of the Company did not take this action of the employees in good grace. He began to abuse the employees and behave harshly with them. So by a letter, dated 17th April 1958, they brought the fact of abuse and ill treatment to the notice of the employer. This enraged him. As Shri Raghuraj Singh and Shri Lakhindar Das were amongst the signatories to that letter, the proprietor dismissed them illegally.

The Company contends that it dismissed the above two workmen for good reasons. Its case, in brief, is as follows:—

(a) Shri Raghuraj Singh who was a durwan of the Company left for home on 18th April 1938 without obtaining leave. On 25th April 1958 the Company sent to his village home a charge-sheet asking him to show cause why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for having left for home without leave and for being a signatory to the letter, dated 17th April 1958. On 3rd May 1958, Shri Raghuraj Singh sent a telegram from his village home to the Company informing that he could not reply as his wife was seriously ill. The Company replied by its letter, dated 15th May 1958, pointing out that his telegram was not convincing and asking him to submit his explanation to the charge-sheet, dated 25th April 1958. The Company waited for his reply till 19th May 1958. On that date the Company sent him a letter terminating his service.

(b) Shri Lakhindar Das who was a bearer in the Company was charge-sheeted on 25th April 1958 with the charges of lawful and insolent refusal to carry out the reasonable and lawful verbal order of the proprietor and of being a signatory to the letter, dated 17th April 1958. He was asked to submit an explanation to the charge-sheet, which he did on 28th April 1958. An enquiry was held on 3rd May 1958. Shri Lakhindar Das was given full opportunity to defend himself at that enquiry. As a result of the enquiry the Company found him guilty of the charges brought against him and dismissed him accordingly.

The Union has argued that no enquiry was held in respect of the charge-sheet against Shri Raghuraj Singh. This is true. But it is not understood how in the circumstances the Company could hold any enquiry. Shri Raghuraj Singh was asked to give an explanation; he did not care to reply. So the Company was justified in coming to the conclusion that he had no explanation to offer, and as such, that the charges levelled against him were admitted by him. So there can be no occasion for holding any enquiry.

As to Shri Lakhindar Das, it is clear from the evidence that a proper enquiry was held. The Union has raised the plea of victimisation, but there is nothing on evidence in support of that plea. I find no ground to interfere with the finding of the Company in respect of Shri Raghuraj Singh and Shri Lakhindar Das. So I hold that the refusal by the management to allow Shri Raghuraj Singh and Shri Lakhindar Das to work is justified. Hence they are not entitled to any relief.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Tyresoles (India) Calcutta, 5 Hide Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta-23, and their employees represented by Tyresoles Employees' Union, 47A Rash Behari Avenue, Calcutta. (Case No. VIII-53 of 1959.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. R. GHOSH, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Sunil Das, President, with Shri Sudhant Kumar Chanda, Secretary of the Union.

For the Company: Mr. J. E. Tembey, Manager of the Company.

By order No. 1016-I.R./IR/11L-68/59, dated the 16th March 1959, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Tyresoles (India) Calcutta, 5 Hide Road, Kidderpore, Calcutta-23, and their employees represented by Tyresoles Employees' Union, 47A Rash Behari Avenue, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the employees are entitled to extra bonus for the year 1956-57? If so, what should be the quantum?

This reference was received by this Tribunal on 25th March 1959. Notices were served upon the parties. The Union, namely, Tyresoles Employees' Union, filed its written statement of claim on 8th May 1959 and the Company, namely, Messrs. Tyresoles (India) Calcutta, filed its written statement on 12th June 1959. The date of hearing was fixed on 26th November 1959. On that date the hearing was taken up. No oral evidence was adduced by any of the parties. The annexures to the written statements filed by the Company and the Union were admitted by the respective parties. The balance-sheet for the Company filed on the date of hearing was marked Ext. A. The arguments were completed on that date and the parties were asked to file their respective computation charts on the basis of the Full Bench Formula. Union filed its chart on 28th November 1959 which was marked "X" for identification and the Company after taking some adjournments filed its chart on 9th December 1959 which was marked "Y" for identification. The award was reserved.

AWARD

The issue relates to extra bonus for the year 1956-57. It is a common case of both the parties that the Company Messrs. Tyresoles (India) Calcutta is a reputed company carrying on business for sufficiently long years and the employees of the said company demanded bonus for 1956-57 equivalent to six months' basic wages and that the Company has actually paid 3 months' basic wages as bonus to its employees for the year 1956-57. The employees continued their demand for additional bonus for 3 months more for the said year and there was a conciliation proceeding which ultimately resulted in the reference of the present dispute by the Government to this Tribunal.

The only issue which calls for adjudication by this tribunal is whether the employees of the Company concerned are entitled to extra bonus for the year 1956-57 and if so, what should be the quantum. As I have already stated, the parties have not gone into oral evidence. The annexures to the written statement of the parties have been admitted by the respective parties. It is further admitted on both sides that the Company has already paid bonus equivalent to 3 months' basic wages to its employees for the year 1956-57. The demand of the Union on behalf of the employees is for additional bonus equivalent to 3 months' basic wages for the year 1956-57. The Company's contention is that the three months 'bonus already paid to its employees was an ex-gratia payment and that bonus is no condition of service with the employees. The employees do not claim the additional bonus as a condition of service but rather as bonus depending on trading results of the Company for the relevant year, namely, 1956-57.

It is now well-settled that as labour and capital contribute to the earnings of an industrial concern, it is fair that labour should derive some benefit if there is a surplus after giving prior or necessary charges. The main purpose of granting bonus is to fill up the gap as far as practicable having an eye upon the financial capacity of the Company, between the actual wages earned by the employees and the living wage. So, in the present case the payment of bonus to the workmen should and must depend upon the available surplus or profits earned by the Company during the bonus year in question, namely, 1956-57, which should be treated as a self-sufficient unit according to the latest decision of Their Lordships of the Supreme Court in Associated Cement Company Ltd. vs. their workmen (1959 F.J.R., Vol. 16, page 262). In order to arrive at this available surplus the calculation of profits must have to be made on the basis of the Full Bench Formula as set forth by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Mill Owners' Association, Bombay, vs. Rashtriya Mill Mazdoor Sangha (1952 F.J.R., page 107). Both the parties were asked to file computations regarding available surplus for distribution as bonus and they have done so. The chart filed by the Union has been marked "X" for identification d the chart filed by the Company has been rked "Y" for identification. I have carefully ne through both these charts. Neither of them tirely conforms to the Full Bench Formula erred to above. So, I shall have to discuss both d to lay down my own computation in accordance th the Full Bench Formula as clarified and plained by the recent decision of the Hon'ble preme Court in the case of Associated Cement mpany Ltd. vs. their workmen as referred to ove and subsequent decisions.

According to the above decision of the Supreme ourt the working of the Full Bench Formula gins with the figure of gross profits taken from e profit and loss account which are arrived at ter payment of wages and dearness allowance to e employees and other items of expenditure. In e present case the balance-sheet (Ext. A) would ow that the net profits of the Company during e year 1956-57 was Rs. 1,19,446. This is cepted by both the parties and it has got to be ccepted as it has been held by the Hon'ble Judges f the Supreme Court that as a general rule the mount of gross profits thus ascertained is accepted thout submitting the statement of profit and loss count to a close scrutiny. To this item of net ofits the Union's chart ("X" for identification) lds the figures on the heads "Commission to lanaging Partner, Commission and Commission Manager", while in the Company's chart ("Y" identification) these amounts have not been dded back to inflate the amount of gross profits. ow, the gross profits have got to be ascertained ter deducting payment of wages and dearness llowance to the employees and other items of xpenditure. In my opinion, the figure shown gainst the heads "Commission to Managing artner, Commission and Commission to Manager" ust be treated as items of expenditure which hould be deducted in calculating the gross profits. herefore, these items must not be added back as laim by the Union.

So, I take the net profits as Rs. 1,19,446 as aken by the Company and as accepted by the nion on the basis of the profit and loss account. o this amount I add back the items as per my ollowing chart according to the Full Bench ormula :—

et profit as per profit and loss account ..	1,19,446
dd—Back Bonus paid to the employees during the year 1956-57 on account of previous year.	10,000
otional normal depreciation	12,003
rovision for income-tax .. . (The figures regarding depreciation and income-tax as per balance-sheet).	7,000
Gross profit ..	1,48,449

o, the gross profits is ascertained on the asis of the balance-sheet and profit and oss account of the Company upon application f the Full Bench Formula at Rs. 1,48,449. he first item to be deducted from the gross rofits thus ascertained according to the atest judicial decision of the Hon'ble Supreme ourt is the normal notional depreciation. In the resent case this amount as per profit and loss ccount comes up to Rs. 12,003. This figure is ccepted by both the parties. So, after deducting this amount from the ascertained gross profits the balance comes up to Rs. 1,36,446. The next item to be deducted is the taxation at the statutory rate which the Company must pay according to the provision of the Income-tax Act. Now the balance being Rs. 1,36,446, the tax to be paid by the Company on this amount at the rate of approximately 8 annas in the rupee would come up to nearabout Rs. 68,000. So, after deducting this amount from Rs. 1,36,446 the balance remains at Rs. 68,446. Next item to be deducted from this amount is the return on paid up capital. The paid up capital according to the Company's account is Rs. 1 lakh. The Company claims 6 per cent. dividend on this amount. On this point there is no dispute between the parties. According to the latest decisions the Company is entitled to this percentage as return on paid up capital. So, return on paid up capital of Rs. 1 lakh at the rate of 6 per cent. which is allowed will come up to Rs. 6,000. Deducting this amount from the balance of Rs. 68,446, we get the balance at Rs. 62,446. Next item to be deducted from this balance is a return on working capital. Working capital according to Company's account is Rs. 2,58,700. Company claims 4 per cent. dividend on this amount. The Union resists this claim and contends that 2 per cent. would be sufficient. It is true that no evidence has been adduced by the Company to show that these reserve funds were available and were actually used as working capital during the year 1956-57, i.e., the relevant year. But from the balance-sheet it appears that this amount was employed as working capital and, therefore, I allow 4 per cent. dividend on this working capital which works out to be Rs. 11,348. Deducting this amount from the balance of Rs. 62,446, we get the balance as Rs. 51,098. The next item to be deducted from this balance is rehabilitation charges. The Company has not shown any rehabilitation charges in its computation chart. It has been intimated to Court that the Company could not work out this figure for want of time. But on the balance-sheet the Union has worked out the figure to be Rs. 4,381. In the absence of any other proof to the contrary, I accept the amount worked out by the Union from the balance-sheet as rehabilitation charge and I deduct this amount of Rs. 4,381 from the balance of Rs. 51,098 and the balance is found at Rs. 46,717. From this amount I again deduct the three months' bonus which the Company has already paid to its workmen for the year 1956-57. This figure according to the Company's chart given in Annexure A to its written statement is Rs. 7,831. Deducting this amount from the balance of Rs. 46,717 the available surplus is found at Rs. 38,886 as against Rs. 43,375 as shown by the Company in its chart and as against Rs. 1,38,689 as shown by the Company's chart. It appears from the statement as per Company's chart, namely, Annexure A, to its written statement that 3 months' bonus to its workmen during 1957 amounted to only Rs. 7,831. According to the statement of the Union in its computation chart the basic wage of the employees for 3 months will not exceed Rs. 8,000. Therefore, in my opinion the available surplus which goes into the hands of the Company after giving prior charges out of the gross profits of the Company during the bonus year under claim, namely, 1956-57, would clearly justify payment of additional bonus to its workmen equivalent to 3 months' basic wages.

I hold accordingly that the employees are entitled to additional bonus equivalent to 3 months' basic pay on the trading results of the Company during the year 1956-57 and the Company is directed to pay to its workmen extra bonus equivalent to 3 months' basic wages of the employees to the employees for the year 1956-57 in addition to the bonus equivalent to 3 months' basic wages already paid by the Company to its workmen for the year 1956-57 and this should be paid within 2 months from the date of publication of this award.

For the sake of convenience I append my following chart for calculation of available surplus according to the Full Bench Formula as clarified and explained by the recent decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court:—

	Rs.
Net profit as per profit and loss account ..	1,19,446
Add—Back Bonus paid to the employees during the year 1956-57 on account of previous year.	10,000
Notional normal depreciation	12,003
Provision for income-tax (the figures regarding depreciation and income-tax as per balance-sheet).	7,000
Gross profits ..	1,48,449
Less—Notional normal depreciation	12,003
	1,36,446
Less—Income-tax deduction at annas 8 in the rupee approximately.	68,000
	68,446

	62,446
Return on working capital at 4 per cent. on Rs. 2,58,700.	11,348

Schedule

Whether the termination of services of Shri A Chandra Karmakar and Shri Balai Cha Roy was justified? To what relief are t entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified termination of services of Shri Atal Chandra Karmakar and Shri Balai Chand Roy previously employed in Messrs. M. B. Sarkar & Sons, 167C and 167/C/1 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake brevity.

The issue is a simple one. In the instant dispute the Court is concerned with two workmen, namely, Shri Atal Chandra Karmakar and Shri Balai Chand Roy. The Union alleges that Balai served this Company from 1343 B.S. to 1364 B.S. and was wrongfully discharged without any justification or enquiry on 3rd Ashar 1364 B.S. and the other workman Atal was in the same manner wrongfully discharged on 22nd Sraban 1364 B.S. Atal served this Company from 1361 B.S. to 1364 B.S. In the circumstances, the Union contends that the instant termination of service is unjustified and wrongul and that these two workmen are entitled to be reinstated together with other reliefs.

In this connection, I would briefly refer to the written statement of the Company which contends that this is an individual dispute, and so the reference is incompetent. As regards merits, the Company's case is that Balai rendered service up to 3rd Ashar 1364 B.S. and absented himself thereafter in an unauthorised manner and never turned up to resume his duties, nor did he apply for leave. As regards Atal, the Company denies to have discharged or dismissed this employee. The Company, however, resists the prayer for instatement and other reliefs in respect of both the workmen.

Decision

First of all, I take up the preliminary point whether it is an individual dispute or an industrial dispute. The Company in support of its contention has produced Ext. A, dated 29th August 1959, purporting to have been signed by as many as 103 workmen wherein it is stated that none of the signatories to this Ext. A were ever members of this Association, nor are they now, and that they have absolutely no grievance against the Company. As against this, the Union has produced a letter, dated 2nd September 1959 (Ext. 2), addressed to the General Secretary to the Association representing the workmen in this case stating that they are members of this Association wherein it is also alleged that on behalf of the proprietors of the Company their signatures had been obtained against their will in an application stating that they are not members of this Association. This Ext. 2 bears the signatures of as many as 73 workmen. The evidence in this case is that their are 103/104 workmen in the workshop and 5/6 employees in the shop. Out of the workmen employed at the workshop 73 have signed Ext. 2 stating that they are members of this Association. So, a substantial majority of the workmen of the workshop are members of this Association. I am convinced, as stated in Ext. 2, that signatures on Ext. A were not given out of free will by the said signatories. So, Ext. A does not represent the correct state of things, and the Company obviously dominated the will of their employees in obtaining their signatures on Ext. A. Ext. A has, therefore, got no validity in law. Thus the instant dispute having been espoused by a substantial majority of the workmen at the workshop must be held to be an industrial dispute, and thus the contention of the Company that it is an individual dispute is negatived.

Next, I come to the point referred to this Court for adjudication, namely, whether the termination of service of the two workmen concerned is justified or not. The workmen concerned examined themselves in Court to support their own cases, and their evidence is that Balai's employment was terminated as he was an active member of the Union, and the Company's allegation that he fell ill and voluntarily gave up the job has been denied by the workman himself. For the Company one Satish Chandra Bose was examined and he denied that the Company discharged both the workmen, and when he was asked whether the Management was agreeable to reinstate them as they were not discharged, his answer was that he could not say anything without consulting the Management. The question is very simple. The workmen say that their services were terminated, and the Company says that their services were not terminated. If so, there remains no bar to these two workmen being reinstated. Nothing has been said on behalf of the Company which may stand as a bar to their prayer for reinstatement. No misconduct of any nature has been alleged against them. In the circumstances, the Court would not be justified in refusing the prayer of reinstatement. As regards compensation for the period of their forced unemployment I think 3 months' wages for each would be adequate compensation, and I do not think it fit to award them more because that may give rise to trouble after their reinstatement in the Company. The Company should not certainly grudge to pay them 3 months' wages each in view of their period of forced idleness which exceeds 2 years in these hard days.

The Company, it is recommended, would clear up the arrear dues, if any, to these two workmen on their reinstatement. As regards provident fund money, that would be payable at the time of their retirement in normal course of things, and so nothing is awarded now by way of provident fund money. The question of retrenchment benefit does not arise since the relief of reinstatement has been granted.

In fine, the Company is directed to reinstate the two workmen concerned—Shri Atal Chandra Karmakar and Shri Balai Chand Roy within a month of the publication of this award treating their continuity of service as unbroken, and to pay them their 3 months' wages as compensation for the period of their forced idleness.

This is my award.

AWARD

On 5th December 1959, parties have filed a joint petition of compromise together with Annexures A and B and has prayed for an award in terms thereof.

This is the award of the Tribunal.

The representative of the Bus Owners and the office bearers of the Karmachari Samity have set a very good example in amicably settling the dispute which concerned a large number both of employers and employees and involved a very important districtwise industry, namely, vehicular traffic for passengers in the district of Burdwan. NOTIFICATION

No. 36-I.—18th December 1959.—The following draft of rules, schedule of rates and appendices which, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 78 and 99 of the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876 (Bengal Act III of 1876), the Governor proposes to make for the supply of water from the Jore and its tributaries between Nanda and Ranga of the projected irrigation well on the Jore between Nanda and Ranga in the district of Bankura, are hereby published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th February 1960. Any objection or suggestion with respect thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date will be considered:—

DRAFT RULES, RATES AND APPENDICES

Leases for a term of years

1. The country served by the canals shall be mapped out into blocks of convenient size in accordance with the features of the ground, natural or artificial. So far as may be practicable, the blocks shall be separated by drainage lines. This shall be done by the Subdivisional Canal Officer under the guidance and control of the Divisional Canal Officer.

2. Each block determined as above shall be numbered and recorded with its gross and irrigable areas in registers to be maintained by the Subdivisional Canal Officer. The blocks shall also be marked on maps to be maintained by the same officer.

3. Leases for not more than six years may be granted for the whole irrigable area of a block or for definite parts of a block under the following conditions:—

I. Ordinarily the whole irrigable area of any village so far as situated within the block must be included in the lease. If the lands of a village within the block are divisible into two or more distinct parts which can be irrigated independently a separate lease may be granted for each part.

II. All leases within one block shall be so granted that they may expire on the same date.

III. No lease shall be granted when the supply of water must of necessity be delivered across an unleased area, unless a channel exists, which, in the opinion of the Subdivisional Canal Officer, will deliver water without waste across the unleased area.

4. The Superintending Engineer shall fix from time to time the gross area for which and the limits of the canal within which, leases for a term of years may be granted.

5. Maps of all villages in which lands have been brought under lease for a term of years, or in which there is any possibility of such leases being taken, shall be kept in the Subdivisional Canal Office. These maps to be at scale 32"=1 mile when such are available and elsewhere at scale 16"=1 mile.

6. The preliminary application for a lease for a term of years, either new or renewal, may be of an informal nature, but it must be in writing. It may be presented and shall be received either at the Subdivisional or Sectional Canal Office; in the latter case the Sectional Officer shall forward it immediately to the Subdivisional Canal Officer. The Subdivisional Canal Officer as soon as he has, by personal enquiry or by an enquiry made by the Sectional Officer, satisfied himself that the land in question constitutes a definite block or a definite part of a block, and that it can be irrigated, shall at once inform the Divisional Canal Officer giving such particulars as that officer may direct, and shall ask his formal approval to the lease being proceeded with. On receipt of such approval the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall proceed to make the detailed assessment. The lands to be brought under lease shall be indicated on a copy of the map referred to in rule 5.

7. The Subdivisional Canal Officer on receipt of the application shall depute an amin to prepare the khasra or detailed assessment paper. This shall be done on the ground with the aid of the revenue survey map and khasra. Should the survey map and khasra not be available, the amin shall make a sketch map, and shall measure the areas of the holdings with a chain or measuring-rod.

8. When the amin has completed the khasra he shall forward it to the Subdivisional Canal Officer who shall forward it to the Divisional Canal Officer for approval.

9. As soon as the khasra has been approved by the Divisional Canal Officer, he shall return it to the Subdivisional Canal Officer endorsed with his signature in token of approval.

The Subdivisional Canal Officer shall then prepare a khatian or abstract of the khasra, and shall have the form of application given as Appendix I to these rules, filled up and signed or marked by each of the applicants in the presence of two witnesses.

When the application has been completely signed, the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall send it to the Divisional Canal Officer, by whom the permit or formal approval of the lease shall be signed and issued in the form given in Appendix III to these rules. The permit shall be made over to the representative of the cultivators by the Subdivisional Canal Officer through his Sectional Officer. The Divisional Canal Officer shall return the application to the Subdivisional Canal Officer with a copy of the permit for record.

10. Should it happen that the cultivators of the block proposed for lease are not unanimous, and that some of them decline to sign the application, the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall report the matter to the Divisional Canal Officer and the Subdivisional Canal Officer shall hold a local enquiry, recording the statements of the persons who decline to sign and recording his personal opinion on the reasons given. He shall then send a report to the Divisional Canal Officer, who shall decide whether the lease may be accepted excluding the fields in the occupation of the persons who decline to sign, or whether the lease shall be declined. The Divisional Canal Officer may grant a lease when not less than 95 per cent. of the net irrigable area of the block has been signed for. In particular cases should it be desirable o grant a lease even though an area larger than 5 per cent. of the block as not been signed for, this may be done on the written order of the uperintending Engineer. The reasons for granting the lease shall be ully recorded.
